AGRICULTURAL SHOW and Ploughing Match at Bushville to-morrow, Friday.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING services are to be held in St. Mary's Church, Chatham, next Sunday.

THE NEW ERA's time table is changed as will be seen by announcement in our advertising columns.

THANKSGIVING.—To day (Thursday) is proclaimed by the Governor-General and the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick a Day of Harvest Thanksgiving.

QUICK PASSAGE.—Mr. George McLeod's barque Minnie Gordon, reported arrived at Barrow from Richibucto, made the trip in seventeen days, making a call at Queenstown for orders.—Advocate.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.—This morning at 11 o'clock a thanksgiving service will be held in the Methodist Church by the congregations of the St. Andrews, St. John's and Reformed Episcopal Churches, who unite with the Methodist congregation in the service.

CHATHAM DEANERY.—The clergy of the Rural Deanery of Chatham are in town and holding their regular meetings, presided over by Rev. D. Forsyth, Rural Dean. Interesting services are to be held at St. Mary's Church, Chatham, this evening, commencing at half past seven.

STRANDED.—A despatch from J. J. Fox, Esq., Agent of Norwegian Lloyd's, dated Home Harbor, Magdalen Islands, Oct. 18th, says: 'Barque Tommi is dismantled, stranded and sunk deck to water here.'

The Tommi made two trips to Chatham this year. She was loaded the first time by Mr. Snowball, and the second by Messrs. Guy, Bevan & Co.

Our Police Magistrate Sustained.

Julius Bolstad, a Norwegian Captain, interfered with Policeman Forrest of Chatham, when the latter was arresting an intoxicated man a month or two ago. Bolstad was brought before Justice Blair for the offence, convicted and fined $10 and costs. His Counsel, Mr. Tweedie, appealed the case which was argued at Fredericton before Judge Weldon, who declined to decide and referred the matter to the full Bench. It was again argued on Saturday before the full Bench and the appeal was dismissed with costs. Justice Blair's views of Police Magistrate's duties appear to tally with those of the Supreme Court. It is as well that the decision in this matter should be as clear and complete as it is, because there are far too many persons claiming to be respectable who try to discourage the Policemen in the discharge of their duty.

Indians Drowned.

On Monday evening last, three Indians of Bonard Church, named, respectively, Oliver Gish, Newell Barnard, and Lemuel Taylor left, Chatham for home, after being in town for some time selling yasters. Those who saw them just before they left say they were intoxicated. About seven o'clock on Monday evening, Messrs. B. F. Lapham and Alfred Hay of Lower Newcastle, heard the cries of a man out in the river, off the Grand Wood, Charles Fish and R. B. Adams, Concillors John P. Burchill A. M. and Sanders and Mr. James Lynch are the Nelson candidates. Concillors James Robinson and Frank Jardine are offering again for Derby and Mr. Wm. Cliff is also nominated for that parish. Concillors McNaughton and Cameron and ex-Concillor Fitzpatrick are the candidates in Glenelg.

Masonic and Other Visitors.

The officers and acting officers of the Masonic Grand Lodge of New Brunswick who have been making an official visit to the North Shore, reached Miramichi on Friday morning last, their first stopping place being Newcastle, where they were met at the station and welcomed by Messrs. C. Fish, Master, and Wm. A. Park and E. Leo Street, Past Masters of Northumberland Lodge, and other members of the craft. The visiting representatives of the Grand Lodge at Newcastle were Hon. B. S. Stenson, Grand Master, Hon. Robt. Robinson, D. G. M., H. A. White, Senior Grand Warden, W. F. Bunting, Grand Secretary, Thos. G. Gillespie, as Junior Grand Warden, Chas. Masters, as Junior Grand Deacon, Freeman W. Wisdom, Grand Director of Ceremonies.

The Municipal Elections.

The election of Municipal concillors in the different parishes of the County is to take place on Tuesday next. Four candidates are in the field in Newcastle, viz., W. F. Smallwood, John Woods, Charles Fish and R. B. Adams. Concillors John P. Burchill A. M. and Sanders and Mr. James Lynch are the Nelson candidates. Concillors James Robinson and Frank Jardine are offering again for Derby and Mr. Wm. Cliff is also nominated for that parish. Concillors McNaughton and Cameron and ex-Concillor Fitzpatrick are the candidates in Glenelg.

In Chatham the Candidates are Messrs. John Fotheringham, Thomas McLaughlin and Peter Loggie. It was regretted very generally that Mr. Loggie, who has so creditably represented Chatham ever since the organization of the Municipality, felt that he could not longer accept the position because of his prolonged absence from the County for the next year, as for nearly two years past, during which he has attended all the Council sessions but one. His contracts of the Legislative Building, Fredericton, and the new wing of the Lunatic Asylum, St. John, doubtless demand all his attention, and when they are finished, his fellow-citizens hope to see him a resident of Chatham again and in a position to serve the public as he has so well done in the past. He first had Mr. Fotheringham associated with him in the representation of Chatham, then Mr. A. H. Johnson, and next Mr. Goggin. There was a strong feeling this year among Mr. Lawler's friends in favor of making Mr. Samuel Wadleton a Candidate, although he did not, by any means, seek the position. It was understood that his declaration and nomination would be filed, but it was not completed on Monday evening. Mr. P. Connors was also looked upon as an eligible man. The fact that Mr. Lawler desired to withdraw from the Councilship presented the necessity for securing a gentleman with the largest experience and Mr. Fotheringham, who had served in the Council for four years, appeared to have no many friends that Councilor Goggin, who was also a strong Candidate for another term, decided to withdraw his nomination, which had, we believe, been filed on Monday. Mr. Thomas McLaughlin, who had quite a number of supporters in the lower part of the town was, on Monday evening, accepted as a Candidate at an informal meeting of Messrs. Lawler and Fotheringham's friends, he agreeing to run on the ticket with the latter gentleman, and it was this understanding, doubtless, that led to the non-completion of Mr. Wadleton's nomination.

There is no certainty, however, about mundane affairs, and the fact is illustrated by Mr. McLaughlin's position, who, as Mr. Loggie and other state, had promised to run on a Loggie-McLaughlin ticket. This looks decidedly crooked on Mr McL's part and does not speak well for his stability of purpose. It is certain that his course with Mr. Lawler's friends prevented Mr. Wadleton from being nominated. Mr. Wadleton would have represented the views and interests of a very important body of citizens who, we fear, will not feel so much confidence in Mr. McLaughlin, after the declarations now being made by him that he is "just running for himself" and "representing himself." The election here promises to have a good result. Mr. Fotheringham will, doubtless, receive a large vote because of his experience. Mr. Loggie, being an industrious canvasser will also do well, while Mr. McLaughlin will get the support due to one who has the happy talent to get himself on everybody's ticket. It looks very much, therefore, as if those who always voted for Mr. Lawler, and whoever might be on the ticket with him, will now loyally support Mr. Fotheringham, while local party lines will be obliterated as between Messrs. Loggie and McLaughlin.

Fire!

On Sunday night about eleven o'clock fire was discovered by Capt. McGarr, breaking out from the gallery and wheel-house of the tug Relief lying at Messrs. Guy, Bevan & Co.'s wharf. The general alarm was given from the bell at No. 1 Engine house quite promptly, but considerable time elapsed before the lower alarm-bell was rung. No. 1 hand engine soon arrived, but the steam fire engine was a little delayed. This arose directly from the person in charge of the horses which usually take the engine to fires not hearing the alarm at all. The flames were subdued for considerable time but well as both engines, the hand engine having however got the fire under after the bucket-men held it somewhat in check. A good deal of damage was done to the houses on deck, the wheel and steam gauges were destroyed, but the engine not damaged at all.

It seems that when the Firewards desired to make an arrangement for horses to take the engine to fires this year, no one would undertake the work at the sum available therefor. Mr. Snowball, having some forty horses at work, and some of them being in harness somewhere about the town at nearly all times, the Firewards sought to secure an arrangement with him, but he said while he was willing his horses should be used for the work without any pay therefor to him, he would undertake no responsibility in the matter. The men having charge of his horses were left free to arrange for themselves with the Firewards, which they did, and the work has been done satisfactorily up to Sunday night. When the alarm was given from the lower bell, it was not heard at Mr. Snowball's stables a quarter of a mile away, but some one ran to Mr. Stomach, who is in charge there, and told him an alarm was being sounded. He got the horses out, thinking the driver had also been alarmed, but in this he was mistaken, and more time was lost before a driver could be procured and by this time the engine had been hauled to the fire by hand. This enforces the necessity for the town being in a position to own horses and have them stabled on their premises where the steam fire engine is kept. With our Street and Fire Departments amalgamated, this could be done, and our people are seriously discussing the question of incorporating the town as a step in the direction of securing this and other necessary reforms, which will be prevented so long as we have only the County Municipal Council to manage our affairs.

Bathurst Notes.

October 1881. SNOW.—About five inches of snow fell here last night, and it is still snowing, although not heavily this morning. It will prove very injurious to the farmers, as owing to the season being so backward, there is considerable of the crop out yet, more particularly the potatoes. There was a fall of about an inch and a half also on Saturday night last, but which had since disappeared. The more weathervane look upon it as a sign of a fine open fall.

The Irish Agitation.

Parnell, the Irish leader, was arrested on Thursday morning last, by Detective Supt. Mallin, at Morrison's Hotel, Dublin, on two warrants, signed by Mr. Forster, Secretary for Ireland, charging him with inciting the people to intimidate others from paying their rent, and with intimidating tenants from taking the benefit of the Land Act. He was taken to Kilmainham jail in a cab. The action of the Government proved intense excitement throughout Ireland when the fact became known, and it excited great interest as well in England. The arrest of the leader has been followed by that of other prominent leaders, and affairs connected with the Irish question are very interesting, as the following telegrams show:—

John C. Miller, Esq., they enjoyed a trip up and down the river, as far as a drizzling rain would permit, the ladies, meantime, visiting the convent and Hotel Dieu, where they were very much interested in the different departments through which they were shown by one of the good sisters. They were very warm in their admiration of the musical performances on the pipe organ and piano of the youthful sister Murdoch, and interested in the artistic little water-color studies in her class room. They came away favorably impressed with the usefulness and piety of the sisterhood and the atmosphere of quiet happiness prevailing there.

A FAMILIAR FACE.—The members of the Local Legislature, who may take their seats next session will greatly miss the familiar face and form of Mr. Thomas Paisley. His relations for many years were with the House of Assembly, in connexion with the receipt and delivery of the mails. He was a courteous, punctual and gentlemanly officer, who had a friend and well wisher in every member of the Legislature. Mr. Paisley, whose death occurred on the 8th inst., was a native of Birmingham, England, and was 77 years old. The Rev. C. H. Paisley, A. M., principal of Mount Allison Male Academy, and Wm. Paisley, Esq., of the General Post Office, are sons of the deceased.—Telegraph.

The Revisors' Notices.

Last week, in directing attention to the Revisors' notice in Alnwick, we questioned the legality of their holding their court to-day, 20th. Because the Revisors of both Chatham and Newcastle had notified the public that their court would be held on 25th, as provided in the Consolidated Statutes. It seems, however, that the Alnwick Revisors are right, as there is an Act of 1879 providing that when the 25th October falls on the day for election of Concillors, the revision shall take place on 20th. As two of the three Newcastle Revisors are lawyers, we thought it safe to be guided by them in the matter, but find that even in such matters as these it is necessary to "prove all things" for ourselves. Alnwick has scored one, and we congratulate Messrs. Savoy and Loggie on the fact.

taken towards the vindication of law and order, of the rights of property, and of the first elements of civilization, by the arrest of a man who, entirely, from motives which I do not challenge or examine, has made himself prominent in the attempt to do the authority of the law. We are not at issue with the people of Ireland. I firmly believe the majority of the tenants earnestly desire a fair trial of the Land Act. The power with which we are struggling is that which endeavors to say how far the people shall obey the law. We have no fear of the people of Ireland, but do fear lest many more should become demoralized or intimidated." He would rejoice at any form of local Government in Ireland, provided it did not impair the supremacy of the Imperial Government. He renewed his claim for the support of all without distinction of party in this great national crisis. Mr. Gladstone was enthusiastically cheered throughout the delivery of his speech.

DUPLICITY, Oct. 15.—Now that the Government has begun the suppression of the league, that body seems doomed. All usual meetings announced for Sunday are proclaimed. "Boycotting" is declared illegal by the special proclamation, and all who practice it are threatened with arrest. It is stated that the league rooms and property are to be seized to-day. Mr. Sexton was arrested yesterday afternoon at which he had risen the night before to attend a league meeting. He refused to attend a league meeting on account of his health, although Supt. Mallon offered to refer matter to his superiors if Sexton thought removal would endanger his health. He dressed and was immediately taken to Kilmainham in a cab. The charge against him is the same as against Parnell.
