THE RAILWAY BRIDGE.

A Voter thinks it ought contain a Foot Passenger Way.

To the Editor of the Farmer: Sir—Considerable inconvenience will be caused to the citizens of Fredericton by the railway which is proposed to build on St. James street, and as the Company has not hesitated to ask the favor of a right of way, neither should the City Council hesitate to demand as a right that the foot passenger way should be built in connection with the new bridge.

Fredericton, July 26, 1887.

[We think "Voter" is rather strong in his demand, as the charter of the Company does not require them to build a passenger way, and it would be an unusual course for the City Council to dictate to the Company as to the contract they may make. Accommodation for foot passengers would doubtless be a great convenience to the residents in the places our correspondent mentions, but we presume that even if that were furnished, it would be a matter of some difficulty to pay toll, the same as the toll on the subject. We publish "Voter's" letter, although it did not have the courtesy to send his name in confidence, but we suspect that he is a somewhat Grit who is not without worth for railway communication. However, he has lots of company hereabouts.—FARMER.]

THE RITUALISTIC CASE.

A Sermon Practically Applied.

To the Editor of the Farmer: Sir—In a late copy of the Gleaner, I read an eloquent sermon by a Rev. Dr. Wolff, of Acton, Ill., "On Righteousness and Peace." I give you an extract from his having referred to man's war with his creator, the golden chain of obedience which bound every man to his creator, broken, it is no wonder that the minds of men are thrown violently against each other. You may assume it as a principle, that the reason why hearts hate, and men rise up against his fellow man, is because they are all separated and broken off from their common God. The bidding power is gone, and there is left nothing but chaos and conflict. Hence the tempers which embitter a family, hence the quarrels which divide a society, hence the heart burnings which alienate brethren, hence angry arguments, hence law suits, hence the wars which devastate the earth. They are all but another chapter in the history of man's enmity with God.

As a fulfillment of the Rev. gentleman's remarks, how true, last Saturday's Gleaner contains two or three columns of an account of a member of Christ Church, going to law against his Rector and Bishop. But friend, will you not see that of Tereus find it hard to kick against the pricks? There should be this consolation to all loyal church people, do not see in our spiritual Pastors the true spirit of the master in praying for their enemy and doing good to them that hate them and persecute them. Some learned wise and good man has said, the more quietly and peaceably we get on the better for our neighbors. In nine cases out of ten the wisest policy is if a man chafes you, quit dealing with him, if he is abusive, quit his company, if he slanders you take care to live so that nobody will believe him, no matter who he is, or how he abuses you, the wisest way is generally to let him alone, for there is nothing better than this cool, calm quiet way of dealing with the wronged man. You may assume it as a principle, it is wise to say little respecting the injuries we receive in this way. We cannot control the evil tongues of others, but a good life enables us to despise them.

Fredericton, July 26, 1887.

THE BAND AND THE FORESTERS.

An Explanatory Letter from Secretary Lipsett.

To the Editor of the Farmer: Sir—The following appears in the Gleaner of the 21st inst., in reference to the Fredericton Brass Band and the Foresters' excursion: "The Foresters' excursion to the coast was unable to procure a band for the excursion. It is not known whether the Fredericton Brass Band umbrage because some one had told them that somebody said that the Foresters had been consulting with some other band, or whether they did not consider a twenty-four hours notice sufficient time in which to get ready. It is known, however, that the managers of the excursion, were informed by the secretary of the Band at a late hour that the Band had decided not to go."

As a wrong impression would likely be taken from reading the above, I consider it necessary to give the reasons why the Fredericton Brass Band did not accompany the Foresters, which I will do as briefly as possible.

In the 14th inst., Mr. Creed, H. C. R. of this institution, called on me to know what the Band would charge to go with the Foresters on an excursion down the river on the 20th inst., leaving here at either 3 or 4 o'clock and returning in five hours. I promised him an answer the following day, which I gave, also giving him, in answer to his question, the strength of the Band. He replied not to consider it an engagement, but they had something else under consideration. No other person approached me to engage the Band, until the evening before the excursion, when between 5 and 6 o'clock, Mr. P. R. Cliff called on me, stating that he, with some others, were appointed a committee for the purpose of engaging the Fredericton Brass Band for the excursion, and he wanted to engage them then and there. I replied that I could not do so, but promised him an answer that evening. I explained how I had been consulted by two other persons and myself in the FARMER office to go on the excursion, as it was publication day, but that I could have arranged it had I known it in time. I told him about Mr. Creed calling on me and what had passed between us. His remarks about that gentleman, in reference to the hiring of the Band, were about as complimentary as were those of other members of the order, with whom I conversed in reference to his (Mr. Creed) hiring the Band. After finding out from a number of the members of the Band that it was impossible for them to make arrangements to go, on account of the short notice, I told the result to Mr. Cliff about ten o'clock that evening, a late hour, he says, I admit, but he did not give me time or place, when and where, I was to give him an answer.

There are the facts, and all of the facts, in connection with the hiring of the Band for the excursion, and which Mr. Cliff well knew when he wrote the above for the Gleaner. Had the committee appointed by the Foresters given the Band a reasonable time to have made arrangements for attending, we would have been pleased to have accompanied them on the excursion. I think it would have been more courteous to Mr. Cliff, knowing the above facts, had he given them the time he stated, and not drawn his imagination for reasons why the Band did not go on the excursion. I may say, in conclusion, that it is not always possible for the Band to accept all engagements offered, and we do not wish to be occupied by some of its members, and it is unfair to expect that any member should sacrifice his position or business for the Band but engagements offered, and we do not wish to give good satisfaction to those employing them. Thanking you for space for this explanation, I remain, Yours, &c., ANDREW LISSETT, Secy. Trans. F. B. B. Fredericton, July 25, 1887.

That Old "Bech" again. An old bachelor asserts that the best and quietest way to relieve a lady when she faints is to begin to talk down her hair; if it ain't her own she will cut it off, and she will get away to you fainting and to produce Hair-oil is to use MINARD'S LINIMENT.

Town and Country.

See Dr. McAllister's new advertisement. Sol Smith Russell at the City Hall, Monday evening. Mrs. Simon Nealis is visiting friends at Lake Falls, Madawaska. L. S. Cory will not be home from St. Andrews until next week. Mayor and Mrs. Fenney are visiting Halifax, His Worship's native city. For a thoroughly good Extract of Lemon, try the "Royal."

City Treasurer Moore received $3,800 in taxes Monday, the last day for discount. Robt. Landell, late Principal of the Woodstock Grammar School, is in British Columbia. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Winslow and Miss Temp, returned yesterday from a trip to Digby. The Fredericton Brass Band will play opposite the Parliament Buildings, Friday evening. Work has already been commenced on the Fredericton Bridge. Contractors are erecting an office for Engineer Brown this afternoon. The party who took a water proof coat from one of the cars during the late press excursion will oblige the owner by leaving it at the depot.

You will find by calling on Dr. McAllister that his low prices still continue. The Metropolitan Sunday in St. Andrews Episcopal church Sunday, and the Orthodox Episcopal church held a confirmation service at Woodstock. A slight fire in what is popularly known as the "coffee house" occupied by Miss Victoria opposite Estey's mill called out the firemen's assistance. Mr. Charles George, brother of Mr. D. F. George of this city, has recently been appointed Postmaster of Providence, R. I., with a salary of $4,000 per year.

The Moncton Transcript says that Premier Blair, who spent Sunday in town at the Brunswick, was a prominent worshipper at the Baptist services in the opera house Sunday evening. Mr. Richard Wood of West Gillesville, Carleton County, has a chicken with four wings and four legs. It is perfect, notwithstanding its capacity to do double the scratching of the ordinary chick. The new substitute for Pills—Campbell's Cathartic Compound. Easily taken much more effective. Nelson Campbell is selling Boots and Shoes at rock bottom prices for cash. He now offers 100 pairs Ladies' French Kid Button Boots for $1.95. Call and see.

J. E. Parker, dealer in boots and shoes, and gent's furnishing goods, left Woodstock on the evening of the 14th, ostensibly to go to St. John to return the following Saturday. He has not yet returned, and numerous creditors are left to mourn. His liabilities are said to be about $15,000. We direct our readers to the advertisement of J. C. Risteen & Co. Those who contemplate building, will do well to call and examine their stock of doors, sashes, mouldings, and mill work. They have on hand, they can furnish all parties at short notice, and at very low prices.

Mr. Albert Brewer of Woodstock, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the Government Stock barn, and it is to have the work completed Sept. 1st. The site of the building was located yesterday afternoon by Mr. A. G. Beckwith, C. E., in the most northerly angle of the new Driving Range. Mr. Robert Scott of the Barron has bought the store at Lower Southampton, built by Henry Stairs, and recently owned by Mr. W. F. Thornton, and will conduct a general mercantile business. The store is a very modern and excellent one, and the FARMER wishes him success in his business.

The neat, peaceful and Edenlike residence of Edward W. Peck, Esq., of "The Park," is now sweet and desirable by lots of white garden lilies in bloom. (Lilium Candidum.) These were favorites with the late Judge Wilton. They are perfectly hardy, and in some of the catalogues are called St. Joseph's Lily, having long been considered an emblem of whiteness and purity. One of the most enjoyable private social gatherings of the season was the ball held at the residence of the Hon. E. H. Governor, Monday evening 18th inst., at which were present Lieut. Col. Maussell, D. A. G., and officers of the I. S. C., together with a large number of ladies and gentlemen visitors from all parts of the Province. The music was furnished by the orchestra of the Infantry School Corps.—Boy Pilot.

The following appointments have been gazetted:—Lieut. "C" Battalion of Infantry to be Surgeon, Assistant Surgeon David Richard Moore, vice John Zebide Currie, whose resignation is hereby accepted. Madet Robert Brydone Jack of the Royal Military College is gazetted a Lieutenant in the active militia of Canada, with commission to date from 29th June. Lieut. Jack graduated at the college this year, seventh on the list.

Mr. John Henderson, nightorman of the New York Herald, has gone to Paris by the request of Mr. Bennett, to take charge of and get into good running shape, (Lapin's) Messenger, the English newspaper in Paris, in which Mr. Bennett is reported to have a share. Mr. Henderson served his time in the old Gleaner office in Chatham, under the name of "Tom Perry," and afterward worked in Fredericton under Mr. Fenney and the late Mr. Charles Laurin. Mrs. A. L. Wright, a New Brunswick lady, now living at Lowell, Mass., writes to the FARMER, in reference to a paper that she had seen in the FARMER, in which it was stated that the bridge between Fredericton and St. John was carried away by the flood last spring, but has never been able to learn the facts. Please answer in the FARMER. Our correspondent is assured that the bridge was not without all the assaults of the ice jam and flood last spring, and is now as secure in its position as the day it was first opened.—FARMER.

The Police Magistrate held a court yesterday morning for the continuance of the examination of the Holton brothers, who were charged with the Gibson robbery. Mr. H. B. Ransford moved for an adjournment of the examination for one week, in order that an important witness may be called. Mr. J. T. Sharkey for the defendants, protested against adjournment, claiming that no evidence would be called, and the prisoners be discharged. The Police Magistrate granted the adjournment of one week for by Mr. Ransford. Sol. Smith Russell the popular comedian is appearing at the City Hall on Monday evening next, and it is hoped that our citizens will not miss the opportunity of seeing an actor of so great a reputation as Sol Smith Russell. In his representation of "Tom Dillaway" in "Edgewood Folks," Mr. Russell is without a rival and he is supported by a company far above the average. The St. John papers give the star, the comedy, and the play the very highest praise on the presentation of the piece in that city on Monday and Tuesday last. The sale of reserved seats is now going on at Fenney's Book Store, and the seats are selling rapidly. The usual popular prices prevail, viz.—50 and 50 cents, and 75 for reserved seats. Let every one who wishes to enjoy a good laugh go to the City Hall on Monday evening next.

ALBERT AND WESTMORLAND.

Items of Interest by a Rambling Correspondent.

A competent authority estimates the quantity of lumber cut in Albert County the past season at 20,000,000 feet. At McAllen's, three schooners are employed in the summer in carrying deals to New England. The people of Albert are not likely to think the loss of their able representative in the House of Commons because of his latest move. He has taken up his abode at Elgin and promises soon to develop into a veritable horny handed son of toil. Albert County crops are looking excellent this season with the exception of English hay on the marshes which is an almost entire failure owing to the ravages of the army worm. The upland grass is up to the average, and is now being rapidly stowed away. The Dorchester Copper Mines do not appear to be realizing the expectations of the American capitalists who have sunk so much money in them. It is said by some that the prospecting is difficult to find in paying quantities; by others that a rise in the market is awaited. I think there is truth in both versions. The Essex quarry case did not go to the jury, the Attorney General withdrawing the case in view of the strong defence made out. This action on the part of Mr. Blair was the most satisfactory to most people in that it was believed that political animosity entered largely into the affair, which animates the Crown prosecutor flatly refused to take. Contractor Oliver is opposed to the proposed railway through rapidly. The road will be sixteen miles in length and is practically an extension of the present road from Salisbury. Ten miles are now graded and steel rails are being rapidly laid in position. It is expected that the entire road will be completed this season. On Saturday last Hon. Mr. Turner launched a fine sloop on his yard at Harvey Bank where so many noble vessels have with in the past fifteen years left the ways. This vessel is of 350 tons capacity and is intended for the coasting trade. She will be commanded by Captain William E. Duke, and will be registered and probably loaded at Dorchester. Our honored Attorney General is a commanding figure in the Circuit Court now in session. His occasional visits to Westmorland make him well known and popular with the people. It is one of the prominent sensations of the day when the Premier and his old antagonist Mr. Hamilton cross swords in the great arena, there perhaps the two will even better matched than on the floors of the House.

Dorchester Corner is fast losing its prominence before the wonderful growth of Moncton. But within pistol range of the latter a native point on the residence of about a dozen families whose united wealth is estimated at $2,000,000. Lady Smith is placed to be worth nearly as much as her husband has one—a deservedly popular young man—who in time, all this wealth will doubtless revert. On Saturday last Hon.
