Northumberland County Court

Northumberland County Court opened at Newcastle on Tuesday, 18th inst., His Honor Judge Wilkinson presiding.

There being no criminal business,

Grand Jury was summoned. The first cause was The Toronto Reaper and Mower Co. vs. John Hosford; E. P. Williston for Plaintiffs, A. A. Davidson, Q. C., for Defendant. This was an action brought on a special count for non-delivery of notes for a mower sold by C. S. Ramsay, as agent of Plaintiffs to defendant. The sale out of which the case arose took place that Mr. Esson, at least, understands the in 1878, and the bargain was that on delivcapabilities of the North Shore for apple ery of the reaper before 20th of July in that year defendant was to give to plaintiffs two notes for $42.50 each, payable respectively on 1st July, 1879 and 1880. The mower was delivered on 17th July, 1878, and defendant signed upon the back of two notes payable as arranged, a mutual agreement between himself and plaintiffs that said notes were payable in hay at $15.00 per ton, oats at 50 cents per bushel or partly in hay and oats and partly in cash or in either of these commodities. Plaintiff did not, however, sign the notes which were proved to have been placed for collection in the Bank of Montreal, plaintiffs name having been affixed to them as signature by Mr. Ramsay. On the trial the notes were not produced by plaintiffs agent, though copies of them were. As the ground set out in the case which was for non-delivery of the notes agreed upon, were not proved in the evidence adduced by plaintiffs, the latter were The next cause was that of Richard Quigley vs. R. P. Whitney, an action for work and labor performed in the woodslumbering-and river-driving, Mr. Tweedie for Plaintiff and Mr. Davidson Q. C. for Defendant. The Plaintiff claimed that he had worked five and a half months in the woods, for which, by arrangement with Mr. Whitney, he was to get $15 a PERSONAL:-- We are sorry to hear that month, and fifteen days river-driving for which he charged $1.50 a day. > proved by himself and other witnesses that when defendant pressed plaintiff to pay his original debt, the latter offered to go to work for him, but defendant-Mr. James Carter, Chatham. Whitney-did not want him, telling him he was not a good man to work. After a time, however, he sent him to the woods in boss David Tozer's camp, telling him worked as stated. Tozer allowed plaintiff wages at the rate of $12 a month and evidence of different witnesses went to show that rate to be fair, considering what other men were paid, plaintiff being an indifferent man, sometimes doing the same kind of work as a lad at the camp and a good man's work being equal to two such. Quigley swore that two or three months after he went to work, he told boss Tozer this Tozer denied in his testimony.

he intended to claim $15 a month, but Respecting Quigley's account Mr. Miller of Mr. Whitney's store, swore that the items and prices of the account were read over to Quigley, when a settlement was made in the spring and that Quigley said they were all right. On the other hand, this was denied by Quigley, who swore he could get different articles, such as boots, linders, etc., very much cheaper in Sutherland & Creaghan's and other Newcastle stores. Mr. Whitney's statement of the account between himself and plaintiff showed that instead of there being anything due to the latter, there was still a balance of $3.22

The jury rendered a verdict for defendant for $3,22. The next case was that of Alexander

Wilson vs B. Bielovacichi. Mr. Tweedie for plaintiff and A. A. Davidson, Q. C. for defendant. Plaintiff is a licensed pilot of the Miramichi and defendant was master of the barque Vagale. The action was brought to recover pilotage under regulation 4 of the Miramichi pilotage authorities, made under 36 Vic. Cap. 54. This regulation, briefly stated, provides that any pilot offering his services, as such, within the pilotage district, to any vessel bound for the Miramichi-excepting coasters etc. and no other pilot being on board, shall in the event of being refused be entitled ciety's Exhibition. The Exhibition of Horses, Cattle and Sheep and Ploughing Matches under the auspices of the Northumberland Agricultural Society, came off at the farm of His Honor, Judge Wilkinson, at Bushville, on Friday last. The show of Stock was not quite up to that of the last exhibition, owing to the grounds selected being much further from the farming centres of Napan and Black River, which have always contributed very largely to the success of these important affairs. No better place than the Bushville farm could, however, selected as it enabled the Society to have its stock show and ploughing match on the same ground, where His Honor Judge Wilkinson also opened his roomy offices to the Board for the transaction of its business during the day. The members of the Board were nearly all present, headed by the President, Jas. Fish, Esq., of Newcastle. Mr. James Connors was Chairman the Chatham meeting, which was duly opened by the Town Clerk, Geo. I. Wil son, Esq. Canvassing went on vigorously during the day, Messrs. The latter gentleman, therefore, withdrew his nomination, leaving Councillor Saunders and Mr. Lynch only in the field. Mr. Lynch, however, does not possess property qualification required by law, and a new election must, therefore, be ordered. Mr. Lynch, or some one for him, appears to have been trifling with the ratepayers of Nelson. St. John, Fredericton and St. Stephen have given liberally to sustain this good work and it is to be hoped that the eastern sections of the Province, which have especially reaped the benefits of the work, will soon claim the honor of generously aiding it.

Northumberland Agricultural So-
