On our side you are authorized to propose the following modification of our 1.00 duties on wines, viz.:-That no higher 1.25 standard than the English in regard both 1.25 to strength and duty will be adopted by 1.00 Canada, that is to say, 25 cents per gallon at or below 26 degrees of spirit and sixty cents per gallon for all wines over 26 degrees, except sparkling wines. You may if you find it convenient constitute a medium class at 35 degrees of strength with a duty of 40 cents. This authority may be useful to you in your Spanish negotiations. I trust it may not be necessary for you to discuss the question of our duty upon brandy. It is now uniform with that on all other spirits of much inferior quality and value, and unless the French Government made a stipulation concerning it, I wish to reserve the right of imposing a somewhat increased duty.
