Pallen, Sergt. M. C. Clark, Sergt. Loggie, Sergt. McKnight, Corpl. Fred Pallen and Bomb. D.T.Johnstone. The number of marksmen on the field was not up to the average, and the same may be said of the marksmanship. Sergt. Pallen and Sergt. Clark are members of the N. B. Ottawa team.

BLACK RIVER PIC-NIC :- It will be seen by advertisement that a picnic is to be held in the school grounds of the Middle District, Black River, on Thursday next, 9th inst. The object is to raise funds for the completion of the manse. The committee are making all possible arrangements to render the occasion an enjoyable one, and while the attendance from the immediate vicinity will be large, the attractions are sufficient to encourage pleasure-seekers from Chatham and other more populous centres hose who wish to prolong the dancing into the night, will have opportunity for doing so afforded to them. If the day be fine the attendance will, no

The services for the day will be-11 a. m, Consecration Service and Holy Communion, with sermon by the Metropolitan, and 2.30 p. m. Evening Prayer, and sermon by Canon Medley. I may mention that very comfortable quarters can be obtained at the Royal Hotel, (James Sproul, Proprietor) immediately in rear of the station. As the hotel is generally very full on Sundays, those who are thinking of remaining there on the Sunday in question would do well to secure beds beforehand."

Concert. A Chatham audience had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Perley of St. John sing at a concert given in Masonic Hall on Friday evening last. She was supported by a chorus of seven voices, embracing some of the best singers of Newcastle and rison of St. John. The concert was given in aid of St. Andrew's Church Sunday School House Fund, Newcastle, and was fairly patronized. Mrs. Perley was in excellent voice, and delighted the audience, receiving an encore each time she appeared, to each of which she responded with her best songs. By request of the audience she sang Moore's "Oft in the Stilly Night," just before the close of the concert and, we believe, never sang it with better effect. It is not necessary to say, perhaps, that Mr. Peiler's instrumental performances were faultless. The Piano duets by Mr. Peiler and Rev. Mr. Barber were also well received. Mr. Morrison caused some amusement by his comic singing, though he did not seem to be entirely successful cident was never known to have as they were in the Dominion election of Last week there appeared in the New castle Advocate a remarkably untruthful report of proceedings at Chatham in connection with the visit of His Excellency, the Governor-General. We did not notice it at the time, believing that its character was so unmistakeably stamped upon it as to condemn it in the estimation of every respectable reader. We are therefore glad to observe that the Advocate makes the following amende this week: received from Chatham late on Tuesday night was to some extent inaccurate. Had we known so at the time, it would not have appeared, as we have no desire to publish anything which may have even the appearance of a garbled report of any public matter, and which may do an injustice to any person on either side of politics. In justice to our Agent at Chatham, we

The report it published last week was one calculated to reflect discreditably, not only upon our own people, but also upon His Excellencycharging the latter gentleman, impliedly, with a discourtesy of which he was not guilty. Our own citizens do not, so much care for themselves, as the facts are quite well known among them, and the character of the misrepresentations to which they were subjected could, therefore, not harm them, but they are not satisfied that a paper supposed to represent public sentimisrepresentations of the conduct of so distinguished and honored a visitor as the Governor-General.

A Policeman Defends Himself

At St. John on Saturday night last, while Policeman Currie was endeavoring to suppress rowdyism on Brussels street, he was set upon by a mob. They got his baton from him and struck him several blows with it while he retained his hold of one of their number. He also lost his hat and his overcoat was cut and torn so seriously as to render it useless. At last the officer drew his revolver and fired, the shot taking effect in the side of a young man named Corbett. The roughs then ran off. Corbett was dangerously wounded.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The news from Afghanistan is creating fresh and profound sensation. Private telegrams received from Quettah and Bombay bring intelligence which more than justifies the worst interpretation put upon the mixed and contraparties. We refer to this matter in the brance as one of the most careful and ex- dictory despatches received through officials sources. It now appears that Ayoob Khan's forces have been tremendously strenghthened, and that the valley around the besieged city of Candahar is teeming with warriors. It is believed that Ayoob has assembled not less 100,000 followers, most of whom are well armed. It appears from this host as if the whole country had risen at a signal and gathered to make certain the overthrow of Candahar and the annihilation of the English garrison and its native allies. Friendly runners and spies have brought news to Quettah that Ayoob's cavalry have desolated the line of General Robert's advance by burning the grass which offered the only provender for his animals, while another body is continually worying his flank by making attacks from way side positions. The advantage is wholly with the Afghans, and they can inflict serious losses while not suffering themselves. These continual column to a considerable degree, and great-

Roberts reaches Candahar at all in condition to aid its defence. With the best of fortune, he has at least, three or four weeks additional marching before him in face difficulties and opposition which are now thickening about him.

A letter and despatch from Simla states that a pitched battle has taken place be tween Gen. Roberts' column and a large Afghan detail at Gundijar, a point between Khelati Ghilzai and Candahar. Ayoob Khan's action in intercepting Gen. Roberts' approach is said to have been most energetic, displaying much skill and perfect knowledge of the topography of the country. In Government circles it sought to be-little this news, but it has leaked out that the War Office has received intelligence of a depressing character, the details of which are held back awaiting confirmation. At Candahar the bombardment by Afghan artillery is said to be more effectively served than at the beginning of the siege, and Russian officers are declared having been detected incognito directing operations.

LONDON, Aug. 26. - Precautions are being taken against an unexpected resistance to evictions in the West of Ireland. Iron huts for the protection of the police are in course of construction near Clare Harris, Mayo County, and other places where trouble is likely to occur.

On going into committee of supply in the Commons, T. P. O'Connor, Home Rule agent for Galway, opposed the vote for Irish constabulary and said it was military force in disguise. Richard O'Shaughnessy, Home rule member for Limerick, protested against the use bullets and buckshot and urged the use of small shot. Mr. Forster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, said small shot were useless. They created no alarm and simply created a mob. John Bright urged the co-operation of the Irish members to amend the condition of affairs in Ireland. The debate was proceeding at 3.30 o'clock, a.m., and is likely to last until late in the morning.

Horsewhipping a Curate.

" From the Pall Mall Gazette." At the Ottery St. Mary Petty Sessions, Aug. 5, a summons for assault—and one which had been the subject of considerable local talk-came on for hearing. William Hoare Smith was charged with assaulting Walter Burne Gurney on July 15. The defendant is the son of a well-known exhibitor of live stock, and lives at Whimple, and the complainant is curate of Whimple. Mr. Gurney has occupied his present position between three and four years, and until recently has been on very friendly terms with the family. When the curate was married, some six months since, the Smiths took a prominent part in getting up a testimonial to him. A few weeks Bk. Apollo, Nelson, P. & J. On the following morning the father and mother of the defendant called upon the rector and complained of the sermon, and it was plainly hinted that the curate would receive a horsewhipping. On Tuesday the defendant himself called at Mr. Gurney's lodgings and announced his intention of horsewhipping that gentleman, but the curate was not at home. On Thursday the curate went to one of the church wardens, Mr. Venn, and asked Mr. Venn to accompany him to Mr. Smith's. Mr. Venn consented, and on the road they were met by the defendant, who immediately charged the curate with having preached 'at" him in the sermon in question, and after some words had been exchanged, he boxed Mr. Gurney's ears, and then pulled from under his waistcoat a dog whip, with which he thrashed the curate. After some and the affair was so far terminated. When it came before the magistrates yesterday an application was made to have the summons withdrawn, the defendant pay all the costs, and to give £25 to the
