Entertainment of the Chatham Temperance Reformers.

On Tuesday evening the Chatham Temperance Reformers gave their weekly entertainment in the Temperance Hall. The chair was occupied by the President, Duncan Davidson, Esq., and the meeting was opened with prayer by Mr. Robert Gordon. The body of the hall was completely filled, and all the available space on the platform was occupied by the juvenile pupils of Professor Youman's singing class. After music by the choir, the installation of the new President, Mr. Duncan Davidson took place, the address being delivered by Mr. A. W. Paterson, to which the President briefly replied. The programme of the evening was as follows: Addresses by Mr. James Troy of Newcastle and Profe-sor Youmans. Readings by Professor Youmans and Mr. Alex. McLennan. Recitations by Master Le-Baron Shirreff and Miss Maggie Mowat. A duet was sung by Misses E. Burns and M. Johnston; a solo by Miss M. Anderson At intervals the pupils of Professor and choruses were given by the choir. Youman gave several songs with much spirit, evincing the satisfactory progress they had made, since their first lesson on Friday last. Although Professor Youmans was somewhat at a disadvantage in having the children ranged in a long line on the platform, instead of being massed under his more immediate control, the pieces encored by the audience.

BATHURST, Febv. 16th '80. QUADRILLE ASSEMBLY .-- A quadrille assembly under a committee of management composed of John Ferguson, ir., G. M. Duncan, M. D., John E. Baldwin and a few others of our young men, was held in the "Wilbur House" here on Monday very generally extended, were responded to by about fifty couples, who tripped the "light fantastic" well into the "wee sma" hours." The music was furnished by Messrs. Stewart, Loggie and Williams of Newcastle, playing, respectively, cornet, 1st, violin and 2nd, violin. The selections were good and the time perfect. The playing of Mr. Loggie, as 1st violin, was particularly admired and called forth many encomiums. gion of North America. He spoke also of the finding of the remains of forests along the Bay. A piece of a sunken marsh with a fringe of forest upon it may be seen at Navy Island and Fort Neck in this harbor. He then made an exposition of the rise and fall of the tides in the Bay, the condition of the bottom of the Pay and the cause of the fogs, which was exceedingly nteresting and instructive In closing he spoke of the small shell fish, etc., which are nourished by the Bay and which afford food for various fish, and said that these should be protected from wanton injury, as the fishes of our shore are our natural heritage. On taking his seat Mr. Matthew was loudly applanded.

Wholesale Murder. It is seldom that a more shocking and brutal butchery than that of the Donnelly family, of Biddulph, Ont., has been known in a civilized country claiming to be British. The tragedy was perpetrated a little more than a fortnight ago. It seems that the Donnellys were looked upon by their neighbors as outlaws. Снатнам Feby. 15th 1880. Mr. Editor-Knowing the deep interest you take in anything interesting or beneficial to the people of our county I send you the following, to which I am prepared to take my affidavit if necessary.

On the 6th day of February a very fine mare belonging to me, was seized with inflammation and became so completely exhausted with the disease that four men could roll her over without any resistance on the part of the animal. Her legs were cold and stiff the pulse scarcely discernable and proficient judges pronounced the animal in a dying state. Acting on the advice of my friends, I called in Mr. Martin Sullivan who promptly came and through whose medical treatment she was in thirty six hours so completely recovered as to be Feb. 17, '80. driven from Chatham to my home, Mill Cove, and is now in a thriving state. write this Mr. Editor not merely in praise of Mr. Sullivan's skill as a horse doctor, but also because I feel it as my duty to do so for the benefit of farmers and others who may become situated as I have been.
