delivered by the Rev. Mr. McKeown. THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS. The President, A. D. Shirreff, Esq., on retiring from office, briefly expressed his thanks to his brother officers and other members of the Society for the noble position which it still maintained. He stated the Custom House returns for liquors entered for consumption the past quarter in comparison with 1877 and 1878 were as several years, and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such follows:-Quarters ending 31st January 1877, 1978 gals; Jan. 1878, 1137 gals; Jan. 1879, 1235 gals. This shewed that there had been a slight increase during the past quarter over the corresponding one of 1878, but only two-thirds of the quantity given me by doctors had done of the corresponding quarter in 1877. At present the stock in warehouse was remarkably low. The increase in the last quarter was unexpected in the face of the general depression and consequent cries of Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston. poverty. The President stated though quite a number had joined the Society during the last quarter there was not the vitality he would like to see, and dwelt upon the great amount of good the Society was capable of doing. He also adverted to the change which had taken place in the drinking customs which prevailed in former years, and in conclusion urged upon the newly appointed officers of the society the duty and importance of regular attendance at its meetings, and expressed the hope that during the ensuing quarter they would be highly successful in adding to

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. Mr. E. A. Strang, Chairman of the Executive Committee, said he had no written Electricity with Healing Balreport, and that having been Chairman of the Committee for the last six months he thought it best he should retire. He thought the Temperance movement was in a better position at the present time than ever and that it had done a great work in the country districts. He stated that 40 members of Parliament were now lecturing in different parts of England in the Temperance cause. At a recent dinner at the Waverly, Newcastle, provided for the Old Maid, &c., &c.
