NATURAL ICE HOUSES. -The Yarmouth Tribune makes mention of a natural ice house in Antigonish County, N.S., from which fishermen obtain their ice supply during the summer. Gloucester County has a similar "ice-privilege" at the Big Falls of the Nepisguit River. The ice accumulates against the face of the rock under the Falls in an immense mass during the winter and remains through nearly the whole summer. When it has melted to a certain point it gives way from the face of the rock where it has accumulated, and falls. An unfortunate man was killed a few years ago by the ice fall at this place.

FAIR PLAY. - The Inspector of Fisheries letters in the Campaign paper, the Sun, attacking Mr. Smith of Chatham, called forth a reply from that gentleman, which was purposely marred in the Sun office before being published. The fact being stated by Mr. Smith, in the Globe, the Sun, with all the effrontery of a paper having no responsible person to control it, falsely states that the portion of the letter left out was "indecent." We are assured that the only excuse for such an assertion was the fact that Mr. Venning was alluded to, but as he is, unfortunately, in a public position and will persist in the Tory press, with his characteristic attacks on respectable persons, the latter are obliged to be guilty of the "indecency" of dealing with him occasionally.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESSES. - On Wednesday evening of last week, Mr. A. J. Loggie, who has been in the employ of J. B. Both ex- made his appearance. He began to apolopressed regret at the approaching severance of mutual kindly relations, and assured the recipient of the esteem and regard in which he was held by his friends. Mr. Loggie, in his replies, expressed surprise at the receipt of such flattering testimonials, and spoke with regret of his departure from the companionship of such kind friends. The presentations took chell whispered a few words to the chairplace at the residence of Mr. D. Chesman, where a supper was partaken of by those present, after which Mr. Loggie was accompanied to the Junction, to take the express train going North.

A "Tooley Street" Affair.

A few weeks ago Mr. Mitchell took advantage of the meeting called at Newcastle, by the Sheriff, in connection with the return of Mr. Adams as Surveyor General, to place his views before the electors of the County. Mr. Snowball happened to enter the Court House just as Mr. Mitchell commenced to speak and, having waited until he was done, replied to him. Mr. Mitchell spoke again in reply to Mr. Snowball and the latter again replied. The verdict of those who heard noth gentlemen was not a flattering one to Mr. Mitchell, and his friends have felt very much dissatisfied ever since. They argued among themselves that something must be done to stem the tide which has turned in favor of Mr. Snowball in Newcastle and they hit upon an expedient which they, no doubt, thought would secure that end. How long the little scheme has been afoot between the half dozen men in the secret we do not know. any more than we know the number of weeks Mr. Mitchell has been preparing for the event, but on Tuesday afternoon, shortly after five o'clock, a despatch was all parties such a general support in his B. Miramichi and the North friends had arranged for a meeting at Newcastle the next evening, at which Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Snowball were to ext plain their respective political positions. MR. SNOWBALL AND MR. MITCHELL ad- Mr. Snowball was, at the time, away canvassing in the Parish of Glenelg and his chief clerk, Mr. Leishman, at once telegraphed to Mr. Call that Mr. Snowball was absent and the time of his return was uncertain. Notwithstanding this Mr. Call advertised next morning (yesterday) in the Advocate and by posters, that a public meeting would be held that evening in the Newcastle Masonic Hall at which it was expected that Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Snowball would deliver ad-

The tactics of Mr. R. R. Call and the "Committee" of which he advertises himself the chairman appear to have been hardly fair towards either Mr. Snowball or the public. It might be, from their stand point, very desirable to get as large an audience as possible to hear Mr. Mitchell, but after Mr. Call received Mr. Leishman's telegram he was not justified, even by his zeal in Mr. Mitchell's cause, in misleading the public by advertising the probability of Mr. Snowball's presence. Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself at the order and caprice of "a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends," who do not, by any means represent the public. Besides it is not a very long time until Nomination Day, when the public will again have an opportunity of hearing both gentlemen at when he last met Mr. Snowball in debate

Failure. Correspondence from different parts of the County relating to meetings held by "CITIZEN."-Your communication came Mr. Mitchell, indicates that the electors claims upon this constituency. Those who ing a sailor of the Barque Martin Luther think seriously over the matter and reason save when it suited his convenience to make a summer pleasure trip to the County and call upon a dozen or two of his principal supporters. They confess to themselves that the County and its inter ests seem to be nothing to him, save when he desires to use them as a means for getting into Parliament, and they know that if our fishing boats, lines, and nets, our mills and our workshops were to rot in idleness, it would not affect him in the least, for his interests lie in Montreal, where he should also seek a constituency. It is these facts which keep electors from going to the trouble to attend his meetings, and it is the wholesome change of sentiment which he finds against him in every community in the County that makes both himself and his friends desperate in their canvass. We might refer particulars of untruthful reports which are set afloat in Mr. Mitchell's ininterest in the hope that they will keep afloat a losing cause, but the gentleman who will surely succeed him in the representation of the County can afford to leave his interests to the care of his friends. who feel that Mr. Mitchell ought to be and can be honorably and handsomely beaten, in spite of all the influences at his command. > Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audienc in the River des Caches School House, on Thursday evening last. He had kept the audience waiting from seven o'clock (the hour appointed) until past nine before he gise for this, but suddenly stopped and told Mr. Amateur Savoie to take the chair. The gentleman thus suddenly and unexpectedly called upon reluctantly complied, and Mr. Mitchell gave us a twohour's speech nearly all of which we had heard before. Those present listened patiently, and at the close were going away quietly, most of them evidently believing they had lost their time, when Mr. Mitman, who then proposed three cheers for him which were given very feebly indeed.

Neguac, Aug. 26, 1878.

On Thursday our district (Tabusintae) had a visit from Mr. Mitchell on his return from Tracadie. Pursuant to notice about seventeen electors, out of one hundred and ninety-one in the district, together with about ten young men and boys, assembled to hear him explain his sentiments. The meeting was held in the school house on the North Side of the River at the Forks of the Road. Mr. James Stymist was appointed chairman. Mr. Mitchell gave a glowing account of his services to his country during twenty-six years of patriotic toil. Seven of those years, he said, had been spent without any colonial Railway, the light houses, and the opportunity to often visit us. other public works which he had given to the Province, and stated that his principal reason for opposing the Mackenzie Government was its "unconscionable extravagance." The hon, gentleman declared he had frequently, unaided and alone. toiled all night till broad daylight to restrain this extravagance, but not always successfully. In concluding, Mr. Mitchell told the electors that Mr. Snowball, instead of attending Parliament, must, necessarily, during its sessions, be absent in district where Mr. Snowball's friends ormed such a large portion of his own strength. It is to be hoped that Mr. Adams will have an eye to the tuture and leave Mr. Mitchell to take care of himself, otherwise he may find that without giving much help to Mr. Mitchell, he has done considerable injury to himself.

We may remark that as Mr. Snowball has always attended faithfully to any business undertaken by him. it is fair to suppose that when he is elected to Parliament he will pursue the same policy. When did Mr. Mitchell discover that the fact of a gentleman being a lumber merchant and having business in Great Britain ought to be an objection to his holding a seat in Parliament. Mr. Mitchell and his friends had better not invite comparisons on this branch of the subject, for we might show that he is inconsistent with his own record. In both the Senate and House of Commons there are merchants who do large business with Great Britain and still attend to their Parliamentary duties as intelligently and faith- ber. fully as Mr. Mitchell and the fact that there may be some of Mr. Mitchell's personal friends who are an exception to this does not justify his constant attacks on Mr. Snowball in connection with that gentleman's business. Respecting the promises made by Mr. Mitchell for Mr. Adams it is possible Mr. Mitchell may have been promising too much. At all events, it will be time enough to apply criticism to the Surveyor General's conduct when he makes himself liable thereto, in the way indicated.

In speaking of the purchase of Premier said: "At the very time we "bought these rails at $54.40 a ton, we were receiving delivery of rails purchased by the Government of which Mr. Tilley was a member (and Mr. Mitchell also,) without tender, at $85 a ton, and on those same rails, they paid a ship broker (brother-in-law of Mr. Mitchell) a commission, while the brother was ' cheating the Government by manufac. turing false invoices. Questions for Mr. Tilley

To the Editor of the Advance,-

SIR, -I think that as Mr. Tilley is look ed upon as the leader of the Protectionist party in New Brunswick it would be well for the electors who are invited to vote for those who may support him to know that he fails to answer some very awkward questions which are propounded to him in St. John. I find the following put by a correspondent of the St. John Globe and still unanswered:

Why does Mr. Tilley not reply to the statement that for ten days after his appointment as Governor he sat and voted in the Council, and spoke in the Com-

Why does he not explain why it was that after promising as he did in his speech in the Commons, November, 1873, to "take the consequences before the country of the acts of his government," he did not do so?

What explanation has he to offer for taking the Governorship at a time when he knew he had not the confidence of this constituency could not look at an election in fact-and when he knew that the Government that appointed him had not the confidence of Parliament or the coun-ent platforms recently, denied it? What reply has he to Mr. Cartwright's question as to what in his heart of hearts

he thinks of the Pacific Scandal? And what reply has he to the question involving his personal honor of having imself introduced resolutions to take a half million for three millions due by the Northern Railway while his colleagues were pocketing $27,000 of the price of that How does he plead to Cartwright's terse indictment of "cheap rum and dear Is he content to be one of Sir John Macdonald's "saints," travelling meekly in the train of a political profligate? To be a prayer-book cover for a prurient WATCHMAN.

Office Holders :- Complaints against the conduct of office-holders under the Dominion Government are made on P. E. Island, as here and elsewhere. The Patriot By publishing the above you will oblige

It is well known that the present Government have been keeping in its employ hundreds of its deadliest enemies-men who, though eating its bread, had not honesty enough to serve it faithfully. The Government, by their adhering to the English system, have kept in office scores ning a few facts for digestion by the electors of spies and traitors, who have left no stone unturned, during the last five years, to bring Mr. Mackenzie and his colleagues into disrepute. A word of warning to these gentry, from the Examiner, would B. Snowball not be out of place.

> AN UNBIASSED OPINION. - The Scottish merican Journal, an authority with

"In anticipation of the approaching election in Canada, a fierce discussion is waging on the question of free-trade and protection. This will apporently form the principle issue on which the Government and the Opposition will appeal to the country. It seems a pity that so much ammunition should be wasted upon it. The issue has already been decided in the House of Commons in more than one instance. Under the free-trade policy at present in force the country enjoys a very reason to anticipate any great addition to the trade of the Dominion were that policy reversed; and since it is a policy founded in principles of abstract justice, and is the development of a sound fiscal economy, it would be better that the country should not be agitated upon it.'

Such are the words of a journalist unafected by our party heats.

A LAME CONCLUSION. - The Freeman says "because Mr. Mackenzie said that whenever, from any cause, the supply of Canadian wheat falls short of Canadian wants, the consumers would be obliged to pay the full tax on all the flour used in the country, and that even when the supply of Canadian wheat is sufficient, the imposition of a duty would prevent our schooner owners trading to the United States from bringing back flour, and would tor, will the Hon. Peter Mitchell clear this otherwise impede commerce and prove a matter up and tell us how much money burden, Mr. King by some process of (if any) he made out of this transaction reasoning known only to himself, jumped to the conclusion that any duty imposed on flour would not practically add a tenth of one cent to the cost of a barrel of flour. Mr. King knows very well that the flour tax must raise the price of that article to consumers. It is far more honest for him, however, to admit that the Protectionists do intend to tax flour than to deny it, as we learn Mr. Mitchell endeavors to do.

CARD.

To the Electors of the County of Northumberland:

GENTLEMEN :-Nominated by a large number of IN GILT LETTERS, NONE OTHER IS GENUINE. my fellow-electors and desiring to have the County represented in accordance with the sentiments and interests of its people, I shall be Candidate at the approaching Domi-

Having never had the honor of sitting in Parliament I am free from active Party alliances and responsi-

I have little need of assuring you that my political views are in accord with the principles which have so long distinguished the Liberal Party. my influence having been always exercised on that side.

I believe you are alive to the danger which threatens us through the desertion of some who were once our standard bearers, but have now allied themselves with those professing principles which the Liberal Party long and, at last, successfully contended against. The policy of that party now has for its object the sub sidizing, by a Protective Tariff, of a few manufactures which are already protected to a greater extent than any staple industry of this country. This policy would bear with ruinous weight upon our Farming. Fishing and Lumbering interestsinvolving taxation on Flour, Salt, Coals and other articles used by our people generally.

Your interests, which are identical with my own, require that such a policy should be opposed by your Representative and should I be elected I will use my best endeavors to defeat those who may advocate it. I am convinced that the course pursued in Parliament during the past five years by our late member 17.—Sch. Elizabeth, Hawes, Summerside, herring, has not been such as the important interests entrusted to him required. When the Government of which he was a member resigned—thus confessing that they were unable longer to administer the affairs of the country -our member should have endeavored to assist those who were constitutionally called to take their place. Instead, however, of doing so he preferred to be singular in his relationships with both parties, and to unreasonably obstruct the work of Parliament.

The course thus pursued has destroved his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY. from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them. Should I be elected I hope, by pursuing a more independent and reasonable course, to recover the loss which the County has

I am also sensible of the fact that there is need of changes in the administration of certain local interests under Dominion control and as your Representative I shall deem it my duty to take such action as will prevent the losses and annovances to which I believe some of you have been unnecessarily subjected.

I may add that should I be elected

I shall devote the same attention to my Parliamentary duties that I have always given to other public business undertaken by or entrusted to me. Between the present time and polling day I shall have opportunity to more fully explain my views. Meantime, soliciting your support, I am, gentlemen, your obedient ser-

CEALED TENDERS addressed to the Secretary of Public Works, and endorsed "Tender for nal and Lock at St. Anne," will be received at this office until the arrival of the Eastern and Western mails on TUESDAY, THE STH DAY OF OCTO-BER next, for the construction of a Lock and the ormation of approaches to it on the landward side of the present lock at St. Anne. A map of the locality, together with plans and specification of the works to be done, can be seen at his office and at the Resident Engineer's office, St. Anne, on and after TUESDAY, THE 24TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER next at either of which places printed orms of Tender can be obtained Contractors are requested to bear in mind that tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms, and-in the case of firms except there are attached the actual signatures, the nature of the occupation and residence of each member of the same; and further, an accepted Bank cheque for the sum of $2000 must accompany the Tender, which sum shall be forfeited

f the party tendering declines entering into contract for the works, at the rates and on the terms stated in the offer submitted The cheque thus sent in will be returned to the espective parties whose tenders are not accepted For the due fulfilment of the contract, satisfactory security will be required by the deposit of money to the amount of five per cent. on the bulk sum of the contract: of which the sum sent in with the Tender will be considered a part. Ninety per cent. only of the progress estimates will be paid until the completion of the work. To each Tender must be attached the actual signatures of two responsible and solvent persons, residents of the Dominion, willing to become sureties for the carrying out of these conditions, as well as the due performance of the works embraced in the Contract. This Department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.
