MATTISON'S Pancreatic Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil LACTO-PHOSPHATE OF LIME. This medicine can undoubtedly be used with greater success than any other remedy now known, a cases of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Hoarse-

General Debility, Wasting Diseases of Children and

Adults, and whenever it is necessary to increase the vital forces and build up the system. Nearly every person that has taken any prepara tion of Cod-Liver-Oil, knows how very liable it i to disagree with them after a time; this is mainly due to the inability of the stomach (weakened by disease) to digest the full amount of the oil taken. To overcome this trouble we have added Panceratine to our Emulsion, which not only assists in digesting the oil, but is an acknowledged remedy of itself in the treatment of Consumption. In taking Mattison's Pancreatic Emulsion of Cod-Liver Oil with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime, you receive the benefit of two of the best remedies known to science, in the treatment of any of the above

VEGETINE

EVANSVILLE, IND., Dec. 27, 1877. I have suffered with Scrofula and Scrofula Humors ever since I could remember; it has been in our family for years before I was born. I inherited it. I have tried all kinds of medicines. After having OPPOSITE MR. MUIRHEAD'S STORE - - - - CHATHAM. used a great many other patent medicines, after having paid many large doctor's bills, I heard from neighbor that VEGETINE had cured him. I had ood faith because I saw it, and so I went to the Juddenhausen Eagle Drug Store to purchase a bottle of the VEGETINE. I kept taking the VEGETINE and, in fact, I became better and better. When I had taken several bottles all Scrofula Sores and marks were gone; my health very good. It is the best blood purifier I ever tried. It will cure Scrofula. It took the sores and humors off my face; it Argyle House gave me a clear skin. Everybody who has got VEGETINE is now acknowledged by our best physicians to be the only sure and safe remedy for all diseases arising from impure blood, such as scrofula and scrofulous humors.

> For General Debility. DANFORTH, ME., Oct. 2, 1877.

Dear Sir: - My health has always been poor. Have taken a great many kinds of medicine, but never ook anything that could begin to help me like the VEGETINE. One year ago last March, I had the Lung Fever; it left me very feeble for a long time. could do but very little work and hard for me to do a little. I had never heard of VEGETINE. One day I saw the advertisement in a paper. I felt if I could get that it would help me. I sent the next day and got one bottle, and before I took one bottle I could see good effects from the medicine. After taking a few bottles I could do a good washing. 1 have taken seven bottles, am sixty-five years old, never was so well in my life and never was so fleshy, for which I feel grateful to you and to our Heavenly Father. I recommend it to all around me, for I prize it above all other medicines.

Respectfully yours, Mrs. L. R. HOWARD. THOUSANDS will bear testimony (and do it voluntarily, that VEGETINE is the best medical compound yet placed before the public for the renovating and purifying the blood, eradicating all humor, impurities or poisonous secretions from the system, invigorating and strengthening the system debilitated by disease; in fact, it is, as many have called it. Kidney Complaints. - Dys-

EWISTON, ME., Nov. 5, 1877. Dyspepsia and Kidney Complaint for the last ten years, and has been a great sufferer. Our family and the neighbors thought we should loose him About six menths ago he commenced taking your VEGETINE. Now he is a well man, but he would not be without VEGETINE in his house, and he advises all persons afflicted with those com-plaints to give the Vegetine a fair trial, and they will be satisfied that it will cure them. He had G.A. BLAIR. tried all kinds of medicine without success before taking the Vegetine. I have myself been unwell for a long time. My father wrote to take the VEGETINE, and I have, and can truly say that I never felt better in my life than I do now.

THE TARIFF. MR. MACKENZIE: -I am not of all

gentleman opposite (Mr. Tupper). hon. gentleman is remarkable at for the energy of his speech and the e. y of his statements. It is to me a most humiliating spectacle to find a large majority of the representatives of the people rejoicing at the prospect of an immediate and large increase in the taxation of the country. It is a humiliating spectacle to find so large a body of intelligent gentlemen as are now assembled, representing Canada, taking up the cast-off clothing of older nations and wearing it, in adopting a policy that has ruined other countries, and rejecting a policy that has made the Mother Country great and prosperous beyond all precedent. And, Sir, it is amazing that such an exhibition could have been presented in an intelligent country in a position of observing, as we are in a position of observing, the results of Protection in the neighboring country. The hon, gentleman, in commencing his speech to-night, referred to various matters in connection with the remarks of my hon. friend (Mr.-Cartwright). To some of these remarks, the first place, to what had taken place in 1874, and I need not say that the hon. gentleman, in referring to that, the revision of the tariff in 1874 was wholly unnecessary, although it has on railways to revenue which ought to have been charged to capital. The hon. gentleman, on the other hand, says that, wherever deficits exist, they prove the incapacity of the Government of the day, and the hon. gentleman tonight amused me by pointing out a distinguished statesman, a personal friend, no doubt, of both of us, Sir Alexander T. Galt, as a man who held the views not exceed in the first instance the sum of four | which he is now propounding to the House, though I doubt much if he has any warrant for making such statements as that. But, assuming that Sir Alexander T. Galt did represent those views, admitting that the policy he pursued as Finance Minister was the same which "dated the 10th inst., copy of which is herewith enclosed, you are authorized and directed to what were the results of that policy? It is well known that, when Sir Alexander T. Galt was Finance Minister, from the first year, there was a deficit of $1,-500,000; in the second year a deficit of leader of the Government was then the leader of the Government, or one of the leaders of the Government, during the whole of that time; and if it be true, if up a debt of $10,000,000, at the very

But the hon. gentleman says that the true policy is propounded for promoting the prosperity of this country; he says that a protecorder to make the nation great and glorious, and he has pictured to himself and to the House a great and magnificent country, flourishing and prospergentleman to make. Everyone knows, at least I supposed everyone knew, that we have the worst half of the continent. We have a very good country, which we can make something of, but not by such exaggerated statements, which only make us the laughing-stock of other people. Does the hon gentleman forget that, in 1870, when the National The following is from the St. John Policy was first born-born prematurely-and presented to this House, who were its opponents, and who were its friends? We remember that, when the came down, aftea a year's experience, and, by their own votes, voted it out of existence. As I have often told the hon, gentleman is up again to eulogise in 1879 what, in 1871, he denounced, and by his votes, as recorded on the Journals, declared to be a policy which who are now charged, unfortunately. with the administration of affairs in this country, and they endeavour to picture to the country and to this House the glorious era of prosperity which is to be inaugurated by an immense system of imposition of taxes. The hon, gentleman said that my hon. friend, the member for Centre Huron, could not logically allege, on the one hand, that
