a fishing camp, and it was there that the Princess had the good fortune to hook and haul in a 30-pound salmon. The guides employed in the vicinity are exclusively Matapediac Indians, the water excursions are altogether made in birch-bark canoes, and all the natural adjuncts of the place are wild and picturesque.

Mr. L. W. Winchester, of the National Express Company first visited the region about six years ago, and as he is ardently devoted to the sport of fishing, found it a most favored and enjoyable place. Since then he has visited it almost every Summer and each year has induced some of his friends to accompany him. A few weeks since it was learned that the Fraser place could be purchased for about $30,000 and the subject being talked of among some of the gentlemen who knew what a paradise of sport it was, the amount of the purchase-money was subscribed in 10 minutes. Since then bed-linen, table cutlery, china, carpets, and other articles of furniture have been bought, a staff of cooks and servants has been employed and sent up, and the club-house is now fairly opened and partly occupied. first it was designed to limit the club to about 30 members, but there were many applicants that the number was increased to 40, and no extension will be made beyond that figure. Among the best known of the gentlemen who are in the association are William K. Vanderbilt, William R. Garrison, L. W. Winchester, William E. Dodge, Jr., Robert C. Livingston, Franklin Lawrence, Oliver K. King, Roland Redmond, Charles E. Fearing, Gen. Chester, A. Arthur, Johnston Living. stone, Philip Schuyler, the Count d' Hauteville, M. W. Cooper, and John L. Cadwallader. An association was formed, and Mr. Winchester, was chosen President, Mr. Lawrence Vice-President, Mr. King Secretary and Treasurer, and Messrs. Cooper, Redmond, Cadwallader, and Fearing were constituted an Executive Committee. By the rules of the club each member is allowed to invite not more than one male guest at a time, and is restricted of one fishing-rod at a time, but they are free to take their families and lady friends to the club. An application has been made to the Provincial Government of Quebec for a charter. The grounds lie on the forty-eighth parallel of latitude, or, say 500 miles north of New York. It is the intention of the club to use their station not merely as a Summer resort, but also as a Winter camp. from which they will indulge in moose, caribou, and possibly bear hunts. The grounds are reached by going to Montreal or Quebec, thence taking the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada to Riviere du Loup, and from the latter point the Intercolonial Railway to the depot, which, as before stated, is within a hundred yards of the club-house; or a pleasant voyage may be made by a yacht along the Newfoundland coast, into the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the Bay of Chaleur to Campbellton. The Duke of Beaufort Sir John Rae Reid and W. J. Florence, who have recently arrived from Europe, and who have already fished and hunted in the Restigouche will shortly be the guests of the

THE ANNUAL MEETING TO BE HELD AT SUSSEX A WEEK EARLIER THAN LAST YEAR.

It has been decided to have the annual prize meeting of the Provincial Rifle Association, this year, one week earlier in the season than in 1879. This has been done in order to give the team that will be made up for Ottawa one clear week to prepare for the Dominion competitions, which commence on Sept. 6th-ten days earlier than the date of last year. The committee appointed from the Council of the Provincial Association have prepared their prize list, and have placed it at the same amount of money-$1,114-as the previous season. According to the promise made at the close of the former competition, Major Parks has given a very handsome prize, a gold watch; Wm. Elder, Esq., has again come forward with a cup, which is placed in a county team match; and Lt. Col. Maunsell, D. A. G., offers a cup for young shots. There are ten regular matches, but added to these are the grand aggregate (for the 17 making the highest aggregates in the meeting), the Governor General's medals and the special aggregate. In the latter the main feature is Major Parks' prize. Then there is another incentive to careful shooting during the continuance of the competition—a place among the 15 to be provided with $300 to defray their expenses to Wimbledon, and a probability of passes to the men (if the arrangement of last year is continued) who compose the number. The competition is to begin on Tuesday, August 24th, at 9 a.m., and will be continued on the following days at 8 o'clock. The prize list and rules and conditions are annexed :-

Instead of the all comers, which is generally brought on first, the match for the Prince of Wales cup and medal is to take that position this year. The terms are: The Prince of Wales cup, medal and $120. Open only to efficient members of the Active Militia in N. B. Ranges 200, 300 and 400 vards: 5 shots. SECOND MATCH. Open to all comers. Entrance fee 50 cents. Ranges 500 and 600 yards; 7shots at each range. THIRD MATCH. The Association silver cup and $120. Open to all members and affiliated members of the N. H. P Rifle Association. Ranges 200, 500 and 600 yards: 7 shots at each range. Entrance fee 25 cents. The silver cup presented by James Pomville, Esq., M. P., and $120 added by the Association. Open to all bona fide residents in New Brunswick. Ranges 500 and 600 yards; 7 shots at each range. Entrance fee 25 cents. Affiliated Association Match. A silver cup presented by William Elder, Esq., Editor of the Daily Telegraph, and $90 added by the Association. Open to teams of eight members from each County Association affiliating with the P. R. A. The names of the members composing the teams to be handed to the Secretary the day previous to the match, accompanied by an entrance fee of $4 per team. Police Matters We do not often find fault with the encumbrance of the town sidewalks by all sorts and conditions of men-from the habitual loafer and gutter-snipe to the half employed full fledged citizen—because it seems to be a recognised privilege accorded to them by every body in authority, and more especially the police, but it is right, when drunken men are allowed to parade themselves freely on the public streets every day that a demand for reform should be made. We have an acting turned into a "public pasture" for all the graphed to the Mayor of every town in Police Magistrate, a Police Committee the United States and Canada, asking for and two Policemen. Killed at Newcastle Station.

On Saturday, about 2 p. m., John Condon, of Moncton, a brakeman on the I. R., met with an accident and an untimely death at Newcastle Station. The deceased was one of the brake hands on No. 33 train, a freight which leaves this station for Campbellton about 7 o'clock in the morning. Conductor Merrill had charge of the train, and Bliss Lutes was the driver. At Newcastle it was necessary to set off a box car at the freight house door, and brakeman Condon was despatched for that purpose. According to a report brought from Newcastle by a train hand, the deceased, standing on the bumpers removed the pin, and, laying it down, gave the signal that all was right. He then straightened himself up, with the intention, no doubt, of clinging to the rear of the unbroken train, which was also a box car when it should go ahead.
