FAVORS UNEQUALLY DISTRIBUTED. -A Blissfield correspondent writes to say that :- "In the Parish of Blissfield, where there are about 130 voters, the Local Government has thought proper, from time to time to make appointments of Justices of the Peace, so that in our locality there are seven Justices whithin five miles (in and about Doaktown) and none for nearly 20 miles from centre Blissfield to centre Blackville. In two houses there are Justices and in one house there are 2 Coroners and no acting Coroner for nearly 50 miles either way, up or down. Can any parish of about 600 inhabitants in any part of the Dominion beat this? Each Justice and Coroner costs our Local Government about $20 for a fit out of books and one dollar yearly afterwards."

FAREWELL SUPPER. - The departure of Mr. W. T. Carman, of this office, and Mr. Geo. W. Loggie, from Chatham, for San Francisco, was mentioned in our issue of last week. THE CHINESE FAMINE. -The Rev. Dr. Fraser, for some years Missionary of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in the Island of Formosa, China, and who is now on a visit to Canada, preached on Sunday in St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, in the morning, and St. John's in the evening. He took occasion to refer to the China Famine and express his gratification that so much ($83.00) had been subscribed by Christian friends in Chatham and forwarded for the relief of the starving there. The Famine has been one of unparalleled severity, the British Ambassador at Peking estimating that not less than 5,000,000 people have died of actual starvation. Much has been done by Christian countries to relieve the distress in the famine districts. Over $250,000 were contributed last year. Contributions have been forwarded free of expense by the generosity of banking houses in New York and London, having connections in China, and the personal oversight of missionaries there has, in all cases, been given to the distribution of these funds. An impression in favor of Christianity has thus been produced upon the minds of the Chinese which will never be effaced. It is gratifying to know that a good harvest has been gathered this year, and, that though much suffering will still have to be endured. there is no longer the need there was of

"Injustice"(?)

The Advocate complains that we did injustice to the Mitchell demonstration on Saturday night, 28th ult. We should be be their own fault. We have given fair very sorry to learn from any reliable quarter that such was the fact. We may remark also, that we never thought of questioning the right of our Newcastle friends to illuminate their dwellings. The difficulty with the Advocate and its immediate friends seems to be that they are quite prepared to abuse the ADVANCE and its friends, but if we retaliate with either good-humored banter "half-fun-wholeearnest" statements of facts or just-criticism, they complain of injustice. Our cotemporary complains, also, that we excluded from our columns "the Public Address presented to Mr. Mitchell." No "Public Address" has been presented to Mr. Mitchell, that we are aware of. An address signed by less than forty personal friends of Mr. Mitchell was presented to nim on 28th ult., but it could not be called a public address. We were not asked to publish this address and, therefore, cannot be justly charged with excluding it from our columns. Besides, we have only the Advocate's authority for saying that anybody's name was really signed to the paper and as that journal has already Party. been shown up in publishing documents

He tried to convert the unconverted in Northumberland and went for the wrong man. Now, he wants the Sun, which was only created for a day's service, to do as the moon is said to have done for Joshua, and to that end he wants "the party" to organize. He ought to have Pattulo the prophet for a "running mate" and, with wealthy backers, he might manage to live. EVEN the New Dominion, not the most moderate of papers, thinks that the reoicings of the Tory party have been carried just a little too far. In this Province the majority rejoiced so wildly because, by the aid of Quebec and Ontario they, have triumphed over the majority of the people of New Brunswick, and set at naught their well-understood wishes constitutionally expressed. The people of New Brunswick, the majorities in St. John, Charlotte, Queens, Sunbury, York, Albert, Westmorland, Kent, Northamberland, Gloucester and Restigouche, recognize in these Tory demonstrations the proof that men whom they once respected are willing to grind them to the dust by means of outside majorities and then to exult over them. - Freeman.
