FERSONAL .-- Rev. Wm. Wilson, the popular pastor of St. Andrew's Church. arrived in Halifax on Monday last, and is expected to be in Chatham to-day.

NEW FIRM .- Everybody at the North will wish abundant prosperity to the new firm, Burns, Adams & Co., of Bathurst, whose card appears in to-day's ADVANCE.

Among our new advertisers this week are Messrs. Clarke, Kerr & Thorne of St. John. They are a pushing concern and in the front rank in their line in the Commercial Capital.

M. C. CLARK, DENTIST, can be found in Newcastle at Mrs. McAllister's residence every Friday and Saturday, where he will be prepared to attend to those desiring his services, commencing Friday, Oct. 5th. '77.

"LITTLE FAITH."-The Advocate predicts the early falling off of interest in the present Temperance Reform Meetings. Such predictions are, certainly, not calculated to encourage the movement, which, to almost everybody else, seems to possess the elements of success.

SERMON TO SUNDAY SCHOOL CHILDREN. -On Sunday evening next the Rev. H. McKeown will preach a sermon to the Sabbath school children of the Methodist Church. The children of the school will for information as to who paid the freight R. A. LAWLOR, Esq., of Bathurst was bills, etc. of this paper. As the proprietor of the ADVANCE was not here just at that time, someone had, necessarily, to transact business for him, but we think that even the Advocate gentleman who makes peto find out nearly everything that is done in connection with this establishment, will fail to discover anything unusual in connection therewith. Of all creatures, a "Peeping Tom" is about the most useless and despicable. The Newcastle paper's column's give evidence of much work in that line, although it is of an unattractive kind for readers of good taste.

The Dutcher Reformers' Entertainment.

At the weekly entertainment of the Dutcher Reformers on Tuesday evening, President Tweedie occupied the chair, and the proceedings were opened by the Rev. T. L. Smith, engaging in prayer, after which the choir sang a chant, "Jerusalem | growing larger and larger. There was no my Glorious Home.'

The Rev. Mr. McKeown delivered an address, dwelling on the enduring nature of the Temperance Reform movement. which was now wider and deeper than ever it was, observing its only enemy was the legalized traffic, which still existed. Master Le Baron Shirreff, (six years old) next sang a solo "The Cold Water Army"

HANDSOME SLEIGHS. -- Messrs. Baker & Co. of Chatham have manufactured quite a number of sleighes during the present season, several of which are very handsome. We hope this firm will receive the encouragement they deserve from that portion of the public, who are fortunate enough to be in a position to own and drive horses.

PROGRESSING FAVOURABLY.-Young Henderson, who was injured by a falling chimney at the late fire, is not quite so seriously injured as it was at first feared. On Tuesday he was removed from the Hotel Dieu to his own home, and on the same day his broken arm was set by Dr. John Benson. There is every probability that he will retain the complete use of it.

It is replete with general information relative to the printing and publishing business both at home and abroad, and is well adapted as a means of communication among the craft, both as regards business and social matters. DISTRESSING ACCIDENT. - A fatal accident occurred at Acadieville, Kent County, on Saturday last. A Frenchman named Andrew Bristol left his house at noon on that day, intending to bring with him on his return a load of hay. He was found late in the afternoon near a stack of hay, dead, and it is supposed he had fallen from the top of the hay upon a fork, the prongs of which had entered his body and killed him almost instantly. An inquest was held before Coroner Moody on Monday when the jury brought in a verdict that "Andrew Bristol come to his death "by falling from the top of a hay stack "upon the prongs of a wooden hay fork, "causing injuries which resulted in death." Deceased leaves a wife and several small children.
