MATRIMONIAL HARVEST!

The Montreal Star of May 21st has the following regarding the mysterious disappearance of Mr. William A. Macpherson, a well known Fredericton boy, and son of the late Hon. Charles Macpherson:—"On Tuesday, the 17th instant, Mr. W. A. Macpherson left the Royal Insurance office, in which he has been employed some 12 years past, and since then no reliable trace can be found of him. Although for days his friends have tried in every possible way to get a clue, none has been discovered. He was not in any financial need, and Mr. Tatley, General Agent of the Royal, says his accounts appear all right. It is greatly feared some accident may have befallen him, or that he may have been the the 8th of July. You will find by calling on Dr. Mc-Allister that his low rates still continue.

The public closing exercises of the Normal School were held Friday, quite a large number of visitors being present. Principal Mullin announced Miss Barker of the Senior class and Mr. Yorston of the Junior class the winners of the Lansdowne Medals. The licensee examinations are now in progress.

The Hook and Ladder and Protection Company, will hold a Promenade Concert and Dance in the Skating Rink on Tuesday evening next, 7th inst., for the purpose of assisting them in procuring a suitable uniform for the Queen's Jubilee celebration. Refreshments will be on sale, and a pleasant time may be expected.

Mr. J. R. Howie, a practical tailor of many years standing, again makes his bow to FARMER readers. He has a splendid stock for the spring and summer trade, and besides himself and his son Robert, he has secured the services of a first class cutter from New York, Mr. Howie hesides manufacturing and the services of a first class cutter from New York, Mr. Howie hesides manufacturing at the parl trimmed front, long white veil and orange blossoms. She was attended by her sister Miss May Robinson, Miss Eninor Powys of this city, all of whom wore pretty costumes of pink, and carried handsome boucquets. The bridegroom was supported by Mr. Frank P. Starr of St. John, and the ushers were Messrs. W. H. Robinson and Mr. Thomas Walker. The bride party moved down the aisle after the ceremony, the organ under the professional touch of Prof. Bristowe, pealed forth Mendelsshon's wedding march. A large number of invited guests were present to witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Carr took the western train for New York, whence they sail on the Cunarder Aurania on Saturday to visit Mr. Carr's relatives in England. The bridal presents were numerous and costly. This afternoon a reception to the wedding guests was held by

Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Clarke celebrated their silver wedding at their home on George street Monday evening when a large company of friends gathered to congratulate them. The guests also left ample evidence of their kindly feeling for Mr. and Mrs. Clarke in the shape of numerous silver presents. Mrs. Clarke received her visitors in a handsome heliotrope silk in which she was married a quarter of a century ago. Another pleasant social event occurred at Mr. R. A. Estey's residence Carleton street last night, when friends called in large numbers to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Estey on the attainment of twenty years of married life. The presents were numerous and appropriate and the visit-ors were pleasantly entertained.

WONDERFUL! DETWEEN eight and ten years ago, a medicine was introduced to the public, and suffering humanity was invited to try the same.

The proprietor knew from experience, that success was certain, but the human breast so imbued with prejudice that it forms one of the strongest barriers to break down and the greatest enemy to overcome before any headway can be made towards the mansion of success. Truth has often proved itself to be "stranger than fiction," and it is a fact as solid as truth that SMITH'S CHAMOMILE PILLS and from east to west, they are to be found in the homes of the rich and poor. All classes of society use them, and they are by thousands declared to be Worth their Weight in Gold For a Weak Stomach, Impaired Digestion, and all disorders of the Liver, they act like "MAGIC," and a few doses will be found to work wonders on the most important organs in the human

These are only a few taken from the hundreds in mypossession, and are ithe names of proninent business and professional men, well known. Directions for taking Smith's Chamomile Pills. If the bowels are costive, the countenance sallow and the tongue furred, take 3 or 4 pills on going to bed; if they do not operate in ten hours, then take two more afterwards. Take one pill every (or every other night), just enough to keep the bowels gently moved. For ordinary Billious Complaints one or two doses are sufficient. These pills act on the system very similar to blue pills, or blue Mass, but do not contain the least particle of mercury or calomel.
