Hoetry.

The Majority

How fare they all, they of the pallid faces. Beyond our power to beckon their return? How shall we learn. By any earnest seeking, the true way In what high day. They are forever hidden from our sight?

We question vainly. Yet it somehow pleases be some secret in his life that would prove Those eyes were very like Alice's in ex-When they have spoken the last sad good- he had no legal claim upon Miss Radcliffe, pression when he had been wont to abuse

It somehow half the pain of parting eases, That in the sky, In the vast solitudes of stars and spaces, There may be consciousness and life and embraces, There may be scope For the unfolding of the better powers, So sadly stifled in this life of ours.

Wronged and Righted.

CHAPTER XLVI.

AVENGED.

"He my uncle," Alice continued, "had many plans for us. He would restore the estate, he would repair the chateau, refurnish it, and make it more beautiful than it had ever been. My mother and I should Murdock said, rising, and turning his set, have everything we wished; we should gloomy face toward his questioner, "but travel and see the world, and, in fact. there was nothing which he would not do for us, for he had no family of his own, for all.' no home, no friends save ourselves. I He then went on to tell the baronet the told my sad story, and he was very tender and pitiful with me. He said he would take care of me, and my false husband should never trouble me; and I, being of when he had concluded Sir Harold went a cheerful disposition naturally, began to to him and took him warmly by the hand. feel as if there might be some pleasure remaining for me, in spite of my misfor. have my warmest gratitude for your tunes. But Uncle Alec had only been prompt action in this matter," he said, with us a few weeks when he was sudden. heartily adding; "And as for your tenly attacked with small pox. As soon as der care of the poor stranger during all he discovered what the nature of the dis- the long months of her unconsciousness, I position to be in, to say the least. ease was, he refused to have any member have no words adequate to express my of the family come near him; he hired a appreciation and admiration for both your professional nurse, and neither my mother self and your mother. You have pernor I ever saw him again. During his formed a deed over which angels might sickness he made his will, giving me well rejoice. God bless you, my young everything he had, with the proviso that friend, and you also, my dear madam," not one sou was ever to go to enrich the and Sir Harold's fine eyes were full of man who had so deceived and abused me tears as he shook them both by the hand. Pearle's experience with Madam Renau and thus my mother and I were shielded in the future from the pangs of poverty and Little Amy was now rehearsed, that and want which we had suffered in the be and Richard might understand all the past. But my home, where I had once links in this strange story. She told him been so happy as a free-hearted, innocent also of her engagement with Lady Fengirl, had become bateful to me. Although nelsea, her encounter with Adison Cheetham while she was among the hills of a lawful wife, yet I could never be honor. ed as such, situated as I was; my child Scotland, and of Lord Fennelsea's brave would grow up to be wounded and taunt defence. She related how he had follow. ed with never having known a father's ed her hither, and enlisted her ladyships love and care, and I determined to leave influence against her, and how she had inthe place forever, and tell no one whither dignantly dismissed her from her service, refusing her the protection she had crav-I was going. "After considering the matter, my ed until she could communicate with her friends, and thus she had been driven to mother and I decided to leave France en. seek shelter and security with Dr. Mur. tirely and go to Eugland, where no one would know us, and where we could live dock and his mother. And thus the whole story was made quietly, and with no fear of any one ever reminding us of our troubles. We went plain to everybody at last. When Alice understood all that Pearle to London, where I soon found a small had suffered from the persecution of the villa in the extreme suburbs, which so pleased me that I hired it, and made for man whom she was forced to acknowledge ourselves a quiet. pretty home. We lived as her husband, she was deeply moved. She arose from the chair when she had there unmolested and contented, for more than two years, when my mother was sud. concluded her recital, and going to Pearl's side, she bent down, put both arms around denly taken ill, and a long sickness followed. I gave her every care, and she her, and kissed her with trembling lips.

standing about her and speculating as to -but what she had really died as that - But the current of her life had changed who she could be, I pushed by several notice stated, and he resolved that he wilfulness, pride and selfishness had people in order to get a nearer view, and would continue his pursuit of Pearle, and given place to gentleness, peace, and as I did so, some one in front of me utter. claim her as his wife in the face of all. ed that cry of which I have already spoken. Richard Byrnholm should never triumph goodness; and her fair, bright future In an instant I looked up, and saw who it over him while he had life to thwart him. would be moulded after a divine pattern was who had spoken those words. Others And so he relentlessly continued his that would diffuse beauty and joy whereheard them also, but no one else appear- search for her. ever she went.

ed to know whence they came, although The first time that he had seen his child Adison Cheetham sprang to his feet Beyond our power to beckon their return? the conductor made inquiries, hoping to that day by the roadside he had been at the words she uttered, as if goaded to discover who the unfortunate one was. struck with the exceeding beauty, but he madness, and confronted Richard, his Their solemn secret? How can we discover, But he never made another sign; but 1, had not dreamed of the tie existing be face crimson, his eyes blazing hatred watching him as he went back to his seat tween them. The next time he saw her Unto the knowing in what realm they hover, in the carriage, saw him totter and grope in that little arbour on the mountain in and defiance, his hands clenched and his way like a drunken man. I determin Scotland, ond heard her name, "Amy," raised as if to strike him to the earth. Or in what sombre shadows of the night, ed to watch him. He had evidently made something in the sound, and in those "Part at peace with another !" he some strange and startling discovery, and great blue eyes fixed in terror on him, cried, fiercely. "You proffer pardon to a wild hope came to me that there might transfixed him.

me! Do you think that, after being baffled at every turn-after staking what forget him if you can. As for you, sir,"

he went on, turning again to Adison

Cheetham, "I would that you could draw some comfort from the fact of having performed one worthy act during your life, but you see that I cannot tuated only by the greatest selfishness.

who has wronged me," he answered, lifting his head defiantly and confronting

Since his treachery toward me I was will- ber. When Pearle had told him her I have staked, and-lost, that I am going to believe almost anything of him. mother was dead, and she had adopted ing to fawn and cringe at your feet like As I have already told him, I followed her, something of the truth dawned upon a whipped cur? Do you prate to me of him to his hotel, kept watch of his move- his mind, and that was why he was so pardon-peace? I could grind you to ments there, and tracked him next day to eager to have her "take the child," and powder beneath my heel, and mock at And that when we must yield to death's the morgue. I heard the lager question come with him. The idea had grown the your agony ; I could hurl you into perwhich he put to the official in charge, and more he thought about it, and when he "Enough !" cried Sir Harold, and in-I shall never forget the look on his face came to France in search of Pearle, he terrupting him with a gesture of comwhen he was told that the body had been had been almost as eager to gain posses. claimed and taken away. I also made in. sion of his child-as he hoped Amy would mand; "do not stain your soul more quiries after he had gone, hoping to dis- prove to be-as he was of Pearle. The deeply than it is already stained. Rich-cover who the girl was; but the man said night of the fire he had almost gloried in ard, do not cast your pearls before swine; that he knew nothing; a young gentle. the danger that surrounded her. he is utterly devoid of manhood ; let man, the woman's husband in all probab- "I shall save her, and then she will him alone, let him drop out of your life ability-had come this morning and re- owe me her life," he said exultingly, as from this time forth ; go your way and moved the body. I kept watch of Adison he bounded up the ladder to her rescue. Cheetham for a while, hoping to gain some clew to the mystery of his strange emotion but did not succeed, and finally gave up the chase. I have often thought of that sad accident, and wondered who the poor unfortunate one could have been, but never learned until this hour,'

CHAPTER XLVII.

A FEARFUL RETRIBUTION.

But his heart sank like lead in his and the deed, as performed by you, be-"Who saved her? Who took her from bosom when she told him that she would came an unworthy one, since it was acthe-that place where they took her?' not leave the place until both her com-Sir Harold asked, glancing around the panions were safe. He feared he could not save them all; there was hardly a Have you no conscience? are you liter-"I, sir. I would rather my patient had human being living who would scale the ally without a heart? have you no comnot been harassed with all these sad dedizzy height three times and bear away punction for your sins? have you no retails in her present weak state," George such a burden each time. But he swore gret for the wrong you have done that he would do it, for no other must save fair woman who is your wife ?" the woman he loved; to him alone she "I have not wronged her; it is she undoubtedly she would have learned must owe her life, and then she would not them some time, and perhaps it will be dare deny him the reward he should de just as well to end the whole matter once mand

He had accomplished the feat-he had the baronet, as Richard turned sadly been a hero in the eyes of every one who away and went back to Pearle story that he had already told Pearle. Every one was intensely interested, and "You deserve great credit, and you

"How glad I am for you that you are as he has ruined mine! and to think that have come to you, Alice replied, sadly.

would not be fooled a second time.

only way in which he could account for it taken care of me through it all-indeed, wildly.

ter prepared for the life that is before me startled cry.

a rich bride, and he was very sure he Pearle experienced battling in her heart.

That notice was the little slip of paper fell sadly and regretfully upon the man

When at length he looked up, his glance

"Adison," he said, and his voice was tremulous with emotion, "you were once

my friend, and I loved and honored you as such; you had betrayed me, and I had come to feel that I had almost hated you:

but if it was you who saved those three deed; you jeopardized your own life to save them, and sure I must believe that there is some good in you, after all. You have saved her-she must have perished

the past? I hold out the olive branch to you-shall we part at peace with one an.

It was a grand nature that could thus rise above the mighty injuries of the past that could as he said, thus "hold out an olive branch," to one who had been so

They could never be friends again-

they must never meet again; but Richard at least would not send him forth with the weight of his hatred resting upon him to follow and pursue him wherever he

It was a hard thing to do, even know.

in the future; but afterward he always that he made to forgive him, as we are commanded to forgive those who injure

"I also forgive the past; may One greater than I forgive you too."

February 1

I HAVE RECEIVED

who had betrayed him.

deadly an enemy.

went.

saw him perform the act; but how differ-"You reason strangely," Sir Harold ent was the result from what he had said, with quiet scorn. hoped! Instead of glory and honor for the deed, he was now sitting there, be dead; I never should have dared to women whom he had wronged and the seek to win another, had I known her to be living ; in that I have not wrongfoe whom he hated. It was not a comfortable or pleasant ed her." "No," answered his companion, his

him as a Pariah among men.

sullen, half-defiant, air.

baronet asked, sternly.

The treatment of many thousands of cases ose chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapt-ing and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimo-, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggra-vated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful edy ever devised for the relief and cure of iffering women. It is not recommended as a cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic. As a soothing and strengthening As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is une-qualed and is invaluable in allaying and sub-duing nervous excitability, irritability, ex-haustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms com-monly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and de-spondency spondency. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicinc, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dys-pepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial. "Favorite Prescription" is a posi-tive cure for the most complicated and ob-tive cure for the most complicated and ob-stinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion inflammation and ulceration of the womb, in-inflammation and ulceration of the womb, in-flammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat." As a regulator and promoter of func-tional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Pre-scription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derange-ments incident to that later and most critical faithfully carried out for many years.

663 Main St., BUFFALO. N. Y.

BEST ON EARTH

THE GREAT SELF WASHER TRY IT

St. Ster Soap M'f'g Co.,

JENNINGS.

OVERCOATS.

SPRING GOODS.

1888

bottles for $5.00.

We are going to sell 100 each this year, if we are to judge by the sales made in the last few months. Our prices are for the BEST SEWING MACHINE in the Market

Only $27.50 Cash, or $30.00. $5.00 per month until paid. Or our Small Machine for $20.00, or $22.50 on same ton, and all points West; St. Andrews, St. Stephen, Houlton and Woodstock. 7 25 P. M.-Express from St. John, and intermediate points.

LEAVE GIBSON : 8 00 A. M.-Express for Woodstock and points

6 00 A. M.-Express for St. John, and inter-mediate points, and for McAdam Junc-tion, Vanceboro, Bangor, Portland, Bos-ton and all points West; St. Stephen, St. Andrews, Houlton, Woodstock, Pres-que Isle, Grand Falls, Edmundston, and all points North. 1 30 A. M.—For Fredericton Junction, and for

3 25 P. M .- For Fredericton Junction, and for

ARRIVE AT FREDERICTON:

from St John, and all points East.

2 15 P. M.-From Fredericton Junction,

St. John and points East.

St. John, and points East.

ARRIVE AT GIBSON 5 55 P. M.-Express from Woodstock, and points F. W. CRAM.

CONTRACTOR DECEMPTOR

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY '87 Winter Arrangement '88

On and after MONDAY, November 28th, 1887, the Trains of this Rail. way will run daily, (Sunday excepted) as follows:

Trains will leave St. John :

finally began to mend; but I could see that her constitution was broken, and that free from him," she whispered ; "how she would never be the same woman that much you must have suffered, and how she had been; still, I hoped to keep her nearly he succeeded in ruining your life, with me for many years.

We had made no acquaintance during through It all you have been the guard. our sojourn there, for I shrank from com. ian of his child !'' "But, Alice, dear, I did not know that inquiries regarding the matter. I had re. ing her caress.

became interested, and whose destitute her or-me," Alice said, with a wistful her now radient face was raised trustfully condition I had noticed during some of look into Pearle's fair face. my walks about the country. One of the children of a very poor family had been tremulous smile, while with her well hand maddened him. He swore savagely quite sick while my mother was ill, and as she drew Alice's head down to her shoul. under his breath, and then said aloud repulsion soon as she was able to be left, I one day der, "do not allow such a thought ever to with a malignant scowl. went to see them, and ascertain what I trouble you. Amy is as dear to me at "It is well for his future that I did not could do to relieve their condition. I this moment as she has ever been, and know all these facts before the fire." found them, as I expected, in great need, you-I have begun to look upon you al. "What difference we and very grateful for the basket of dam. most as a dear sister; because you happen demanded Sir Harold. ties which I took for the sick one, and for to be connected with him cannot in any "This difference-that Richard Brynthe money which I left with the woman. affect my regard for you." It was quite late in the afternoon when I started on my errand, and by the time I have a sort of guilty feeling, for if I had hoarsely. was ready to return it was growing dusk, not left him, if had I borne all and as-

I feared I should not be able to reach serted my position as his wife, if I had words. home before dark, and in order to shorten not hidden myself from everybody, all the distance, I determined to take the this trouble and suffering would never railway track.

The fair girl paused a moment as she spoke of this, and her white face grew whiter still, while a horrible thrill seemed through my trouble He has led me to realized what was to follow.

shudder, "curves very abruptly just at waters."

Pearle never had looked so lovely to handsome lips curling scornfully ; 'but him before, despite the lines of suffering which were still visible in her face; she had never been more eagerly coveted. But his long suffering wife had, as it you won her love, you made her desert were, risen from the dead to confront her parents, leave her home; made her him and denounce him; his child, too, sacrifice everything that was dear to her with her clear, grave eyes, from which in the world, and gave her nothing in there looked such unconscious rebuke, return; you did all this to gratify your seemed to condemn him, and a strange thrill to pierced his heart as he remem selfish greed—that you might possess bered how she had always instinctively the gold which you imagined her father shrank from him, as if, with her childish held in his keeping. Look at the wreck intuition, she had divined his natural which your greed has wrought-have baseness and treachery. She would never you no sorrow for it ?" is there no regret love him now, nor look up to him with a in your heart that would prompt you to child's affection and respect. His wife, beautiful almost as Pearle, and very rich make restitution, if such a thing could now, despised him; he read it in the cold, be possible ?"

"There can be no restitution," Alice nard tones of her voice, in the curl of her delicate lips, in her averted glance, and said, in low, cold tones, he could never hope to reap any comfort She had quietly approached during or benefit through her. their conversation, and now spoke as friend, so loathed him that he did not one whose mind was made up as to the deem him even worthy a thought of course she would pursue.

"There can be no restitution," she rerevenge-he had turned his back upon him, resolved to ignore utterly one who peated; "he cannot restore to me the had fallen so low; and there was not a love and confidence which I once had person in that room who did not regard for him; he cannot restore to me my happy home-happy though so humble Surely his humiliation was complete ; he cannot restore my father, nor the no foe could be more utterly conquered, pride and joy he once experienced in his and Pearle was amply avenged. When Sir Harold Cheswick approached only child, nor yet the respect and es-Adison Cheetham, he looked up with a teem of those with whom I used to mingle. I have nothing left of all that I "Are you satisfied now that your claim once held so dear; I have nothing in upon Miss Radcliffe is null and void ?" the the world remaining to comfort me save "It appears to be a self-evident fact," my little child. She is the only link I have left to bind me to life! for her I he answered, with sarcastic bitterness. "Then I trust you will see the wisdom must live and strive to make the future bidly sensitive over the fact of having a Amy was his child, so there is no merit in of discontinuing you persecutions. Miss as bright as may be, and my aim will be husband and yet living separate from him my having cared for her-at least in the Radcliffe will return to her home at so to rear her that her life may nat be and I could not bear to subject myself to way you mean," Pearle answered, return. Ashton Manor; and, it is safe to assume ruined by a mistake which proved so

He had been wondering how these

She made an involuntary gesture of

I know him but too well; there is not one regret in his heart for all the wrong "What difference would it have made ?" he has done me-no love for me, no sorrow for what I have suffered. I am rich since Uncle Alec's bequest to me. holm would have had but a mass of char-"How you comfort me! And yet I red bones for his bride !" he whispered Had he known of that, and that I was living, he might have returned to me Sir Harold shuddered at the malicious and tried by smooth words to make me English, Scotch and balieve that he regretted the past in "Was it you who saved her," he asked. order that he might have become posses "Yes, I saved her; I saved her. I sed of my gold. Now you tell me that would have died for her-for even one "Never mind that now, dear. God has kind word or look from her !" he cried. I am to be richer still, and there may be a feeling of disappointment that he can

Merchant Tailor. is now showing the latest styles in Canadian Tweeds. FANCY WORSTEDS -FORrealized what was to follow. "The railway," she began, with a visible shudder, "curves very abruptly just at that point, but I took what I supposed Sir Harold approached Adison Chee. "It was he who saved Miss Radcliffe from her peril the other night," Sir Harold explained, indicating Adison Chee. "It was he who saved Miss Radcliffe from her peril the other night," Sir

1888

ments incident to that later and most critical Day Express, 7.30 period, known as "The Change of Life." "Favorite Prescription," when taken vertice Prescription, when taken nection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery, and small laxative if Dr. Pierce's Furgative Pellets (Little Pilis), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder Their combined use also removes which, and abolishes cancerous and Express for Sussex..... Express for Halifax & Quebec,.......18.00

A Sleeping Car will run daily on the 18.00 Train to Halifax.

"Envorite Prescription" is the only addition for women, sold by druggists, under positive guarantee, from the manu-On TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY, a Sleeping Car for Montreal will be attached to the Quebec Express, and on MONDAY, WEDNES-DAY and FRIDAY, a Sleeping Car will be attachvers, that it will give satisfaction in every ed at Moncto e, or money will be refunded. This guaran-has been printed on the bottle-wrapper,

Trains will arrive at St. John :

has just received his

Call early and have your Suites made

PRICES MODERATE.

JOSEPH WALKER,

AFTER

HOUSECLEANING,

-PUT UP-

And Lower Prices than ever.

Next door above W. H. V. Fredericton.

Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six For large, illustrated Treatise on Diseases of omen (160 pages, paper-covered), send ten nts in stamps. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association. All Trains are run by Eastern Standard up in the LATEST STYLE.

Joseph

Fredericton, April 4

LINEN

New Colors,

New Patterns.

The Good Luck Elevated Oven Cook Stove, is the best Elevated Oven Stove in Express from Halifax & Quebec, 7.00 the market to-day. This Stove is guaranteed to bake faster than any Elevated EF EVERY STOVE GUARANTEED.

Would like to see the FINEST STOCK of RICH ENGLISH JEWELRY, in SETTS, NCKLT S, RINGS, LOCKETS, LACE PINS, SCRAP PINS, GENTLEMAN'S SIGNET RINGS, BUTTONS, ETC., ETC., ETC., If you should

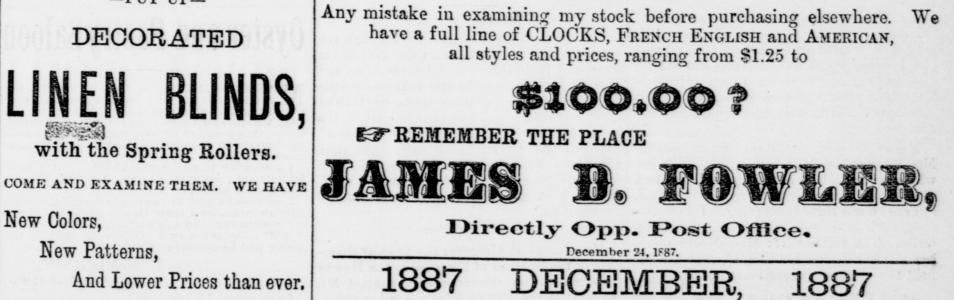

WANT

A GOOD WATCH, we have them in GOLD, SILVER, GOLD-FILLED and NICKLE CASES, at prices

DT O

Suit all. In SILVERWARE our stock is now full in all lines, consisting OF TEA SETTS, ICE PITCHERS, CAKE BASKETS, FRUIT DISHES, CARD RE-CEIVERS, CASTORS, JEWEL CASES, VASES, NAPKIN RINGS, ETC. In looking for a Christmas Present you cannot 1887

that neither she nor Captain Byrnholm, fatal to her mother." ______ ple living a mile or so from us in whom I not change your feelings towards either who was bending fondly over her, while the past, Alice ?' Sir Harold asked. to his. He clenched his hands, and his two would settle matters.

"He does not desire my forgiveness

"What is this ?" Richard asked, coming not have the benefit of my fortune ; he to pervade all in that silent room as they trust Him, and, Alice I feel that I am bet quickly forward, while Pearle uttered a might be willing to tolerate me for the

that point, but I took what I supposed Sir Harold approached Adison Chee. Harold explained, indicating Adison Cheewas the track on which the outward. tham while these two fair women were tham. bound train ran, and deeming myself per | conversing thus.

see a train if one should come, I walked and listening to the strange stories that face of the man who had so wronged to him forever. slowly toward home, and unconsciously were being related in no enviable frame her. feel to musing. I do not know exactly of mind.

The man had sinned deeply, and he had boon ?-do you regret it coming from upon her. when I began to be conscious of my danger. I heard a whistle behind me, but I also suffered deeply. He had fully be. such a source ?" Adison Cheetham asked was so sure that I was upon the right lieved that Alice Raneu was dead. When bitterly. track that I did not pay much heed to it, she had left him, driven from him by She sank back in her chair with a slight

I glanced up, but there was no train his abuse and neglect, he had gone home shiver. She was very glad of her lifeahead of me, and so I walked leisurely to his own estate, where he remained in once more it looked very bright to her : come from just behind me, and thrilled "beggar wife," as he had more than once had risked so much to save her ought at blood suddenly froze in my veins; I seem. of all concerning her, until chance threw for all the misery he had caused her? ed to become paralyzed and deprived of in his way a newspaper containing, as he kichard's face was fearfully pale, as he It banishes pain and lameness quickly. the power to move. On and on that fear. supposed, the notice of her death. ful engine thundered. I thought of my To say that he was glad but faintly ex. owe to his enemy. He stood with downchild, my mother—I shrieked a prayer to pressed his feelings; he was exultant, for cast eyes and sternly compressed lips, God for mercy, and then I was conscious now he was free, and could woo and win with something of the same feelings which of nothing that followed." Alice was shivering now with the terrible remembrance; her teeth chattered, her lips were blue, her eyes had grown that he had taken from his wallet and wild and staring and poor little affrighted read, after his first advances to Pearle in Amy clung to her in terror. the grove on the day of the pinnic; it was

"This will not do," muttered Dr, Mur. also the aame slip that he had read in his dock, with a gloomy brow ; and springing room at the Langham Hotel, but he read it under very different circumstances to his feet, he suddenly left the room. He was gone but a moment, however, then, for, had he not only a few hours beand returned with a glass of something in fore looked upon the dead face of his girls, you have accomplished a truly noble his hand. He went to Alice's side, and wife? held it to her lips.

It was a terrible shock to him when he "Drink it all, May," he whispered, un saw her lying there so still and white. consciously using the name by which he He knew her at a glance and those words, "My God! how came she here!" were Shall we say that this heroic act cancels had always addressed her.

She obeyed him mechanically, and then | wrung from him with an agony such as he lay back weak and exhaused. The recolhad never experienced in his life before. lection of these sad events had been all in an instant it flashed upon him that most too much for her frail strength. Pearle was not his wife-that the marriage

"Come and rest; you are not strong had not been no marriage, and that she enough for all this excitement," the was free to wed Richard Byrnholm if she young doctor urged with an anxious chose. The fact that his wife was really glance into her pallid face. She looked dead at last made no difference; she had np at him sadly, and shook her head. died more than a week to late; and then "I must settle with him first," she said he began to wonder how that notice had with a motion of her head toward her hus- come to be inserted in the paper. The band. The color mounted quickly to George was, that Alice, wishing him to believe Murdock's face, and he turned abruptly her dead, had caused it to be inserted, so away from her and walked back to his that he would never see or trouble her. Then he wondered how she came to be in corner.

"What a fearful experience has been England, if her father, and her mother, yours !" exclaimed Sir Harold with a sym- and her child were with her, and if so, pathizing look. "But whatever prevent | where were they living? It was a very ed you from being crushed to death ?" wretched night that he spent at Lang.

"I do not know. I expected to be ham, and before morning he had almost hurled instantly into eternity; and indeed reasoned himself into the belief or hope life has been a blank to me for more than that the dead woman was not his wife a year, for I have known nothing since, after all. But to make sure, he had gone until within the last week," she replied, to the morgue hoping to look once more ment, had felt as if it was more than Table Meets at Foresters Hall, St. Marys Ferry, on the morth, at weakly.

"It is the greatest mystery in the world" when told that a young man had taken brokenly: said Richard. "I cannot understand how the body he was more perplexed than she has been preserved, The engineer ever, and no one can describe the fear said he saw her immediately upon round. and horror that possessed him as he reing the curve, and instantly reversed the engine and gave the signal for danger head. He used every effort to stop the train, and most of it was spent before it reached her. Some the spent before it reached her. Some thought she was be baffled thus.

Dne Dozen Wire Beds, F. J. MCCAUSLAND'S, Articles in Woodenware, from 25 cents, Glassware, Tinware, Woodenware, Once she could not have uttered such caught upon the cowcatcher and thrown No one knew that he had been married; pardoning words; once her soul would Positively prices as low as the lowest. Satisclear from the track, or she would have no one should ever know it. His wife have rebelled against any leniency to-Hardware, Jewelry, Soaps, Picfaction guaranteed. Office removed to been crushed. Everybody thought that life was extinct; indeed a physician said that she was dead, although no outward injuries that appeared very serious could be discovered. While the crowd was tures, Tops and thousand 250 QUEEN STREET, THE Will be sold at less prices than ever be-Opp. the Bridge. ADAMS, of Useful and Fancy Articles, at N. B.-All my goods are new, Opposite the Bridge. JOHN RICHARDS. County Court House Square. 5 and 10 Cents Each. Frederictor, October 12, 1887 Fredericton, December 14, 1887

-AT-

and indifferent that Sir Harold knew fectly safe, since I thought I was sure to The wretch had sat silent and moody, breathed, with a frightened look into the band was concerned, she was indeed dead

And he sighed heavily as he looked "Yes, to me. Are you not glad of the

(To be continued.)

A Severe Trial,

Those who endure the torturing pangs on. Then those short, sharp whistles, ignorance of all concerning her, and glad, but she would rather that the obligation of Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Sciatica, those dreadful warning sounds, seemed to if the truth were known, to be rid of his rested anywhere else. But the man who Lumbago and similar painful complaints me to my sonl with a terrible fear. I turn. called her, after learning of her poverty. least, receive her gratitude, Could she are severely tried, but there is a speedy ed-the train was almost upon me. My He had remained there, I say, in ignorane be grateful to him could she forgive him relief in Hagyard's Yellow Oil, as thousands who have used it joyfully testify. considered that all his fnture joy he must

A large variety of Fancy and Useful

Artificial Teeth. When desired, Local or General Anæsthetics Administered A large Stock of New Goods consisting of: in Extracting,

JUST OPENED :

OFFICE:

DENTIST.