Semi-Annual School Examinations.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT. On Wednesday of last week, the semi-annual examinations of the Chat ham schools commenced with that of the Primary Department Nos. 1 and 2, in the school house, Wellington street, in charge of Miss Alexander. The examinations commenced about 10 o'clock, but, owing to sickness, many of the children were absent. The number on the register of the school is about 58, and the average attendance about 48 The number present at the examination was only 24. The children of this school range from five to eight years. The morning was a very stormy one, to a close. and the number of visitors was comparatively small. F. E. Winslow, Esq., (one of the trustees of the District,) and Dr. McCurdy were present, with number of ladies. On the opening of the school the children repeated a number of texts of Scripture, after which devotional exwere conducted by Miss ercises Alexander.

The children then sang "I'm away to school." The school is divided into three classes A B and C. The exercises com menced by reading easy sentences from the black-board and printing the same on their slates. In reading from the black-board the children were required to name different words pointed out to VEGETINE has restored thousands to health who them at random which proved that the exercise was not one of mere rote, and the children appeared to be quite expert at this, pointing out the same word wherever it occurred through a sentence. Crimmen, another of the Trustees, who would have been present, but for business engagements. Some fine day they would come and distribute some prizes. He thought that the children were making a nice little start.

The children then sang "Hom Sweet Home" and were dismissed. INTERMEDIATE DEPARTMENT. On Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the examination of the Intermediate Department, in charge of Miss Haviland, took place in the school house on Chapel Hill, to which this Department was removed on the 1st May last, from the room in the Masonic Hall building. The premises have been suitably fitted up and are,

Class A were examined in Geography. The exercise was on the map of the World the pupils shewing the earth was round, naming the oceans, and the relative positions of the continents to each other. The divisions and physical features of some of the continents were also pointed out. Longitude, latitude, the equator, zones, etc. were defined and the motions of the earth etc., were also explained. "Gentle Words" was now sung by the pupils. Class C were examined in reading and spelling from the 2nd Reader, the selections being made by some of the ladies. This class was only graded from the At the MIRAMICHI BOOKSTORE. Primary Department last spring, and shewed good progress. "Edwin Brimner recited the "Owl the exercises being in proportion, finding the greatest common divisor, and the least common multiple. There were also a number of practical questions.

The pupils now sung "Let the Lower Lights be burning." Class B were examined in Arithmetic, in practical questions, bearing on the first Dialogue " The Seasons " by Fanny Gillespie, Nina Benson, Bessie Carter, and

Alex. Cormack. Frederick Howard now recited "Ben's Straw Hat." Class A were examined in English History from the invasion by the Romans to the reign of William II. Adam Shirreff recited, "The old man goes to School."

Minnie Carmichael recited a poem called "Saturday Night." Several of the exercises had to be onitted on account of the lateness of the hour.

Mr. W. B. Howard briefly addressed the pupils, contrasting the schools of former days with those of the present time, and expressed himself highly pleased with the knowledge shewn by the History class. Mr. Crimmin, as Trustee, expressed himself much pleased with the progress the children exhibited, and noticed in partigraded in May last, in the C Class. He promised prizes to each of the classes next term, on behalf of the trustees. The pupils then sang the parting Hymn,
