For Toilet Use.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and ireshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair.—Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. **My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. **A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff. — Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

Shot the Girl who Refused Him.

In the neat front parlor of a little frame house at No. 214 Pleasant street, Shringfield, Ohio, Thursday night, Samuel Bowser, a painter, shot Dora Judd, a pretty brunette, who had refused to marry him. Hardly had the girl fallen dead at his feet, when he pressed the muzzle of the weapon to his own forehead, and sent a ball crashing into his brain. He fell near the girl. So instantaneous was the death of both that neither uttered a cry. As soon as the reports of the pistol rang out Garland Judd, a brother of the girl, rushed into the room and, frantic with excitement, seized the legs of Bowser and tried to drag him out of the room. As Bowser hes two desperate wounds, it is thought that the boy wrenched the revolver from the murder-er's hand and fired a shot into his prostrate body. The boy denied, however, that he fired. Bowser had been a boader in the Judd family, and was much infatuated with the charms of Miss Judd. She would have little to do with him, however. He came to the house and said: "Dora, you will never see me alive again after to-night." He returned to the house shortly before six, and asked Miss Judd to come to the door. She refused. He then entered the house and followed the girl and her grandmother into the front room. They chattered pleasantly for a while. Finally Bowser leaved over the rocking chair in No article of its kind has given such satis- intend to keep my word about what I threatened." He then fired instantly.
