I know not why warm hearts turn cold And eyes once filled with love sublime Grow passionless: and days of old Pass onward with relentless time-

Alas! I know not.

I know not why, hand placed in hand, In sacred trust of friendship pure, While journeying through this mortal land Should sundered be, and not endure— Alas! I know not.

I know not why old vows are broken, Like some frail toy of infancy; And each dead hope and every token, Old age, through tears, again should see— Alas! I know not.

I know not why some fatal weakness Oft clouds the minds of noble men, And proves the bar to that completeness Which lends the power to the pen-Alas! I know not.

I know not why, in summer hours, When life is beautiful to see, Death stalks amidst the fragrant bowers, To still the young heart's thoughtless gle Alas! I know not.

I know not why the dead so calm, Give back no answer to our cries; To aching hearts no soothing balm, From that strange realm beyond the skies Alas! I know not.

I know not why we wait in vain, For some sweet voice and love-lit eye: And, in strange silence, bear the pain, While cherished hopes within us die-Alas! I know not.

I know not why on mother earth We roam like pilgrims from afar, And from the dawn of reason's birth Till death's cruel night, in darkness are-Alas! I know not.

Literature.

A LIFE FOURSQUARE.

CHAPTER XXVII.

Three months later saw Earle Wayne firmly established as the master of Wy. cliffe, and over all other property belonging to the former Marquis of Wycliffe and Viscount Wayne. His mother's character was cleared of every imputation of the seemed no nearer the accomplishment. ter was cleared of every imputation of he seemed no nearer the accomplishment there.

evil, her body removed to the vaults of his object than at the very first. race of Vance, and the friends of her town. "I am nearly distracted, for all youth now looked back with sadness and my efforts are vain. I have interviewed a "Unless the young lady has been taken hotel at that hour of the night without

Paul Tressalia first of all went down to Winchelsea, where he interviewed the old sexton of St. John's Chapel, who told him no charm in life for me until I find my though not enough to give him any idea gress, glided velvet-shod over the soft Miss Isabel Grafton, and craved permis- graph me instantly if there is a single ray

As soon as he heard that low sobbing of hope." sion to peruse her father's diary.

She received him with the same graci. "Poor fellow!" the lawyer sighed, as still more ous ress that she had accorded Earle, and he folded the letter after reading it; "it tory, while he in return related much re. almost inclined to think the girl is dead," moved just enough to admit a line of garding Earle's manly battling with the he mused, "else, with her resolution and light at the bottom, Then he could hear cold world, omitting, of course, that sad epoch wherein he, too, had suffered so much for another's wrong.

defined by the first the bottom, and the first the bottom and In a simple, manly fashion he mention. where against her will."

ed the fact that the establishment of his But he could only telegraph to Earle: young kinsman's identity dethroned him "No clew has yet been discovered." from Wycliffe and one of the proudest positions in England, and Miss Grafton's quest by himself. expressions of sincere regret and sym pathy were the sweetest and most com everything; there is a point beyond which forting sounds that had fallen on his ear tired natures refuses to go, and at last, "Yes, since that night when Editha Dalton had worn almost to a shadow, Earle felt that as before, crushed his last hope of ever winning her he must do something to recruit his

He was convinced beyond the shadow of a doubt that Earle was the rightful heir, and he gave up everything to his possession without a demur; and then leaving him, and he grew so nervous and out of the nobility of his nature, took irritable that the slightest noise startled upon himself the defense of Marion him painfully, the least opposition or dis Vance's character. He caused a notice of the marriage to durance.

be inserted in all the leading papers, with | "I am going to be sick," he said one the date of the event, wrote a brief and day, when he was nearly prostrated, and simple account of the manner in which it looking at his thin, trembling hands. restored to his rights. It was not long after this before the whole world, Marion's world-knew of face, and hoping that Mr. Felton might her innocence, and immediately recog by this time be able to give him a "drop nized and cordially received Earle as Mar. of comfort," he returned with all speed quis of Wycliffe and Viscount Wayne. This accomplished, Earle's impatient heart told him he now might return to countable repugnance to repairing to the Editha and claim the reward of all his hotel where he usually stopped, and where patient waiting, and to make one last ef he had before spent so many restless fort to discover the criminals for whom he miserable nights, seized him, and calling had so unjustly suffered.

He did not dream that when he should but no less respectable house, located in inform Mr. Dalton of the great change in his prospects, and the position to which he had attained, he would longer with room. hold his consent to his marriage with his As it hpppened, the hotel that week daughter; and so it was with a light heart was overflowing with transient visitors. that he left Paul Tressalia to rule at Wy. and at first the clerk told him that there cliffe until his return, and set sail for the was not a room to be had in the house. The "wings of the wind" were not half commodate me, for I am too weary and rapid enough to bear him thither, for, for ill to move another step," Earle said; and several weeks past, his heart had been indeed his looks did not belie his words. filled with great anxiety. Editha's letters had suddenly ceased, the proprietors, and then returned, say. and though he wrote again and again, it | ing they would give him a room in which was ever with the same result-not one to sleep that night, if he did not mind a

came in reply. He did not for a moment doubt her day there would probably be better actions. I'm sick and tired of the whole constancy; he knew she simply could not | commodations for him. be untrue to him, and he was forced to "I shall mind nothing, so that I can believe that Mr. Dalton had discovered have a bed on which to rest," the tired the fact of their correspondence, and had | traveler said, much relieved by the inteltaken measures to stop it, in perhaps the ligence.

same way that he had before intercepted "I sha her flowers. The passage across the Atlantic was an ter. It is reserved for her son, who occaunusually long one, owing to unfavorable | sionally visits her and remains over night. winds and storms, and he was nearly sick He went away this morning, and, as he with the delay, and his patience exhaust. probably will not be here to-night, you ed, when at last the vessel touched her can have that room," explained the clerk.

pier, and he sprang ashore like a restless bird escaped from its cage. Two hours later he stood on the steps idea of in any way incommoding a lady. of Mr. Dalton's residence, his heart beat Oh, no; we have done the same thing, ing with a strange, unaccountable fear of with her consent, once or twice before, something wrong, though he knew not when the house has been full," was the

A servant answered his impatient ring, and to his eager inquiry, " Is Miss Dalton and to his eager inquiry, "Is Miss Dalton once," Earle said, rising, and anxious to to mere skeleton. the at rest. The clerk hesitated before

He then inquired for Mr. Dalton, and the reply suddenly stilled his rapid heart beats and drove every shade of color from invalid—she is a little cracked," he added, his face and lips.
"No' sir, Mr. Dalton is not at home;

he has been searching for Miss Dalton the man said.

ever since her strange disappearance," this, so that if you were disturbed you "Strange disappearance! Man! what alarmed." do you mean?" gasped Earle, actually staggering beneath the unexpected blow.

locked, of course?" Earle asked. The servant, pitying his distress, asked him to come in, saying he would tell him side, and there is also a bolt upon the all about the affair. He mechanically obeyed, and his heart barmless, only her brother informed me nearly died within him as he listened to that when the spell comes upon her she the strange account of her sudden dis moans constantly, as if in distress, and appearance and protracted absence. they come on mostly in the night. She Nothing had been heard of her during may not disturb you at all, however." all that time beyond what has already "I shall not mind it, now that you a weakening, sickening tremor prevaded most successful robbers in the United been related in a previous chapter, al have told me this; it might have disturb every nerve in his body.

though almost every one reasoned, from ed me otherwise," Earle answered, as he the account which the policeman gave of wearily turned to follow his guide. her encounter with the ruffian on her re-turn from John Loker's house, that he into the fourth story, and he was shown her get a little strength before you exert into the fourth story, and he was shown must have something to do with it, since into a room at the top of the house. she seemed to possess something that he It was a long, rather narrow room, comwas bound to have, and she as determin- fortably furnished, and having two doors to gain a clew to her whereabouts, and Earle could see a dim light, but all was know." then would suddenly lose it again. hen would suddenly lose it again.

Her fate remained a dark and perplex. He look to see that the bolt was per-

At first Earle inclined to think that Mr. Dalton himself was criminally concerned in the affair, remembering as he did his excessive anger upon discovering that Editha had promised to be his wife, and also his insulting language, sneers, and sarcasm both to her and him the day be and dreamless slumber.

fore his departure for Europe.

Mr. Felton asserted that Mr. Dalton He privately informed him also that his He sat erect in bed and listened.

great and unexpected trouble.

all any one would ever know?

own name from dishonor.

search.

to work.

began his weary search.

to the city whence he had started.

Arriving in the evening, some unac-

The clerk went to consult with one of "The door between the rooms can be

"Oh, yes; madam keeps it lock on her

CHAPTER XXVIII.

EARLE WAYNE'S BOLD VENTURE.

He almost instantly fell into a profound leading the way.

business affairs were mextricably involved

Arousing so suddenly, and being conwas now travelling in search of her, and sequently somewhat confused, it seemed from her eyes, her clasped hands drop- fore a healthy tree, is dying of a mysterihad been unwearied in his efforts to find to him at first as if some one had called ped apart, and fell limp and nerveless ous disease. This is nature's way of re-pendent upon Editha's income, which she if in anger, and the same low sobbing in- had done a moment before with that tlings of molasses casks. had freely and generously shared with stantly began again, while a sweet voice strained look on her face. seemed pleading for something. Now, however, since she was of age and Then he heard the man's voice somecontrolled her property, he would be cut what louder, and speaking impatiently, off from that source of supply until she as if he had commanded some one to do was found, as Mr. Felton had no right to something, and had not been obeyed. pay over anything to him without her It was followed as before by a low sob-

he exerted every effort in his power to find that made Earle Wayne feel very strange-"There is something wrong going on in Earle's every interest and thought for himself was now also swallowed up in this there," he muttered to himself. "The clerk said the man would not return here He no longer thought of seeking those unpunished criminals, or of clearing his like the sound of things at all,

He rose and went softly to the door him. What cared he for any disgrace that which led into the other apartment. might cling to him, so long as her fate remained such a dark mystery, and she, perhaps, sick and suffering, or-dead, for that was said. He bent his head to the keyhole, but For a weak he was nearly mad, neither eating nor sleeping, but wandering aim a man and woman conversing in low tones, lessly about the streets, peering into every sithout distinguishing a word. face he met, as if he hoped that by some The sobbing had ceased for the lessly shut in by the darkness, as it were, again. behind its bars, against which he constant. ly fretted and fumed, until with the first Wayne's forehead.

sign of dawn, he could return to his vain The sounds affected him as he had But at the end of the week he began to to no what piece of wickedness-for wickrealize the uselessness of his present edness he was convinced it was -- was becourse, and then determined to settle ing enacted within those walls at that down to some methodical plan upon which | time of the night. A faint light from the other room shone these walls again. Do you hear?"

other State in the Union in the same striking him. The transom, of course, was glazed, and Of course, this would entail upon him he had no doubt that it was fastened slight frame. a life-long search, and the detectives told upon the other side, but possible he pains—that he would never find her in get up to it, and it would do no harm for that way. They held to the belief that him to investigate and see if it was fastshe was either in that very city, or else ened. He brought the centre table and put it in one of the adjoining cities, and within easy reach of the great metropolis, and softly down by the door. He then took they declared that they should confine a blanket from his bed and covered the crack, and stood there in the dark wait-Tressalia, begging him to remain and rule the aid of another, he found himself upon thing.

at Wycliffe until his return, eyen though a level with the transom. it should be for a long time, and then he ed that it was not fastened; it was tight-It would be wearisome in the extreme ly closed, but it yielded beneath his cau-

While he stood there waiting for a her ancestors, where it rested as peace "What shall I do?" he wrote, almost favorable opportunity to push the tranfully and quietly as the noblest of all the in despair, to Mr. Felton from a distant som open, a neighboring clock struck the proceeding further.

regret upon the sufferings of the beauti number of detectives in different cities, suddenly sick, I am satisfied that mischief being discovered, particularly when he ful injured girl, which their own sneers and no two advise the same mode of pro- of some kind is brewing," he said to him had three flights of stairs and as many and coldness had helped to aggravate.

Cedure, and have advanced so many plans self, and resolving not to leave his post halls to traverse, was a point Earle did until he had ascertained whether he was at sea, without rudder or sail. I suffer right or not.

exactly the same story that he had told lost one. Can you give me any hope? of the nature of the conversation carried carpet.

Earle seven years before. He next sought lost one. Can you give me any hope? on there.

again he gently tried to move the transom him say, in a mocking tone. "Yes, Ellen Wood," came the reply, in laid him upon the floor, and locked him And the weary lover resumed his sad a plaintive voice that made Earle's hair at once stand on end. But poor, frail humanity cannot endure "You are sure your name is Ellen

"Yes, Ellen Wood," in the same tone strength, or he would give out entirely

"Where were you born?" "In Texas." "Who is your father?" "Judge Allen Wood."

"Where is he now?" "He is dead." "Who is this woman?" "She is my-mother," with a shudder- fusion. ing accent on the last word. appointment tried him almost beyond en-"And I am your brother, am I not?" "N-n-o, oh!" a gasping voice uttered, with a moan between each word, "You ain't over fond of me, I see," had occurred, the wrong that had been 'This anxiety and ceaseless search are the man returned with a low, mocking room, he knew he could not escape, for attempted but fortunately outwitted, and how at last the reil heir, her son, had been restored to his rights.

fast wearing me out. I must rest, or I laugh. "You've got your lesson pretty well learned, though, and if any one restored to his rights.

fast wearing me out. I must rest, or I laugh. "You've got your lesson pretty well learned, though, and if any one not, of course, make his way out by the should ask you any questions to morrow window. Longing for the sight of some familiar when you go out to take the air-as you must do for the sake of your healthyou'll know how to answer them. Now take that ring from your finger and give it to me," he commanded, sternly.

"I can't, I can't !" moaned the plaintive did so. "Curse your obstinacy and my lack of power!' he growled. "Now tell me where that paper is-quick!" a coach, he gave the name of a smaller,

"No, no, no! no, no, no!" strength was almost exhausted.

The man swore a fearful oath and, then Earle heard another voice—a woman's—to the door and look out to see what was the trouble, when he would easily be able to get inside, and into Editha's the genuine only prepared by and bearing the able to get inside, and into Editha's "You must manage some way to acstrong enough to make her tell that, and you are wearing her out; she can't stand this kind of thing much longer." little noise now and then, and by another

"Better let her go anyway, and run the kill her at this rate." "I shall have to give you one of a suite of rooms hired by a lady and her daugh-

"Dead men never tell tales," he answered moodily; "but the risk is too great, for if that paper contains a descrip. tion of me, I'm a marked man as long as I live." Earle now ventured to push the transom a little more. It was clear of the wood-work now, and swung quite easily and noiselessly, so that "Will not the madam object?" Earle he could get a good view of the room, and asked, instinctively recoiling from the he saw a sight that made his heart stand cry of agony escaping his lips. Upon a bed in the corner opposite him confident and reassuring reply.

"All right; I am ready to accupy it at lay Editha Dalton. She was as white as the counterpane covering her, and wasted

She was sobbing in a nervous, excited way, her thin white hands clasped upon "I ought perhaps to tell you, sir," he began "that madam's daughter is an staring, and fixed in a fascinated gaze her heaving breast, her eyes wild and upon a burly, repulsive-looking man, who again shut, locked, and the key in his touching his forehead significantly, "and sometimes takes on a little during the stood by the bedside scowling fiercely pocket. upon her. night. I thought you ought to be told By his side there also stood a nicely dressed, rather prepossessing woman of might know the cause and not be about fifty five. Their backs were toward the door they had seen nothing of the almost gaining all the power he wanted for the noiseless movement of that transom be hind them. It took all the force of Earle's will to control his intense excitement as he look. pied above six or seven minutes, nor ed upon the scene just described. Never in his life had he felt so dizzy don't come here again for a week. Let from eyen greater sufferings than she Mrs. JOHN BLACK said in reply to the man's last observa-

"The weaker she is the less will she attention to the occupant of the bed. to it, one leading into the hall, the other will have," he muttered. The detectives employed to unravel the into the room adjoining. There was a mystery could learn nothing; they were tramson over both doors, and through the never move her to tell what you want to kill her I baffled at every point. They would seem one leading into the others of the suite know; and you do not want to kill her I

"No." he admitted, with a scrowl. "She will do almost anything you tell ing mystery, and seemed likely to remain fectly fast in its socket, and then giving her, except to reveal what will injure that ourness, Kidney infirmities, and feminine so indefinitely, and it had created a great his neighbors no further thought, he one person: that seems to be an instinct troubles are eradicated by Northrop & deal of excitement, not only in her own city, but all over the State.

| Compared the state of t

"Well, I want you to let her alone for contains no ingredients which are not awile; I don't want her dying on my of the highest standard of purity. hands," returned the woman, with de-

How long he slept thus he could not The ill-looking man did not reply, but But after he had seen and conversed have told, but he was suddenly awakened made few passes over Editha's head and dirty water to extinguish the fire, an with Mr. Felton, Editha's lawyer, he during the night by a low, sobbing noise face, touching her on the forehead and in proceeding from the room on his right, the region of the epigastrium.

and that for a long time he had been de- he heard the tones of a man speaking as much more natural to Earle than she compound composed largely of the set-

The woman came forward, gently raised her head, and held a bowl to her lips, from which she drank eagerly, and daughter suffered for two weeks with seemed must refreshed. sanction; so it was for his interest that bing, and a faint, heart broken moaning her, and said, with sullen ferocity:

"Well, my plucky fine lady, how Oil in equal parts in the ear. It cured much longer do you suppose you can like magic. I would recommend it to stand this kind of thing? Editha made no reply, but her eyes, to night; but it seems he has, and I don't which seemed unnaturally large, now that she was so thin gleamed defiance at

"You are getting weaker every day, It was a very thick, solid door, and pre- and you're getting so pale and poor that vented his hearing distinctly anything and you're getting so pale and poor that the present on the occasion the latter rethat was said. would not know you if he should see even then could only catch the sound of you now," he continued, heartlessly. A look of inexpressible sadness settled upon the fair face, the white lids quiv-

The sobbing had ceased for the moment, ered a moment and then drooped over chance he might meet her. At night he was like some restless, caged lion, help. but, at a question apparently addressed the blue eyes, and the pale lips trembled to a third party, it immediately began painfully; but she made no other sign A cold sweet gathered upon Earle of her suffering, uttered no word to his cruel taunt. Her silence exasperated him, and, never been affected before. He longed leaning down so that his face came down almost a level with hers, he hissed: "You shall tell me where that paper is, or you shall never see the outside of He resolved that he would visit every into his through the transom, so that he "I will never tell you," she now said, town, village, and hamlet in the State, could distinguish every object in it. He in a weak voice, but with a firmness and that failing, he would search every glanced up at the light, a sudden thought that made another fierce oath leap to his lips, and sent a shudder through her Earle ground his teeth, but waited to him he would only have his labor for his might hear more distinctly if he could hear no more.

their efforts to those places.

Earle wrote something of this to Paul then noiselessly mounting upon that by His mind was made up to do a bold or father and a good neighbor." His weariness and illness were all for-

To his intense satisfaction, he discover- gotten; his nerves were steady and quiet, and the strength of a Samson up with liver complaint, a friend

he had seen there came forth and took a

How he expected to get out of the not allow himself time to consider.

Earle allowed him to get well past his door, then, stealing out without a sound, he crept up behind him and hit out It yielded a trifle, but grated a little on square from his shoulder a tremendous talked long and freely with him upon the strange, sad events of Marion Vance's hisstrange, sad events of Marion Vance's his is a hard case. It is a most trying case, and the wood work. He waited a moment, and no one can tell how it will end. I am the made another effort, and it the ear, doubled him up in an instant He caught him in his arms before he could fall to the floor, for he had no A man seemed to be asking the strang. desire to make any disturbance at that hour of the night, and then by main "Your name is Ellen Wood?" he heard strength half carried, half dragged him back into the room he had occupied,

> Not a sleeper had been aroused. The blow he had dealt was quick and any one from a sound slumber, though it had rendered his victim unconscious for the time, and the noise of dragging him the short distance to his room had not disturbed any one.
>
> strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. Royal Baking Powders. Sold at Wholesale in Fredericton, by Messrs. A. F. Randolph & Son. The next thing was to get inside that other room without creating any con He knew that his captive was only stunned, and would doubtless soon recover from the effects of the blow he had given him; but locked within that

He did not think, either, that he would make any noise upon returning to his senses, for he would be sure to

He stood and listened a moment or two outside the door of the room where Editha lay, thinking that something of the disturbance must have reached its And immediately the sobbing and occupants, since both were awake, and moaning were resumed, but in a way that the affair had occurred so near to them. seemed to show that the speaker's He hoped the attendant would come to the door and look out to see what was BEWARE OF IMITATIONS, Case Condy's Fluid;

"It's of no use, Tom-your power is not presence, without using any forcible If her attendant had not been attracted, and she did not come, he had re-"I'll never let her go until she does solved to knock gently for admittance, tell me," he answered, fiercely, with another oath. "If I was sure," he added, "that it was hid in that house, I'd go and burn it down to night, and then let her solved to knock gentry for admittedance, my hand so contracted, that I could not use it for two years. I used Minard's Liniment, and now my hand is as well as ever.

Yours,

MRS. RACHEL SAUNDERS. which his presence could be known from that of any one else. Earle's conjectures, however, proved risk," said his companion; "you will soon correct. Editha's attendant had heard a slight noise in the hall and been start!

"Did you hear anything?" she asked, turning to the girl on the bed. "No, nothing," she answered, wearily. "Something has happened, I fear," she said to herself, and then going to the door, bent her head to listen, an expression of great anxiety on her face.

She could hear nothing, however; but still with horror, while an almost super. apparently not quite satisfied, she venhuman effort alone prevented a sharp tured to unlock the door and peer forth into the hall. This was Earle Wayne's opportunity.

With noiseless tread he stepped quick ly up to her, and, before she was hardly aware of his intention, pushed the door open, forced her back into the room, and entered himself. Another instant and the door was

His next movement was to see if the door leading into that other room was

It proved to be, but the key was in where Earle was stationed, consequently the lock, and he pocketed this, too, thus

The whole transaction had not occuhad a word been spoken; but Earle had done a good thing, for in that time he and faint as he did at that moment, while had captured single-handed, one of the States, as well as his accomplice, and "Better let her alone now, Tom, and doubtless had saved the girl he loved had already experienced.

> With this accomplished, and both keys in his pocket, he now turned his But Editha had fainted dead away. To a limited number of pupils,

(To be continued.) Terms made known on application at resi-

DON'T DESPAIR OF RELIEF, if troubled with Chronic Dyspepsia or Constipation. These ailments, as well as Bili-COLD IN THE HEAD CATARRH. peptic Cure, an alterative of long tried "You do not need to tell me that," he and clearly proven efficacy. It is a fine blood depurent as well as corrective, and Three things as good as their better-

Almost instantly the wild look faded It is reported that the maple, heretoupon the counterpane, while she lay moving what is no longer of use, since All was silent for a few moments, then panting and exhausted, but looking dealers in "maple sugar" now sell a Still they come. Mrs. Stephen Kaulbach says: Her Earache; could not rest day or night; Once more the villain turned toward tried many remedies without any relief used "Minard's Liniment" and Sweet all as the best family medicine known."

> Very shortly after the death of his first wife, a Scotch laird made arrangements for a second marriage; and on asking his son, a well know author, to plied that "he regretted that he was un able to attend in consequence of the recent death of his mother !"

" Man's work's from sun to sun : Woman's work is never done.'

Work is a necessity to all; but, upon how many, women especially, does it fall with the burden of the "last straw," and this, because their peculiarly delicate constitutions are so liable to functional derangement. We cannot lessen your toil, ladies, but we can make it easier for you, by making you stronger and better able to do it. Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" will relieve you of nervous and other weaknesses, and all the many ills peculiar to your sex.

Says the Rev. Sam Jones, "Whenever a man can't laugh he is in need of liver medicine. There's something He noiselessly descended from his wrong with him. Many a fellow in perch, dressed himself with all possible this country has mistaken a disordered dispatch all excepting his boots; then liver for religion—a miserable old dose to know whether he's a good husband

PRAISEWORTHY. "Last summer I was entirely laid

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity

CURES PAINS-External and Internal. RELIEVES Swellings, Contractions of the Muscles, Stiffness of the Joints, Sprains, Strains. HEALS Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Cuts, Cracks

Best Stable Remedy in the World! to his senses, for he would be sure to bring upon himself deeper trouble if he sore Throat, Croup, Diphtheria and all kindred afflictions.

> LARCE BOTTLE! POWERFUL REMEDY! MOST ECONOMICAL! AS IT COSTS BUT

Druggists and Dealers pronounce it the best 100 lbs. Carbolic Acid; C. C. RICHARDS & CO.,

YARMOUTH, N. S. TESTIMONIAL. C. C. RICHARDS & Co.-I had the muscles of fountain of health, by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution will be established.

Golden Medical Discovery cures all humors, from the common pimple, blotch, or cruption, to the worst Scrofula, or blood-poison. Established.

to the worst Scrofula, or blood-poison. Especially has it proven its efficacy in curing Salt-rheum or Tetter, Fever-sores, Hip-joint Disease, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Enlarged Glands, and Eating Ulcers.

Golden Medical Discovery cures Consumption (which is Scrofula of the Lungs), by its wonderful blood-purifying, invigorating, and nutritive properties. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Asthma, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. It promptly cures the severest Coughs.

For Torpid Liver, Biliousness, or "Liver Complaint," Dyspepsia, and Indigestion, it is an unequalled remedy. Sold by druggists. fully to Watch and Jewelry Re- Boys' Tweed Saits from $2.50 up an unequalled remedy. Sold by druggists. DR. PIERCE'S PELLETS - Anti-Bilious and Cathartic. 25c. a vial, by druggists.

VOCAL CULTURE.

Cold in Head. STOPS Droppingsfrom Nasal passages EASY TO USE. into the throat and excessive expectoration caused by Catarrh. Sold by Druggists, or sent pre-paid on receipt of price, 50c. and $1. Address FULFORD & Co., Brockville, Ont.

For Toilet Use. Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow Unless you want to buy Goods luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly CHEAP. of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which We claim to have the Largest and Best Stock of time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little SILVERWARE hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now in the City. Our Stock consists of Tea Setts, Tete a Tete Sets, Pickle Stands; well covered with a new growth of hair. Dinner and Breakfast Casters; -Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass. Cake and Card Baskets, Salvers, Vases; HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life Fruit and Preserve Dishes, Ice Pitchers: and laded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its criginal color. Syrup Pitchers, Butter Coolers, Spoon Holders, Biscuit Jars, Toast Racks; Toilet Stands, Jewel Cases, &c., &c.

original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.— Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn. Table, Desert, Tea, Sugar, Berry, Fruit, Mustard and Salt Spoons; Fruit, Butter and Paper Knives; VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. A dis-Napkin Rings, Children's Mugs and Setts, &c

REMEMBER ease of the scalp caused my hair to behat we sell goods from 20 to 30 per cent. Cheaper come harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis. It is no Chestnut.

F. SHUTE Queen Street, Fredericton.

PERFECT SAFETY, prompt action, and Spring, Summer, 1887 wonderful curative properties, easily place Ayer's Pills at the head of the list of popular remedies for Sick and Nerv-

Headache, and Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the only medicine that has ever given me relief. One dose of these Pills PRACTICAL TAILOR.

> THE Subscriber begs to inform his numerous patrons that he has received his Spring and English, Scotch and Canadian > > Ac., Ac., Ac.

In addition to myself and son, I have secured the services of a first-class Cutter from New York, and therefore I am prepared to guarantee

CHECK SUITINGS,

CHEVIOTS,

Just Received.

MERCHANT TAILOR,

JOSEPH WALKER,

PRACTICAL TAILOR.

Just Arrived.

from the British and Foreign Markets, consisting of the latest designs and pat-

Call and examine the above, be

JOSEPH WALKER,

Next Door above Doherty's Boot and Shoe Store, Queen Street.

GREAT

JUBILEE SALE!

Cheap Clothing.

Youths' Tweed Suits from $3.50 up.

Coats, Pants and Vests in great variety at

Our Clothing is all made in latest style .-

Hats, Shirts, Collars, Ties and every des-

Ber Please Call and Examine.

SIMON NEALIS.

Welmots' Block, - - - Queen Street.

Fredericton, June 15

GREAT RUSH!

Queen St., Fredericton.

JUST OPENED:

A large Stock of New Goods consisting of:

Glassware, Tinware, Woodenware

Hardware, Jewelry, Soaps, Pictures, Tops and thousand of Useful and Fancy

Articles, at 5 and 10 Cents Each.

Fredecicton, June 22

- —USE---

WOODILL'S

July 20

cription of Furnishing Goods very cheap.

N. B.—Cutting promptly attended to.

ore purchasing elsewhere.

Prices reasonable.

The Subscriber has just received a

NEW

GOODS.

Wale Diagonals,

Fredericton, June 1

JAMES R. HOWIE.

TWEEDS Corscrews, Diagonals, Closing Business, as soon as possible, and to effect that object, he now offers a large and well assorted Stock of

I have also a large and most thoroughly assorted stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, and Ready-Made Clothing for adults and children Reduced Rates,

STAPLE and FANCY

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

Sold by Druggists and Perfumers.

ous Headaches, Constipation, and all ailments originating in a disordered Liver.

I have been a great sufferer from will quickly move my bowels, and free my head from pain. — William L. Page, Aver's Pills.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Dealers in Medicine.

DRESS GOODS. IN CREAT VARIETY.

Gossamers, Parasols, Gloves, Corsets: Prints, Cottons, Cottonades, Ducks; Table Linens, Towelling, Flannels; Shirtings, Shirts and Drawers; Mens', Youths' and Boys' Clothing; Mens' Suits, from $5.00 to $20; Youths' and Boys' Equally Cheap; Scotch and Canadian Tweeds; Pantings' and Worsted Coatings-Choice Paterns and Low Prices;

Brussels, Tapestry, Wool and Hemp Carpets ; Table and Floor Oil Cloths; Trunks and Valises, Cotton Warps; Room Paper and Remnants of all kinds always on hand. All of which shall be sold at prices as Low as possible to sell, and pay 100 cents on the dollars. OWEN SHARKEY.

196 196

Fredericton, May 11-Rep.

Queen Street. JUST RECEIVED:

200 lbs. Paris Green; 100 lbs. Dalmation Insect Powder: 50 lbs. Hellibore;

500 lbs. Copperas;

-FOR SALE BY

JOHN M. WILEY, FREDERICTON.

REMOVED! MCCAUSLAND, Watchmaker and Jeweler,

Has Removed his place of Business from the stand in Wiley's Building, to the stand lately occupied by C. A. McCausland, Corner Queen and Carleton Streets, Mens' Tweed Suits from $4 50 up where he will attend promptly and carepairing. He has on hand, and will sell Low for Works guaranteed and equal to best custom Cash, a fine line of WATCHES ---AND---JEWELRY. and a handsome line of Plush Goods.

Fredericton May 18, 1887-ly PHOTOGRAPHS New 5 and 10 Cent Store,

Remember the place, corner Queen and

MADE IN THE FOLLOWING SIZES: LOCKET, CARD, CABINET, BOUDOIR,

If You Would Avoid Ammonia, 164, Queen Street, F'ton., Next below Peoples' Bank.

PANEL and Old Pictures Copied and En- German Baking Powder. larged. Childrens' Pictures a Specialty Fredericton, December 1, 1886.

Axle Pulleys. Hats and Caps. JUST RECEIVED: HATS and Caps of all kinds, for Men, Boys and Children, at greatly reduced prices.

Must be cleared out to make room for the Spring Stocks. R. CHESTNUT & SGNS. Spring Stocks. S. NEALIS. | August 3

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY '87 Summer Arrangement '87 On and after MONDAY, June 13th.

1887, the Trains of this Railway will run daily, (Sunday excepted) as fol-Trains will leave St. John. : Accommedation Express for Sussex..... Express for Halifax & Quebec, 22.15 Train to Halifax, and Parlor Cars on the day

Sleeping Car for Montreal will be attached to the Quebec Express, and on Monday, Wednes-DAY and FRIDAY, a Sleeping Car will be attach-Trains will arrive at St. John: Express from Halifax & Quebec, 5.30 Express from Sussex,..... 8.30 Accommodation,.....

All Trains are run by Eastern Standard D. POTTINGER, Chief Superintendent

RAILWAY OFFICE, Moncton, N. B., June 21th, 1887.

RAILWAY CO.

Arrangement of Trains --- In (Eastern Standard Time.)

medate points.
6 40 A. M.-For Fredericton Junction, and for Vanceboro, Bangor, Portland, Boston and all points West; St. Andrews, Houlton, Woodstock, Presque Isle, Grand Falls, Edmundston, and all points North.

from Vanceboro, Bangor, Portland, Boston, and all points West; St. Andrews, St. Stephen, Houlton, Woodstock, Presque Isle, Grand Falls, and points North. P. M.—Express from St. John, and inter-

LEAVE GIBSON: 11 30 A. M .- Express for Woodstock and points ARRIVE AT GIBSON 10 33 A. M.-Express from Woodstock, and points

Sup't Southern Division. J. F. LEAVITT, Gen'l Pass, and Ticket Agent

F. W. CRAM,

Scott's Emulsion; Eno's Fruit Salt; Liver Oil; Ayer's Sarsaparilla;

Pain Killer, West Fills; Burdock Blood Bitters; Kennedy's Medical Discov-

ment; Warner's Safe Cure;

ALSO IN STOCK: 5 GROSS DAVIS'

Quinine Iron and Wine, GEORGE H. DAVIS',

ROSSMORE, L. O. L., No. 21, Meets at Orange Hall, Gibson, on the first and thind TUESDAY'S of each month, at 7.30 P. M.

CATALOGUES FREE.

Are pleasant to take. Contain their own Purgative. Is a safe, sure, and effectual destroyer et worms in Children or Adults. THE KEY TO HEALTH.

ing off gradually without weakening the ing off gradually without weakening the system, all the impurities and foul humors of the secretions; at the same time Correcting Acidity the Stomach, curing Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Headaches, Dizziness, Heartburn, Constipation, Dryness of the Skin, Dropsy, Dimness of Vision, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Fluttering of the Heart, Nervousness, and Gen. the Heart, Nervousness, and General Debility; all these and many other similar Complaints yield to the happy influence of BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

CAR GRIND STONES, Just Fereived at NEILL'S HARDWARE STORE.

Neill's Hardware Store. June 29

On TUESDY, THURSD Y and SATURDAY, a

NEW BRUNSWICK

ALL RAIL LINE. .

effect June 27th, 1887.

LEAVE FREDERICTON

600 A. M.-Express for St. John, and inter-

ARRIVE AT FREDERICTON:

St. John, N. B., June 20, 1887 JUST RECEIVED:

H. D. McLEOD,

Keplonized Milk and Cod Sharp's Balsam; Diamond Dyes;

Holloway's Pills and Oint-JENNINGS.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral; Cor. Queen St. and Wilmot's Alley. Pond's Extract Teaberry;

DRUGGIST, SPRING TWEEDS Cor. Oueen and Regent Sts.

BELL & CO., Guelph, Ont. West Visiting brethren cordially welcomed. LIEUT.-COL. HEWITSON, W M., WILLIAM ROSSEOROUGH, Rec.-Sec's

FREEMAN'S

WORM POWDERS.

Crind Stones.

PURE PARIS GREEN ___AT___

T. MILBURN & CO., Proprietors Forente.