3rd. Prize-Maggie Mowat, the New Dominion Monthly, for 1 year worth $2,00, presented by Miss Jane McCully.

Another prize, consisting of fret saw and patterns, worth $1.50, given by Miss Jane McCully, was awarded to Ernest McKay, for superiority in Algebra.

A prize of a cut glass inkstand worth $1,20, was awarded to Willie Snowball for greatest improvement in writing.

The Rev. Mr. Forsyth in presenting the prizes, said he was very much pleased with what he had seen, and heard, and he trusted the pupils would continue their progress. They would see by the distribution of the prizes how important it was to have different objects in view, as both learning and good deportment were made the necessary conditions of success. This was the object of a broad education; he was pleased with the proficiency in nual examination of the pupils of the Gram- mar, and he believed they were all in
