FAREWELL SERMON.

Rev. Wm. Tippett concludes his labors in Fredericton.

A large congregation, and one evidently in deep sympathy with their retiring pastor, gathered on Sunday evening last at the Fredericton Methodist Church, to hear the farewell remarks of Rev. Wm. Tippett, who Council opened at 10 o'clock a. m. yesterday, was about to close his three year's term in this city, and to assume charge of the Hampton Methodist Church. "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, to-day, and forever," was the text selected by the reverend gentleman, whose closing sentences were as follows:-" And this passage supplies a suitable basis for our thoughts a few moments this evening, Jesus Christ the unchangeable, "the same vesterday, to-day, and forever." This is the Jesus Christ that we effer you, that we can recommend to you, that we appealed to the tirst Sabbath we kneeled with you, and whom now we take with us as a never-failing inspiration into other fields, believing that this Manufacturers and Dealers in Marble, same Jesus who has been to us as to you, a source of strength and comfort through the years that have past, will still be ours and yours through the history of the future. There are many things, dear friends, we might say which would be better left unsaid but there are some things we might say with advantage. The 59 or 60 funerals of the past three years, brought days of sorrow to you, and brought me in close contact with many members of this congregation. Days of sadness that we shall not soon forget, But God took the best ever. He took the best and it is well it was so. They went to their resting place, the habitation for the dead, and their souls to be with Christ, which is far better. I shall miss after I have was appointed lumber surveyor in the County which is far better. I shall miss after I have gone from this place, the inspiration which has come to my assistance a thousand times from the sons and daughters of hermony behind me. I shall not again for some time, receive so much strength and inspiration as It has been my happiness to receive from Sabbath to Sabbath, during the years of my sojourn among you. The circumstance under which we came together were peculiar. You remember Dr. Sprague of hallowed memory, whose bright intellect promised to be a rich fountain from which to drink of the springs of truth as the years went by, but Providence saw fit to lay him seide, and then, out of respect to me, you permitted me to have oversight over you, for which I devoutly thank you, and recommend you ever to the careful watching and keeping of the God and father of us all. I am sorry that some careful watching and keeping of the God of the boys before me have not entered into FELLOWSHIP OF THE CHURCH.

VALUABLE INFORMATION. YARMOUTH, N. S., May 15, 1886. C. C. RICHARDS & Co.:

Having used your Minard's Linement for several years in my stable, a attest to its being the best thing for hosse firsh I know of. In the family we have used it successfully for nearly every purpose that a liniment is adapted for, it being recommended to us by the late Dr. J. L. R. Webster Personally I find it the best analyer of neuralgic pain that I have ever met.
