Banquet to Mr. Costigan M. P. A Home in the Celestial City. Correspondence of the Telegraph con-MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Dec. 18, 1878. tains a report of a banquet given at Grand Falls, Victoria County to John Costigan, About nine and a half years ago I had a fever the doctor gave me some poisonous medicine, Esq., M. P. on Monday evening 29th ult. drove the isease into my leg, and it broke out, since. I could not sleep a fourth of a night once A large number of the most prominent in six months, and a great many nights was compelled to get up and take opium, a piece as large and influential gentlemen from all parts of as a pea-to deaden the pain. I have tried everythe country came to do honor to the guest thing I could hear of, in fact, I have paid out hundreds of dollars, and found no relief until of the evening. Mr. Kenney, M. P. P., commenced taking Vegetine, and now I can go to bed at eight o'clock at night and sleeep until from Restigouche, was also present. The seven o'clock in the morning, and no occasion to Audover Cornet Band was in attendance. waken from pain. I was used up, perfectly dead inwardly, and frequently when I would get up and discoursed sweet music during the would be dizzy, and have to put my hand on some evening. At seven o'clock, 75 persons sat thing to keep from falling; but since I commenced taking Vegetine it has all disappeared, and I feel like a new man. My honest conviction is that down to dinner, the discussion of which it will cure my leg entirely, from the present occupied more than one hour. All praise looks and reclings. I shall continue taking Vege-tine, and recommend it to all whom I come is due to Mrs. Reed, the popular and wellacross; and I hope the man who introduced Vege-tine into the United States will have a home in the known landlady of Reed's Hotel, who catered to her guests in a manner which Yours most sincerely, W. S. LEACH. was highly satisfactory, and which elicited high enconiums from all present. The list of the persons liable to contribute consisted of 1,819 separate individuals. There were only 1,093 shareholders in their own right, and there were 192 bodies of trustees which comprised 484 individual names. There were 108 persons who had been brought in by holding stock belonging to their wives, and thirty-four shareholders or bodies of shareholders. In the second week of November in last year all these people received a call to pay £500 on account of every £100 of stock they held in the bank. The amount thus called up was over £4,000,000, and at the date of the report a little less than half of it had been realized. The second call was made in April last, and amounted to

The liseems not to have undergone much dimin ution by the dishonest course of running away. There are only half a dozen who: addresses have not been discovered, are there are eighteen whom since the stop page have left their places of abode and have not been traced.

THE FIRST CALL was paid in full by 442 of the shareholder and 79 bodies of trustees; even the secon call found 85 persons and 27 bodies c. trustees able to discharge it, and there are still 68 who are expected to pay it in full eventually. A large number seem to have made their peace with the liquidators by giving up the whole of their property at once. Of these 599 did not possess preperty enough to enable them to meet the first call. They paid about thirty per cent of it, and had then to ask for a discharge. Some paid the whole value of their estates by the help of friends, and were then lef; in undisturbed enjoyment of them. Others made a complete surrender of all they possessed to the liquidators. The first call resulted in forty-eight bankrupt eies in addition to these settlements and there still remain about forty cases i which it is expected the full amount will ret be paid. THE SECOND CALL seems scarcely to have been so crushing 82 the first. The poorest had been weede out. The fish has been distributed over the country, and everywhere it is very highly spoken of. Its condition was excellent judging from the specimen I have seen and tasted, and in size and symmetry these salmon will compare favorably with the best produce of or Scotch rivers. Mr. A. C. Macdougall under whose direction the experiment h been conducted, has, however met wit considerable opposition at the hand of the wholesale dealers, who not view with approval any innovations likely to affect their control of the market. The retail dealers a mostly in the hands of these men, an there was, in consequence, some difficult in obtaining a good market for fish, a though its excellent condition was full acknowledged. Moreover, the preser time is not the salmon season with us, and "Mr. Costigan leaves this week for the Canadian fish was too early in its arri val here to find a ready sale. Fortunately Liverpool possesses a "cold store," where the salmon can be kept quite hard for an length of time, so that the difficulties have mentioned were got over. An erbargo was placed upon the fish on arriv. at Liverpool, but was withdrawn short afterwards on appeal being made to th proper authorities. Such difficulties : ther one of the most painful stories ever these are inevitable in a first experiment of this kind, but there is no reason for thinking that they will be permanent. On the contrary, I believe they can le easily overcome in future, and that futura shipments, arriving at a better season of the year, ought to be a thorough success in every way. I have always though that there was ample scope for an enteprise of this kind, and I should not 1
