A BROWN STUDY

Let them sing of their primrose and cowslip, Their daffodil gold colored hair Their bluebells, blue eyes end white violets. All the pale, dreamy things they find fair Give me stir of brown leaves in the sunshir The whir of brown wings in the beet. The rush of brown hares through the stubbl And the light in brown eyes of my sweet!

Gold hair? Well-I never could love it, Yet gold, I suppose, has its worth; The head that I love is as dusky As the breast of our mother, the earth. With a gleam like the shine of wet seawood Round pools that the tide has left clear, And warm, like the breast of a linnet. And as brown, is the hair of my dear.

From edge of the cliff we look downwards On the shore, and the bay, and the town, And brown is the short turf we lean on, The fishing boats' sails are all brown, The sky may be blue-that's the background But the picture itself, to be fair-However it's shaded and varied-Should be brown as the dress that you were

A lark bursts to sudden-sweet singing-That turf of brown grass is his home-And now, a brown speck, he is rising Against the clear windy sky-dome And he sings-how I know? love instructs m To know all his notes, what they mean-That it isn't the color I care for

But yourself-O my gypsey, my Queen. Ah! the lark knows my heart-I his language It's my heart he sings out to the skies : It is you that I love, and what matter

The color of hair or of eves? No doubt I should love you as deaarly Were your hair like an apricot's down, And your eyes like the gray of the morning-But I'm glad, all the same, that they're brown.

Niterature.

WHO ROBBED THE BANK?

By an English Ex-Detective.

"Strong-room broken open. Safe un-

This message arrived at our headquar ters from the great seaport P--, one morning just as I was admitted to our superintendent's office. Five minutes after I was seated in a handsome cab driv. the garden. ing home to make some alterations in my dress and appearance. The gentleman from whom the telegram had arrived was a private banker in the town indicated, with branches in the neighboring towns and villages. The concern is now a limited liability company.

When a man in my line of business goes to a provincial town immediately after a great crime has been committed, no matter how large the town may be, the inhabitants are on the look out for him. This spoils his game most effectually, and that is one of the most powerful objections I have to making my first appearance in my own proper person.

My hair is dark brown. I put on a very whiskers to match, and then dressed in the blue and gold uniform of on engineer in the Royal Navy. In B-these people are as plentiful as cabbages in Covent Garden, so I did not fear being remarked However, I did not go directly to Mr Redfords's bank on ariving four hours afterwards at my destination. I wished to know if the people in the town were talk ing about the robery and what the general impression was. It would, of course. be injudicious to ask a leading question on the subject, and as not a word was breathed about it at one of the inns at which I called, I concluded, with some self-congratulation, that Mr. Redfoord must be an unusually clever man to have kept the occurrence so quiet.

The house had been a grand old manor house before bricks and mortar had accumulated round it. It stood in spacious grounds, with a court in front enclosed by low walls of modern design, surmounted by light iron rails with gilt tops. That was the private dwelling house of the banker. The bank itself was a wing added on the right, the ground floor of which was as lofty as two stories of the ancient building and had ecclesiastical looking windows of unnusual height to light up the chief public office. There was no wall and no rails in front of the business place, but the wide space was nicely paved.

immediate vicinity, but not so crowded or Entering the bank, I inquired for Mr.

Redfoord, and was told that he was engaged, and requested me to send in my business. I had no intention of letting the cashier or teller to whom I was speaking know who I was, and as I wished to glance carelessly around the desks at which sat or stood about a dozen clerks, I remarked quietly that I had come down from London specially to see Mr. Redfoord, and hoped he would receive me as early as possible. This brought him out.

He was a tall, stout, florid, somewhat stern looking man, very decisive and rapid in his movements and advanced upon me without hesitation, saying to the clerk: "You must be mistaken, Preston."-Then to me he added: "Is it possible—" I interrupted him with:

"It is not only possible, but positive, and I handed my card-not the official one-but one equally conclusive. He showed anger very easily, and heavy frown was upon his brow when, entering his private room, he said : "I was not prepared for this masquer ading. I thought police officers only disguised themselves in the pages of novels."

"That is my business, sir," I rejoined. "and I shall be surprised, indeed, if this is inot a case in which I should not be known generally until a late stage of the inquiry. And now be good enough to give me particulars briefly.'

Waving his hand in the direction of a leatherbottomed chair, he seated himself, saying:

"This morning the bank was opened at the usual hour by the messenger, and Mr. Peyton, the cashier, was the first to arrive. On opening the strong-room he saw the safe door ajar, and uttered an exclamation which, luckily, did not attract the attention of the porters sweeping and cleaning.

"Mr. Peyton immediately sent for me and in the meantime examined the contents of the safe. Much money is not kept there, as a rule, but there was an to his cousin and other girls, than going early payment of over four thousand over the musty pages of fat ledgers," said pounds to be made this morning, and that Mr. Redfoord, fiercely. "The fact is, I me to write the note, saying the enclosure with other sums, was lying there. This wish my partner and successor to be a was in payment of a debt owing your was not touched."

The four thousand pounds untouched. Bank notes in one drawer were takenvalue five hundred pounds."

"That was all the money taken."

able?" I inquired. Many years ago a Capt. Pixley had a large me his hand," when I was conscious of the As the three of us were approaching the account here. He retired from the army most simple rustle in the vicinity of the bank, we beheld the cashier coming in with the rank of major, and shortly after crimson-curtained staircase. I perceived the opposite direction. When we got have never seen him. He then came and an idea than had taken hold of me. deposited four thousand five hundred pounds with me, saying that it was only I inquired.

terrible way about the loss of the iron I had other views for her and-" box. I cannot comprehend what its contents can be, but he is so excited over the matter that he has not withdrawn the large sum of money, but has started without assistance in pursuit of the thief. o'clock. You are here, and perhaps it come." would be wise to see him before moving in the matter."

ask the favor of an introduction to Mr. treatment and so in the night time he Peyton. Do I understand that the clerks procured your keys and skillfully purdo not suspect anything?"

"They must suspect, but they know from your safe." nothing yet. Major Pixley, too, is anxious to keep the loss secret."

residence communicate?"

in which we had been sitting. ment I perceived a spiral staircase, which she fell helplessly from her place of con- accomplish his ruin and end his rivalry rightly presumed communicated with the banker's private apartment in the old was not deemed necessary. Advancing and red and by-and-by, when ther eyes locked and valuable papers and securities into this room I found that the small win- opened, I was perfectly bewildered with on deposit stolen in addition to five hun dow had been forced open, and it was their dark brilliancy. dred pounds in Bank of England notes. certainly large enough to admit a man. When she had been carried to her own a fraudulent bankrupt, much sought af-This window looked upon an open space beautiful apartments I had another con- ter, and the four thousand five hundred open this morning. It must have been opened by a skilful locksmith, or some one must have got to my keys for the purpose of procuring casts from them."

Entering the strong room, another ironlined door stood opposite. This opened into and from the cashier's private office, to be stopped. and had not been tampered with. The ton, a grave, good-looking young fellow, fiery but natural red wig, with crepe hair who did not seem as if he were a man likely to commit a crime.

> by his principal, and showed me the condition of the contents of the safe, as they thieves would have to contend with. combination of letters to form a word mechanically arranged must be within the knowledge of the person who opened the safe since the keys would be power. less without this knowledge, and as both the banker and his cashier neither parted with their keys nor divulged the master. fellows to use them.

word, the mystery was very great. of the public counter, just as Mr. Redof the railings of the old building.

Having commanded the whole situation, wished to be alone with the banker .-Luckily the cashier was called away at a convenient moment, so I suggested returning to Mr. Redfoord's own room .-Once there, I said, suddenly, because I wished to see the effect of the opinion upon the gentleman: "The thief, or thieves, came in some

The street is superior to those in the "Impossible!" he cried. But I perceived he became deadly pale.

"I have no wish to see the inmates as et," I proceeded. "Be kind enough to name all those who reside under your He went through a long list of servants. male and female, but I found nothing in it up to my expectation. At last he finish-"The only other inmates are my daugher Muriel and her cousin, Herbert Knight.

At last! "I should like to see Mr. Knight."

Mr. Redfoord was evidently embarrassed. That was exactly what I anticipated "He has gone to town." "He has chosen a peculiar season for going away."

"He must have left P- before this robbery happened. Beside, he never could be guilty," proceeded Mr. Kedford, as if he were trying to make himself believe so.

"As far as I am master in the case just now," I remarked, "suspicion points right at this invisible figure. You cannot suspect Mr. Peyton?"

"Ridiculous!" cried the banker. "He has no occasion to steal. Beside, he is about being admitted a partner in the concern, and at no remote period I expect closer ties even than business ones will unite us.

"In that case I must dismiss him from my mind. "Completely."

"Then let me know all about Knight." "It is absurd," he cried, wiping his perspiring brow. "Herbert's father and I were cousins once removed. Poor fellow. While Herbert was still at Oxford his father died, a ruined man. Everybody owed George Knight money, but he never troubled about it, and so died penniless. took Herbert, and vowed to make a banker of him. He is not a fool, but he didn't seem to care for it." "I beg pardon," I said. " A man who wouldn't be a banker must be a fool."

"He cared more about lying on the grass or on the beach reading Tennyson Knight will always be something of a missioned him to get it quietly done." "Yes. Very strange, I must confess. dreamer. Beside, I never did advocate cousins marrying.

It was with the greatest difficulty that I could refrain from a long whistle. "And the securities mentioned," he would have forced itself out at this junc. the bank?" ture, but for the fact that I have the most "Not at all. On the contrary, if Pey-"Were they valuable and easily negoti- wonderful gift of hearing. My eyes were ton's been playing any of his tricks-and fixed upon the impassioned face of the now I see he has. He always was a deep "That is the most annoying part of it, banker, who was so ingenuously "showing one."

drew out the balance of his funds. From that the sound had not reached the bankthat time until about a fortnight ago I ers ears, so I determined to proceed upon Muriel Redfoord had confessed that she When did Mr. Knight leave this house?

for a brief period. He also left an iron | "Yesterday evening, I suppose," return box or casket, containing, as he said, valued Mr. Redfoord. "I knew nothing of able securities. I know nothing of the his going until upon the discovery of the contents of the box, and never before robbery this morning I sent up to his have I taken such deposits. He gave room, It had not been slept in. The fact Major Pixley, to whom she had many notice to withdraw four thousand pounds is, I had not been satisfied with him latethis morning, having already nearly ex- ly, and when yesterday he asked for my hausted his odd five hundred. He is in a daughter's hand in marriage, I told him "He cut away after robbing you," I tained that rank now—if she, the mother,

I the missing sum if he would go to Ame- these letters only stood between them said a defective from Scotland yard would rica, or I promised him a business appoint. and happiness. The Major had told her most likely be here by half past two ment in Australia with a very good in that he was not foolish enough to carry "The fact is," I said, deliberately, slow. posit at the bank." The girls conceived ly and gradually raising my voice: Knight the scheme of procuring the case and Diagonal and Corkscrew Coatings; "I will first inspect the premises, and resented what he esteemed your harsh carried it out, but no money was taken Heavy West-of-England Suitings;

when a shrill, despairing shriek came from stranger had left it. It was Peyton's me and describe the inmates of your indeed all my faculties, concentrated upon of partnership and marriage with his house if, as I suppose, the bank and the it while I uttered what I considered a test master's daughter, whom he had long of the person I imagined to be hiding and secretly loved, and fearing that Knight "They do," returned Mr. Bedford; and listening there. The consequence of this might be received back into favor, when opened from the small reception office rushed forward, reaching the foot of the gone, and Mr. Redfoord still up-stairs, 25 Men's and Boys' Reefers; staircase just in time to catch the fainting five hundred pounds lying there before

I was a young man then, and, of course, departure would give the idea of guilty building. Opposite the door of the re. not insensible to the charms of a pretty flight; and so, with Borland's aid, the ception office we had just left, was an girl, and the banker's daughter was one rest was accomplished. The unhappy other door, which upon examination, 1 of the most beautiful creatures it ever has cashier deplored his "falling," but the saw opened into a kind of lumber room, been my luck to see. Her hair was chest. tempation was great, and had brought which was originally intended for a lava. nut-colored, and her complexion, as you tory, but the bed-room of the occupant often will find with such hair, of the purest being only at the top of the staircase, this alabaster whiteness. Her lips were full in front of the stables and coach-houses, versation with Mr. Redfoord, who begged pounds deposited in Redfoord's Bank and the barrier to the right was a high me to hurry up to London and use every was only a part of the spoil got out of wall, which was not too lofty, however, effort to find his unhappy cousin. If I the Red and Blue Co-operative Society not to be scaled easily. On the left was found him, I was instructed to tell him, and that "concern's" unhappy creditors. that he might retain the five hundred And this is more than ever hitherto has Returning into the banker's sanctum, pounds if he returned the missing box of I bent my gaze upon the door opposite securities. Of course there must be a prosecutor in all criminal cases, but as I "That leads into the strong room," ex. have never been a party to the compound plained Mr. Redford, "and was found ing of a felony, I gave no pledges as to what I would or would not do. The banker instructed me as above, in the presence which whilst possessing the most valuof his cashier, and as he no longer intend- able remedial properties, are yet so found myself face to face with Mr. Pey. my true character. He reminded me of and does not impair in the least degree some one I knew, and this haunted me so much during my journey that I never read a line of the evening paper I bought He corroborated the statement made upon entering the carriage. umns" of the different morning papers tite, which gives to the stomach tone were found in the morning. He then ex. for "young gentlemen of education to and energy, and fortifies the system plained that there were only two keys to emigrate to South America—those with a against all infectious diseases. Sold by the safe, one of which he carried while the little capital preferred." I did not ex. all druggists. other was never out of Mr. Redfoord's pect to trap my man by so simple and pocket. This was not the only difficulty transparent a police dodge, but I resolved to leave no effort untried. Imagine my times the weight of its body; and a surprise when on the third day I received large honored beetle, which was carea note from Knight asking for particulars. fully weighed and allowed to work un-That was Tuesday morning, so I wrote at molested beneath a bell-glass, drew fortyonce asking the writer to meet me at cer- two and two-tenths times its own weight. tain offices in the Strand-the owner of which, for a consideration, permitted our

This readiness to meet an advertiser mal life. After this strong room came the cash- led me to think that Knight was a greater ier's office, opening upon the extreme end fool than I anticipated-or, what was of more consequence, that I was mistaken in foord's reception office opened from the the case. I had a portrait of him, and I public office near the door in the vicinity was not a little surprised to find that h appeared a finer fellow than the carte implied. A tall, frank, thoroughgoing gentlemen I would have called him anywhere and I determined not to trifle with him,

> I told him that I was anxious to see him, and that the advertisement was published solely for his behoof. He stood silently amazed until I spoke of the robbery. Then he turned fiercely, and asked me how I dared to insult him. "I am a police officer," I answered.

"And I am accused of robbing my uncle

"Of five hundred pounds and a box of "I am innocent. What do you propose to do with me?" "I can take you before the magistrate now sitting, but I am authorized by Mr. Redfoord to perrait you to retain the money if you consent to give up the case of papers. "I know nothing of what you are speak ing, and it only remains for me to face this foul accusation where it has been made. I am going to P--. You will accompany me, I suppose?" "I am beginning to see that the case is not in the condition I expected. However, I will act in the way most agreeable to you if you will kindly answer me one question. Have you any money about "Have you brought me here to rob me?" he asked, looking round. "No," he continued, "I think you are what you say you are. There is some terrible mys. tery here. Mr. Redfoord and I had a difference of opinion. I resolved to stay in P-- no longer. I told my friend, his chief cashier, that I would visit my mothers grave, and then go to America without a day's unnecessary delay. That was the night of the quarrel. I asked him to send any letters that might come on to the Cathedral Hotel. On Friday morning I received one re-directed by him. It was in a strange handwriting, and is anonymous. It contained five hundred pounds in bank notes in payment of a debt owed to my father. I heard of no robbery, and believed it to be genuine restitution. If some one has endeavored to entrap me, Heaven will aid me to clear myself. I am posed to it. It will cure consumption if season.

ready to accompany you to P--." When wereached P--, a young fellow with a black bag came rushing across the road crying :

"Glad to meet you, Knight! Was the windfall a big one?" "Was what windfall a big one, Borland?" asked Knight.

"Oh, you must have got it. Peyton said you knew his handwriting, so he got thorough business man, like Peyton .- father. One of the bank customers com-"Do you know how much the amount

"No. not at all."

AGENTS FOR CANADA. Fredericton, March 17, 1886.

inside another surprise awaited us. Miss opened the strong-room and safe, the master-word of which she generally knew. She and a friend, Evelyn Darlington, MERCHANT TAILOR, had gone to the house of the latter one day. Entering the back parlor, they Queen St., - Fredericton, overheard Mrs. Darlington in an altercation with a gentleman who had often Is showing a very large assortment of New Goods for years ago written foolish letters after

In new and attractive designs and shades, direct from the Manufacturers banker, "because I offered him double had gone, Mrs. Darlington had said that Meltons, Bottle Green, Browns, and Plum Naps;

Blue, Black, and Olive Irish Frieze; Dark Gray and Fancy Worsted Over man Borland how Herbert Knight came loined the five hundred pounds missing by the missing money. The banker was in a terrible rage when a knock came at The words were not completely uttered the door. A clerk brought a letter. A Fifty doz. Canadian Shirts and drawers, very "That's all right. Can you accompany the staircase. I had kept my eyes, and confession. Intoxicated by the prospect Ten doz. Scotch Lambs' wool and heavy Merino Shirts and Drawers: he led me into his private room, which was that, when I heard the pitiful cry I he discovered the safe open, the casket 50 Beaver Overcoats; 50 Nap and Frieze Ulsters;

From the elegantly furnished apart. form of Muriel Redfoord in my arms as him upon his absent friend, and thus pure at one stroke. The peculiarity of his JAS. R. HOWIE, November 25, 1885.

> ruin and disgrace. The girls were forgiven, and while Muriel married Mr. Knight, I intervened between Miss Eve Darlington and Major Pixley without letting the admiral hear of the letters-now destroyed-of been published about the ROBBERY AT her marriage to Captain Darlington.

These letters he at last threatened to show the admiral-her husband had ob-did not favor the Major's suit for poor them with him-"they were safe in de-

I explained, and proved by the young

"No, no-that can't be," cried the young Evelyn's hand. When the Major REDFOORD'S BANK. Few are the remedies whose beneficial qualities and real merits have made them ed to prosecute, the latter was ordered to simple in their compound, and so easy communicate with the Bank of England to take, as the Quinine Wine, prepared that the missing numbers were no longer by Northrop & Lyman of Toronto. This article is prepared from the pure Sul-I was just about to hurry away to catch phate of Quinine, combined with fine banker now tapped at that, and in a mo- my train when Major Pixley made his ap- Sherry Wine and choice aromatics, which ment it was slowly swung back, and I pearance, and I was introduced to him in relieves the Quinine of its bitter taste, the efficacy of its action upon the patient. while small doses, frequently repeated, strengthen the pulse, increase muscular force, and invigorate the tone of the nervous system, and thus, by the general will be sold at a great sacrifice to I advertised in the special "agony col- vigor which it imparts, creates an appe- clear.

> An ordinary bee can draw twenty mals would or could perform if they could move loads according to their size as do some of the lower orders of ani-

> > Worth Remembering.

There is probably no better relaxing remedy for stiff joints, contracted cords and painful congestion, than Hagyard's Yellow Oil. It cured Mrs John Siddell, of Orton, Ont., who was afflicted for years with contraction of the bronchial pipes and tightness of the chest. It is but come to an understanding as quickly the great remedy for internal and exter- Low Prices and on Easy Terms, nal pain.

Absolutely Pure.

strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. Royal Baking Powder Co. 106 Wall street, New York. A WODNERFUL REMEDY

Dr. JOHN M. HOWE'S INHALING TUBE

Lungs and Digestive Organs. 1. Introducing a larger quantity of the oxygen of the air into the Lungs, thus more perfectly arterializing the blood and quickening its circu-

3. The action of the digestive organs will be 4. It will cure Bronchitis and toughen the hroat, preventing colds from exposure. It will increase the compass of the voice, and permanently reduce enlarged Tonsils. 5. It will tend to prevent sudden death from congestion of the Lungs, Brain, Apoplexy, and 6. It will benefit or cure Asthmatics. 7. The useful results of a few months' faithful rom two to six inches, and the flesh from five to ten or twelve pounds-so that That while no physician can cure a consumpive, yet the patient can cure himself if he is ngs are too much wasted away, and that the nhalation of common air through a tube prepared for the purpose is worth more than al ther means, if it be faithfully pursued daily for a few months, medicines being only used to conrol the inflammatory symptoms as they arise! thus exercising, airing and enlarging the capacity of the lungs, and more perfectly vitalizing the blood, quickening its circulation, and aiding "Would you mind accompanying me to digestion—thus sitting in one's chair at home enjoying all the benefits of vigorous exercise and air in the lungs where it is so much wanted, without the fatigue, annoyance and expense of going from the comforts of home and of friends.

PRICE $2.25. Lemont & Sons.

Trains will leave St. John. : Day Express..... Accommodation 11.20 a. m. Express for Haifax & Quebec, 7.20 p. m. the Quebec Express, and on Monday, Wednes-DAY and Friday, a Pullman Car will be attach-Express from Haifax & Quebec, 7.00 a.m. Express from Sussex,..... 8.35 a, m. Day Express, 7.20 p. m. Trouserings - a very large assortment. in Stripes and Checks, neat and at-

Gents' Furnishings.

Cardigan Jackets, Gloves, Braces, Linen Collars, Cuffs, Silk Handkerchiefs, &c., &c.; 52 doz. Gents' Silk Ties, at half price.

Which I will sell at less than cost.

Fisher's Building, opp. Normal School, QUEEN ST., . - FREDERICTON

"Golden Fleece.

SPRING, 1886.

New Dress Goods, Cloakings,

Prints.

Muslins, Hamburgs,

Gloves, Kid, Silk and Lisle.

and a General Assortment of Staple & Fancy

GOODS Call and see. ROOM PAPERS

SHARKEY.

We have now in stock the GREATEST VARIETY ever offered in this city, and at Very Low Prices! We invite you to call and examine them, and take a look at our stock of Books, which will be found just what is wanted for the Holidays.

Also on hand, a number of

Organs, Pianos,

McMURRAY & Co's Book and Music Store, UEEN ST., FREDEBICTON.

December 3. has now in stock a very large and choice assortment of HATS and CAPS. BOOTS and SHOES,

Gents' Furnishing Goods

READY-MADE CLOTHING of every description, which will be sold cheaper than the cheapest, Give us a call and examine our goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere F. DOHERTY. Fredericton, February 3, 1886. HARDWARE, LOCKS, &c.

JUST RECEIVED CASE Locks, 1 Case Shelf Hardware, as follows:—Razor Straps, Sash Locks, Brass Curtain Rings, Picture Nails, Porcelain Tacks, Brass Screen Hooks, Scissors, Razors, Pocket Knives, Brass Picture Hooks, Rules, Table Knives and Forks, Auger Bits, Halter Snaps, Tack Claws, Hammers, Wood Faucets, extra quality; Galvanized Pails, Curling Irons, Silver Furniture Handles, etc., etc.

Z. R. EVERETT. SPRING.

Now ready for Spring trade: MIMOTHY and CLOVER SEED, wholesale 2. It will arrest hemorrhage, and prevent con-sumption becoming seated in those parts dis-

> W. H. VANWART'S. Steel Barb Fence Wire. Just Received direct from the Manufacturers

TON 4 barb steal fence wire; 1 ton Buckthorne steel fence wire; 1 ton Galvanized steel fence wire; 2 Kegs steel galv. staples for same For sale at the lowest market price, at the J. NEILL Call, Call, Call, and examine my stock of Groceries, too unmer-

W. H. VANWART'S. Garden Wheel Barrows. Hardware store, chean

J. NEILL.

Rope. Rope. Rope. Just received from the Rope Works; 25 COILS ROPE, for sale low by April 7.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY

'85 Winter Arrangement '86 On and after MONDAY, November 16th, 1885, the Trains of this Railway will run daily, (Sunday excepted) as follows:

Express for Suss x,..... 4.35 p. m, On TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY, a Trains will arrive at St. John:

Accommodation, 1.30 p. m. All Trains are run by Eastern Standard D. POTTINGER, Chief Superintendent RAILWAY OFFICE, Moncton, N. B., November 11th, 1885.

NEW BRUNSWICK

Call and examine the above Goods before Arrangement of Trains -- In effect October 12, 1 5.

> LEAVE FREDERICTON: (Eastern Standard Time)

5 20 A. M.-Express for St. John. 00 A. M.—For Fredericton Junction, connecting there with Train for St. Stephen Houlton, Woodstock, Presque Isle, Grand Falls, and points North 10 50 A. M.—For Fredericton Junction, connecting there with Train for Bangor and all points West, and for St. Stephen, St Andrews, Houlton, and Woodstock, and for St. John.
3 20 P. M.—For Fredericton Junction, St. John, and points East. ARRIVE AT FREDERICTON:

10 20 A. M - From Fredericton Junction, and 2 40 P. M.-From Fredericton Junction, Bangor 5 50 P. M. - From Fredericton Junction, St. Stephen, St. Andrews, Houlton, Woodstock, Presque Isle, Grand Falls, and all points North.

7 30 P. M.—Express from St. John. LEAVE GIBSON:

6 50 A. M.-For Woodstock and points North, ARRIVE AT GIBSON: 4 20 P. M.-From Woodstock and points North F. W. CRAM. Gen'l Manager H. D. McLEOD. Sup't Southern Division J. F. LEAVITT, Gen'l Pass. and Ticket Agent

St. John, N. B, October 9, 1885

CARRIAGE and SLEIGH FACTORY King Street, Fredericton, N. B.

R. COLWELL, - - - Proprietor

SLEIGHS and PUNGS Built to order in the latest and most durable styles. MATERIAL and WORKMANSHIP of the BEST

Painting, Trimming and Repairing Carriages, etc ON HAND : FOR FALL AND WINTER TRADE

PARTICULAR ATTENTION GIVEN TO

A LARGE LOT OF IVERS. PIANO BOX. TOP PHÆTONS. WAGON CONCORDS. GENERAL GRANDS

AND A LARGE LOT OF Sewing Machines, SLEIGHS AND PUNGS TO BE SOLD CHEAP. Terms to give satisfaction.

> SPRING NEW GOODS.

MERCHANT TAILOR. Is now receiving a large selection of English and Scotch CHECKS and PLAIDS.

IRISH TWEEDS -AND CHEVIOTS. WM. JENNINGS.

Fredericton, March 17, 1886.

ADVERTISERS can learn the exact cost of any proposed line of advertising in American papers by addressing Geo. P. Rowell & Co., Newspaper Advertising Bureau, 10 Spruce St., New York. Send 10cts. for 100-Page Pamphlet. WHITE'S Candies, new Vinegar, Lemons and Apples, at W. H. VANWART'S.

Fresh Cod, Herring, Smelts and Haddies. GEO. HATT & SONS. Frederitcon, January 13, 1886.

JUST RECEIVED AND IN STOCK : 35 HALF Chests Tea-quality extra. Also Caddies of 5, 10, 12 and 20 lbs. each. At W. H. VANWART'S. Just Received:

Tea. Tea. Tea

10 GROSS RISING SUN STOVE POLISH-GEO. HATT & SONS. IRGINIA FARMS Mild Climate. Cheap homes. circular. A. O. BLISS, Centralia, Va.

J. C. RISTEEN & CO., Corner Queen and Smythe Streets, Fredericton, N. B.

Doors, Sashes, Blinds,

MOULDINGS OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS FOR BUILDING ECRPOSES. MILL-PLANING, TURNING, AND SAWING TO ORDER.

WE HAVE IN STOCK AT ALL TIMES Doors, Sashes, Flooring, Sheathing, Stair Posts, Rails, Ballusters, Clapboards, &c.

all of which we offer at Low Prices. Give us a call before purchasing. EBEN MILLER & GO.,

BUILDERS OF

King Street, Concord Wagons. Piano Box Wagons. White Chapel Wagons, Miller Spar Wagons. Top Phætons, Brewster Wagons.

Cronin Wagons, Open Phætons. Soe Manufacturers of Mil er's Patent Shifting Rail. These Shifting Tops have no rival, as a glance at the cut will show for itself; it is so simple t requires only one person to take it off or put it on, and when off no one would think a Top had been on, as no unsightly ends are sticking out. When the Top is on it is as firm as a rock. It can be put on any carriage in use. Persons ordering Buggies or Canopy Top Carriages should see that they have this Rail, as it will be greatly to their interest.

These Tops were awarded a Diploma at the Provincial Exhibition in October, 1880 Particular attention given to orders. Repairing done in the best manner, and at the shortest notice Patented in Canada, March 31st, 1877, and in the United States, Dec. 10th, 1878 ALL WORK WARRANTED.

CALL AND SEE THE "RAYMOND,"

Fredericton, N.B., Newcastle, Miramichi, N.B., Chatham, Miramichi, N. B., Bathurs Gloucester Co., N. B., Campellton, Restigouche Co., N. B., St. Stephen, N. B.

D. McCATHERIN. Manager for Maritime Province

Address all communications P. O. Box 162, Fredericton, N. B. HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC Veterinary Specifics

Horses, Cattle, Sheep DOGS, HOGS, POULTRY, In use for over 20 years by Farmers, Stockbreeders, Horse R. R., &c. Used by U. S. Government.

STABLE CHART TO Mounted on Rollers & Book Mailed Free. Humphreys' Med. Co., 109 Fulton St., N. Y.

60

ples

THE KEY TO HEALTH.

Unlocks all the clogged avenues of the Bowels, Kidneys and Liver, carrying off gradually without weakening the system, all the impurities and foul humors of the secretions; at the same time Correcting Acidity of the Stomach, curing Biliousness, Dys-pepsia, Headaches, Dizziness, pepsia, Headaches, Dizziness, Heartburn, Constipation, Dryness of the Skin, Dropsy, Dimness of Vision, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Fluttering of the Heart, Nervousness, and General Debility; all these and many other similar Complaints yield to the happy influence of BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

T. MILBURN & CO., Proprietors, Toronto.

Creamers. Creamers.

JUST RECEIVED:

CROWN OF GOLD.

JUST RECEIVED :

Fredericton, January 13, 1886.

125 BARRELS Crown of Gold. Lew for April 7.

Z. R. EVERETT

GEO. HATT & SONS.

BURDOCK BLOOD

and

Enlar

and Prostration, from over-work or other causes. $1 per vial, or 5 vials and large vial powder, for $5. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS, or sent postpaid on receipt of price.—Humphreys' Medicine Co., 109 Fulca St., N. Y. Prices moderate, and goods delivered when promised. J. McCAUSLAND Formerly with C. A. McCausland.

7

GAS FITTING!

TERS in their employ are prepared to attend to all work entrusted to them in a thorough workmanlike manner. with all the modern improvements in the above business would do well to apply to us for estimates before going elsewhere

GAS STEAM and HOT WATER FITTINGS, al

Orders for Tin Roofing promptly attended

Tinsmiths Work of every discription and ways in stock.

the premises at partest notice Prices to suit the times J. & J. O'BRIEN, FREEMAN'S WORM POWDERS.

Purgative. Is a safe, sure, and effectual destroyer or worms in Children or Adults.

Are pleasant to take. Contain their own

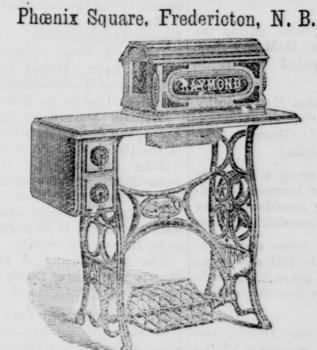

S. F. SHUTE'S.

Furniture in Bedroom Suites, Ash. Walnut. and Office Desks, Sideboards, &c CARRIAGES, Fredericton, N. B Iver's Wagons.

Price List.—BUGG TOPS, $32 to $50; CANOP, $15 to $25

EBEN MILLER & CO

With Large Improved Arm, at

Agents wanted for P. E. Island and Nova Scota.

Fredericton, May 18, 1883 WANTED Friends and the Public to know that

> FOR THE PURPOSE OF REPAIRING

I have opened a window in

CLOCKS and JEWELERY. Having had ten years' experience

n the business, I am prepared to do

WACTHES,

GOOD WORK

Don't forget the place, opposite Normal School, Fredericton.

Fredericton, June 10. PRACTICAL PLUMBING.

ESTABLISHMENT. THIS establishment now having two thoroughly Practical Plumbers and Gs Fit-Parties desiring to have their houses fitted A variety of GLOBES and PATENT GAS RURN-ERS for sale cheap.

of the best material manufactured to order ueen Street, Fredericton, N. B.

GOLD Pens. Pencils, Tooth Picks, Glove and Boot Buttoners, Cigar Clips. Just opened and the correct thing for a present, at