JAMES TIBBITTS.

Now for good resolutions.

The Cutting Club meets this evening.

The Marysville rink is open for skating.

The City Council meets in regular session this evening.

Mrs. Haney of Oromocto, died very suddenly while carding wool, Thursday.

Majority election, Monday, January 14th.

The Wizard Oil concert Company are to open in the city on the 8th inst. for a week.

The York Municipal Council will meet Tuesday, the 15th inst. Who will be Warden?

Mrs. Beale, wife of the late Henry S. Beak, a former resident of Fredericton, died suddenly at Halifax, Monday.

Calder's toboggan slide was formally opened yesterday, and was very liberally patronized during the afternoon and evening.

Dr. Seery very kindly remembered the Amn House inmates with appropriate holiday gifts for which they are very grateful.

At Canterbury Station, Friday, Mr. Cronkley of Campbell Settlement, had his hand badly lacerated by the bursting of his gun.

A young lad named Macdonald, 8 years old, was drowned in the Nashwaak at Marysville, yesterday while skating. His body was recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Risteen have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends in the loss of their child, who died at noon to-day from jaundice.

The Ladies' Working Band in connection with St. Paul's Church, meet Saturday afternoon to arrange the course of lectures to be presented during the winter.

Richard O'Brien, who has been employed as a workman for over thirty years, met with a sudden death at his residence, Sunbury street, Wednesday afternoon.

The skating season opened at the Carling Park last evening. There was a large attendance. Bryson's Band has been engaged for the season.

Miss Clara E. Bridges of Fredericton, has been appointed to the position of teacher of the primary department in the King street school, St. Stephen.

At the A. O. H. club room, last night, the President, Mr. W. E. Seery, was presented with a handsome merrymen pipe by the members of the club.

Mr. A. A. Bartlett of Charlottetown, is in the city. We observe by the Charlottetown papers that Mr. Bartlett is to lecture in that city shortly in the Presbyterian church.

Beautiful weather ushered in the New Year and the streets of the city were alive during the day with tokens of all descriptions. The lively staples did a rousing business.

The new Baptist church at Margareville, was dedicated Sunday, Rev. W. E. Macintyre, R. H. Thomas Maggs and Joseph Barker taking part in the services during the day.

Patrick Carr of Lake George has secured the contract for carrying the mails from the William station and way office to Lake George and return, for the next four years.

The members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians are preparing to give their fellow members, School Inspector O'Brien, an enthusiastic send off before he permanently leaves Fredericton.

The W. C. T. Union intended giving the usual New Year's dinner to the poor children of the city yesterday, but the city physicians considered it advisable in view of the prevalence of scarlet fever.

At the Christmas examination at Harvard college, Rev. Walter A. Taylor, formerly here an assistant clergyman of the Methodist Church, captured a scholarship worth $200. Mr. Taylor is taking an advanced course in theology at Harvard.

John Brittain, who for the past eleven years has efficiently taught the Patrician superior school, has been appointed to fill the vacancy on the Normal School staff created by the appointment of Mr. O'Brien as inspector of schools.

We are requested to state that Miss Daisy Beverly, grand daughter of Mrs. Francis Beverly, will give a Shakespearean Reading in the City Hall next week, before leaving for her home in Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Beverly is a daughter of John Beverly, and has been studying at the Madison Square school of Acting, New York, and has been highly spoken of by the New York papers.

As the old year passes away, and the new one dawns upon us, a great many are in the habit of making good resolutions. A good thing is to make a resolution to make, and in the making of which we would be but performing a pleasant duty to ourselves, would be to resolve to purchase your dry goods at Edgewood's, and thus spend your money wisely and to the best advantage, and have the satisfying assurance as eighty-nine passed out that you had "well-done."

The return curling match yesterday between sides chosen by President Street and Vice-President North resulted in a second victory for the President by 9 points. The score by rinks was as follows:—
