"BARNES' NEW BRUNSWICK ALMANAC." We have received from the publishers a copy of this old and reliable publication for the year 1879. Besides the Calendar, Sun, Moon and Tide Tables, Weather Predictions, etc., it contains a great quantity of very useful information relating to Dominion and Provincial public matters, Societies, etc., which render it especially valuable. Indeed, it is now the only first class New Brunswick Almanac published.

WE UNDERSTAND that it is sold for only ten cents.

FISH EXPORTS.—We are indebted to the Chatham Custom House for the following statement of Fish exported from the port of Chatham from 20th Nov. 1877, to 30th Nov., 1878.

Table with columns: Description of Fish, Quantity, Value. Includes Salmon, Cod, Lobsters, etc.

AN "EDITOR."—When we observe Mr. W. H. Stevens' spiteful little attacks on the Editor of this paper through the Moncton Times we can easily understand Q. K. Philander Doesticks' essay on the influence of the press, as exemplified in the columns of the Mudflat Rhapsodist. If Mr. Stevens lived in a city, his own tastes, combined with public appreciation of his qualities would probably make him a valued member of that body known as the "Brighton Artillery," but as it is his lot and the community's misfortune that he should live in Moncton he is an "editor." Poor Moncton!

PUBLISH IT ALL.—In reply to the Times, we beg to say that it is quite welcome to publish the correspondence between Mr. H. T. Stevens and Mr. D. G. Smith on the subject of the partnership business, such publication to include all the letters from that of Mr. Stevens offering the partnership, which was the first letter, to the end.

The above is republished from our issue of the 28th, ult. for the satisfaction of the Newcastle party who appears to have directed his abominable interest to the subject. We may say for his benefit, also, that we hope when the letters are published they will not have any forged names attached to them.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Attorney General Fraser was in town last week. While coming from Newcastle on Saturday last in company with Hon. Mr. Kelly, the axle of the carriage in which they were driving broke suddenly at the collar, and both were thrown quite violently. Mr. Fraser, who was quite shaken, was, however, able to proceed to St. John on Monday morning, as well as Mr. Kelly, who escaped with slight injury.

A. P. Rolph, Esq., the popular manager of Messrs. Dun Wiman & Co's business in New Brunswick, visited the Miramichi last week.

Rev. J. C. Murray, of Woodstock, N. B., has been on a visit to his old friends in Richibucto.

THE "NEW ERA" AND "ANDOVER" are being laid up for the season. Capt. Bell, who had charge of the latter vessel during the past season has succeeded Mr. Stevens on the Chatham Railway. Capt. Charles Call ran the New Era until Saturday last, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. Both Newcastle and Chatham people recognize his obliging disposition, for though he is not ostentatious in the performance of his duties, he meets the requirements of the boat's patrons none the less willingly and effectively. His example is followed by the hands under his charge and we hope that they will be enabled to resume the service at a period as early in the spring as the date of their discontinuance was late in the season just closed.

THE SKATING RINK.

The Chatham Skating Rink was opened for the season on Monday evening last. The amusements were free and by special invitation and the attendance was large. The 73rd Battalion Band furnished excellent music, the Rink was well lighted and the ice in excellent condition, though hardly thick enough to entirely withstand the great moving weight upon it. The water, however, was only forced through in two or three spots and the area affected thereby was so small as to offer very little inconvenience to the skaters. Good order prevailed both on the ice and among the numerous promenaders and the angury for the season was decidedly favorable.

We hope the attendance of Monday night, though large, was not more so than that of other fine evenings during the season will be. It is no small undertaking to establish and maintain a Skating Rink, and it is the duty of the public, for whose amusement and benefit it is provided to support it well. It is especially calculated to afford necessary and suitable recreation for children of both sexes free from objections and dangers which are a drawback to winter sports for young folks in places where Rinks are not established. No more suitable place for ladies and gentlemen to assemble for exercise in the evening can be found, especially as the curlers have two links within the same enclosure and are always sure to enliven the exercises with their vocal music.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Although hard times are felt here as well as elsewhere, Nelson is improving a little.

These Ambrose has erected a fine dwelling 22x32 ft. and a barn 22x32 ft., 14 ft. post.

E. Flett, Esq., has erected a large barn 28x60 ft., 15 ft. post. He is about getting a steam engine to assist in carrying on the tanning business on a large scale.

John Flett, Esq., has improved his property by building a barn 72x30 ft., 16 ft. post. He is about to put in his mill one of the excellent Double Edgers manufactured by Mr. Fraser of the Miramichi Machine Works.

Mr. Michael English has erected a dwelling 23x25 ft., 1 1/2 storeys.

Mr. Daniel Baldwin has almost finished his house 25x35 ft., 1 1/2 storeys.

Mr. Mathew Carrol, one of Nelson's most enterprising young men has built a store and dwelling 22x25 ft., 2 1/2 storeys.

"High Tea."

A very pleasant entertainment, to which those who got it up gave the name of a "High Tea" was the chief public attraction in Chatham last Thursday evening. It was in the Temperance Hall under the auspices of the Methodist church here, and the ladies of that congregation deserve a little credit for the success they realized.

Geo. Whitaker, Esq., was called to the chair and then there was a good humored address by Rev. Mr. McKean, followed by a solo and chorus, the former by Mrs. Nicol, Misses Bessie McKean and Flora Kelly then sang "The Sisters," excellently and Miss Phillips rendered the touching solo "Tired" in good taste. The little Misses Haviland gave one of their attractive instrumental duets, after which Rev. Mr. Campbell responded to a call by the chairman for a speech. Miss Annie Shirreff then sang a solo, which highly pleased the audience.

Everybody was next called upon to discuss the spread provided by the ladies, and though there were two long tables ranged on either side of the hall, they were not quite equal to the accommodation required. The bill of fare was a capital one, the ladies who waited on the guests seemed very anxious to please them and it is needless to say they succeeded. This part of the programme was enlivened by music, both vocal and instrumental and while a few pieces were being performed after the regular tea quite a respectable number patronised the oyster table supplied by Mr. Fountain. The entertainment appeared to be one with which all concerned had good reason to be well satisfied. The net sum realised was between fifty and sixty dollars.

ENTERTAINMENT OF THE DUTCHER REFORMERS.

On Tuesday evening the entertainment of the Chatham Dutcher Reformers was held in the Masonic Hall. A. D. Shirreff, Esq., occupied the chair and the meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. McLean. Miss Charlotte Johnstone presided at the piano.

PROGRAMME.

Chorus—"Rescue the Perishing" by the Choir.

Address—By the Rev. Mr. McLean.

Solo—"Precious Promise" by the Choir.

Solo and Chorus—"My Little Valley Home" by Misses Gertie Goggin and C. Johnstone.

Solo and Chorus—"Sweet Chiming Bells" by Miss M. L. Johnston; accompanied by Miss L. Johnston.

Triad—"Oh my heart goes pit a pat," by Miss Annie Davidson, Jennie Shirreff and Ettie Leonard.

Address—By Mr. James D. McKay.

National Anthem.

Mr. McKay, in his remarks said that with regard to the report of the Committee of five appointed at their meeting to take action in the introduction of the Canada Temperance Act into this County, he was not in a position to say anything, as he had not communicated with his colleagues. He thought however, that as soon as the committee had corresponded with the different societies their work was done, and he recommended that the Chatham society should appoint two delegates to the convention and that this be done next Tuesday evening.

From over the Continent.

We were very much pleased yesterday to receive from Geo. J. Forbes, Esq., whose tales of trans-continental, as well as home scenes, have interested so many of our readers, a letter written on 30th Nov. at Mission San Gabriel, Los Angeles, California. It will be remembered that we announced, a short time since, that of his having been bequeathed a million or more of dollars by a relative. He says very coolly "your report of my good fortune was true, only I was left much more than the figure you named." He keeps up his literary labors and as a proof thereof sends us the manuscript of a story, which we will soon publish.

He starts in March for Yokohama on a trip round the world and promises us a call on his return, and also some sketches of travel, in the meantime. He says "I think I will settle in New Brunswick, yet, I like its people better than those of any place I have yet seen." After referring to the tropical character of the weather in Los Angeles—the orange-trees, etc.—he turns to the subject of business and says "trade is dull and it would not be advisable for any working man to come this way now in hope of bettering his condition. In nine cases out of ten it would be for the worse. Every voyage is crowded to repletion. An advertisement for a book-keeper in San Francisco was answered by 130 applicants. No rain here yet. People are looking for it with interest. New potatoes—second crop—are coming in now. Honey is worth 3 1/2 cents per pound, which will be 3 cents, net."

We hope Mr. Forbes will send along many of his sketches, as his numerous friends here will, no doubt, be much interested in them.

THE ST. JOHN "STORY."

The ADVANCE appears to be the especial target of a number of ill-natured and unsuccessful press writers in New Brunswick who find a place for their spiteful little efforts in the columns of papers distinguished for the paucity of their editorial talent. We had begun to think that our nondescript contemporary, the News, had almost ceased its habit of employing nomadic journalists and newspaper fledglings as contributors to the portion of its columns which should approach somewhat nearly to the ordinary standard of respectability, but it appears still to get the distinction of possessing "the editorial barber's chair." And it is a matter of regret that the News' columns show said chair to be almost invariably patronised by the class who think that to be found making use of such a luxury once a week is the acme of self-denial in the direction of personal cleanliness. We are forced to assume that this state of things continues to exist in the intellectual continent of the News, or they would not have advanced the regrettable references to the ADVANCE which assisted to mar its columns last week. We are not aware of having published anything to entitle us to the name, "Snarleyow," nor yet to call down upon our reflections on the "brains" employed on our staff, yet the News applies to us the one and also reflects savagely on the quantity of others which we possess, then it changes us with having "checked," and that in the "wrong place," next, it says our "yelp" is more disagreeable than our "bite," further, we have the "feelbest capacity" for "sober discussion" and our method is of the "nastiest kind," again, we "can differ from no other journal without recourse to offensive personalities and insolent blackguardism." Now, we are quite well acquainted with a gentleman who is supposed to be and, no doubt, is the proprietor of the News. We know, also, that his political associations require that much of his time should be devoted to public matters, to say nothing of duties of a social character, in the discharge of which he has gained much distinction and at times—notoriety. Still, he can hardly be excused for so neglecting the supervision of his paper as to have permitted its editorial chair to be occupied, sometime during Thursday last, by the evidently low and vulgar person who penned the language to which we have referred. We feel quite sure that Mr. Willis will endeavor to be more watchful in future, for although he cannot very well prevent the News from being weak, wavering and aimless in its editorial department, yet it is probable that he will not wish it to be vicious, if any one were to direct his attention to the fact that it was so. We, therefore, overlook the News' offence this time and sincerely hope that it will not give us occasion to make good one of its charges—that of being personal.

An interesting Social Event at St. Andrews.

The Telegraph and Courier notice a recent interesting event as follows:—"A very interesting ceremony took place before a large assemblage of interested spectators in All Saints' Church, St. Andrews, on Wednesday morning, when E. Lee Street, Esq., of Newcastle, was married to Miss Jennie Whitlock, daughter of the late Henry Whitlock, Esq., for many years collector of the port and county treasurer. At 7.30 o'clock the bride, leaning upon the arm of her brother, Mr. Harry Whitlock, of Houston, and followed by her bridesmaid (her sister) Miss Florence Whitlock, entered the church and walked up the aisle to the chancel, where the bridegroom, E. Lee Street, Esq., and his groomsmen, Master Walter Leonard, were in waiting. * * * The service concluded, and the necessary documents signed, the bridal party, to the wedding march, walked down the aisle, and on emerging from the church, took their seats in the carriages in waiting, and were driven to the railway depot, from whence amid the plaudits and best wishes of their assembled friends, they took their departure for their future home in Newcastle. St. Andrews has thus lost one of its fair and most amiable daughters. The happy pair carry with them the best wishes of the entire community. Mr. Street, while a resident of the shiretown for a few years, gained the good will and respect of every one who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and his bride was loved by a large circle of friends and relatives, for her many amiable qualities. She was made the recipient of very many tokens of the regard and esteem of her friends. As the bridal party left the church a merry peal was rung on the bell, and in honor of the groom, No. 2 Fire Company, of which Mr. Street, while a resident of St. Andrews, was a member, made a display of hunting from the flag staff on the engine house."

FRENCH TEACHER.—V. A. Landry, Esq., has been appointed French teacher in the Normal School, Fredericton.

THE FIRST CURLENG of the season took place at Fredericton on Monday last, on a beautiful piece of ice near the St. Ann's Club boat house. The Telegraph says of the two sides that played were composed of married and single men, and some splendid playing was done by each rink on perfectly level ice. Mr. George Diblee opened the game with a fine draw, which is perhaps the first shot played in the Province this year. The single men were again the victors, as follows:—

Single Married G. L. Wetmore, G. Y. Diblee, M. J. McLaughlin, James Snow, E. H. Allen, J. R. Grievie, T. G. Loggie, skip—19. A. F. Street, skip—12.

THE BOY.

Denonitis person.—A young American in roundabout and leggings, perched upon the fence devouring a huge piece of mince pie, and a maiden of five summers, in pantalettes, looking very wishfully at the gourmand on the fence. Young America—"I say, sis, does your mar make mince pies? If she does I'll bet they ain't so good as my mar's. Little Miss (timidly)—"I like my mince pie awful well." Young America—"Well, now that's funny! Just look here (drawing a quarter of a pie out of his jacket pocket) and it's boss, too! Ain't my mar good?" (carefully stowing it away in his pocket). That boy "is father to the man" who must have his cigars and any other masculine luxury his contemptible selfishness craves, while his poorly skilled wife must do the work of two women ("girls waste more than they earn," he says), and for the want of a little money to purchase a few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the sovereign remedy for female diseases and weakness, masculine selfishness that would not divide the childish luxury with his playmate, and now tacitly rebuses his wife the luxury of health.

INCUBATION AT OTTAWA.

In condave assembled the Ministry at Ottawa, on the 10th inst., for the purpose of discussing the proposed bill for the protection of the fishery. The distinguished Premier kept his hat, as usual he believed in protection.

While just underneath him the egg called N. P.—Awaiting its full incubation—He carefully guarded "the" anxious to see, A crack in its shellly formation.

Each Minister gravely looked down at the nest, Behold Sir John sitting instead, Who, turning to Tupper, his friend thus addressed, "Your instruments—Charles—are they ready?"

"O yes, they are here, sir; I came quite prepared To render assistance if needed; The efforts of nature's sometimes be shared, And even sometimes superseded."

"That's good! I'm not certain what we may require; I fear there is some malformation—Oh, how I do long with increasing desire To bring forth a noble nation!"

Each Minister anxiously looked in his face, Sir John clasped his hands, saying "Let us say grace, I feel in its shell it is working."

He muttered, "For what we are going to receive," While Tupper moved forward and straddled—His eyes with surprise, as he rolled down his sleeve, "Why, Sirs! The N. P. Egg is hatched!"

Logan, Lindsay & Co.

Some time ago, and the commercial public heard with surprise and regret that this firm found it necessary to ask an extension of time in order to meet their financial engagements. It was a work of some difficulty to get an answer from all the creditors of Logan, Lindsay & Co., but the work has been completed, and the answer, in every case, has been satisfactory. The result speaks volumes for the esteem in which the firm is held, as one determined honorably to meet all engagements in full, and it is certainly most honorable to the creditors, any one of whom might have defeated the arrangement, and refused the extension asked. We refer to the matter because it is one of public interest, removing as it does an obstacle in the way of confidence in banking circles, and because it will enable one of our most respected firms, engaged in large transactions to go on with an uninterrupted and profitable business without interruption.—Telegraph.
