LET IT PASS :- Several letters directing attention to remarks in the Advocate 8th inst..in which abusive and impertinent references are made to Mr. Snowball, have reached us, but we do not publish them, believing that the gentleman abused is too well known in Northumberland to be in jured by anything which can emanate from that source. It is to be regretted that a man who is, at the very least, the peer, socially and morally, of Mr. Peter Mitchell, should, because he is to run an election against the latter, be put down as a person who is incapable of "comporting imself as a gentleman." When he takes his place in Parliament, however, his friends will have an ample guarantee in the record of his past life that he will pass through his first session with greater credit than Mr. Mitchell has his last. If it were not so Northumberland would be better without a representative.

Brown Shipping Master has recently fitted up the old stand formerly occupied by Dr. Thompson, as a shipping office for which, from its central position, it is well adapted. We understand that Capt. It has hitherto been the practice, to some extent, for foreign seamen to be shipped and discharged by their respective consuls.

The Presbytery of Miramichi held a quarterly meeting in St. John's Church, Chatham on Tuesday 7th inst. It was a lengthened sitting and much important business was transacted. All the Ministerial members in the Presbytery but one were present; of the elders only one, Rev. S. Russell, was present as a corresponding member. Mr. Stewart, student Cathechist, who is to labor at Douglastown for the summer was also present. The startlingly sudden and lamented death of Rev. D. Taylor was noticed. Testimony was borne by those who attended the funeral as to the manner in which Mr. and Mrs. Taylor had grown in the affections of the people of Bass River and promise of blessing attending his ministrations there during the few months of his settlement, and as to the sorrow felt at the loss sustained. The Committee appointed at the meeting held at Bass River to draw up a minute with reference to the solemn dispensation, not having had time to discharge the duty, it was continued, with instructions to have the minute ready for

It has so happened that I have, in the main, supcause I considered that course the best in the inerests of the Province, as well as of Northumberand, and also because I had no desire to aid in ef-
