Corner Oueen and Carleton Streets, Directly opposite the Post Office, FREDERICTON, N. B., ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Subscription Price, - $1.00 per Year THE MARITIME FARMER having a larger circulation than any other paper published in Central New Brunswick, furnishes a most desirable medium for advertising.

Terms will be promptly made known on ap- give a sufficient number of extracts to Book and Job Printing of every description executed at reasonable rates. Address all communications to

> L. C. MACNUTT. Editor and Proprietor, FREDERICTON, N. B.

Maritime Farmer.

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 24, 1886.

Blake's Disgrace.

The leader of the Opposition in the and a half hours in length, in which he supported Mr. Landry's resolution censuring the Government for executing Riel. Mr. Blake therefore condones the rebellion, the bloodshed, and the plunder of last spring in the Northwest. He althe arch rebel, the murderer of innocent men and women, the despoiler of pronce. But what has happened. Why themselves to have a majority. man, when Blake assumes the position stumpage, could be met in that way." he has in this Riel question.

the excuse that his condemnation of the ment, remarking that :-Government in this instance, is because manhood, his intelligence, his sense of justice and honor for party advantage. He comes forward as the champion of the worst forms of crime in the calendar. He endorses treason and felony, he applauds murder, and spoliation, and therein in his disgrace, Can the people of Canada, whose sons have fought and died to preseve the honor and integrity of their country; whose friends and relations have benn stricken down by the bullets of the savages, led on by Riel, ever forgive the leader of a party who condones the author of all these offences? Will they ever permit such a man as he can do that, he can never hope to rule this country.

Hon. P. A. Landry.

took the prominent position in the Local Legislature, achieved by Hon. P. A. The head of the stairs, a fate quite spirit."

the eight named dollar hecklace into a ble extent; dwelt upon his duty as a minis—as sore as real grievances. But that there than trinket, a bauble, vanity and vexation of the execution being carried out; claimed that the Northwest, he had failed to see. He had not the local this charge. The position the government as sore as real grievances. But that there existed any possible tangible grievance in the had to take if he were Minister of Justice.

The eight named dollar hecklace into a ble extent; dwelt upon his duty as a minis—as sore as real grievances. But that there existed any possible tangible grievance in the had to take if he were Minister of Justice.

The eight named dollar hecklace into a ble extent; dwelt upon his duty as a minis—as sore as real grievances. But that there existed any possible tangible grievance in the had to take if he were Minister of Justice.

The eight named dollar hecklace into a ble extent; dwelt upon his duty as a minis—as sore as real grievances. But that there existed any possible tangible grievance in the had to take if he were Minister of Justice.

The eight named dollar hecklace into a print of the stairs, a fate quite spirit. of Commons was more suited to Mr. ful issue, so long as the Council is doing the originator of septic fever. There exists he said, "Whether it be on the banks of St. ernment never considered the matter from the said, "Whether it be on the banks of St. ernment never considered the matter from the said," Landry's ability, and we are glad to the public good service. know that he has not disappointed the expectations of his friends. We proweight for the Government.

the best speech so far on the Government side. It contained a most unparliamentary amount of solid common sense. He is the fastest talker in the half yesterday, and what he said, if fully little that was not worth listening to." dians of the Maritime Provinces, Mr.

great success, and we congratulate Kent finer exposition of the law. County and the French Acadians of New Brunswick, on possessing so able, so honorable, and so worthy a representa- heavy loss fighting the Hovas in Madative in Parliament. gascar

Hon. Mr. Barberie's Attitude.

Hon. Mr. Barberie, who was a warm supporter of Mr. Blair in the Assembly Commons, Sir Hector Langevin acts as first from 1878 to 1885, when he was ap- Minister. pointed to the Legislative Council by mind pretty freely on the insincerity of the Government with respect to reforms. He delivered quite a lengthy speech in the Council last Friday, from which we show what he thinks of the course the Government has pursued. Speaking of the report on the finances, which appears elsewhere, Mr. Barberie points. He is indeed a worthy successor to

"He looked upon it as one of vast importance to the country In the other branch of the Legislature he had strenuously advocated made in the public expenditure. They can amending the law so that Howland will be be made and ought to be made. Any pledge qualified to contest the election again. that he had made while a member of the Assembly he would carry out, for he stood here House of Commons, has at last thrown the Sound for the Committee's report, but is absolutely the middle of next week. Attention is just ville, Terrebonne, in the Province of Quebec, true so far as his knowledge went. The committee's report, but is absolutely the middle of next week. Attention is just ville, Terrebonne, in the Province of Quebec, true so far as his knowledge went. The committee's report, but is absolutely the middle of next week. Attention is just ville, Terrebonne, in the Province of Quebec, true so far as his knowledge went. The committee's report, but is absolutely to the Legislative Council, in on the 9th of November, 1840, and was eduoff the mask, and comes out squarely in mittee had the Auditor General and Deputy sympathy with the Riel agitators. He | Receiver General before them and it was understood that all the statements that were the Province is in progress, The report of daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel King, Brihas made a speech in Parliament five put down by the committee, were put down the special committee thereon, will be found gade Major, Sherbrooke. Called to the Bar, without coloring and were drawn from officiai

In referring to the reduction of the Executive, one of Mr. Blair's pet hobbie while in opposition, Mr. Barberie said : "He was confident that the reduction in the lies himself with those who hold up Riel, forecastle members of the Government were fife, thereby leading the enemy to believe a in Montreal. Was a member of the Execupresent occupy those positions. The commitperty, the slayer of Scott, as a hero and tee advocate the reduction of the executive to six members. When we think of a single ined hands that "he would never conwith the blood rusted key of the past," of the Assembly. It is a pretty weak Govern-would have been raised by Mr. Blake shut down. The Government say we must and his followers, if Riel had not hanged. have a revenue That, he admitted, was true, a rising young poet. The skeleton may be but it you shut down the lumbering business filled in by our intelligent and poetical read- election of 1878, on accepting present office, Canada would have rung from centre you must shut down almost everything else in ers, according to fancy. to circumference with Mr. Blake's denunciation, if the Government had dared to have stepped in and saved Riel's neck. What does the honest rank and file of should be crushed? How are the people whose the Grit party think now of their leaders. livelihood is in the trade, to exist. If you crip-Will they disgrace themselves by follow- ple this industry you drive hundreds of men out of the country. The Government might chester, England, has accepted the offer of ing longer, a man who does not hesitate say we cannot reduce the rate, but if he were to stand up in his place in Parliament least make an effort to assist the people. and express sympathy with a murderer? Hundreds of dollars could be saved in travel- footed girl, to any man who would marry his To what ends will not partyism carry a ling expenses of the Government, and the loss that would be occasioned by a reduction of the some time in rather reduced circumstances,

Mr. Barbarie also strongly condemned There is no shelter for Blake behind the fishery regulations of the Govern-

" All the North Shore asks is fair play and of their management of affairs in the justice, but legislation apparently all tended Northwest. The resolution upon which It is most abominable that foreigners are al- 28th, and lasting one week. The managers he is asked to vote at this time, censures lowed to come in and swallow up the peoples birth-right. The Government may say, oh we the Government for allowing Riel to have a revenue from the fisheries, but he had largest halls in London for the accommohang. Mr. Blake will have ample opportunity to pronounce upon the Government stepped in and took ernment's policy in the Northwest. He the credit. Is it right, is it fair, is it honest, that men who have been settled along the largest hans in Location of the thousands expected to attend, dation of the thousands expected will include the credit. Is it right, is it fair, is it honest, that men who have been settled along the largest hans in Location of the thousands expected to attend, asked the Government stepped in and took the credit. Is it right, is it fair, is it honest, that men who have been settled along the largest hans in Location of the thousands expected to attend, asked the Government stepped in and took the credit. Is it right, is it fair, is it honest, that men who have been settled along the largest hans in Location of the thousands expected to attend, asked the Government stepped in and took the credit. Is it right, is it fair, is it honest, that men who have been settled along the largest hans in Location of the thousands expected to attend, asked the Government stepped in and took the credit. Is it right, is it fair, is it honest, that men who have been settled along the largest hans in Location of the thousands expected to attend, asked the Government stepped in and took the credit. Is it right, is it fair, is it honest, that men who have been settled along the largest hans in Location of the thousands expected to attend. can condemn it if he will, but he can do Restigouche for years are not allowed to cast a that and still approve of Riel's execu- rod or spear a fish. These settlers could not tion. That, however, would not answer be worse used. The river is put up for sale, and steamer "Assyrian Monarch."

Vanderbilt and the lord knows who—rich men

The cadets of the Royal Miles the purposes of party. He sinks his come down and swallow up the fisheries. It was, indeed, hard that the settlers who had

> Mr. Barbarie is to be congratulated or Mr. Barbarie is to be congratulated on the manly, independent stand he has taken on these questions, and if by his outspoken condemnation of the Government's policy, he has incurred the displeasure of Mr. Blair and his colleagues, he has the satisfaction of knowing that he has the spoke conscientiously on these mat-

The Legislative Council.

Another effort is being made to abolish that to rule over the destimes of Cana- this body, but it will meet with the same das? We do not believe that it will be fate as its predecessors. Mr. Ellis in possible for Edward Blake to wipe out the Assembly, made a lengthy, historical, was enjoying a sense of satisfaction in looking from the country's mind, the remem- and altogether clever speech, in favor of at her less fortunate sisters, when in came are less fortunate sisters, when in came to take place and he would vote for Landry's 2320 occupied; in Alberta 1785 temporary brance of the infamous course he is pur-sulng in this Riel question, and until passed the Assembly, by a large major-lace presented to her by Sir George Stephen, it, among those seven being Hon. Mr. after Lady Lansdowne appeared, dressed in do again just what he had done. The speech It was true that they sent delegations and McLellan, Provincial Secretary. The black for her father, the Duke of Abercorn, was a gentlemanly as well as game one, too, petitions to Ottawa for a number of years. measure, however, will meet with a very but with a display of diamonds glittering and advantage than Mr. Amout Legislature, achieved by Hon. P. A. the head of the stairs, a fate quite spirit." Landry in a short time, and fewer young worthy of it. We repeat the statement, men occupy as prominent a position in that public opinion in the country London, G. B., founded several Scholarships prise in the interest of selfish agitators; their homes, or interfered with in any of upon matters relating to the administration land and 3,861,818 acres occupied, of which the interest of selfish agitators; their homes, or interfered with in any of upon matters relating to the administration land and 3,861,818 acres occupied, of which the interest of selfish agitators; their homes, or interfered with in any of upon matters relating to the administration land and 3,861,818 acres occupied, of which the interest of selfish agitators; their homes, or interfered with in any of upon matters relating to the administration land and 3,861,818 acres occupied, of which the interest of selfish agitators; their homes, or interfered with in any of upon matters relating to the administration land and 3,861,818 acres occupied, of which the interest of selfish agitators; their homes, or interfered with in any of upon matters relating to the administration land and 3,861,818 acres occupied, of which the interest of selfish agitators; their homes, or interfered with in any of upon matters relating to the administration land and 3,861,818 acres occupied, of which the interest of selfish agitators; their homes, or interfered with in any of upon matters relating to the administration land and 3,861,818 acres occupied, of which the interest of selfish agitators; their homes, or interfered with interest of selfish agitators; the interest of selfish agitators are cultivated. the House of Commons as he. While does not demand abolition. We doubt of $1300 a year each, for scientific researches. holding leading positions in the Every if one could not, ought not to be the court of appeal the largest quantity occupied but the smallest holding leading positions in the Execu- if one gentleman who voted for abolition One of their scholars, Dr. Wooldridge, has tive of New Brunswick, he made a most in the Assembly, came to the Legislaenviable record for himself, and in the ture pledged to that course. The ques-Assembly he was one the leading speak- tion has never been an issue before the ers. But the wider arena of the House country, and it never will be a success-expectations of his friends. We pro- question of abolition which is a part of upon outside influences, though the illness bellion," and he then read to the House the and since 1879 many millions of acres of land duce elsewhere' a summary of his clever the Government policy, one of the leadduce elsewhere' a summary of his clever the Government policy, one of the leadspeech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc

speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc
speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc speech in the Government in power ing members of the Executive, Mr. Mc speech in the Riel debate, an effort ing members of the Executive, Mr which has won him applause on all sides. Lellan, is at variance with his colleagues, Mr. Landry's address coming as it did a fact that demonstrates, that the Gov- at present, search for germs and furgi from and suppress all treason," "without any there was a clamor that too much was being left invariably with the executive untrampled and the House of Commons was not and would not abolish the Council if The Montreal Star which is always they could. The talk of abolition is a girl, who escaped last Sunday at Greenville, rather ridiculous light by reading telegrams. He was not such an admirer of the present critical and fairly independent in its species of cheap claptrap, which is con-Ottawa reports, has the following re- sidered useful, upon which to go to marks on Mr. Landry's speech, and other some portions of the country, but the man worthy of his steel in Mr. Thomp- nail through her foot, fastening her to a Swift Current, April 25, 1835, practically as done so. Since the rebellion broke out they statement that the gentlemen opposite would son, Minister of Justice. For five hours board and swung her up to the waggon follows: "Have got here. Major-General had been told that nearly 2,000 claims had find in them matters equally satisfactory (as Bay of Quinte Railway Navigation Com-House of Commons, He is a verbal Niagara. He talks 220 words a minute right along, and when he is on his feet of the house and galleries, and at the local decamped as soon as they learned of the nade by scouts who learned of the companions and this scrip was sold for $90 and some even of the Commons, He is a verbal bows. Marks of the girl's wounds are still been settled in the Northwest. The majority plainly visible. McVey and his companions of the Commons, He is a verbal bows. Marks of the girl's wounds are still been settled in the Northwest. The majority plainly visible. McVey and his companions of the common of the common he decamped as soon as they learned of the common he decamped the Hansard reporters are in a fever, and life is not worth living in the press gallery. He spoke for an hour and a ridors and everywhere the speech of the follow. reported, would fill about twenty col- Minister of Justice is spoken of as rankumns of the Star, and yet he said very ing with the best efforts ever made in the following story the other day. He enthe chamber. "Conservative stock," deavors to encourage the young students, of these and other despatches, showing that his own aggrandizement. The first thing he would not be laid on the table, yet here we "As the leader of the French Canasaid one, "has gone up fifty per cent."

dians of the Maritime Provinces, Mr. Landry claimed that the Quebec agitation was one dangerous to the well being of his race and of the country, because, while the leaders gave the leaders gav while the leaders gave the agitation a constitutional aspect in Parliament, the mass of the people in Quebec, were inflamed by appeals to race and creed."

We congratulate Mr. Landry on his way congratulate Mr. Landry on his way congratulate Mr. Landry on his creat success and we congratulate Kent of the landry of the people in Quebec, were listened to a subject that has fallen to my lot is Zaccheus, and so congratulate Kent of the landry of a soldier under fire was through with the member for Bellechasse, for hand on the subject given him. Once a student was named, chose his piece of him by remarking the latter got the better of him by remarking that the first duty of a soldier under fire was through with the member for Bellechasse, and said that if the Same expression of opinion is heard.

The lawyers say they never listened to a subject. The youth takes apiece of paper on his way to the rostrum, a piece of paper on his way to the rostrum, a piece of paper on his way to the rostrum, and seithed was through with the member for Bellechasse, for hand on the subject given him. Once a student was named, chose his piece of him by reference to "dudo officials." No. He forgot all about the grievances which he had with anybody did he authorize anybody to negotiate for a settle-was through with the member for Bellechasse, for the half-breed claims? No. He forgot all about the grievances which he had they on the rostrum, and speaks off hand on the subject of the half-breed claims? No. He forgot all about the grievances which he authorize anybody to negotiate for a settle-was through with the member for Bellechasse, and suiter had but cold coming to under the violent of him by reference to "dudo officials." The saming the rostrum, and speaks off hand on the subject of him by reference to "dudo officials." The saming the rostrum, and under the violent of him by reference to "dudo officials." Amyot, persisting in interrupting Sir Adolphe at the rostrum, and subject the saming the rost of the rostrum, and under the violent

About the latter part of February, the French met with a severe defeat and

CURRENT NOTES.

In the absence of Sir John from the

Sir John A. Macdonald is very ill, but Mr. Blair's Government, has spoken his hopes are entertained that he will shortly be around again. He has not been in Parliament for ten days. The St. John people have a Scott Act campaign on their hands. We hear that the Act is likely to be carried there, this time. It was a tie vote before. Hon. Mr. Thompson, Minister of Justice, made a magnificent speech on the Riel debate, completely answering Mr. Blake on all

Sir Charles Tupper in the Cabinet. Mayor Howland of Toronto, has heen unseated, because the property on which he reforms and economy. It was the platform of qualified stood in his wife's name, and a new the then opposition, and that was his platform election has been ordered. The Ontario still. He was still desirous of carrying out that platform. Very many reductions can be mittee had the Auditor General and Deputy Receiver General before them and it was which a discussion on the financial affairs of 25th November, 1874, to Marie Louise, was one of two heroines who, during the war of St. Gregory the Great (Roman). He is a of 1812, drove the British forces from Scitu-a martyr. A few weeks ago at London, dividual doing five times as much business as since the resignation of Rev. Dr. Hill last Ontario, Mr. Blake declared with uplift- is done by the Government, it does seem ab- vear, have decided to call Rev. Wester Jones ed hands that "he would never construct a platform from the Regina scaf struct a pl fold, or open the portals of the future eight members of the Government on the floor church in the Maritime Provinces, and the Toy.....gun.

Brunswick.

Gun...bust,
Boy....dust."

A Chicago paper says that Arthur Pitcairn. son of Canon Pitcairn of Eccles, near Man. $5000, made by the father of the dime museum freak, known as Fanny Mills, the big but he is apparently what he claims to be, and gives as references a number of prominent clergymen.

The Salvation Army is completing arrangements for holding in London a monster interto the benefit of the rich as against the poor. national religions convention, beginning May gates has already been secured aboard the

The cadets of the Royal Military College at Kingston, presented to Miss Hewitt, on lived there and reared their familes should be the occasion of her marriage, a beautiful goldcompelled to surrender their birth right to lined nut basket, but Col. Hewitt, commandant, returned the gift with a letter of regret. point we resume the report to-day, > duty only which compels me to ask my ernment supporters who have been grumbling him that daughter to return to them their handsome being held well in hand by the Ministers,

show an eight hundred dollar necklace, and the Riel agitation and agitators. ity, only seven members voting against costing fifteen thousand dollars, and shortly even in the light of all that he knew since, He failed to see any interference whatever. sparkling in their beauty, and these changed Very few young men in this country cool reception in the Upper Chamber. | sparking in their beauty, and these changed to a consideration to the distribution to the di discovered a constituent of the blood not known before, which is likely to revolutionize one branch of science, that which deals a protein compound, which easily becomes with causation of disease. He has discovered make the students of the causation of disease Majesty the Queen and to Canada," and that the distance from the Northwest to Ottawa, Gora Green, a pretty fourteen year old ever." Ohio, from John McVey, a gypsy, and his received by him as Minister of Militia from administration as to say they never did two female companions, says she was kid- Mr. Amyot when the latter was in the North- wrong, but he was bound to say that since he

Mr. Spurgeon, the renowned preacher, told as good as 2000 volunteers.

Hon, J. A. CHAPLEAU

now directed to the Legislative Council, in on the 9th of November, 1840, and was edu- calculated to tickle the Grits. Lower Canada, 1871; created Queen's Coundied the other day at the age of 89 years, November, 1882, and an officer of the Order ernment by Letellier de St. Just. 1878. resigned, on the 30th October, 1879. Was Premier and Minister of Agriculture and pective ditty was lately found on the desk of pointment to office in the DeBoucherville Government, and re-elected at the general and again at the general election of 1881. and an insult to the nation, for if he has the Riel debate closes.

Government.

BLAKE EXPRESSES SYMPATHY FOI THE REBEL.

to the Opposition Leader.

A Worthy Successor to Tupper.

The discusiion still in Progress.

progress, was brought down to Hon. A. I who are anxious to have the debate end with-thought of its people.

SHOULDERING A MUSKET FOR RIEL.

qualification or mental reservation what- done for the Northwest territories to the

DURING THE READING

that the commission was not the mock one alleged by Mr. Laurier. He denied empha-

The speech lasted about three hours, and people to take up arms against the Governis admitted to be a valuable addition to the ment, but, first of all, he forced storekeepers case for the Crown.

Mr. Desjardins.

speakers, but not developing new matter of consequence. His speech was very moderate Hon, Mr. Chapleau's ancestors came from in tone, and a statement he made, that while Business is proceeding rapidly in the Legis- France and were early settles in the Seigniory condemning the Government in connection to do his duty conscientiously. There is noth- lature, and prorogation will likely take place of Terrebone. Born at Ste. Therese de Blain- with the North-West he could not condemn said that when the news first came to New Brunswick of the feeling produced in the cil in 1873. He was created an officer of province of Quebec by the hanging of Riel. Miss Abigail Bates of Scituate, Mass., who the Legion of Honor (France), on the 10th but after reading the reports of the speeches and the newspaper utterances in the province of Quebec he had come to the conclusion that director of the Laurentides Railway Company the accounts of the agitation there had not February, 1873, until 8th September, 1874, that a number of Quebec Conservatives had St. Paul's Episcopal congregation of Hali- when he resigned with his chief, Mr. Ouimet. felt bound to differ from the Government on St. Paul's Episcopal congregation of Hallfax, the rectorship of which has been vacant Registrar, 27th January, 1876, which posiRegistrar, 27th January, 1876, which posia belief which was strengthened by the of Lindsay, Unt., a young man of 32, he be- when he became leader of the Conservative having, under the influence of the moment-

Brunswick.

MR AMYOT-Hear, hear. Mr. Blake actually stands up in Parliament and for half a day pleads the cause of Riel. He pours forth his commanding eloquence in condemnation of the Government for allowing the law to take its course; for permitting justice to hang the miserable rebel of the Northwest, the miserable rebel of the Northwest, and solution and the miserable rebel of the Northwest, and solution and a speech in the stumpage question, Mr. Bar-barie condemned the Government, and walkerton, Thursday, before His Honor down the political divisions of party in the province of Quebec on 29th July, 1882. Unsuccessfully contested Verchers for the House of Commons at the general election of 1872. Was first returned to Parliament for Terrobonne, by acclamation, at the general election of 1872. Was first returned to Parliament for Terrobonne, by acclamation, at the general election of 1872. Was first returned to Parliament for Terrobonne, by acclamation, at the general election of 1872, and an unsatisfactory course. The foundation at the general election of 1872, and again on his appointment to office. Again returned at the general election of the November, when the population was acclamation, on his second off and a specific parliament for the demonstration of the form the province, and that was the political divisions of party in the province of Quebec on 29th July, 1882. Unsuccessfully contested Verchers when the political divisions of party in the province of Quebec would hereafter be the discuss the final act in the government was material to this question. It was putting the cart before the horse to the government was material to this question. It was found in 1875, providing for trial by judges of the "national party" and the "hanging party," and the "hanging party," and the "hanging party," and the "hanging party," and the "antional party" and the "general election of 1871, and as in the general election of 1872. The Statute originally passed to the political divisions of party in the political divisions of party in the political divis stated :- " This execution is

A STAIN TO THE ENGLISH FLAG

Chapleau is one of the cleverest orators in Canada and is popular with both parties. A lie side by side with the political martyrs of rousing speech is expected from him before 1837-38. His name will be engraven on our hearts and when the hour of vengeance comes again we will strike." What iuflamreached his constituents much more quickly responsible for everything that had been suf-him, and many of these said they were could remove them of its own motion, as had fully opportunity had been given to enquire The discustion still in Progress.

obliged to join him because they were afraid of their lives. (Cheers.) The hon. gentleThe FARMER's report of the Riel debate of the Riel debate of their lives. (Mr. Desjardins) could remove them of its own motion, as had been given to enquire into the sanity of a prisoner and conviction follows, the executive goes not behind that had said they did not want to give the halfbreeds any encouragement at their meetings admitted that there was a devergence of last fall, but were they not giving these half- opinion between lawyers and doctors respect-Caron moving the adjournment, and at that breeds encouragement by the course they inh the degree of insanity which might acwere pursuing now? He firmly believed that company responsibility, the lawyers holding On Thursday, the Minister of Militia and the Government, before it decided to execute stronger views than the doctors, and quoted

RIEL WAS PERFECTLY SANE.

He might have been excited at times, but he charge, the jury went out and the foreman In a racy letter to the Woodstock Press, a lady correspondent describing the opening of Parliament says:—"One of the ladies, of moderate income, has bought for this yearly moderate income, has bought for this yearly moderate income, has bought for this yearly in the ladies of moderate income, has bought for this yearly in the ladies of like a violation of any rights. (Hear, hear.) agree with the jurymen about the insanity. Territories shows that there are in Assiniboia Had they been interfered with in the exercise He finished by stating that it was deeply to 1030 temporary dwellings and 6997 occupied junction of circumstances arose he would, of the subject under the British constitution? He took up personal ground to a considera- to them, for imaginary grievances are quite ment against itself he unfaithful to the trusts 6788, and Irish, 5285. The number attend-Quebec excitement was the result of a por- seem one title of evidence that they had been There is no parliament in the British realm fessional classes as 1340 and the commercial Four years ago, the Grocers' Company in tion of the people being carried away by sur- disposeessed of their lands or turned out of which arrogates to itself the right to decide class as 8340. There are 6987 occupiers of lieve they had, legally speaking, a right to in such cases. Partisan feeling was always cultivated, it being in this territory that the In the course of the speech he made points the soil. They may have had a right to pre- present and the commons could not come to great ranches are situated. Assiniboia comes against both Mr. Amyot and Mr. Laurier. ference over others, and these preferences the question with the calm deliberation neces- next Alberta in occupied lands, but in curie-Referring to Mr. Laurier's famous utterance were considered as soon as this Government sary. Blake had complained of the previous vated lands it has about ten times the quancame into power. In 1878 the first thing question being used to prevent discussion tity, the one being the cattle feeding and the they did was to pass an act which recognized these rights, and still we were told the Government never considered the matter from that day to this. (Hear, hear.) Why, the therefore, in healthy blood, the source of Lawrence or of Saskatchewan, we, on this that day to this. (Hear, hear.) Why, the or fever itself started within. This was oath of office which Mr. Laurier took as a had been surveyed as compared with a few

a subject that has failed to me Zaccheus that the first duty of a soldier under fire was States. This showed clearly he was there to Northwest and in other provinces and showed In addition to these roads in operation there Branch Store, - - St. Mary's. was of small stature—that is my condition.

Zaccheus in obedience to a praiseworthy imposition. Zaccheus made haste to come down—that is my intention; "and down he came" that is my intention in to get excited. Among other points he further his own ends, and when he was told that practically the law was identical; and in other provinces and showed that provinces and showed that provinces and showed that provinces and showed that the further his own ends, and when he was told that practically the law was identical; and that practically the law was identical; and that practically the law was identical; and on the point of the trial, because Riel's been laid, and which will be open for traffic counsel had not been granted the month's delay the they asked for, he showed that no application had been made to judge Richard—sort of second-hand invitation; he also show—

There were only sixteen of those who took sort of second-hand invitation; he also show—ed that at the time the banquet took place Riel's execution was to take place only in case natural? Then Riel was not at the head of time to get witnesses, but the counsel for and the medical commission then at Regina re- those who had the grievances. Out of the against had agreed that if the government ported that his sanity had not been impaired sixteen persons to whom he had referred would use all its officers to summon and

The lad deserved a prize.

FORCED TO JOIN THE REBELLION. tically that any telegrams passed between It was not because they felt the weight of Dr. Howard $500 as a witness. As a matter him and Sir John at Winnipeg and Ottawa their grievances but because they were of fact the minister of justice had telegraphed respectively regarding the state of the public afraid of the man who was leading them on. Riel's counsel stating Howard's demand and Grey Cottons, He also cleared up pretty well the assertion | What was done to those who declined to join Riel in the rebellion? Did he not imthat Riel surrendered to General Middleton prison them, not exempting two priests? If asked the crown to pay any such sum. Tell him he need not come." As to the time of the three scouts who captured Riel to the effect that Riel did not give himself up voluntarilly at all, but was captured in arms and there any truth in the statement of the three scouts who captured Riel to the that Riel had come there for the purpose of leading the people in a constitutional agitation he would not have resorted to those ment "I think it reasonable time." It had searching for a horse with which to escape. | acts. And it was not only that he got these | been alleged that to give up their stocks of arms and ammuni- It was not true. The department of justice tion to aid him in carrying on the rebellion. had taken no part in selecting interpreters. To plead for sympathy for any worthy object It agreed to pay those selected by the de-tion to the Government.

He said the question belongs to that branch the executive began. It had (1st) to con-"He was confident that the reduction in the number of the executive could have been carried out with a saving to the Covernment were ried out with a saving to the Government were ried out with a saving to the Government were ried out with a saving to the Government were ried out with a saving to the Government were ried out with a saving to the Government were ried out with a saving to the Government were ried out with a saving to the Government were ried out with a saving to the case, he did not from the first out of the Government was called upon to act in the lieve that the occasion justified that agitation and he took the opportunity of saying so in party had decided that there should be no asplicitly in this and closed this branch by saying the man who incites the Indians of the first out of the case, he did not from the first out of the case, he did not from the first out of the case, he did not from the first out of the first out of the case, he did not from the first out of the first ou speeches of the hon, gentlemen since coming self alone. He had waited to hear all that thoroughly exposed. to this house—that they would be sorry for could be said on either side. Materials Mr. Thompson then dealt fully and conand all loyal Canada applauded his utterand all loyal Canada applauded his utterthey only require thirteen members besides

The first sitting of the Court of Revision

The first sitting of the C MR. LANDRY said the hon. gentleman them. The conduct of ministers was blame- Blake, inasmuch as The first sitting of the Court of Revision for East Bruce, Ontario, under the Dominion J. A. Mousseau, who succeeded him as Premier J. A. Mousseau, who succeeded him as Premier cases, refusing to bring down others. The whole conduct of the Northwest matters by whole conduct of the Northwest matters by providing for trial by a stipendiary magistrate.

ABSTAIN FROM VOTING AT ALL upon Landry's motion. There were many hensible. On the 17th of November the following came from Quebec:—

"L'Electeur has appeared in mourning and its articles are very violent. All its columns are devoted to Riel, and it invites French-Canadians not to forget the martyr who has been assassinated for the French cause."

He would say, call him a martyr if they

He would say, call him a martyr if they

The died for the martyr if they are of the complicity to be the complex to the would, but certainly not that he died for the whether being guilty of complicity, to be French cause. If there was ever a mistaken found guilty or not guilty by reason of his Minister of Justice Thompson replies Riel died representing the French cause. of the judge to try high treason. The stipen-Riel only represented his own cause. How diaries of the North-west were not as in other capable of bearing arms, only two hundred in the North-west council. They were not fifty or three hundred were induced to join independent judges, because the government

HE ADMITTED RIEL'S GUILT,

lucid intervals. He read a letter from one of the jurymen, stating that after they had listened, to the evidence and the judges melled, and the House of Commons was not the place where cases may be tried over again.

The executive must, if weakly supported, pressed his conviction that 500 scouts were yet they were told that this was a great evi- lating to exercise of the prerogative were dence that these people had grievances, even asked to be brought down. He had Everything pointed to the fact that Riel had found instances in which ministers has exaggerated these grievances for purposes of incidentally remarked that of course papers Grand Southern Railway those he is training as preachers, to give ex- Mr. Amyot concurred in all that the Govern- did when he went to the North-West was to had the spectacle of Cameron of Huron, in tempore addresses on subjects given as they ment did up to the execution—in one letter go to the priests' house and ask for the father's the midst of a violent attack on the govern-since the trial and conviction. He also proved fifteen of them stated on oath they had been would pay witnesses, a delay of a week would be quite sufficient. Much had been made of the alleged refusal of the government to pay White Cottons,

INTERPRETERS HAD NOT BEEN ALLOWED. who came next, first expressed his conviction was laudable, and no one admired more than fence. As to the objection made that papers that Mr. Landry, whose good faith was being questioned, was sincere. Mr. Landry, who member for Quebec East (Mr. Laurier) when by the government to be used at the trial, was sitting in the next seat to Mr. Desjardins, he defended the cause of Riel, but if instead as a matter of fact none were asked for by looked pleased. Mr. Desjardins spoke for a couple of hours in English, emphasizing the had pleaded for the misguided Indians who had the fairest possible trial. He had more points made by preceding anti-Government were executed, and for those who lost their than would be given to any other accused in lives in defence of their country, how much the older provinces, because in the Northmore in sympathy with the sentiment of the west a prisoner had the advantage of appeal country would have been his speech. The on law and fact to the court of appeal. It duty of the people's representatives was to was significant that not a single exception discountenance those inflammatory influences was taken by the prisoner's counsel to the Canadian, English & American. which were calculated to array one portion rulings or to the charge of Judge Richardson, of the people against another, and to pro- The prisoner's counsel had, in fact, waited mote peace and harmony amongst all classes. on the judge after the trial and thanked him for the fairness of the trial. Not a single Mr. Guay followed in French in opposi- petition for commutation on the ground of unfairness of the trial had been sent in. He (Thompson) said the condemnation of the prisoner having been arrived at, the duty of

of the administration of Justice over which sider the criminality of the prisoner. He the executive had by law control. It was read several extracts from the evidence the proper thing to bring before parliament. showing the craftiness and wicked purposes The discussion was one of a delicate charac- of Riel. "Blood, blood," said Riel, sociation of party in their ranks. Whatever Northwest to rapine and murder, when he course the government side might take as a appeals to me as minister of justice for mercy party, his supporters had agreed with him that each should vote as he conceives it right appears to me as minister of justice for mercy will get justice. He read the depositions of Father Andre, Fourmount and others in to vote. As for himself, he spoke for him- which Riel's trickery and venality were highly important to help to a conclusion had not been brought forward. Those that had been laid on the table were in manuscript, was tried. He (Thompson) thought such and few had therefore been able to peruse insinuations should not have come from better value than ever from the Gibson Mills. cision on the other questions at the same punishment for the second offence than for the time. He, himself, would vote against the first. It is incumbent upon the executive, folmotion that the question be now put, though lowing the English practice, to take into conhe knew he would be in a small minority. sideration the previous offence. He cited in-Elected for Terrebonne in the House of Commons on the 23rd of August, 1882 Mr. was a Catholic and because he had French dry's motion. He said that it had been sugshow what opinion had been held by eminent men, he cited Lord Carnarvon. Lisgar, Blake, etc. He then turned to consider the circumstances under which Riel got into Middlereasons to be argued in favor of the wisdom found he could not escape but was surrounded. matory language and especially when it was of such a course. They might abstain if they He then dealt with the statement that Riel delivered while holding a national flag. The news of the demonstrations in Montreal had and well founded. He held the government cause his was a political offence to which reached his constituents much more quickly than in the ordinary course, newspapers containing the reports having been addressed to his constituents for the purpose of exciting them also. He considered this most repretation that Riel was legally guilty of high treason, no the scaffold or elsewhere. He admitted that Riel was legally guilty of high treason, no the scaffold point in the considered a political offender. Blake himself demanded the extradition of Riel for the and the extradition of Riel for the and the extradition of Riel for the propose had been entered as LOW as any Retail House in the political political political political political political offender. Blake himself demanded the extradition of Riel for the political politi matter how long the grievances had been en- 1869-70 rebellion, which could not be enter- DOMINION.

> penalty of death must be retained. He took could be represented his own cause. How diaries of the North-west were not as in other breeds, when out of about twelve-hundred capable of bearing arms, only two hundred fifty or three hundred were induced to join line pendent judges, because the government of the North-west council. They were not independent judges, because the government of the North-west convicted. That was the essential difference of the North-west were not as in other up the insanity plea and showed that Lord George Gordon's case was not parallel with Riel's. Lord George was acquitted; Riel's. Lord George was acquitted; Riel's was convicted. That was the essential difference of the North-west council. They were not independent judges, because the government of the North-west council. They were not independent judges, because the government of the North-west council. They were not independent judges, because the government of the North-west council. They were not independent judges, because the government of the North-west council. They were not independent judges, because the government of the North-west council. They were not independent judges, because the government of the North-west council. They were not independent judges, because the government of the North-west council. They were not independent judges, because the government of the North-west council. They were not independent judges, because the government of the North-west council. follows, the executive goes not behind that verdict. In Riel's case the Manitaba appeal court reviewed the trial in Regina and all udges declared that Riel was thoroughly sane. He entered most fully into the question of the sanity of the prisioner, and closed a remarkable speech amidst cheer.

THE NORTH-WEST CENSUS.

Recent Enumeration.

and 3723 occupied. Of the total population Hon. J. S. D. Thompson, Minister of of 48,362, the Catholics number 9301, the Anglicans 9977, the Presbyterians 7712, the on rising was received with great applause. Methodists 6910, the Pagans 7693. The He said the charge that Landry's motion was origins are classified as follows: Indians, framed by the Government was not true. The executive would if it framed such an indict- are part French; English, 8397; Scotch, Hamburg Embroideries, tion of the exercise of the prerogative there The output of grain last year was 1,147,124 British parliamentarians showing that the is $771,451; the yearly wages paid $186, search after some new cause rather than, as the taker should do his "utmost to discover the many difficulties in the way and also that exercise of the prerogative of the crown was 917; the value of raw materials used $518, 428 and of articles produced $1,029,235.

Raliway Mileage of Canada.

milage of the various railways in Canada in napped from her home near Lebanon, Ind. West as Lieut.-Colonel of the 9th Battalion, had been a member of the House he had also keep in mind that the exercise of the operation on the first day of January this over a year ago, and was compelled to travel breach of courtesy in producing the despatches than to any province in the Dominion. He to any province in the Dominion. He to any province in the Dominion. He to any province in the Dominion that there was no heard more discussion relating to that country prerogative may be traversed by the opposition and taken to the polls. This degraded few, if any, exceptions these roads are all journals in the Upper Provinces were Government and the politicians who talk about the country with the gypsies. McVey, inasmuch as Mr. Amyot moved a day or two breach of courtesy in producing the despatches than to any province in the Dominion. He thought that the Government should not have been given age will compare favorably with that of any abolition, feel quite safe in their course, she says, shot her in the head, kicked her, ago in the House that all the correspondence bave yielded and given the half-breeds scrip before the house met, all the records which because it will have no practical effect.

The doubt the country with the government should not the country had been given bave yielded and given the half-breeds scrip before the house met, all the records which other country in the world, considering the would have been laid before a court of appeal. It is a country with the government did wrong but the country with the government did wrong but the country with the government did wrong but the country had been given before the house met, all the records which other country in the world, considering the would have been laid before a court of appeal. Mr. Blake has apparently met a foeman worthy of his steel in Mr. Thomp.

With a club, flogged her with a buggy whip, and outraged her person. He also drove a terday by Sir Adolphe included one dated the body with a hatchet, beat her should be brought down, probably with a late of the records which of the records which of the records which of the records which a foewith a club, flogged her with a buggy whip, their own accord. The telegrams read yestheir own accord. The telegrams read yesthe records which a fact the records which a form of the would have been laid before a court of appeal, difference in population. The names of the believed that it was not in the interest of he believed that it was not in the interest of half-breeds themselves that they should have

Erie and Huron Railway.

SPRING, 1886.

Plain and Twilled.

COTTONS. 40, 42, 45 and 54 inches wide.

PRINTS,

CRETONNES, some elegant Patterns.

. CROIX CINCHAMS, Morse, Kaley & Co.'s

KNITTING COTTONS.

Nos. 4 to 20, best in the Market, no fear of contradiction.

6000 YARDS Hamburg Embroideries,

Cotton Batting,

POUND CALICO,

COTTON WARPS,

WHITE, BLUE and COLORED.

Also Agent for Gilbert's Lane Dye Works, St. John, and McCall's New York Bazaar Glove Fitting Patterns.

Some Interesting Details of the Recent Enumeration. EDGECOMBE'S.

FEBRUARY ARRIVALS.

2 00000 NEW

White Cottons,

Pillow Cottons, Sheetings,

> Tickings, Towels,

COTTON WARPS, Below will be found a statement of the milage of the various railways in Canada in MORSE, KALEY & Co.'S

COTTON BATTING.

CELEBRATED KNITTING COTTONS,

The Sale of Remnants and Winter Stock will be continued another Month.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

Queen St., Fredericton,

Fredericton, February 17.