morse naws again I'll send you some more." "VANITY FAIR" says that Lord Lorne has informed his Ministers that much inconvenience to the public being caused by their occasional absence from the Departments over which they preside, they will be good enough in future to signify to him in writing their intention of leaving the Capital. STRANGE THINGS are reported from the eastern part of Nova Scotia. A Mr. Kavanah, of the Sydney Express, who was supposed to have been drowned, appears to have been in hiding in Sydney, until last week when he escaped to St. Peters. He was pursued and overtaken, when friends hurried him into a boat in which he escaped to Isle Madame. He is reported to be a defaulter to the Saving Bank, we should suppose a very doubtful report. A PRETTY INCIDENT occurred at Lebanon Ont., the other Sunday. Into the Methodist church flew a robin during service. Perching on the rail opposite the pulpit it sang loudly when the people sang, was silent during prayer, but when the minister preached it chirped occasionally as if to encourage him, It remained until the congregation was formally dismissed, and then flew away. Another pretty incident will occur when the author of this yarn gets to the gates of the Celestial City and tries to square himself with St. Peter about it. Indianapolis Journal. TIMBER MOVEMENT : - Mr. Luttrell, superintendent of the local railways, made a contract in Belleville last week, accord. ing to a telegram to the Toronto Mail, for the shipment of one hundred to one hundred and fifty cars of square timber from Hastings to that point. The timber is to be delivered on the wharf and rafted on the ice, whence it will be sent forward to Quebec at the opening of navigation. The advantage derived by the shippers via the Grand Junction railway are stated to be that the rapids and falls of the Trent, which injure timber greatly in the drive, will be avoided, and the timber reach the
