VECETINE.

A Home in the Celestial City. MINNRAPOLIS, MINN., Dec. 18, 1878. H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON: About nine and a half years ago I had a fever

the doctor gave me some poisonous medicine, drove the disease into my leg, and it broke out, and has been from two to ten running sores ever since. I could not sleep a fourth of a night once in six months, and a great many nights was compelled to get up and take opium, a piece as large as a pea-to deaden the pain. I have tried every-thing I could hear of, in fact, I have paid out hundreds of dellars, and found no relief until 1 commenced taking Vegetine, and now I can go to bed at eight o'clock at night and sleeep until seven o'clock in the morning, and no occasion to waken from pain. I was used up, perfectly dead inwardly, and frequently when I would get up would be dizzy, and have to put my hand on something to keep from falling; but since I commenced taking Vegetine it has all disappeared, and I feel like a new man. My honest conviction is that it will cure my leg entirely, from the present looks and feelings. I shall continue taking Vege-

Dear, Old Wood-Side Farm. What pleasant memories crowd my mind, No matter where I roam. As o'er and e'er again I view,

That binds me with a tender love, To dear, old Wood-Side Farm. Ties of affection bind my heart, To my home and the fond ones there, With whom I spent many pleasant hours, So free from sorrow and care, Around that home we used to wander. In childhood free from harm,

And many games we played together,

On dear, old Wood-Side Farm,

The scenes of dear old home.

For me strong is the charm,

The summer's breeze, in tenderest mood, Its magic on thee lays, And ever o'er thee seems to brood, The light of those happy days, Those happy, innocent days of yore, Where through the summer warm, The moments flew so swiftily by,

On dear, old Wood-Side Farm. There my thoughts find full expression, There my wishes all made known, There I find the deep, true meaning Of those sweet words "Mother," "Home, There loving sisters and brothers dear, With hearts so true and warm, Are always ready to welcome me back

My dear, old home, my dear, old home, For you never shall lose my love Until to the fond ones I bid "Adieu," And go to my Home above, There is no spot on this wide earth, For me has such a charm, Or fills my soul with longing love,

Like dear, old Wood-Side Farm.

On dear, old Wood-Side Farm.

To the Editor of the Miramichi Advance:

SIR :- I would not trouble you again, but for my sharing Rev. Mr. Munro's professed belief that "truth must be de-before going further, I may remark that if he had thought of that when he was writing to the Christian Visitor of 29th

October last, he would have received no check from me. He is a professing Chris-miles from Newcastle, situate on the South West branch of the Miramichi River. At that time there was no regular religious service held with the people of the place, no prayer and conference meet-ing, no Sabath school. Since that time we have had regular preaching there and God has blessed our efforts to do good. We now have a weekly prayer meeting and splendid Sabbath school organized, with hopeful prospects. All these services were held in a large school house, as there was no other place suitable, in the com-munity, to hold meetings in. This school house is unfinished inside, that is, it is not desked properly nor seated, only with rude benches so there was nothing to be displaced or damaged in the least by the congregation. The Trustees of this school and house, two of them, with a very few others, being opposed to Baptist preaching and by the aid of the Inspector of schools for this district, have succeeded in effectually closing the door against us, in con-sequence of which we are obliged to suspend Sabbath operations and to preach as best we can in the small rooms of dwelling houses till we can do better. Our congregations are large for the place and are increasing and everything was marching on in good order and with encouraging pro-My dear old home, my dear old home;

What we intend to do now is to build a commodious little church in the name of the Baptist denomination. The people have already commenced the work. Brother Joseph Amos gives the land and by the aid of friends in this county who sympathize with us in our trouble, we shall erect a building fit to worship in for a few months till we can finish it. That is we shall put up the shell, finish it as tar as we can outside immediately, lay a floor and put in a large stove, which we hope will enable us to hold service in for a time. The people here are all poor, and few of them, but they are doing nobly; outside friends are helping also, but we shall need the aid of our brethern elsewhere. Come over and help us. Give us your sympathy, send us all the money you can, that we may have a respectable place of worship in this community, where God is working and blessing the people. We are determined by the grace of God not to give it up till we see a Baptist meeting house in this lace and a Baptist church organized Pray for us. Friends who wish to help us
