The FARMER had a pleasant call yesterday for the Knights of Pythias, from Mr. B. McCluskey, a native of Boiestown, who has been living in California for the past fourteen years. Mr. McCluskey was employed at Edgecombe & Sons factory for three years before going west, and knew almost everybody in Fredericton, but he finds many of his former acquaintances removed by death or other causes. He returns to California immediately, having spent the past four weeks at his old home at Boiestown where his aged mother still resides. Mr. McClusky has prospered and tells of many
