Statement Sworn

Dear Sir,-From exposure, I took sick about nine years ago with Rheumatic Fever, from which I suffered about four months. When I recovered from the fever I found myself suffering with pain in my side and constipation, which brought on the piles. I consulted a physician, and paid him over $200 for attending me, and all the while I was gradually growing worse. Then one physician after another was employed, until seven of the best physicians of Boston had taken my case in On consultation between several of the leading physicians, they concluded my complaint was asthma and general debility. I had great difficulty in breathing and an inhaler was required to afford me breath. Through the treatment of one physician I took from 75 to 100 boxes of calomel ills, and faithfully tried all the medicine that each physician prescribed. From my long siekness, and the vast amount of medicine used to overcome the great pain, my kidney s became badly affected, and I suffered exeruciating pain in the small of my back, with great difficulty in passing my urme.

One physician said I was diseased all through my system, and he regretted that he could give me no hope for health. My suffering from indigestion was account that it was impossible to keep any solid. so great that it was impossible to keep any solid feed on my stomach, and the whole nature of my food was broth from oatmeal. I also took a prescription from a celebrated English physician, who said my trouble was Bronchitis and Dyspepsia. I took 18 bottles of medicine especially prepared for Dyspepsia, and I have used a great deal of medicine from apothecaries' prescription. I have taken Sarsaparilla until could count the bottles by the dozen, and indeed I have given nearly all the popular advertised medicine a fair trial I had a dreadful cough, and did not average over two hours' sleep a night for 8 A brother policeman urged me to try VEGETINE, but for a long time I refused, having got complete ly discouraged from taking so much medicine without any benefit; however, after urgent persuasion, I concluded to try it, and before I had used one steak, a thing I had not been able to do before for years; indeed, I obtained more substantial benefit from the first bottle of VEGETINE than from all other medicines which I had taken. I kept on improving, and kept on using the VEGETINE, until I vas perfectly cured and able to de duty all day, eat and digest my food, sleep well at night, and I am now 40 pounds heavier than I ever was before in my life, and am, as I think, a living contradiction of the prophecies of t' e most learned medical talent of New England, for with all of their combined

VEGETINE. Further Proof. FACTS WILL TELL.

Dear Sir. - Allow me to say a word in favor of VEGETINE. During the past year I have suffered from a complication of diseases. I lay in bed from the 3d of November until the widdle of the following June, and on an average did not sit up two hours a week; I had eight of the best physicians in the state, but got no help, and constantly grew worse. They agreed that I had heart disease, phthisis, pyaemia, and kidney complaint, and could never be any better. I was reduced in weight 50 pounds, which is much, for I am naturally thin. In June, finding I was failing under the treatment of the physicians, I commenced the use o VEGETINE through the earnest persuasion of friends and, I am happy to state, with good results.

The Sailor Boy's Farewell. Farewell to father-blessed hulk In spite of metal, spite of bulk, His cable soon may slip; Yet while the parting tear is moist
The flag of gratitude I'll hoist
In duty to the ship.

Farewell to mother-first class she Who launched me on life's stormy sea And rigged me fore and aft; May providence her timbers spare And keep her hulk in good repair, To tow the smaller craft.

Farewell to sister-lovely yacht, But whether she'll be manned or not I cannot now forsee: May some good ship a tender prove, Well found in stores of truth and love,

And take her under lee.

Farewell to George-the jolly boat, And all the little crafts afloat In home's delightful bay, When they arrive at sailing age, May wisdom prove the weather gauge, And guide them on their way.

Farewell to all on life's rude main, And though we ne'er may meet again Through stress of stormy weather; Yet summoned by the board of love We'll anchor in the port above, And all be moored together.

THE LETELLIER AFFAIR.—The Toronto Globe of the 5th contains the following des patch, dated, London, July 4th :-"After Sir Leonard Tilley's interview with the authorities at the Colonial Office, they resolved to undertake the decision of the Letellier affair without awaiting the arrival of Sir John Macdonald. A despatch to the Marquis of Lorne, announc wisdom, they could not accomplish so much as ing the decision, was sent yesterday. that simple vegetable medicine called VEGETINE to which I am indebted for health, life and happiness. believe the decision is in the precise terms of my cable message." The previous cable despatch above re ferred to runs as follows :-

LONDON June 20th .- The feeling in th Colonial Office is against sanctioning the dismissal of Lieut. Governor Letellier, but impressed with the idea that this is a constitutional question they hold that it is jealous of him because he was so attennot proper for the Government here in England to deal with the matter. It is assumed as probable that both political such interference with Canadian internal affairs. Further, it is held that the Canathority to deal with the matter. It is understood that further interference with the question will be declined.

THE MAGDALEN ISLANDS.—The S. S. dalen Islands on the 4th inst., Intelligence from the Island is to the effect that the weather during the last week has been using the VEGETINE if I can get it. I am a poor cold and foggy with high winds and rain, notwithstanding which the cod fishery around the Island and on the off-shore banks has been good and the deep sea herring fleet are doing well. #### The Wilverton's Ball.

Mrs. Alison sat in a low easy-chair and tapped her foot impatiently as she sewed. Mr. Alison walked the floor uneasily and frowned darkly. It was evident that there was a storm brewing in the domestic atmosphere. Indeed the first faint drops of the coming shower were already pattering down on the dainty dress Mrs. Allison was embroidering for her baby.

'For pity sake Maud,' broke forth her liege lord, 'don't begin crying. Why can't you be sensible and look at the matter in a reasonable way? It ought not to be so hard on you to yield to my wishes, when I have good reasons for asking you to do so.'

'I don't know what you call "good reasons," sobbed Maud Alison. 'You don't know the least thing against the Wilvertons that you should wish me to refrain from attending their ballsuch a magnificent affair as it is going to be, too.' 'That is the chief of my reasons-
