Old Men, George Perkins,

About fifty ladies and gentlemen surprised Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Edgecombe, at their residence Monday night, and presented them with a great variety of wooden articles for domestic use, the occasion being the fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edgecombe's wedding. A very pleasant evening was spent in dancing. Robert Hutchinson, formerly of Chipman, Queens County, met with a sad death mining recently, in Montana. While standing at the bottom of the pit, a loaded bucket gave way and, falling on his head, killed him almost instantly. The deceased was a worthy young man and leaves a wife and three small children out west. The curling match proposed between the Fredericton and Truro clubs is off, the home club being unable to muster a sufficient number of rinks.
