Valuable Information.

Dear Sir,—My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being govered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit until I commenced taking the Vegetine, and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man, and my skin is smooth and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of Vegetine. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of the Vegetine's wonderful power of curing me of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensel

An old-time ingle, warm and wide, Shaming our modern manners,

The flying shadows after, From shining floor to rafter;

Now glittering in the silver store Of heirlooms with a story, Now waving saintly halos for The elder's crown of glory;

Upon a boy with cheek of rose, In baby frolic dancing About a loving father's knee, Whose brow of care unbending To join in all the baby glee

His father's fondness lending; While, with her loving smile for all, The gentle household mother Moves queenly through her kingdom small, Nor longs for any other,

But muses, in a happy way, Whether on earth there may be Another such papa to play Bo-peep with such a baby. Full well the picture I recall My childish fancy greeted,

And which the scene that most of all

I liked to have repeated:

And airs of mock confiding,

And peeped beneath a chip to see

How, when his father's hiding-place The boy could not discover, A while he stood with puzzled face Thinking the matter over, Then stooped with sudden roguery

If there papa was hiding; And how the trick brought papa out With sudden peal of laughter, And joyous was the baby's shout, And wild the frolic after. And still my fancy lingers in

" Lo here, lo there"-when every where

His morning kiss shall wake us.
