THE FOLLOWING AMENDMENT,

by which this House will decide whether these questions which my hon. colleague has taken to be dead issues, are alive or not.

"That Mr. Speaker do not leave the chair, but resolved that in the opinion of this house large measures of reform are urgently called for in the public interests, which reforms should embrace among other reforms looking towards the reduction in the public expenditure, a reduction in the number of members in the executive government, a reduction in the number of departments in the executive, a reduction in the number of clerks and employes in the public offices, a change in the mode of doing the public printing, whereby the cost may be largely reduced, and also the making of such changes in the government, legislative and departmental machinery of this province as will ensure substantial reduction in the cost thereof."

Let me also allude to one item, the expense of the public printing. With the small revenue from all sources that we have to keep our country running, we have the printing expenses of the country amounting to $12,741, during the past year. In that connection it might be a notorious matter to refer to where that money goes. We have a large amount going the Queen's Printer, which it seems to me ought to be cut down in some way. I believe it was the policy of the late government when publishing reports of departments to call for tenders. Does not the present government give the printing to whom they please and whatever price they choose to agree. Again, while we have $6953 paid to the Queen's Printer, we also find Mr. James H. Crockett, who runs a paper on the interest of the Government, without a chance of competition drawing out of the treasury of the Province for printing $2582.10.

MR. ADAMS—$2928.50 this year.

MR. WETMORE—Yes, you are right, and, for in sir, addition to that he recieved $350.75 for binding journals which we have never seen. It seems to me this total is a large amount to pay out for an expense of this sort. When we view the position we are drawn, into with respect to the bonded debt and the interest we are bound to pay, when we see that from year to year what we have for the ordinary purposes of the Government of this country is being reduced, the time has come when the Government and Legislature of this country should set themselves to work substantially to reduce the cost of machinery and these measures, which are looking towards that reduction, should not be treated as dead issues. (App.)

Hon. Mr. McLellan's motion to go into supply, was then carried by a vote of 30 to 10.

The death of Mrs. Geo. Grass of Wassis, Sunbury Cobunty, is recorded elsewhere. The deceased was a daughter of the late Fred. Phillips of Rusagornish. She had been ill since September last, and her death therefore was not unexpected. She leaves a husband two sons five daughters and twenty two grandchildren to mourn her loss. The remains of the deceased lady were interred on Sunday at Waasis, Rev. Jacob Gunter conducting the services.

The debate in the Assembly, on the budget, commenced last Thursday afternoon, by the Hon. Provincial Secretary, is still in progress, Mr. McLeod having the floor this afternoon. It has been carried on vigorously by both sides, Hon. Messrs. McLellan, Blair, Ritchie and Stockton, speaking for the Government, and Messrs. Wetmore, Adams, Hannington and McLeod for the Opposition. We present to-day a verbatim report of Mr. Wetmore's speech, which will repay a careful perusal. Very little real business has yet been done in either branch of the Legislature.

There was a special meeting of the Sunbury County Council called for the 3rd inst., but as the roads were blocked by the snow a sufficient number of Coucillors were not able to get there to form a quorum, therefore no business was done. The Chief Superintendent of Education having failed to notify the County Secretary that an additional amount would be required for the County School Fund until nearly two weeks after the meeting in January, was the cause of the necessity of a special meeting. A portion of the Drafts will now have to wait till after the June Session.

The Dramatic Club of the I. S. Corps, gave their second entertainment in the City Hall last night, under the patronage of Lt.-Col. Maunsell and officers of the corps, presenting "The Momentous Question," and "The Irishman in London." In the first piece the cast of characters included Mrs. Polkinhorne, Sergts. Wilson, Polkinhorne, Chappell and Walker, and Ptes. Offin and Boutilier. Sgt. Wilson assumed the leading part in the drama and acquitted himself admirably. Indeed much of the credit of organizing the Club is due to Sgt. Wilson. Lieut. Kelly took the principal part in the farce and his support consisted of Mrs. Polkinhorn, Sgts. Fowlie, Polkinhorne, Lieut. Woodworth and Ptes. Lawlor, Richards and Offin. All the characters were well sustained throughout and the audience was well pleased with the evening's performance. The Band under Bugle Major Hayes performed several choice selections during the evening.

From a late number of the Missoulian, published at Missoula, Montana, we take the following account of the marriage of a Fredericton boy:—

"The wedding of Mr. George L. Elliot and Miss Janie Amiraux at the Catholic Church last Tuesday evening, was quite a brilliant social event. The church was crowded with the leading citizens of the place, young and old, and all were happy and delighted to see the consummation of the love of the young couple. The wedded couple were supported by Mr. T. T. McLeod and Miss Josie Prescott, Mr. F. T. Sterling formerly of Fredericton, and Miss Stella Tark, and the solemn ceremony of the Catholic Church was impressively performed by Rev L. B. Palladino, S. J., whose fatherly counsel will be of assistance to the young people in establishing their new home on a firm and rightful basis. After the completion of the wedding ceremony the whole company adjourned to Kennedy Hall, where a reception had been tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Eliott by the gentlemen connected with the Missoula Mercantile Company's house in this city, and until a late hour of the night did the guests remain together, extending congratulations, dancing, singing, and partaking of refreshments. Several young gentlemen have since remarked that never did the young ladies look so beautiful as on that occasion, and doubtless the basis of several similar affairs were then laid. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott occupied their new home inmediately, the Lyons dwelling near the court-house, it having been largely furnished by wedding presents from their many friends.

"The brass band, of which Mr. Elliot is a member, gave the wedded couple a serenade Wednesday evening and spent a couple of hours pleasantly at their house with music and singing."

seem to be all the rage in the Soap Business, owing to the idea of some manufacturers of getting something out of nothing, if possible. Grocers get 6 boxes for 5 of some kinds, and are offered all sorts of "Nick-Nacks" with others, as an inducement to recommend such soaps to their trade.

It is a well-known fact, however, that a genuine article in this day of competition pays no fancy profits. WELCOME SOAP represents this class of goods, and demonstrates the value of quality in manufacture, which is the only guarantee of a pure and legitimate washing quality.
