COUNTY SCOTT ACT CASES.

To the Editor of the Farmer : MR. EDITOR,-In the Gleaner of the 1st inst., there are some errors in the article headed "County Scott Act Cases," which I wish to correct. It is there stated that those young men who were the victims of the unstatements of the Gleaner are a vile slander. H. J. Olive, Secretary. Further Mr. Editor, for the information of treated more like an escaped convict than an invalid. As the st casual observer would know I am a sick man, and when in the Court House I declared my inability to spend their "copy" as early as possible.

Those who intend sending advts. for next week's FARMER will confer a favor by forwarding their "copy" as early as possible.

Mr. Doutney, the reformed liquor dealer,

By special request of Halifax, has retained Wallace Graham, Robert Sedgwick and other leading counsel to prosecute his $20,-000 libel suit against Prof. Hind.

To the Editor of the Farmer : question without grossly abusing or misrepresenting somebody? In yesterday's issue of that delectable sheet there appears, under a sensational heading, what purports to be a report of the remarks of His Lordship the remarks of porter who attended the meeting was entirely incompetent to catch His Lordship's plainly spoken words, or whether, as I suspect, the Gleaner wished to make the respected head of the Church of England in Canada, appear ridiculous, those who were present on the occasion, can perhaps determine for themselves. His Lordship did not say that "men should not have to pledge themselves to abstain from intoxicating liquors," He did not say that "He knew of dozens of men in this town who had taken the plage of total abstatom was made last week, that deceased formerly belonged to Pictou, N. S; that the body was interred in St. Marys cometery; and that Matheson left a small amount of money and some valuables, which his heirs can have, after expenses of burial, by proving their claim. The coroner also believes that there was a small amount due Matheson by the Northern & Western Railway Co., at the time of his death.

WONDERFUL!

Milltown, N. B. St. John, N. B. West Pembroke, Me.

If the bowels are costive, the countenance sallow and the tongue furred, take 3 or 4 pills on going to bed; if they do not operate in ten hours, then take two more afterwards. Take one pill every (or every other night), just enough to keep the bowels gently moved. For ordinary Billious Complaints one or two doses are sufficient. These pills act on the system very similar to blue pills, or blue Mass, but do not contain the least particle of mercury or calomel.
