PIRATING:-The Advocate repeats the announcement made by the ADVANCE several weeks ago respecting the proposed "excelsior" factory in the Sugary Settlement and, as usual, fails to give credit. Corresion:—In noticing the new St. Andrew's Church School building last week we erroneously stated that Mr. John Cassidy was the architect and builder, instead of which the name should have been Mr. George Cassady. Pungs and Sleighs are advertised for sale by Mr. Alex. Robinson of St. John Street. Parties wishing to provide themselves with good, serviceable articles in in that line ought to examine what Mr. Robinson offers before going elsewhere .-Encourage local manufactures. QUEBEC: -It is stated that the Quebec Government have postponed the election in Gaspe until December The object of this arrangement is to increase Mr. Flynn's chances of election by depriving the electors of the Magdalen Islands of the opportunity of recording their votes. HEAVY FIRE AT RIMOUSKI. -At 9 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, a fire took place at the Railway depot at Rimouski, destroying the station house, tank house, one snow plough, and outbuildings. The Station Master lost the most of his furniture. The loss is said to be estimated at from $10,000 to $12,000.

IMMANUEL R. E. CHURCH :- Rev. Geo. Howell, who has been conducting the services in Immanuel Reformed Episcopal Church, Chatham, for the past two months has been unanimously called by the congregation to the Rectorship of the same. He left on 19th inst. to visit his family in the United States and remove them to his new field of labor.

PERSONAL :- Rev. Samuel Houston of Bathurst, officiated in St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, last Sunday. He returned home on Monday afternoon.

Mr. W. T Connors and bride arrived in Chatham on Tuesday morning. The flag of the C. T. A. S. ciety was displayed on the Hall of that organization in honor of the event.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM. - Two tramps have been visiting several towns in this Province, for the ostensible purpose of selling a patent "cement," which does not possess the property of sticking the fellows long enough at any hotel to pay their hotel bill. The Standard says that one of them paid St. Andrews a visit last week, where the tramp not only left his board bill unpaid, but cemented a new white shirt and pair of nice winter kid gloves to his person. with which he walked off without permission .- Ex.

PARSE THE FOLLOWING, which we take from the Fredericton correspondence of the Telegraph : - The concert opened with the selections, "We sail the Ocean Blue," "kind Captain I've Important Information," "Little Buttercup," and others from Pinafore, by the Reform Club Band, which were played in a way we have never-what, never! well, hardly ever heard excelled. The next piece on the we went Gypsying," by Mr. William Wilson, who sang well as he always does.

Entertainment of the Chatham

On Tuesday evening the Chatham Temperance Reformers held their weekly entertainment in the Temperance Hall .-The chair was occupied by the President Mr. A. W. Paterson. The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Teed. Addresses were delivered by the Rev. Mr. Teed, Messrs. A. D. Shirreff, A. W. Paterson, and Wm. Johnston.

A recitation was given by Miss Lucy Craig and a reading by Mr. A. W. Pater son. A glee was sung by Misses. Mary Maggie Johnston, Mary Anderson and Charlotte Johnstone, and a solo by Capt. Brown; instrumental Music Ly Miss M. Anderson and choruses by the choir. Misses. M. Anderson and C. Johnstone presided at the Piane.

At the close of the meeting the President stated that the Executive Committee had had a meeting and appointed themselves marshals to assist in keeping order. It was also understood at the same meeting that the present meeting of the Society was to be regarded as a test meeting as to attend. ance, and it was, therefore, now decided that the meetings of the Society should be held henceforth once a fortnight, although if it was found advisable, the weekly meetings would be resumed. On Tuesday evening next there would be no meeting, but one would be held on the Tuesday evening following.

The colors of the different badges were announced as follows; ladies white; gentlemen red; and officers blue. The spreedings concluded with the National Anthem.

The St. Louis' Institutions - Baznar. A Bazaar will be held in the new R. Catholic Hall Richibucto, in July next by the ladies of the congregation of Notre Dame in aid of the fund of the new Convent of that community at St. Louis. The ladies of Richibucto and vicinity are making preparations to co-operate with the Sisters in their landable enterprise and we have no doubt that their many friends will be glad of an opportunity to assist in the work. The popularity of the educational establishments which have grown up at St. Louis under the general supervision and direction of Rev. Mr. Richard of that place, has necessitated the erection of the new structure, the existing one being found too small for the accommodation of the pupils offering. There are now about sixty of the latter in the girls' Academy, thirty of whom are hoarders from different parts of this and adjoining provinces. the College, over forty of whom are board. ers. This is a most gratifying exhibit, well calculated to encourage all interested and promote the success of the proposed bazaar.

Bathurst Notes.

NOVEMBER 22nd, '79 SCHOOL EXHIBITION.

On Wednesday evening last the pupils of the Bathurst Grammar School, under the superintendence of their very popular teacher. Mr. G. W. Mersereau, gave an entertainment in the Masonic Hall. They | ly cure you. were greeted with a very fair audience although the prospect of Grace Egerton appearing on Friday night no doubt had a diminishing effect. The programme consisted of Songs, Recitations, Dialogues and Choruses, and although carried out well we think a better selection could have been made. The pupils all perform. ed their parts well and gave strong proof of having received thorough training Where all did so well it would, perhaps, be unfair to particularize, but we think we might mention, as worthy of special notice the recitations, "a Tale Remarkably Told " and " Corporal Shnapps " given respectively by Miss Annie Miller and Master Reginald Ross; also "Lord Dundreary," as sustained by Master Lannergan in the play entitled "Lord Dundreary's Visit." The whole concluded with a farce entitled "Poor Pillicoddy" in which the pupils were assisted by Messrs. S. T. Miller and W. Barry, both young men of our town. Mr. Miller's reputation as an amateur performer is so well known that it requires it only to be said that he fully sustained it on this occasion in the character of "Pillicoddy" and Mr. Barry, who has not appeared upon rendering of the part of "O'Scuttle" that he had lost none of his characteristic a welcome before Bathurst audiences. is rumored that Mr. Mersereau intends getting up another entertainment for the holidays, the proceeds of both to be devoted to the purchase of a set of the latest improved seats and desks for the SEVERAL "CASES."

Grace Egerton (Mrs. George Case) Mr. George Case and Dolly Dot Case appeared n the Masonic Hall here last evening to a crowded house. The performance was unanimously pronounced by all present to be the best seen here for many years. Although the acting was very good indeed, the musical part of the entertainment was considered the best. In the former the favorite characters were Mr. George Case as "Betsy Prig" in the comic scene from Dickens and also as "Timothy Frizwig" in the comic stetch entitled "Married and Settled" and Mrs. George Case as "Sairey Gamp" the nurse. The favorite songs were "Downin a Coal Mine," "The Broadway Belle," " Be sure you call as you pass by" and "Here stands a Post" in character of "Brittania." These were all heartily encored more, particularly the latter which was received with rounds of cheers. The performances by Mr. Case on the violin and concertina were very fine, although a number of the audience about the centre and lower end of the hall kept up a very unpleasant noise, much to the annov. Bros. ance of the musician and those who wished to enjoy the music, and clearly | Bros. shewing they did not know and consequently could not appreciate good music when they heard it. The costumes were all much admired, especially that of "Brittania." Should they ever return to Bathurst again they will no doubt, be warmly received. We are favored with very few entertainments of this kind in Bathurst, and there is one reason which. no doubt, keeps a great many away namely: that there is not a respectable public hall in the place, or one that is fit for a respectable troupe to perform in. We are happy to say however that the R. C. Total Abstinence Society" of thi place have now in course of erection a very large building which will remedy this want. On the ground floor there will be large public hall well fitted up and on the second floor will be the private rooms of the Society. They hope to have it finished during the early part of 1880. SNOW STORM AND HIGH TIDE. A heavy snowstorm accompanied with gh wind and tide set in here on Thursday and continued throughout the night About seven inches of snow fell making very good sleighing.

Marriage of Miss Edith McKeown and Rev. Geo. M. Campbell.

There was a large gathering in the Exmouth Street Church at nine o'clock this morning to witness the marriage of Rev George M. Campbell, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., to Miss Edith S. McKeown, daughter of Rev. H. McKeown, pastor of that Church. The bride's father, assisted by Rev. Mr. Weddall, of Carleton officiated. Rev. D. D. Moore, B. A., was groomsman, and Mr. McKeown, son of the pastor, gave the bride away. Misses. Bessie and Maud McKeown were the bridesmaids. Professor Max Sterne presided at the organ and played a few German selections. At the conclusion of the ceremony, Mr. John E. Irvine stepped forward and handed to Rev. Mr. McKeown a very handsome Bible and Hymn Book, which were then presented to the bride on behalf of the trustees of the Church. These were presented in accordance with custom, -Miss McKeown being the first clergyman's daughter married in the Exmouth Street Church. The organist played the Grand Wedding March as Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left the altar. They departed in the eleven o'clock train for the

THE CLOSE SEASON. - Parties interested in the Island lobster fisheries are taking advantage of the presence of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries in Charlottetown to wait on him and present their views in reference to the "close season" for lobster fishing. It was represented to the Minis ter that the lobster fisheries of the Island were practically inexhaustible, and the deputation asked that the fishing season be column. from the 15th of May to the 15th Sept. instead of as at present. The Minister promised to consider the suggestions, and asked that the deputation put their views in | tion of patrons and its writing and have the same forwarded to the Department at Ottawa. - Moncton
