What Mr. Mitchell has to say.

To the Editor of the Farmer: SIR,-Having, I think, waited sufficiently long for an answer to appear in the Gleaner from Mr. Scott, (or rather over his name) to mine in the FARMER of February 24th, and 5 o'clock this afternoon. being in a position to give some important evidence in the matter of that Legislative Council seat, I trust you will make room in your paper for this article.

As Mr. Samuel Scott gave the Hon. James

Mitchel as the author of the charge he made against me, I will now give a verbatim copy of a letter from that gentleman to myself. FREDERICTON, March 13th, 1886. L. ESTABROOKS, Esq.,
