

To Business Men.

As announced last week, the FARMER purposes issuing December 5th, a double holiday number of eight pages...

The merchants of Fredericton find their principal retail trade among the people of York, Sunbury and portions of Northumberland, and in every locality...

We need not urge the value of the FARMER'S ordinary circulation as an advertising medium, as its crowded advertising columns from year to year attest...

We have already had numerous applications for space from leading merchants, and others will be called upon by Mr. M. McDade, who is assisting in the production of our special number.

For some further particulars on the subject, see our announcement elsewhere.

An Incident of the Campaign.

When President Cleveland sent his retaliation message to Congress the Democrats threw up their hats in a wild hurrah. The ground taken by the President in that message they considered would nail the Irish voters to the Democratic party...
