The Artful Dodger Trapped.

In the Gleaner of the 21st inst., Mr Gregory makes a very clumsy attempt to escape from the paralyzing effect of the circular issued by him on the 16th of February, and published in the last number of the FARMER, which circular contains the following remarkable sentence :- "It would not amiss to procure a few trusty persons to put themselves in the way of being offered a Bribe for the purpose of detecting offenders!" Mr. Gregory states that the circular that it was printed by order of a member of his election committee, but was not approved; that 80 copies were ordered, but the printer over-ran the G.) now found 81 copies in his drawer; and that the copy in the FARMER's possession, must have been surreptitiously taken therefrom,

It is of no earthly use for Mr. Gregory to attempt to dodge the issue. His remarks, or any explanations he can possibly make, cannot in the slightest degree deaden the force of the fact, that while seeking, on February 16th last, to escape the disastrous consequences of his connection with the Woodward bribery plot, he was, on the same day, secretly plotting a wholesale conspiracy of precisely the same character. Mr. Gregory insinu ates that the copy of his circular now in the FARMER'S possession, was not honestly obtained. That insinuation does not disturb the FARMER's virtu- py condition of affairs. ous repose, and only creates amusement for the public at Mr. Gregory's expense.
