darken. While sad eyes watch for feet that never

One of us two must some time face existence Alone with memories that but sharpen pain, And these sweet days shall shine back in the Like dreams of summer dawns in nights of

One of us two, with tortured heart half

Shall read long-treasured letters thro' salt Shall kiss with anguished lips each cherished

One of us two shall find all light, all beauty, All joy on earth, a tale for ever done ; Shall know, henceforth that life means only means duty—
O God! O God! have pity on that one!

Literature. RETRIBUTION.

CHAPTER V.

A STRUGGLE FOR LIFE. The earl and countess left Leamington Towers at two for London, where after having committed the secret of the rob. bery of the night before to an eminent in your presence, and I had arranged to more. detective, his lordship, with his charge, go away from your sight forever." started for the Continent.

Instead of crossing the channel directly from Pover to Calais, Lord Dudley, for some reason best known to himself, sailed for Havre: further than that he did not acquaint his wife with his plans, but too well she knew them already, and had no His lordship had procured the services of a middle-aged woman to attend his wife as nurse. She was a quiet, unassuming personage apparently, but Lady Durward felt an unaccountable dislike to her, and required no more of her attention than was absolutely necessary.

She retained the same apathetic manner which had characterized her so long, but not a movement, however trivial, escaped her now watchful, restless eyes.

Their passage promised to be a hard one, and it seemed as if the gale of the previous night had followed them. The day had been rather a boisterous one, but his lordship kept hoping the wind would go down, and the weather clear before they sailed. It was a vain hope, however. for as the night settled down, the heavens became thickly overcast, the wind arose as if endowed with prophetic vision: to a perfect tempest, and the waves rolled mountains high.

For the first few hours the captain and crew betrayed no anxiety, for the vessel was a staunch one, and had weathered many a storm of equal violence. But an impenetrable darkness hung over the sea greater distinction and honor, and try to the waves rose higher and fiercer, sweeping ruthlessly over and coming in contact with her bows, like masses of molten lead which made her tremble from stem to stern, as if suddenly arrested by a wall of iron; when, subsiding for a moment as gathering new force, they would surge onward with greater impetus, lifting her to a dizzy height and then plunging her down, down into the unfathomable depths beneath. It became evident at last that all control of the vessel was lost, and that she was being tossed about at the mercy of the heaving sea. The captain could no longer conceal his fear and dismay, while despair was written upon the faces of the crew, although they battled nobly to save the steamer and her precious freight from a watery grave. All at once there came a mighty, fear ful crash, then a moment of horrible silence, followed by a scene of confusion and terror never to be forgotten-shrieks, groans, and cries for help, calls for life preservers, and loud and authorative orders from the captain, mingled with the ocean's wild roar.

The ship had been driven out of her course, and had struck upon the rocks! The early dawn found them not so very far from land, but firmly wedged upon the rocks, and the vessel lying over upon her beam ends, while to add to the misery of all, it was now announced that a leak had been discovered. Orders was given to man the life-boats and the Earl of Durward sought his wife, who had closely kept her state-room ever since the hour of starting.

He told her of the disaster, while inflat ing a life preserver for her and one for himself.

Not a tremor of fear was visible on her fair face as she comprehended their situa-"How long will they be able to keep the ship affoat?" she asked, with a calmness and indifference which surprised him. "Not above three hours, the captain told me, as I came down. The water is steadily gaining on the men."

Will they be able to use the life boats ! "They will try; but in such a sea as this it is doubtful whether they ever reach the land," his lordship replied, very pale, a terrible dread creeping over him. "Are you not afraid, Madeline?" he asked, regarding her passionless face with

"Afraid-of what?" and her clear eyes met his with a look that startled him.

"Why, afraid of death, of course." "Death is preferable to some things," was the cold reply. "Indeed! such as what?" and a bitter sneer wreathed his lips, even in his trembl- all as I have directed."

ing haste to fasten his preserver. "Such as a miserable existence dragged out in a 'Maison de Sante,' " she said, turning her glittering eye full upon her the filling of the life-boats. The wind

Had a thunderbolt struck him, he could not have started more violently. An oath leaped to his lips, and the blood shore rushed in a guilty torrent to the roots of

"I mean that I know that a certain Dr.

Rodney Villers, so called, who visited me lately, ostensibly to consult with good old Dr. Crawford, is proprietor of an insane asked asylum in Paris." "And what of that, Madeline?" the earl plied. asked, breathing more freely again at this

"We all feared," he went on, "that you were losing or had lost your mind, and your own physician desiring a consulta-

"And this was their prescription," said bidding him to be careful of his charge. Lady Durward, rising, and thrusting something into her husband's hand.

received a deadly wound as he saw it.

gasped.

time in many weeks.

to you," she replied, not heeding his ques ropes were cut which made it fast to the tion, "did I not believe we were now both on the brink of death. I mistrusted both thing of life far from its sheltering side. these strange men the moment they entered my chamber. I mistrusted, too, your hand in the matter, and was confirm. And morns will fade, noons pale and shadows ed in my suspicions when you bade me their frail bark like a cockle-shell upon prepare for this journey."

ed his lordship, angrily.

forbidden to accompany me, and instead force toward them. a strange nurse forced upon me," she said, They saw it, and strove with despairing mature judgment, yet there are times "That is just the way with you, Caro," That speaks of these love-crowned, delici- bribed an unprincipled man to receive freight was hurled into the black, angry drive him an inch. me into his loathsome den, and what waters. further you had planned to do, I can only guess it." Dudley asked, with an appearance of injured innocence. "The law sometimes frees men from their vow to a crazy wife, you know; you "Talking in my sleep!" he repeated, wrenched, but otherwise unharmed.

a'most dazed by her words. "Yes," she said, speaking very rapidly, "I have not been quite so inanimate as I have appeared during the past few weeks.

"And you dared to think of bringing that disgrace upon me-to desert me, and leave me to be the butt of a gossiping community?" he cried, in a rage. not arrived at any definite way of carry. from his sight. The winds howled need to ask whither their journey tended. scheme was revealed to me by that card and your mutterings last night."

"Enough!" the wrathful earl hissed seeing that she knew all. "I have heard all I wish of this mad gibberish; per chance you will have your wish for death now, and I shall be relieved from the necessity of ministering to a mind dis eased. But if we have any desire to be saved from a watery grave, I think it would be advisable to try for a chance in the life boat," he concluded, evidently thinking more of his own safety at that moment than of anything else.

But Lady Durward planted herself in his path with her back to the door. Two small spots burned with crimson fire upon her sunken cheeks, her eyes shone with a light which seemed to pierce him through, and with one small hand raised to enforce his attention, she said

"I do not expect to be saved. I think am now looking my last upon your face in this world; but I warn you, that if you should escape, your future will not be a pleasant one; you may rise to even London, think you have triumphed over every obstacle by the mighty power of your will, but you will never be free from the stings of a guilty conscience. In the midst of your greatest glory, the ghost of a blighted life will haunt you like an avenging angel, and mark my words, when you have reached the topmost round of distinction, there will come a day when you will be hurled from that pinnacle to the very depths of degradation. "One thing more," she added, as h made an impatient movement to be gone. When you go back to Leamington Tow ers-if you should escape the danger nov threatening you, take no further action regarding the robbery committed there last night. I opened your safe and took the money within."

"Yes: I had no intention of becoming an inmate of a Maison de Sante, and know ing that I should need money in the fu ture, I had no hesitation about appropriating what I found there for my comfort. I tell you this that no innocent person may be made to suffer for what I have done. I found at the same time that card which you have, and heard you tell in your sleep what my doom was to be." "Ah! then it was you who uttered that unearthly cry?" said her husband, with a igh of relief. The mystery had troubled him exceed ingly, but it was now explained. He was glad to know that no greater danger had menaced him. "Yes; it was wrung from me upon dis covering the fate to which you intended consigning me. Now, Dudley Durward, farewell! I go to my graye without a regret, for there I hope to find rest and peace, after my ruined and blighted life; and may God grant you mercy when you

She turned to open the door of the state-room, then facing him again, she also come to die!"

"Would you like the money I took from the safe last night?" Her words all seemed to imply that she thought he would be saved. "Where is it?" "Sewed into a belt around my waist."

"No, no; there will not be time."

Again she turned from him and went out, leaving him alone arranging his lifepreserver. In his anxiety to save himself, he had forgotten hers entirely.

Outside, she seemed undecided what to do. Her head was bent in thought, and a spasm of pain convulsed her features. "No," she said, after a moment; "! will not tell him more; he is not worthy And whether he lives or dies, all will be well in the future. Bessie will attend to

She sought the deck with a tread that was firm and unfaltering.

The captain was giving orders regarding was subsiding, but the sea was still rolling suddenly be hurled into the depths of fearfully, and it was somewhat doubtful degradation. whether the boats would ever reach the Madeline approached the captain and liament when he is swaying multitudes by your logic. But you did not tell us the stood quietly by his side, watching the "What do you mean?" he demanded, passengers as one after another was lowered into the boats.

He glanced into her white face with a look of compassion.

"Where is your husband, madam?" he

"He will be here presently," she re-"You have no life-preserver on," he

"No," she said, indifferently.

He immediately unclasped his own. She put out her hands to stop him, but tion, I sent for two noted men, conversent with gentle force he buckled it about her, youd his years, a boy of surprising mental is eighteen years old; and I tell you sh with diseases of the brain, to examine your and then guided her to the side of the endowments, and his fond father hugs to is like a young princess—tall and fair, stricken passengers as calmly as if she the breakfast-table, is an orphas, and the don," returned young Malcolm, bowing It was the card which she had found in were about to take a pleasure-sale. There son of a distant relative of Lord Dudley's. with mock humility. the safe the night before, and which she was not a shadow of a fear upon her face; He is of Scotch descent, and as noble a "Pshaw, Ralph!" interrupted Carohad just taken from the folds of her dress. and as she looked out over the angry, specimen of manhood as one would care line, impatiently. "I think your wings Lord Dudley staggered back as if he had surging waters, there was a tranquil gleam to see. in her eyes, as if her sight had pierced the His father, when dying, some ten years talk. I am sure there are plenty of girls "Where-where did you get it?" he vail which divided the mortal from the previous, had committed him to the guar in the world as handsome as Nina Leiimmortal, and had caught a vision of the dianship of Lord Dudley, who was to act cester."

The color flushed her face for the first peace and rest beyond. She was scarcely in that capacity until his ward should Miss Caroline Durward was not pleased seated when Lord Dudley sprang into the reach the age of twenty-five. "I should not have made this revelation | boat, and, at the order of the captain, the ill fated vessel, and it bounded like a

Then began the struggle for life. Bravely and nobly did those strong men battle with the fierce waves, which tossed their heavy bosom. More than half the "This journey was arranged, madam, at distance to the shore was accomslished; a your own doctor's suggestion," interrupt- few more vigorous strokes and they would his honors and grace his coronet all be safe. But, as if the sea were hun-with biting scorn. "It was not enough energy to avoid it, but it swept restlessly for you to crush my spirit and break my over them. Shrieks and cries mingled heart, but you must plan to kill me by for one moment with the roar of the eleconfining me in a lunatic asylum. You ments, as the boat capsized, and its human mighty billow, as it came rolling toward "Madeline, you are certainly mad, and them, with a stern, determined brow and a fit subject for an insane asylum. Why compressed lips, and had planed his course as she passed her plate to be helped, line, haughtily. should I plan to do this thing?" Lord of action. He grasped the side of the boat firmly with both hands, and when it went over he went with it.

pleasant picture to look upon.

bright face upturned to his.

about my new teacher and school."

plied Miss Caroline, enthusiastically.

"Really, Caro, I think doubtful com-

Lady Durward bestowed a fond smile teaching for a long time, and with great

"Why then did she make a change?"

with her health. She presented the best new or foreign, so it is only until quite

"That was a new departure surely,"

"The result has been more than satiscountess; "for Amabel has improved quite popular, and has received more ap plications than she has accommodations

the least when I applied for Caro."

Lord Dudley smiled complacently at this reply, and attributed the circumstance to his superior reputation and in-

"Well, well my boy," said his father, while ago. Young men who have aspir-

"Caro does very well, but she can't

"How do you happen to be so well informed? Pray, did you accompany your mother and sister into these wonderful regions of classical lore?" asked

"I did, sir, and wonderful they are, too. Madam's rooms are perfectly elegant, and there is an air about them which even we do not have here," the boy said, glancing critically around the "Really, my son," his father responded, again laughing heartily, "I fear the has thrown a glamour over your vision, and we shall have to prohibit all future visiting at this enchanting palace, or you will be getting your amorous wings siren ?" asked Kenneth Malcolm, who had not spoken before, yet had been an

"You may all laugh as much as you choose," exclaimed Ralph, proudly, yet with heightened color, "but I shall not

"Bravo, my boy! that is right—stick

"Nina, madam called her-Nina Lei

"It is, certainly; but how old may this pretty little girl be ?" queried the young man, a sparkle of mischief in hi

" Pretty little girl, indeed !" repeated

" May I inquire the name of this fair singed before you are aware of it."

amused and interested listener.

concede my point.

elegantly furnished apartment.

the earl, quizzingly.

ing such speeches in their presence.

"How did you succeed in entering

"I believe the climate did not agree ed Kenneth.

He never relaxed his hold for an instant, and though it nearly wrenched the life keel upward, he came up, too, bruised and

His first impulse was to look around to see what had become of his wife. Many were struggling with the waves, and some succeeded in laying hold of the boat, When I found that I could not die, I made | while others, after a few efforts, sank into a miracle?" up my mind that I could not live longer their watery grave, and were seen no

> Just beyond his reach, on his right, Lord Dudley saw a white face and a gray dress floating on the waters.

For one moment he gazed upon it, its calm, pale beauty stamping itself indeli-"Yes, I had planned just that, but had bly upon his brain, the next it was borne ing it into effect, until your diabolical mournful requiem, the waves roared a was his mother's champion upon all oc- low mingling indiscriminately, do you? mocking dirge, and then all is blank.

> The captain of the ill fated steamer, and portion of his crew and a dozen passen. replied; gers, were saved to tell the sad story of the wreck. The Earl of Durward was among the

All others were reported lost, and but very few bodies were ever recovered. All that was found of the luckless Lady of Durward was the captain's life-preserver, to which a portion of her dress was attached, having been caught in the buckle when it was strapped upon her.

Her bereaved (?) husband returned im. what strange that we never happened to if they loved each other, would mediately to Leamington Towers, where he attended to his duties and mourned his loss with the utmost circumspection for a year. At the end of which time he deemed it his duty to change his condition in life, and accordingly he led to the hymeneal altar the brilliant Miss Ida Trevors, a beauty and reputed heiress, niece and ward of the Right Honorable Augustus Trevors of Ashton Park, near to our story.

CHAPTER VI.

the nobility. Lady Ascott first heard ing, and glancing slyly at Ralph. MADAM LEICESTER. of her as being very superior in her man-Park Corner, London, (the Belgravia so ciency in several languages; and being agree dear to all lovers of fashionable life,) a unable to procure a suitable governess family of five are gathered around a lux. for Amabel, she instituted a new departure, and resolved to try Madam Leicesuriously spread breakfast table.

They comprise the master and mistress ter's school. of the establishment, and three young remarked the earl.

The former is a man of apparently about ifty, an exceedingly well preserved personage, with only a few sprinkling of silver among his raven locks. He is of a somewhat pompous presence, and, but for the habitual expression of discontent upon for. his handsome face, one would naturally suppose that he was upon the best of Caro, if that is the case?" her husband erms with the world and all it contained. asked, in surprise. Opposite him sits his wife, a very beautiful woman, with haughty mien and flash. Lady Ascott's influence. I can account ng eye, and a calm self possession and for it in no other way, since she refused dignity which tell that she is wholly capa. to receive the Hon. William Capron's daughters, while she did not demur in ble of attending to her own interest with. out the interferance of any one. It is evident, too, from his manner of addressing her, and deferring to her opinions, that her husband stands somewhat in awe of the self-sustained partner of his joys.

At the right of the father sits a maiden daughter that ever the sun shone on," liteness. Add to these Dr. Pierce's of about seventeen summers, and a lad of said Ralph, who had a keen appreciation "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" and you sixteen; while opposite them there is a of beauty, and had waited anxiously for will get well through the world without tall, distinguished looking young man of a pause to make this statement. His much trouble. The Pellets prevent speech was greeted by a burst of laughabout twenty-three.

Could the reader enter this sumptuous ter from all his hearers. dining-room, he would recognize but one of the party gathered there. The master of the house is none other than our old acquaintance, Lord Dudley ing sisters should be careful about mak-Durward of Leamington Towers.

Eighteen years have passed since his marriage with the brilliant Miss Trevorshold a candle to madam's daughter," reyears which had proved to him that his turned Ralph, coloring vividly, but own was not the only resolute will in the stoutly defending his cause. Frankness world; for his handsome wife, though at all events, was one of his virtues. many years younger than himself, had soon established the fact, beyond a doubt, that she was mistress of his home, if he was master, and that her rights were to be regarded as coequal with his. In less than a year after their union daughter had been born to them.

Another twelve months, to his lordship's great delight, had given him a son and heir; and as year by year went by, multiplying wealth and worldly honors, the Earl of Durward had come to regard himself as of no small consquence in the light from the maiden's bright presence

Yet scarcely a day passed that some little circumstance did not bring to his mind the vision of a white upturned face, as it floated away on a wild and turbid sea and then was buried from his sight-of a pair of large, mournful blue eyes, a trem bling, uplifted hand, and a solemn voice, warning him that when he should reach the very pinnacle of his glory, he would

In the midst of his business cares, in his hours of pleasure and excitement, in Parto your text and don't let any one beat the power of his eloquence, and in his name of madam's daughter." returned dreams by night, this vision would rise to the earl, delighted with his boy's spirit haunt him, and turn him faint and sick and independence. for a moment with its horrible memory. He is proud of his children; they are cester. Is it not pretty?" Ralph asked, his idols, and he exults in them, for turning to Kenneth through them he expects to see his own greatness reproduced and magnified. His daughter is budding into beautiful and graceful womanhood. She is bright and talented, and bids fair to reign a belle Ralph contemptuously. "Really sir, in the fashionable world, of which she is think she is capable of annihilating you already growing very fond.

His son is capable and intelligent be. presence. The young lady, Caro says vessel and put her into the arms of a sailor, his heart the purpose of making him a and stately as the Empress Eugenie her statesman who shall yet sway the nation. | self, over whom I heard you go into rap-She took her seat among the terror- Kenneth Malcolm, the fifth person at must be already singed by the way you tures the other day.'

to hear the charms of another so en-By that provision of the will he was thusiastically rehearsed, particularly in not to control his estate until he reached the presence of Kenneth Malcolm. that age, though at twenty-one he was She was well aware of her parents' to have an income of four thousand views regarding her future destiny, and since the young nobleman was her ideal Lord Dudley professes to be very fond of all manly excellence, she was nothing of his promising ward, who is heir to averse to helping them carry out their vast possessions, and no less than three plans.

titles-baron, viscount, and earl-and He had always been a favorite with in his secret heart he has already decreed her, for he was invariably kind and that his charming daughter shall share obliging to her, and during the past two or three years her regard had deepened Young Kenneth looks what his name into something stronger than mere liking; "Yes, and doubtless at his suggestion, gry for its prey, and lashed to fury lest it indicates—a leader and commander. He and she had resolved to make herself too, my own maid-the dear girl who has should be snatched from its greedy jaws, is a man of decided opinions and original worthy to be his wife, and to fill the attended me faithfully so many years - is a huge wave came rolling with mighty ideas, and though he yields all due defer- enviable position to which he would ence to his guardian's views and more raise the woman of his choice.

when steel and flint strike fire, and the her brother responded to her impatient young man betrays that he will not much remark, "you are always jealous of any longer submit to leading-strings. A gen- one who is prettier than you; but I mean tle hand could guide him with a thread that Kenneth shall yet see 'this pretty a spear of strongest metal would not little girl,' and then judge for himself whether what I have said is true or not' The circle gathered around the break-

"I am willing to grant that she is The Earl of Durward had watched that fast table is bright and animated, and a fine-looking, but what interest do you suppose Kenneth can possibly have in a "Papa," said his lordship's daughter, girl in her position?" demanded Caro-"vou have not yet asked me one word "You forget, sister mine, that he is very democratic in his views. Our bold "Well, Caro, how is it? Do you bid Scott here believes that 'the man makes fair to come forth polished to the last the position and not position the man," degree of perfection from the tuition of Ralph retorted, triumphantly. were talking about it in your sleep last out of him, yet when it rose to the surface, Dudley asked, smiling fondly into the his position, and a bad one dishonors it the wonderful Madam Leicester?" Lord but I think that even Kenneth has a

> "If I can copy the madam herself, I due respect for rank and place in the shall indeed become simply perfect," re- world," observed Lord Dudley, with a searching look into the young man's face. "Indeed! and who may this astonish-"I believe in true worth wherever it ing paragon be who is to accomplish such is found. Rank and position are well enough in my estimation, provided they "Miracle! Really, papa, that is not | do not serve to set people up above others very complimentary to my native tal- who perhaps are just as worthy in every ent," the young girl said, with a pout. way except name and title, Kenneth re-"But I assure you that Madam Leices- plied, with an independence which showter is the loveliest lady living, isn't she, ed did not fear to express his sentiments no matter who opposed

> > Lord Dudley frowned. This was one of a few disputed points

pliments must be in order this morning, especially when my lady mother is pre- between them. sent," interposed her brother Ralph, who "But you do not believe in high and he persisted.

"I believe that a tradesman, if he is upon him for his boyish gallantry, as she your equal and mine in power of intel-replied; '86 Summer Arrangement '86 lect and culture, should be permitted to "Madam Leicester, I must confess, mingle in the same society. The same She is a woman of queenly presence and the young man returned reverently. "Would you have them intermarry?"

great beauty. Her manner is exceedingly polished, and her language the demanded the earl aghast. choicest. From her appearance, I should "Supposing Ralph here should live to judge that she is in the habit of mingl- reach manhood, and should meet a young ng with the very elite of society. Yet lady, the daughter of a tradesman, who am told that she is never seen in pub- had enjoyed every advantage which you Express for Sussex...... 4.35 p. m had been able to confer upon him; sup-"Really, you make her out to be quite pose she was as accomplished and refined a superior person. And is it not some- as you expect your own daughter to be, hear of her before?" asked the earl, be- think it right to destroy the happiness DAY and FRIDAY, a Sleeping Car will be attach of two lives simply because she did not

"I don't know," Lady Durward re- happen to be born under a paltry title?"

plied, thoughtfully. "It does, and yet Kenneth Malcolm asked, with someit does not. She came from Rouen thing like scorn ringing through his clear Express from Sussex,...... 8.30 a. m about six years ago, where she has been | tones. "No son of mine could do such thing," the proud man answered, sternly, "Nay but supposing he did?" persist-

of references, and advertised a very se- longer?" his lordship said, bringing his And thus, dear reader, ends the preface | lect school; but you know our English | hand down heavily upon the table to enproclivities of distrusting everything force his words. "Well, forewarned, they say, is forerecently that she has been patronized by armed," the young man returned, laugh-

He had no desire to pursue the object In a handsome house not far from Hyde ner of teaching, and also of her profi- further, for he knew they could never "I trust that not only my son but my ward will pay due deference to the properties of life, when you come to make your choice of a wife," Lord Dudley said, with a searching glance.

"I trust we shall both choose worthily -and happily," the young man answerfactory to Lady Ascott," continued the ed, gravely. As he replied, some magnetic inwonderfully, while madam has become fluence seemed to draw his glance to

She was gazing earnestly at him, eagerly drinking in every word he utter-

As she met his eyes her own drooped, and a conscious blush overspread her "I suppose it must have been through face as she turned away in confusion. Lady Durward, noticing it, smiled meaningly at her husband, and gave the signal for leaving the table.

(To be continued.) A Peck of Peas (P's).

Here are a Peck of Peas, sweet Peas, if you will. Perseverance, Patience, "And oh, papa, she has the loveliest Promptness, Proficiency, Push and Poconstipation and surplus of bile which lead to many different complaints. Enc'osed in glass, always fresh, entirely ' it seems to me I heard some one find- vegetable, prompt, and pecfectly harming fault about doubtful compliments a less. Any druggist.

There is Nothing Like It. There is no one remedy offered to suffering humanity whose use is so universally and frequently required as Hagyard's Yellow Oil, for rheumatism, neuralgia, colds, sore throat, deafness, croup, lumbago, and aches, pains, lameness and soreness of all kinds, when internally and externally used.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity trength and wholesomeness. More economi-cal than the ordinary kinds, and eannot be sold n competition with the multitude of low test short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. 106 Wall street, New York.

Thoroughly cleanse the blood, which is the fountain of health, by using Dr. Pierce's Gold-if you should put that question in her en Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution will be established. Golden Medical Discovery cures all humors, from the common pimple, blotch, or eruption, to the worst Scrofula, or blood-poison. Especially has it proven its efficacy in curing Salt-rheum or Tetter, Fever-sores, Hip-joint Disease, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Enlarged Glands, and Eating Ulcers. Golden Medical Discovery cures Consumption (which is Serofula of the Lungs), by its wonderful blood-purifying, invigorating, and nutritive properties. For Weak Lungs, Spit-ting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitls, "I crave the stately young lady's par-Severe Coughs, Asthma, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. It promptly cures the severest Coughs.

For Torpid Liver, Biliousness, or "Liver Complaint," Dyspepsia, and Indigestion, it is an unequalled remedy. Sold by druggists. DR. PIERCE'S PELLETS - Anti-Bilious and Cathartic. 25c. a vial, by druggists,

SCROFULA

Aver's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more Humors. permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used. - E. Haines, No. Lindale, O.

I have used Aver's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease. -W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn. For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies

- Mary C. Amesbury,

I have suffered, for rears, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my

Rheum, and received much benefit from it.

Rockport, Me.

for my complaint, but found no relief until I Canker, and commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.

Catarrh.

Erysipelas.

appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Can be Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured. —Susan L. Cook, 909 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass. cured by Aver's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood the blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-

It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Millie Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Price $1; six bottles, $5.

seems like a very remarkable person God created all men in his own image," On and after MONDAY, June 14th, 1886, the Trains of this Railway will run daily, (Sunday excepted) as follows:

Trains will leave St. John, :

Express for Halifax & Quebec, 1 15 p. m. A Sleeping Car runs daily on the 10.1. P. M. Train to Halifax. On TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY, a the Quebec Express, and on Monday, WEDNES

Trains will arrive at St. John: Express from Haifax & Quebec, 5.30 a. m Accemmodaion, 12.55 p. m Day Express, 6.10 p, m All Trains are run by Eastern Standard D. POTTINGER, Chief Superintendent RAILWAY OFFICE, Moncton, N. B., June 8th, 1886.

TREETERS . BRUNSWICK

Arrangement of Trains --- In effect October 24th, 1886.

LEAVE FREDERICTON: (Eastern Standard Time)

00 A. M .- For Fredericton Junction, and for McAdam Junction, and St. Stephen, Vanceboro. Bangor, Portland, Boston and all points West; St. Andrews, Houlton, Woodstock, Presque Isle. Grand Falls. Edmundston, and all points North. P. M.-For Fredericton Junction, and for

St. John, and points East. A. M - From Fredericton Junction, from St John, and all points East. rem Vanceboro, Bangor, Portland, Boston, and all points West; St. Andrews, St Stephen, Houlton, Woodstock, Presque Isle, Grand Falls, and points North. 6 40 P. M.-Express from St. John, and inter-

LEAVE GIBSON: 7 00 A. M.-Express for Woodstock and points ARRIVE AT GIBSON: 30 P. M.-Express from Woodstock, and points F. W. CRAM.

Gen'l Pass, and Ticket Agent.

Sup't Southern Division.

3t. John, N. B, October 20, 1886

ALBION HOTEL, Fredericton, N. B., CLAIRVOYANT PHYSICIAN!

H is marvelous power whilst in trance of discribing the physical condition and disease patient, either personally or by lock of hair with such unfailing accuracy, is remarkable, All Hair may be sent from any distance not handled if possible by any person but the patient. S me of his most successful cases were throughout, treated by a lock of Hair; in ome instances sent from Nova Scotia and from distant parts of the Province. Inclose $2.00 with lock of Hair giving name and address, and I will give you an examinat Examination personally or by Hair, 50 cents, or by Hair sent by letter with fee, $1.00. Mention this paper, Fredericton, July 21, 1886.

FALL X 1886 Goods SHARKEY'S.

Ladies' Dress Goods, various Styles. Textures, Shades, and at all Wool Squares, Wool Jerseys, our goods and prices before purchas-Ulsters, Mantles, Fur Caps, Capes and Trimmings.

Ilster Cloths. Mantle Cloths 1 Scarfs and Ties, Suitings, Creiones, Prints Wool Flanne's, Cottons, Swandowns, Dicki Towellings, Table Linens, Snirtings, Skirts, Corsets, Hose and Gloves, etc. etc.

CLOTHING Vests, Shirts, Drawers, Scarls, Collars, Ties, Braces, Fur Caps, in Astracan, Persian Lamb, Baitic Seal and Cooney. Knitt-d Wool Gloves, Kid Gloves and Mitts Canadian and Scotch weeds, Worsted Coatings, and Furnishing

Goods. Hats, Caps, Trunks and Vallse. Horse

Sleigh Robes. Prices as low as the lowest in the trade. Remnants of all kinds always on hand, OWEN SHARKEY.

STOVES. STOVES.

EBEN MILLER & GO.,

BUILDERS OF

CARRIAGES,

Fredericton, N. B. King Street, Piano Box Wagons. Iver's Wagons Concord Wagons Miller Spar Wagons, White Chapel Wagons, Top Phætons, Cronin Wagons, Open Phætons. Brewster Wagons.

These Shifting Tops have no rival, as a glance at the cut will show for itself; it is so simple, it requires only one person to take it off or put it on, and when off no one would think a Top had been on, as no unsightly ends are sticking out. When the Top is on it is as firm as a rock. It can be put on any carriage in use. Persons ordering Buggies or Canopy Top Carriages should see that they have this Rail, as it will be greatly to their interest.

These Tops were awarded a Diploma at the Provincial Exhibition in Oct. 1880

Sole Manufacturers of Miller's Patent Shifting Rail.

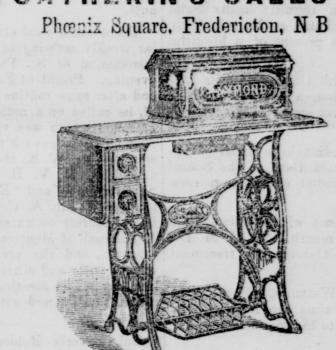

Particular attention given to orders. Repairing done in the best manner, and at the shortest notice Price List.—BUGGY TOPS, $32 to $50; CANOPY, $15 to $25 Patented in Canada, March 31st, 1877, and in the United States, Dec. 10th, 1878

THE ALL WORK WARRANTED. EBEN MILLER & CO

CALL AND SEE THE

"RAYMOND."

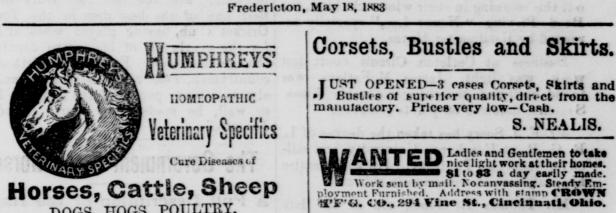

With Large Improved Arm, at D. M'CATHERIN'S SALES ROOM.

Gloucester Co., N. B., Campleton, Restigouche Co., N. B., St. Stephen, N. B.

Address all communications P. O. Box 162, Fredericton, N. B.

Agents wanted for P. E. Island and Nova Scota. D. McCATHERIN. Manager for Maritime Provinces

In use for over 20 years by Farmers. Stockbreeders, Horse R. R., &c. Used by U. S. Covernment. STABLE CHART TO Mounted on Rollers & Book Mailed Free. Humphreys' Med. Co., 109 Fulton St., N. Y.

DOGS, HOGS, POULTRY,

IN STORE AND LANDING:

200 Casks

Extra No. 1 Green Head Lime. ALSO : Middlings, horts and Bran, CALCINED PLASTER, &c.,

MILLER & CO., Feed, Lime and Seed Merchants. Queen Street, Opp. Peoples Bank

Fredericton, October 6, 1886. THE KEY TO HEALTH. BURDOCK BLOOD

Unlocks all the clogged avenues of the Bowels, Kidneys and Liver, carrying off gradually without weakening the system, all the impurities and foul humors of the secretions; at the same time Correcting Acidity of the Stomach, curing Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Headaches, Dizziness, pepsia, Headaches, Dizziness, Heartburn, Constipation, Dryness of the Skin, Dropsy, Dimness of Vision, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Fluttering of the Heart, Nervousness, and General Debility; all these and many other similar Complaints yield to the other similar Complaints yield to the happy influence of BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

T. MILBURN & CO., Proprietors, Torontc.

HATS and CAPS. BOOTS and SHOES,

Gents' Furnishing Goods READY-MADE COTHING of every description, which will be

Give us a call and examine ing elsewhere. F. DOHERTY. Fredericton, February 3, 1886.

sold cheaper than the cheapest.

FRAUD. FLOUR, branded "Crown of Gold," an im seeks to avail himself of its well earned popular ity to sell an interior article. This tact of imits tion is high testimony to the superiority of the Observe, the genuine Grown of Gold has the name D. Goldie in red lithograph plainly on the head of each barret, and every barrel is lined throughout with white paper. Other imitations, more or less resembling the name Crown of Gold are also on the market The original always in Stock and sold at lowest GEO. HATT & SONS

A tation of the original, has been put on the market. The Miller, coverous of the popularity of the now celebrated Flour CROWN OF GOLD

Tea. Tea. Tea. JUST RECEIVED AND IN STOCK : 95 ITALF Chests Tea-quality extra. Also Victor Churns.

If you want a Stove at a Low Price, either Cook, Hall or Parlor, call at NEILL's HARD. WARE STORE, opposite the County Court Rouse. Remember the old stand.

A NOTHER Lot of the above Churns received, without doubt, the best Churn in the market. Try one.

RANKIN'S BISCUITS -AND-WHITE'S CONFECTIONARY,

-AT-

W. H. VANWART'S.

TRUNKS AND VALSES, JUST OPENED:

THE best and cheapest assortment of Trucks and Valises and Satchels, yet offered to the

S. NEALIS. Hats. Hats. Hats. JUST OPENED:

H ARD and soft, Fur and Felt, Hats, in great variety, for Men, Boys and Children. A large stock of Straw Hats, in all sizes, very

CURES RHEUMATISM FREEMAN'S WORM POWDERS.

Are pleasant to take. Contain their own Purgative. Is a safe, sure, and effectual destroyer or worms in Children or Adults. HEALTH, JOY and PEACE INSTEAD OF

PAIN and MISERY,

is obtained by the use of TAPLEY'S REMEDY n all cases of Neuralgia, nervous or sick head ache of long standing, or Sciatica. it has no equal: it works like a charm. During the last year it has brought happiness and comfort to hundreds of homes. Sufferers try its great worth

NOW LANDING: 45 Bbls.

CATALOGUES FREE

BELL & CO., Guelph, Ont.

For Sale Low,

A. F. RANDOLPH & SON.

ADVERTISERS can learn the exact cost of any proposed line of advertising in American papers by addressing Geo. P. Rowell & Co., Newspaper Advertising Bureau. 10 Spruce St., New York. Send 10cts. for 100-Page Pamphlet.

NEW 5 and 10 CENT STORE. JUST OPENED useful article required in every family. All are astonished at the great variety, and quality of articles, sold here for 5 and 10 cents each. Phase

Queen St., Frederaton

Caddles of 5, 10, 12 and 10 lbs. each. At W. H. VANWART'S.

OPP, STONE BARRICKS,

Z. R. EVERETT. | May 26

call and examine new 5 and 10 cent store.

20 PACKAGES New and desirable Group, in Glassware, Tinware, Hardware, Fancy Goods, Toys, Jewelry and thousands of