The Legislative Season.

What a vast array of legislators are brushing the cobwebs from their intel lects, in preparation for the approaching legislative season. On the same day Thursday, February twenty-fifth, the legislatures of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and the Canadian Parliament, assemble, to do the business of the country. The number will include over five hundred representatives of the people, meeting together the same day, for the same purpose. The sessions of all three bodies, promise to be lively. Riel agitation, or what little of it remains, will stir the Parliament at Ot tawa. Mr. Blake and his lieutenants will make the most of the rebellion and its consequences, to manufacture capital against the Government, Much legislation this session is not looked for, and if the Opposition renew the obstructive tactics of last session, but little can be accomplished. The Grit party seem to fear that a general election may be sprung on them during the present year, and their efforts will not be so much to ward harrassing the Government in Parliament, as it will be to catch the ear of the country. The same may also be said of the local legislatures. In both New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, this year, there will be general elections.

Our own Province since the general election of 1882, has had a change of rulers. Has the change been a beneficial by its administration of public affairs.

Nova Scotia since 1882, has endured vigorous arms to execute. the existence of a notoriously weak Government, whose higest aim is to follow in the wake of Gritism. Minnesotta, and in fact, everything is pointing to great prosperity in that portion of the Dominion.

Is not the great, the unlimited Northwest a heritage worth preserving? Is not its possession a thing deserving sacrifice, and even bloodshed? Who can say what may not be the possibilities of the country during the next half century. We are not New Brunswickers, or Nova Scotians, or British Columbians, but CANADIANS, and the prosperity of one portion of this Dominion ought to be as dear to us as that of any other. The provincial boundaries are, or ought to be, invisible lines. We ought to think and act as Canadians, proud of our common country, and anxious for its success, not as narrow minded bigots, looking only to the success of this or that Province. We should, and we do rejoice in the news of Winnipeg's growth, as we are delighted with the great prosperity of Marquis of Lansdowne's rents 17 per cent. ### Management of the Indians.

The management of the Indians is uestion that must give the Dominion Governments of the future, a world of trouble.
