Fashion Notes. Imitation laces are more used than the real for trimming. Full black ruchings, edged with gold or silver threads, are pretty. White India muslin bridal dresses are quite the thing for young brides. Walking dresses should not be over two rior instrument for from one-half to two- yards and three-quarters wide. Rolled gold is a color which is rapidly asserting itself among the novelties. Pine-apple muslins, in delicate shades of Heavy embroidery seems to be the crowning virtue of European toilettes. Undressed black kid gloves with long rists are the first choice in mourning. Thin dresses, worn over low-necked and short-sleeved linings, are again seen. Some muslin dress skirts are ornamented with as many as ten narrow ruffles. Ladies' watch chains are now fastened in a button hole of the dress with a bar of Household Hints.

Fine shreds of india rubber dissolved in a warm copal varnish make a wateproof cement for wood and leather. The quickest way to expel foul air from a well is to heat a bar of iron red hot, and lower it down into the water; the sudden formation of steam is effectual. Cheese kept in a cool larder or cellar, with a clean damp cloth upon it, will never have mites in it, or, if it has, this will soon destroy them, and also improve the cheese. LEMON TAPIOCA PUDDINGS.—Take a teacup of large tapioca, and soak it over night in a pint of water; in the morning make a very sweet rich lemonade with two or three lemons, a cup of sugar, and a pint of water; put it with the tapioca, and boil until clear; if too thick add more water; peel the lemon very thin, cut the peel into straws, and boil until tender; then draw off the water, and add the peel to the tapioca, before quite done.

To be eaten cold, with cream sauce. CANNING FRUIT COLD. -A lady in Springfield, Mass., according to the Union, has been making some experiments in putting up canned goods without cooking. Heating the fruit tends more or less to the injury of the flavor, and the lady referred to has found that by filling the cans with fruit and then with pure cold water, and allowing them to stand until all the confined air has escaped, the fruit will, if then sealed perfectly, keep indefinitely without danger or loss of original Dry Feed for Young Chicks.

The complaints we continually receive about the loss of early spring chickens have induced us to write privately to numerous correspondents directly, who have appealed to us to tell them why it is that their little birds drop off at ten or twenty days old so frequently, when they "feed them with plenty of soft meal, properly scalded," and give them "all they can eat four or five times a day."

The cause of a large share of the mortality among the young broods is attributed to this very kind of feeding. Wet, sloppy dough or meal sours in their crops before beginning to digest, and they are destroyed by this means. We again insist that their early food must be dry, for the first three or four weeks especially. Whenever they need drink, if shallow pans of milk or fresh water be left within their reach, they will avail themselves of the opportunity to take all they need.

ing digestion by offering your birds threequarters water to one-fourth of grain. Give the natural solvents—the gastric juices-a chance, and don't dilute them till they are "too thin" to act on the food. - Poultry World. DENTISTRY .- Dr. M. C. Clark, of Chatham, N. B., has made arrangements to Investigation discloses the fact that the lady reported in the Associated Press dispatches, about August 10th, to have died in Chicago after two weeks' use of some reputed remedy for corpulency, had not taken Allan's Anti-Fat, but had used a preparation put up by a regular physician in Luzerne, Pa. Allan's Anti-Fat is manufactured in Buffalo, N. Y., by the undersigned. We have sold over 100,000 bottles of it. It has therefore been taken by thousands, and we challenge proof that it has ever harmed any body, unless the reduction of obese persons from 20 to 60 pounds, leaving them healthy and strong, is considered a misfortune. Furthermore, we hereby offer $5,000 reward for evidence showing that it contains poisonous or injurious ingredients. We also offer $5,000 if we cannot prove that it has reduced numbers of persons as stated herein, and always without injury. It is said a lie will outtravel the truth any time; but we trust that those newspapers that have misled the public by saying that physicians attributed the lady's death to the use of Anti-Fat (which is only put up by us, the term "Anti-Fat being our trade-mark), will correct the false
