

should longer endure treatment only contest, and his successor is E B. Elaccorded elsewhere to sleepy country derkin. The Grits will not put a can- for manufacture in Canada. towns. A branch line of railway for didate in the field.

all through connexions, and the mails forwarded to us only as the conveni- WETMORE VS. CENTRAL R. R. CO. Charlottetown Tuesday night. ence of other places will permit, evinot exist. Will nobody move to decution Issued Against His Body? mand fair treatment for Fredericton ?

Mr. Blake a Political Acrobat.

body of the plaintiff in this case, or non-pay-. The Canadian public have come to ment of costs of a decree dissolving an inregard Mr. Blake as a gentleman who junction. The application was made under Chap. 39, C. S., stc. 68, which reads: The finds no difficulty in changing his court shall have power to enforce perform-views on any great public question ance of its decrees and orders by execution may at any time make an order for any such fice. execution, to issue on application of the party

When the Riel agitators commenced entitled to the same. to get in their work, Mr. Blake who had just arrived home from England, made a great speech in which he de- et seq : "No person shall be arrested or im- is also a journalist. clared with the virtuous indignation of prisoned after judgment in any civil suit, or an honest man "that he would never of money except as in this or any other chap- It has been purchased by the N.S. local Govconstruct a party platform from the ter of the C. S. provided." Regina scaffold." But Mr. Blake a few 49, does not provide for imprisonment on nonmonths later, did that very same thing. payment of costs only, and that outside of He made an alliance with the Rielites enforcing a decree or order to do some act the only instances where arrest could be justof Quebec to carry the general elec- tified would be those enumerated in sub. sec tion of 1887, on the cry that the rebel 5, sec. 26, chap. 38, viz, " Default by a truewas a martyr and his death a judicial tes or person acting in a fiduciary character and ordered to pay by the court of equity murder.

Again, Mr. Blake has denounced the Canadian Pacific Railway and its owners in, Parliament, and from every hustings where his voice has been heard, but now we find the same genof $10,000 from the C. P. R. Company and conducting their case against the Manitoba Government.

Again, in a great speech at Aurora in 1874 Mr. Blake outlined what Los Angeles Co., California, Sept. 5, a day he believed the correct and mani- later than the Sackville decoy, which leads fest destiny of Canada, viz., Imperial to the inference that the sending of th-Federation, but the other day he set thought. The following in Sir Charles' reply. his face against that movement by de. now published for the first time, Pomons clining to speak on the subject at politicians having been disappointed in their Worrall is preferred for $35,000. Mr. Wor-the botel. King ran through the hallway. are now scouring that province.

These facts quite warrant the people of Canada in declining Mr. Blake's bry felloes on the free list, when imported J. G. McCallum's barn with twenty-two head of cattle, and fodder for the winter, the whole valued at $3000 was burned near The barns on the Outario government has been wip-d out of existence, dissensions want?" At the same moment he seemed to which were also locked, and broke in. When among the officers having led the Minister of recognize his visitor for the first time, and they reached the passageway running be-Militia to sign the order of disbandment. President-elect Harrison denies having stepped closer. given utterauce to opinions attributed to him that a central feature of his policy would be me, but I don't suppose you are glad to see ghastly sight met their gaze. Laving prone annexation of Canada to the United States me ?"

(Telegraph)

Attorney General Blair has applied to Judge Fraser for an execution against the

ed, " Is that you, Harry ?"

manding to see King at once.

KING FACES HIS MURDERESS.

"I have no desire to talk with you any

At this the woman caught his arm, and

"Harry ! Harry ! don't forsake me ! Won't

"You get away from me," replied King,

THE SHOTS IN THE CORRIDOR.

sternation and panic among those of the o foot she cried passionately :-

there in a short time."

by purchase. Montreal, it is said from disappointment in love affairs.

Elijah W. Halford, managing editor of the Mr. W. B. Wallace, on behalf of Mr. Wet- Indianapolis Journal, has been appointed more, opposed the application, relying on private secretary to President Harrison.

for making default in the payment of a sum fax, Saturday, a $900 gold nugget was found. yours. I will not leave you." rnment, and will be sent to to the Imperial Mr. Wallace declared that sec. 68, chapter E chibition at London.

> At last the United States census report of 188) is completed, the twenty-second and last a low tone trying to quiet her, but the wovolume having just been issued. The work man kept imploring him with frantic energy contains over nueteen thousand pages and not to cast her off. Evidently vexed by her has cost the country nearly $6,000,000. Ganong Bros. confectionery establishment elevator, exclaiming :-at S . Stephen, was totally destroyed by fire early Thursday morning. It was valued at further. any sum in his possession or under his con-$50 000 and insured for $35,000. This enterprising firm have the sympathy of every- with tears in her eyes and shaking from head His honer reserved judgment on the quesbody in their misfortune.

tion until Dec. 3rd. Hop. Michael Henry Herbert, now in charge of the British legation at Washington, you come down to breakfast with me? I THEY COULDN'T CATCH TUPPER. and Miss Leila Belle Wilson, daughter of mean you no harm, but I intend to prosecute R. T. Wilson, a very wealthy retired mer- you for bigamy and my father will prosecute ter civy yesterday, in the presence of upper | came to inform you of !" Reply to the Murchison Letter. tendom

The Boston Journal says that a movement and he retraced his steps from the elevator to poking to the formation of an organization of a sofa that was standing in a darkened cor-Sir Charles Tupper was the recipient of a all who favor the annexation of the British ner of the corridor. The woman followed Murchison letter identical in terms to the to invite Mr, Ellis, of the St. John Globe, to the lower parlor. be present. letter to Sir Charles Tupper was an after Alderman H. F. Worrall, flour and general ties are not stated but will be heavy. Mrs. its sharp report rang through the corridor of ed eastward, and four American detectives guns for each Punjaub chief.

9 VICTORIA CHAMBERS, few years ago, and she was worth a quarter volver in her hand, causing a scene of con-London, Oct. 5th. of a million.

DEAR Sin :- I esteem it a bigh cumpli- Two suits for $250 000 damages each, have guests who happened to be in that part of overtake him.

voice inside said, "Wait a minute;" and the 64, who has been running a large farm in Experiments are being made in England the Domision Government have placed hick- woman cried out, "Is Mr. King in there?" that section, and who has lived with no other with a "safety "gun which is said to be capa-"Yes. I'm Mr. King. I'll be there in a companion than a hired man. At 3 30 o'clock ble of discharging sixty shels a minute silentminute," responded the voice. While wait- on the afternoon of the 18th inst., Ernest W. Iy and invisibly. The gun is discharged by ing for King to appear, the woman stepped Densett, a nephew of the old lady, called at steam or vapor at a pressure of 200 pounds to over to the elevator, and said to the boy ;- the farm house, but found the doors all lock. the square inch. "That man is my busband, and he's living ed, while the neighbors had not seen his aunt Tobacco smokers have often been told that with another woman. Think of it !' about the place since Saturday night. A the cigarette is the mort injurious form in She was greatly excited, and st-pped ner- light was burning in the house. Young Den- which the weed can be used. A case was revously back to the door of No. 66. As she sett went home and returned with his father dence a condition of things that should Can a Person be Arrested on an Exe- model farm, near Guelph were burned Mon-did so, King only partially dressed, stuck his and a few neighbors. They broke into the ported a few days ago of a person having become insane in consequence of the excessive the rooms having been ransacked. The The 91st Winnipeg Battelion Winnipeg, "Y-s," replied King; "what do you searchers went to the large barn, the doors of The possibility of a New France being built up in New England by the end of the first quarter of the next century, is predicted by drew back as if displeased. The woman tween the stalls and the cattle stanchions Dr. Bender in the Magazine of American History, is not regarded with indifference by they found the place completely blocked with "Well I am here," she said. "You know hay. The hay was removed, and a most United States journals.

There will be some sixty or sixty-five milupon her left side, with her arms securely lions of feet of logs wintered over on the "No, I am not," was King's reply. "I fastened at her wrists and elbows, and her Penobscot, Maine, according to the opinions want you to keep away." With that he limbs tied at the ankles by a stont rope, was of the best known lumbermen, which is about closed the door; but the next instant the the murd-red corpse of Miss White. The three times as much as usual, and will have woman was pounding on the panels and de- head had been battered in and the throat cut a tendency to affect the winter's cut considerfrom ear to ear, almost severing the head ably. As she made a great poise King finally from the body. The body was dressed in an

Edison has devised a doll with a small stuck his head out of the transom and said ;- ordinary calico gown, and was bareheaded. phonograph inside, which talks when the "You go down into the parlor. I'll see you In the passageway, near the door previously handle is turned. The phonograph is placed alluded to, was found a manure fork, with in a receptable within the chest of the doll "No, sir," cried the woman : "I will not pieces of the handle broken off, covered with and the handle protrudes. When it is turnchapter 38. consolidated statutes, sec. 28. Dan. Lamont, Cleveland's private secretary, leave this door until you come with me. blood, also a small dark shawl which Miss ed the words appear to issue from the doll's Now, Harry, you know how you have treated White was accustomed to wear over her mouth, At the Albion Mine, Montague, near Hali- me; but while I live my love will always be head when around the yard. Three terrible

A new industry has been started in Maine blows had been struck upon the face and by utilizing the tops of pine and spruce trees head of the victim-one on her left cheek, left by the lumbermen. After removing Wishing to prev-nt further public disturb- one just back of her right ear, and one on the knots and other obj-ctienably portions, and ance, apparently, King opened the door and back of the head. stepped into the hall. He spoke hurriediy in Suspicions point steaming the remainder to extract resin, it is

Suspicions points strongly to John Thomp- ground to pulp for paper, pasteboard, and the son, the hired man, who came to the farm a many other forms of the material. few days before from a Nova Scotia agency

Joe Priestly, the champion trick-lancer of on Washington street, Boston, and is desthe world, performed a remarkable feat in importunities, King finally started toward the cribed by the neighbors as a hard-looking England a few days ago. He started from character. He was seen at 5 20 o'clock the Brixton with a 55-pound weight on his head night previous to the murder driving home and walked three miles in 29m, and 50a the cows with Miss White. At about 7 30 After resting half an hour he started back neighbors saw him driving rapidly towards over the same route and covered the distance the depot with the farm team, and shortly afterwards return to the house. His trunk in 31m.

was missing. The theory of the murder The first inventor of the sewing machine entertained by the officers is that Thompson turns out not to be Howe, but a man named had reason to believe that Miss White, who Thomas Saint, who took out his patent in is wealthy, was in possession of considerable 1760, sixty years before Howe produced his tleman actually accepting a retainer Sir Charles' very Non-committal chant of New York, were married at the lat- you for forgoing his name ! That is what I and the longly situation of the longly sit and the lonely situation of the premises, re- Saint's specification is now being exhibited at solved to obtain possession of them. Failing the exhibition of sewing machines and domesto obtain an opportunity to do so. owing to tic appliances at the Royal Agricultural Hall, her careful surveillance, he finally resolved to Islington.

resort to force. A search in the house after The Viceroy of India informed a Durbar Province is assuming tangible shape, and it is intended to hold a meeting very soon, and the lower methor. The woman followed the murder revealed between $300 and $400 in gold and silver coin, which indicates that the murder revealed between $300 and $400 that the British Government would not avail itself of the offers of money from the Indian the murderers got but little booty. as they princes for the defence of the country, but evidently had overlooked this money, which would ask them to form strong native forces was in a stocking. fit for service with the Imperial troops, the Finally King arose to go. As he did so It is supposed that Thompson escaped to Government to provide English officers and

IN A CAGE WITH HYENAS.

(Philadelphia Press.) A hundred people in the carnivora house at Beware of the under lip that rolleth out-Ladies' French Kid Button Boots;

GENTLEMEN. Fred. B. Edgecombe, 194 QUEEN ST.,

LADIES

Fredericton, N. B.

-FOR-

-AND-

November 7

RECEIVED AT

LOTTIMER'S

grocer, of Halifax, has assigned. His liabili- the maddened woman drew a revolver and Nova Scotta, as his zinc trunk has been track- furnish breech-loaders and a battery of four Misses and Children's American Rubbers for spring heel Boots ;

A celebrated Persian sage gave this ad- Ladies' Jersey Lily Oxford Tie Shoes ; vice concerning the choice of a wife:-"Choose no woman whose lips droop at the corners, or your life will be a perpetual Ladies' Oil Pebble Lace Boots;

opposite

Normal School.

Quean St.

FREDERICTON.

MARQUES

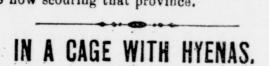

-OF-

-ALSO,-

Astrakan Jackets,

FURS

FURS.

three great public questions. Mr. hend. Blake may be on excellent lawyer, a fine parliamentary speaker, and perstatesman he is N. G.

Britain's Latest Acquisition,

The Cooke Islands, otherwise known as the Hervey Archipelego, over which the British flag has lately been hoisted, were visited rather than discovered by the navigator whose name they bear during his first voyage. They lie obout midway between the The Suspension Bridge Suicide had Society and Navigator groups, near lat. 22 S and lon. 132 W. The principal members of the cluster are Mangeia, Ation, Hervey and Raratonga. to Christianity by English mission aries, Raratonga in particular being bandsome, magnificently dressed and seemed

All things come to them that wait. The people living along the line of land about Christmas. The woman is mar-the Northern and Western Railway, ried, and who is known as Polly Bredin, took woman swore that the deceased drank a pint will be pleased to learn that the Dominion Government have closed a contract with the railway company for carrying the mails between Chatham The woman was arrested on a charge of and Fredericton. We hope provision bizamy, and is now in juil. She is the will be made in the arrangement for a daily mail to such important points as a small town thirty miles from. Toronto Boiestown, Stanley and Blackville.

Emperor Franci, Joseph of Austria, came to Toronto. Bredin, her first husband who will celebrate the fortieth anniversary of his accession to the throne, ingly handsome and dressed in widows weeds. n xt Sunday, has forbidden all rejoice - She admits the whole case.

i gs, will receive no gifts, and desires on reflection, you will immediately compre-

As you will be aware the hope is uppermost in everybody's mind that the matters in dispute between the two countries may soon sonally a pure minded man, but as a be disposed of in a manner satisfactory to both, and your knowledge of public opinion in Canada will show you that Canadians are most desirous that their relations with the United States should be of the most cordial and friendly character.

I am, your faithfully, (Signed) CHAS. TUPPER. To Mr. Chas. F. Murchison, DRIVEN GRAZY BY SHAME.

just learned his Bride's character.

The suicide of Fred Barber the commercial Scotia, takes $20.000 stock, D. J. Thomas, traveller who blew out his brains at the Dr D. H. Muir. Senator McKay and others Suspension Bridge the other day, has been $5,000 to $10,000 each and a host of smaller The natives, who are estimated at followed by very painful developements. It subscribers from $1,000 to $5,000. Half of 8000, have been generally converted turns out that Barber was married on Wed- the stock has already been taken uy and the nesday at Niagara Falls to a woman calling company will be organized without delay .-berself Mary Hill, of Toronto. She was Enterprise.

Patrick Waters and Jeseie Bates were one of the most successful missions in to be a lady. The day after, the two came married St. George, West Virginia, last week. Polynesia. The natives are said to be Then Barber made the astounding discovery ding trip to the Great Falls of the Blackto Toronto, where they remained until Friday | The newly married couple went on the wedvery joyful over their country becom. that his bride was a woman notorious in that water, and in att-mpting to cross the unfining a part of the British Empire. Of city. The shock must have driven him crazy ished railroad bridge at Carrack's Ford, Mrs. and rushing off to Niegara by the first train | Waters grew dizzy, and, losing her balance, late years they have petitioned Brit- he blew out his brains. The horror of the fell into the stream, which runs with a veloain to establish a protectorate over discovery was too much for him. He was a city of nearly twenty miles an hour. Her them, and the wish has accordingly a partner in a large Sheffield house for which two were swept away. At the ford, a quarwealthy, hand-ome, middle-aged Englishman husband at once plunged after her and the been complied with at last. The is- be travelled in Canada. He was a widower ter of a mile below, a railroad man attempted lands are governed by a queen, and and had one child, a son, living in England. to rescue the couple and narrowly escaped Only the morning of his death he wrote a drowning. At Silas Ferry the couple were

"loving and lovable woman, who would be a Two revolting tragedies directly due to mother to his son and a daughter to his drink, occurred at Halifax Monday. Eliza mother." He said they would arrive in Eng-Nixon drauk hereelf to death, leaving a family a trip to Scotland last summer, and it was on the voyage across that Barber met her. She an old soldier, got drunk and beat his wife. played her cards so cleverly that clearly from She ran into the next door neighbor's to eshis letter to his mother he had not a doubt of cape his ferocity. Summers followed his the honor and vir:ue of his supposed wife. wife and continued to beat her in the neighbor's house. This was obj-cted to by Frank Norgrain, the neighbor, and the two men daughter of a lawyer in Eduburgh, and, after clinched. Summers got his grip on Norber arrival in Canada taught music at Whithy grain's throat and when he let go the latter "xclaimed. " My God, I am dying." rolled U'timately she was married to Thomas W Bredin, the teller in the Ontario bank at Whitby. They did not agree, and the woman is now a porter on a sleeping car. The maker of New York, fell five "toreys Thurs- Blinded and bleeding he reeled and fell day and only dislocated his shoulder. He heavily down the stairs. The woman followwas on the fifth floor lowering piano actions | eu closely, but after the fourth shot was fired when losing his balance he fell through a did not make and her attempt at his life. As batchway two floors below, where the door her victim lay prostrate in the threes of death gave way. He staid on, however, riding the with the blood oozing from his mouth, in other three stories on the door and was still murderess knelt over his form and mursitting that way when he lit on the first floor. | mured :--

"I have murdered my husband," still hold William J. O'Connor, the Canadian oarsing the smoking weapon in her hand. man, defeated John Teemer, of McKeesport, Then she rose and glared wildly about her, Pa., holder of the title of champion oarsman of America, Saturday afternoon in a three mile race on the Potomac river, opposite Washington, for the championship of America and a stake of $2.500 a side. O'Connor rowed in splendid form and had been of the three of the state of the stat rowed in splendid form and lead from start but handed the revolver to Sergeant Mostyn The woman made no attempt to escape, As she did so she began to sob hysterically and moaned, "I have killed my husband-I

The Truro Fire Insurance Co. project is have killed him, I have killed him !" apidly approaching a reality. The stock of The woman was taken to the police station the new company will be $5.000. T. G. and the body of King was taken to the Cor-

McMullen, the lumber king of Eastern Nova oner's office, where an inquest was held. Only one of the four bullets fired by the woman struck King. It entered his back. pentrating the heart. He was dead when he fell at the bottom of the stairs.

SHE CALMLY TELLS HER STORY.

I called at the police station shortly after up his throat and was choking him. the tragedy and had an interview with the woman. She talked freely, and, considering both growling and furious over it. Shannon any of the Southern oceans. the circumstances, with remarkable coolness, tooked at the head keeper, but neither spoke. This is her story in her own words :---Both knew the nature of the beasts, and, as "I was the legal wife of Harry W. King. Mr. Byrne said afterward, he wouldn't have We were married about four years ago in ordered the keeper into the cage. But some-Chicago. We lived in Quincy, Ill., and kept | thing had to be done quickly and the nervy house there. We returned to Chicago and keeper glided along the rail and disappeared took up housekeeping at No. 210 Case street, in the passageway by the fountain. Mr. where we lived peacefully until four weeks Byrne anticipating that he was going into the Blood Bitters which has cured the worst ago. Before then, however, Harry had come cage without orders, rughed into the medicine to Omaha and looked around for a plant for room, near at hand, pocketed something for the new store here. He returned to Chicago an emergency and reappeared with a broom and informed me that he had everything following him. The next thing the crowd the people are well advanced in civi- long and loving letter to his mother in Eng- taken from the water, but the husband was well under headway. After remaining for a way was keeper Shannon raising the slide at laid and the hatching process takes place is few days he again started out, giving me to the back end of the cage through the opening still unknown. She eels run down to ealt understand that he was going to Omaha, I of whice he glided inside, followed by Mr. water to breed and in the spring the young heard nothing from him and became uneasy. Byrne. The keeper held a scraper and it was seles ascend the brooks and rivers in swarms. I finally observed in a despatch from Kansas his aim to rap the jaw of the hyena go as to A naturalist estimates that the number of City that he had married a Miss Duffy of loosen the bone or else strike the bone itself. "ggs in a six pound cel in November will be that place. The news almost bereft me of Mr. Byrne held the broom for a foil, at which fully nine millions. reason, and, to be candid, I was completely the beasts might snap. It is their cowardly stricken dumb. divorced. The parents of Miss Duffy, alias the broom, wielding it quickly whenever first instance on record of a calf tramp steal-

There is now piled in the yards at the sent a despatch here to the girl, informing bites intended for himself and the keeper. Chaudiere near Ottawa, 100,000,000 feet of her that King was a bigamist. I suppose Both kept their heads admirably, and at lumber, and what to do with it is the ques- she got the despatch and is now on her way last, by a dexterous stroke, keeper Shannon tion which is troubling the lumbermen and to Chicago to learn the sad news of her hus- rapped the beast's jaw as it flew past him, the export firms to whon it belongs. All band's infidelity as I have learned."

over and died. Summers was arrested.

summer ocean freight rates have been so high "Did you come here with the intention of and he kicked it with his foot outside. Then the wasting effects of ailments and irregularithat the export firms have not made any killing Mr. King ?" I asked.

large shipments either of English deals or ple of Canada in declining Mr. Blake's services as leader of the Government. It would not be safe to place this man who can turn his coat as sudden-bras Mr. Blake her done on the guestion you raise, as I am surn. In as Mr. Blake her done on the guestion you raise, as I am surn.

Boy's Long Boots ; The south end cage in the carnivora house A novel election bet was made by two Child's Long Boots ; is occupied by two fine byenas shipp-d only a wealthy New York builders-one a German few months ago from the wilds of Africa. the other an Irishman. If Cleveland was Gilt Edge Dressing in Barrels; There are only two more like them in Ame- elected the Irishman was to take the German Velvit Oil, for oiling and blacking rica and they've not been in captivity long to Berlin on a two months' trip and pay all -nough to be in any degree tam-d. N-xt to expenses, including especially all the beer the Ladies' Boots. them are caged the pumas and then the lions. German could drink. In the event of Har-Yesterday afternoon at the feeding hour 3 30 rison's election the German was to take the o'clock, all the beasts were thrown their usua. I Triahman on a two months' trip to Ireland allowance of horse flesh, and the hyenas be- and pay all expenses, including three bottles gan in their characteristic way to greedily of Irish whiskey every day. They are to sail sulp the meat in hulks without chewing it, for Europe this week, and to fight each other for the last pieces. The British surveying ship Egeria, under The spectators lined the railing much in terested and keeper Shannon leisurely follow- the command of Capt. P. Aldrich, R. N. ed by headk-eper Byrne had gone off in the has recently made two very deep sea soundings. According to Nature. these depths wing from the main building to feed the animals there, when above the snarling, growl-ing and crunching of bones was heard the ex-English miles). The latter was in latitude cited cry of a young woman : "Auntie come | 24 deg. 37 min. south, longitude 175deg. 8 quick, this hyena is choking !" The excla- min. west; the former about tweive mines mation brought r why the whole crowd, and the southward. The greatest known ocean keeper Shannon and head-keeper Byrne, by depth, 5,655 fathoms, was obtained by the getting under the safety rail, both bobbed up United States steamer Tuscarora, off the in front of the cage at the same time. At a north-east coast of Japan. The Challenger slance they saw that one of the hvenas had "xpedition found an abyss of 4,458 fathoms crunched one of his molar teeth through a south of the Ladrone Islands, and the United big bone, fastening it, and as he tried to swal- States ship Blake discovered one of 4.561 low the meat clinging to the bone had closed fathoms north of Porto Rico. But the depths sounded by Captain Aldrich exceed The suffering animal and his mate were by more than a mile any previously found in cases on record.

DON'T FORGET TO BUY YOUR BOOTS AND SHOES, FURS. Lottimer's Shoe Store TENNANT, 210 Queen Street, August 29, 1883 DAVIES & CO. Still Another Lot. WE ARE NOW SHOWING A SPLENDID ASSORTMENT We have opened another lot of those Cheap (Lined) FINE WOOL PANTS, of every description. Scientists have known that the eel is an which gave such satisfaction to our Customers before. Fur Lined Cloaks,

-ALSO,-A LINE OF CHEAP nonthu lookota

WOOL

&c., &c., &c. TOP SHIRTS Inspection Respectfully Invited. AND UNDERWEAR. TENNANT, DAVIES & CO.,

The CHEAPEST and BEST goods in 202 Queen St, Fredericton. November 21, 1888 nature to dart about, snapping as they pass "In Chicago we had a pleasant little home and had they bitten either of the keepers and Railway the other dry, making twenty miles A frieght train on the Southern Pacific with everything that heart could wish. I tasted blood there would have been a scene an hour, ran into a herd of cattle, striking a loved Harry as I loved my existence, and to indeed. The hair on each of them stood up yearling calf, which jumped at one bound on learn that he had betrayed me was more than like bristles and both frothed as though rabid. the pilot of the locomotive. It quietly lay I could bear. Well, I at once learned the Keeper Shannon made a quick pass at the down and rode for nine miles. As the train whereabouts of the parents of the girl. and choking hyena's jaw, but missed, and this approached Tuscon the signal whistle aroused telegraphed them that King had a wife re- started them in a bewildering chase around it and it jumped from the pilot and scampersiding in Chicago from whom he was not the cage. Mr. Byrne was right at hand with across the range. This is probably the

Mrs. King, reside at Louisiana, Mo. I also there was danger and it received a dozen log a ride. A Woman's Sweet Will.

> She is prematuruly deprived of the charms the bone fell out on the bottom of the cage of face and form, and made unattractive by the market. be and Mr. Bryne retreated without saying ties peculiar to her sex. To check this drain

Will be Fully Met, Indications of Dyspepsia, such as Sour Stomach, Hearthurn, Sick Headache, Rising and Souring of Food, Wind on the Stomach. or a Choking or Gnawing sensation at the pit of the stomach are fully met by Burdock that the money that might be exceed to Lung trouble. Scott's Emulsion of there to overflowing. Unless this large quantities there to have him prose-charity. (In the second decoded d H. THOMAS & CO. It is stated at Onlaw, that to Do- will not only stop the cough but heal the much room to spare to pile the first portion paring to go on the theatrical stage in Chic- good as they're made." In talking of the prepared especially for the all-viation of It is sta ed at O.taw, that t e Do-minion Parliament will be summoned to most the last week in Janu ry. will not only step the cough but heal the much room to spare to pile the first portion of next spring's cut, which accumulates in the vards until about May, when the summer abipments begin to move it away, and some time after he became acquainted set of keepers in the country. The vards until about the last week in Janu ry. 224 Queen Street. Lopi.mio:1