MIRAMICHI ADVANCE, CHATHAM, NEW BRUNSWICK, DECEMBER 1, 1881.

General Business.

Vegetine.

CONDUCTORS TAKE IT.

Blotches, Pimples, Humors

on the Face and Neck

Disappear.

for Rheumatism !

1 R. STEVENS :

and neck.

MONTREAL, P. Q., Oct. 17, 1879.

farther west than this suffering County The "MIRAMICHI ADVANCE" is published at Chat-ham, Miramichi, N. B., every THURSDAY LIOPNING time for despatch by the earliest mails of of Northumberland.

that day It is sent to any address in Canada, the United States or Great Britain (Postage prepaid by the Pub-$1.00. $1.50. after 2 months, - - -$2.00. Advertisements are placed under classified head

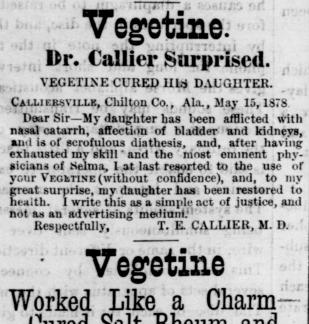

BUSINESS NOTICE.

ngs. Advertisements, other than yearly or by the season, are inserted at eight cents per line nonpareil, (or eighty cents per inch) for 1st insertion, and three cents per line (or thirty-six cents per inch) for each

Yearly, or season, advertisements are taken at the rate of Five Dollars an inch per year. The matter A Sovereign Remedy in space secured by the year, or season, may be changed under arrangement made therefor with the Publishe The "MIRAMICHI ADVANCE" having its large circu-ation distributed principally in the Counties of Kent, Northumberland, Gloucester and Restigouche (New Brunswick), and in Bonaventure and Gaspe (Quebec), among communities engaged in Lumbering, Fishing and Agricultural pursuits, offers superior inducements to advertisers. Address Dear Sir -1 most cheerfully add my testimonial to the great number you are daily receiving in favor of your VEGETINE. I have been troubled Editor "Miramichi Advance," Chatham N. B. with rheumatism for several years ; also with blotches and pimples breaking out upon my face A friend recommended VEGETINE, and, after using several bottles, I have had no more trouble with rheumatism, and the blotches on my face and - - DECEMBER 1, 1881. CHATHAM. neck have disappeared. I have recommended VEGETINE to some of my friends who were troubled with recumatism, and they have used it with good success, and I will recommend it to all who are The Tory "Convention.

troubled in the same way. Yours truly, VICTOR PIGEON, Passenger Conductor Grand Trunk Railroad

Cured Salt Rheum and Erysipelas. 75 CGURT ST., ROME, N. Y., July 10, 1879. MR. H. R. STEVENS : Dear Sir-One year ago last my little boy had breaking out of Erysipelas and Salt Rheum, his face being one mattered sore of the worst description. Noticing your advertisement in the papers, I purchased two bottles of the VEGETINE, and, with the two bottles my son was cured. I never saw anything like the VEGETINE ; it worked liked a charm. I have been city watchman at Rome for years. This testimonial is gratuitous. Yours respectfully, HORATIO GRIDLEY.

By the way,-can the Advocate tell us how that requisition is getting along Did he get anyone to take hold of it in earnest? When may "the fellows in the country " expect to be asked to sign it and "keep it quiet for a while ?" We ness connected with the far west-much something original. The "Labouchere" of the "Sun.

Miramichi Advance.

John and Halifax. What the Tory papers call the "lead-The reason why no such action ing event" of the past week, was their taken in Miramichi is because people party "Convention" in Torouto, which read for themselves and have no reason began on the 22nd ult. About 800 to believe that anything even ds respectpersons were present, largely representful in reference to either the Marquis ing the party in Toronto and other or Princess has been published here. parts of Ontario, with a few delegates The Labouchere of the Sun has stated from Quebec. Sir John named the to the contrary, but his efforts are look-Chairman, who praised Sir John and upon much in the same light those of an intoxicated rough would be hoped he would long be spared "to preside over the destinies of the Domiwho might go swaggering about in vulgar and loud-mouthed defence of an nion." Sir John acknowledged the compliment and appreciated the wish imaginary wrong to some lady whose friends would be disgusted over his expressed and proceeded to urge necessity of organization and harmony meddling impertinence. The fellow is too well known on the North Shore for among those who professed to belong his writings, either in the Sun or elseto the party. Hon. "pamphlet" Mcwhere, to have much effect on anyone Pherson, Sır Alex. Campbell, Hon. Mr. save " cranks " and his employers. Bowell, Mr. Gibbs and J. Burr Plumb.

the "Niagara Poet," also made speeches SIR JOHN told the Tories at the late endorsing what Sir John had said. Convention in Toronto that they On 23rd "the convention" reassem preanise and, now, we may expect every bled, many of the members showing eviorgan of the party to advise the faith dences " of having thoroughly enjoyed ful to " organise. the hospitalities of the city." Reports was here and there a smile of approval | ligious sentiment. The letter which he into laughter by the prisoner's exclama- when Mr. Scoville said he was merely fol- wrote from New York regarding his enter- receiving much attention. There has,

succeed in life, the court room was thrown what Mr. Scoville was saying about his Mr. Blaine. Although Mr. Corkhill urged Bible is my text book and the Holy Ghost incapacity to practice law. Guiteau that these letters were read as a part of is my schoolmaster." He expresses the earnestly said :-

do wish the Advocate would give us tion, "It's a lie; it can't be shown !"- lowing the example of Mr. Corkhill, who prise in trying to establish a daily theo- doubtless, been a gradual change in senti-Guiteau then began to write rapidly and had read quite a number of letters from logical organ was replete with queer senti. ment, until many now believe the man in a few minutes was again aroused by the defendant to President Garfield and ments. In one place he states :- "The put that in your report."

the gesta, and those which Mr. Scoville belief that his "Theocratic paper would "I have brains enough, but I had presented had no connection with the be an illuminator and reveal the emissaries theology on the brain. That's the reason crime, he was not sustained by the Court. of Satan." But the writer confesses that I didn't run the law. There's no money Judge Cox said he did know how he could he "would occupy the position of target in theology, but I am out of that business draw the line of distinction, as it was ceneral for the press, the pulpit and civili-

now. I was always well dressed. Don't legal to give a photograph of the prisoner's zation." His reason for devoting a porlife and mind as well before as after the tion of his paper to business matters is Dr. John Rice deposed at length on the With this Guiteau relapsed into his shooting in order to determine his respon- explained by the statement that "he subject of Guiteau's insanity. He had At a meeting held in Glengarry, Ont., former position, his head resting on his siblity. The court said that the easiest deemed it proper to fight the devil with been called in by Guiteau's friends some recently. "a scurrilous and slanderous left hand and bowed a little forward. He way ont of the matter would be for the his own devices in order to compete with years ago to examine him :- To summarize editorial published in a Glengarry denied the statement about his attempt to counsel to state that he expected to prove him." He wrote that he would not, the case, he came to the conclusion-First, County journal in reference to the kill his sister with an axe, and indignantly the condition of the prisoner's mind by a therefore, object to advertisements and that there was strong hereditary predissaid. "I have heard that story before, but Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise. series of his letters of the following tenor, the free contributions of friends. position; second that there was more or In it is absolutely false." This also produced was "indignantly repudiated." The and that if they were subsequently introanother part of the letter he declares he less congenital moral defect or moral imbegeneral laughter, as also did Guiteau's re-Sun copies the resolutions and adds .duced as a part of the evidence they could get a better education in the Oneida cility. Engrafted on this bad state of marks about his penniless journeyings. There is just one omiss on in the would have to be proved. Community than at either West Point or things came the effect of puberty, adding

The entire day was occupied by Mr. Yale College. When Mr. Scoville read which Mr. Scoville was delineating. resolutions-the paper should have been to the exaltation of his emotional nature. Guiteau said :- "I dead-headed named. The action of the people of Scoville in his statement which will be the sentence where the prisoner was It affected mostly the emotions of pride Glengarry might properly be followed Toledo to Washington on the strength of concluded to morrow. It is evident that "living on dried beef, lemonade and and of vanity. On the supposition that by similar action in Miramichi, St. the Lord, and I was put off twice. I was Mr. Scoville, although alone in this case crackers" the ludicrous statement caused his diagnosis was correct, witness informtravelling on my appearance."

and opposed by four lawyers for the govsuch laughter that Guiteau declared he In regard to the emotional traits which ernment, understands what is to be done. did not know the letter was in existence. ad characterized the prisoner The character of his statement and the He insisted that Mr. Scoville read the Scoville said :- "He will talk to a lady as simple colloquial way in which he preletters in chronological order, as the first sents it, are not without a noticeable he produced, referring to Beecher and long as he is permitted." This seemed to fire Guiteau with passion, for he replied, effect. He secures the undivided atten- Theodore Tilton, was written long after "Not true ; that's not true, may it please tion of the jury, and in a quiet manner the second he read. Guiteau now seemed Your Honor." He was also irritated at presents for their consideration what he more composed, but in a little while his Mr. Scoville's statement that he had condeclares to be facts susceptible of proof .- | excitement was again exhibited, to th ceived the idea of lecturing on religion It is the general opinion that Mr. Scoville amusement of the spectators. because of his mental weakness and inis fair in his statement. He to-day went

He was leisurely reading the printed ability to do anything. In an emphatic so far as to impress upon the jury that it copy of the newspaper articles found on manner Guiteau said :was their duty to carefully examine and his person at the time of the arrest, when "I left a $5,000 law business to do that determine if the prisoner is feigning in-

Mr. Scoville said that Guiteau had been kind of work, but you see how I came sanity, and if he is, then he is not enrefused an assignment as speaker by the out. I was doing the same kind of busititled to the benefit of the law. The republican committee because he did not ness that St. Paul did. He got his reward statement also embraced the line of dehave any ability. This evidently shocked after awhile and I expect to get mine from fence and hypothetical case published in the vanity of Guiteau, who exclaimed :my book." full in the Herald of November 6. "It is not true that I didn't have abili-rowed some clothing and disappeared all Guiteau was evidently anxious that it Among other things Mr. Scoville said ty to make the canvass. I had ability. at once. Witness also knew the prisoner's be known he had travelled in the interest that President Garfield was reported to but no reputation. They didn't take father, Luther W. Guiteau ; he had been of his book and lecture. He said : have said Guiteau was insane and that stock in me because they wanted some- called to attend him during his last illness Mr. Blaine made the same remark. This body of reputation like Grant or Conkling at Mr. Scoville's house; he did not observe 'Not only did I visit Washington, but all was controverted by Mr. Corkhill, who to draw. I might draw now." did it. I any delusions in him, but did observe said Mr. Blaine had denied saying this on The concluding sentence convulsed the great obliquity of thought on religious his oath. Mr. Scoville said he had seen a audience with laughter, in which the subjects ; he frequently exclaimed during caused had subsided. Mr. Scoville constatement to this effect in reputable news. Judge and jury, the counsel and the his illness that his sickness was entirely papers. In this connection it is proper to prisoner engaged. The prisoner remained unnecessary; that if he had lived with state that in the Herald of Monday, July quiet until his egotism was assailed by proper faith and had brought himself in 4, the following interview with Mr. Blaine Mr. Scoville's reference to his celebrated proper relations with Christ there was no was printed :speech entitled "Garfield vs. Hancock." necessity for him to be sick, and that he "The next with whom I conversed was published in the N. Y. Herald, July 3. thought he might live forever ; he noticed the Secretary of State, Mr. Blaine 1881, the day after the President was in him a feeling of petulance and fault 'What, Mr. Blaine,' said I, 'is your shot, when there was another scene in finding to the greatest extent he had ever theory of this whole thing? which the personæ dramatis were Mr. known. 'Why the man was crazy,' replied Mr. "It is not true that I think any lady Corkhill, Mr. Scoville and Guiteau. The WASHINGTON, Nov. 24th. Blaine. latter lost his temper again, when his The taking of evidence to-day proceed Have you ever met him--has he called attorney said the prisoner labored under ed quite steadily, with the usual interat the State Department? the belief that his speech was a great ruptions from Guiteau. Witnesses were 'Yes, very often. About April, when campaign document, which entitled him examined chiefly in reference to the questhe rush for office was almost daily at the tion of insanity with the result of strengthto a foreign mission. State Department, he had the most extra-Mr. Scoville stated that he would join ening the impression that the prisoner ordinary pretensions. He wanted to be Mr. Corkhill in having the prisoner made was always a very eccentric, if not an Minister, but finally he decided upon the to preserve order. Judge Cox said if the insane person, Consulship, to Paris, and insisted upon attorneys would suggest a remedy he WASHINGTON, Nov. 25th. intentionally, and in this matter did not having that. He was crazy on the subwould apply it. This from the Judge At the opening this morning, Guiteau encouraged Mr. Davidge to suggest a ject, or at least seemed to be so." was given a few minutes to address the "What did you say to him?" remedy, whereby he gravely attributed the court and read a paper and said that he 'I told him his appointment to any prisoner's actions to the conduct of his was determined every fact in the case position was an impossibility.' counsel in his efforts to show the state of bearing on the question of who fired that " There's no joke about the matrimonial 'Where is he from ?' Guiteau's mind. Not satisfied with this shot, the Deity or him, should be present 'I think he was born at Freeport, Ill. charge against Mr. Scoville, he charactered. Hence everything connected with his This is about all there is to the story of ized his statement of the case as "a repersonal, political or theological record markable jumble of things-an olla podriNOTICE.

The question of Guiteau's insanity is manner in which they cross-examine witnesses, are regarded as indicative of their fears as to the probable result of the trial.

ed Guiteau's frierds that he believed him

insane: that he thought him dangerous.

perhaps incurable, and that he ought to be secluded-that is, put in an asylum.

Witness either corresponded or was about to correspond with a neighboring physician to hold a consultation for the purpose of having him secluded, but that movement

bers are present.

Witnesses for the defence in great num-

The subscriber will open up in a few days a very excellent line of English Scotch and Canadian Tweeds suitable for spring and summer wear. Also a beautiful and choice lot of English Coating, should go to the insane asylum instead of the scaffold. The quickness with which personally selected in Montreal. W. S. MORRIS.

the atorneys for the government object to N. B.-These goods will admit of my making suits 10 per cent less than heretofore. evidence for the defence, and the earnest

The property at Bay du Vin, known as the BAY DU VIN MILL PROPERTY. Farm consists of about 300 acres, a large portion is cleared, well fenced and under good cultivation.-The Water Power Saw Mill on the property is new, will saw over 30,000 sup. feet of lumber per day .-The property has a good dwelling, barns and other buildings. Possession given immediately in required. Also two million feet of spruce and ne saw logs will be sold with the property if the urchaser wishes TERMS- For Mill one-fifth down and bala? Fin qual annual payments extending over four years. For the logs payment after delivery next season as J. B. SNOWBALL Jno. W. Nicholson, IMPORTER OF Wines, Brandies, Whiskies, ETC., ETC., ETC. came to nothing, because Guiteau heard of it and left the country; witness had not VICTORIA WHARF seen him again until he saw him here in Court. Witness related seeing Guiteau on Smyth St., St. John, N. B one occasion, in the course of an evening conversation of which religion was not the R. FLANAGAN, subject, start up suddenly and appeal to the company to come to the Lord so incoherently that witness could not tell what ST. JOHN STREET, CHATHAM. he was talking about; Guiteau bor-WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN Dry Goods, Groceries and Provisions, Hardware, Hats, Caps,

Vegetine. Remarkable Cure of Scrofulous Face. WESTMINISTER, Conn., June 19, 1879. MR. H. R. STEVENS :

Dear Sir-1 can testify to the good effect of your nedicine. My little boy had a Scrofula sore break out on his head as big as a quarter of a dollar, and it went down his face from one ear to the other under his neck, and was one solid mass of sores Two bottles of your valuable VEGETINE completely cured him. Very respectfully, MRS. G. R. THATCHER. VEGETINE

H. R. Stevens, Boston, Mass. and Toronto, Ont. Vegetine is Sold by all Druggists. ALL BELLEVILLE THE DESIGN

PREPARED BY

HOP BITTERS. (A Medicine, not a Drink,) CONTAINS HOPS, BUCHU, MANDRAKE, DANDELION. AUD THE PURPST AND REST MEDICAL QUALL TIES OF ALL OTHER BITTERS. THEY CURE All Diseases of the Stemach, Bowels, Blood Liver, Kidneys, and Urmary Organs, Ner-

Fondle on plaints. S1000 11 COLD. Will be paid for a case they will not cure or help, or for anything impure or injurious found in these. Asy your druggist for Hop Bitters and try them before you sleep. Take no Other. D.I.C. is an absolute and irresistible cure for Drunkeness, use of optum, tobacco and TRANS SEND FOR CIRCULAR. MARIE All above sold by druggists. Hop Bitters Mig, Co., Rochecter, N. Y., & Teronto, Ont

New Leather & Shoe Store.

The Subscriber, having disposed of his tannery and retired from the bu has opened a

Leather, Boot, Shoe and Findings Store

SOLE, UPPER KIPP, CALF INSOLE

"THE ROOF was shaken" by the bands from different constituencies were handed in "to be digested by Sir John." at the Toronto Tory demonstration, and we may, therefore, assume that "the Sir Leonard Tilley entered at an opportune time and was, of course, cheered. ountry is safe.'

Then Sir. John came in and he was THE PROVINCIAL BOARD OF AGRICUL cheered "awfully"! "Niagara" Plumb URE has been re-appointed, with Hon then read a series of resolutions, which Provincial Secretary Wedderburn had been prepared over night by those President and Chairman, the other who were not enjoying the city's hosnembers being as follows :--pitalities. These approved of the Josiah Anderson, Esquire, District National Policy, endorsed the bargain No. 1; James E. Fairweather, Esquire with the Syndicate, expressed admira_ District No. 2; John A. Campbell, tion for the Ministry and the most Esquire, District No. 3: George A unfeigned adoration of Sir John. Then

Sterling, Esquire, District No. 4; Sir Leonard delivered a speech in Frederick W. Brown, Esquire, District which he boasted of having made the No. 5; and Robert Swim, Esquire, Dispeople pay $4,000,000 more in the way rict No. 6. of taxation than was required to carry The second annual meeting of the on the affairs of the country. Sir John Board is to be held at Fredericton, on also made a speech, having, as the Tuesday 13th December, commencing organs put it, "a happy smile on his at 3 p. m.

The Guiteau Trial.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.

In the evening Sir John was tendered a banquet, which, the organs say, was the greatest affair of the kind that ever From the manner in which the specta took place in Toronto. There were ors regarded Guiteau as he entered, it wa ladies in the gallery, bands here and evident the majority had not seen him be there, mottoes in profusion, Senator fore. Guiteau bore the customary bundle Allan (not Sir Hugh) in the Chair, "an of newspapers in his manacled hands. ovation" to Sir John "when he came When the handcuffs were unlocked, he in smiling," cheers upon cheers and opened the table drawer for the officer to speeches by Sir John, Sir Leonard and put the handcuffs in until the recess at others. A Mr. Gurney who used to be noon. Guiteau's movements were intently regarded. He was more subdued in a Liberal was given great prominence, appearance than has been noted heretofore. being held up as the sole example of and at times his leaden features seemed a great reaction." stirred with despair. He would write a The " convention " was a great diswhile, and then look at Mr. Scoville, who appointment to the rank and file of the was addressing the jury. He interrupted Tory party, who expected they would the speaker repeatedly to correct what he be let into party secrets through its conceived to be erroneous statements. agency. As it turned out, however, it Whenever Mr. Scoville said anything at was simply made use of by Sir John and all complimentary to the conduct and Sir Leonard for their own glorification, ambition of the accused in former life. Sir John being left "to digest everything." able signs of delight.

A Puff from a long Distance.

We occasionally see some amusing things from Hon. Mr. Mitchell's pen, notwithstanding his almost entire withdrawal from editorial connection with the large cities. I am glad I was working for the Lord. After the laughter which these words > tinued his remarks, but he was again interrupted by Guiteau, when he said that the defendant was fond of the fair sex and believed that all he had to do was to ask > the hand of any young lady and he could marry her. The audience indulged in un. restrained laughter, when to these remarks Guiteau said in a loud voice :-

There was an unusually amusing feature the Advocate. That paper is not, now, a that part of Mr. Scoville's speech which made to take the editorial responsibility referred to the manner in which Guiteau of the hon. gentleman's autobiographihad been admitted to the Bar at Chicago cal sketches to the extent of former Mr. Scoville gave a succinct account of the times, but it is permitted (as in the nanner in which lawyers are manufactured matter of abuse of the ADVANCE) to to order by the Court Committee. Accord. copy from other prints. The Montreal ing to the attorney's statement. Guiteau Shareholder and Insurance Gazette is the was asked three questions and answered name of the last source of inspiration When Mr. Scoville said that Gui wo.

would marry me. I did put a notice in my biography which the HERALD published, stating that any young lady who wished to correspond with me would be properly received.'

The anger of the prisoner was thorough, ly aroused because Mr. Scoville, in calling attenton to Guiteau's earnest conviction of opinion, said that he never made a joke realize the comic character of his advertisement. Guiteau, with glittering eyes and his face all earnest in expression. hastily exclaimed :

> proposition ; that's business. I got a response from a lady worth $100,000. That's no joke, I am sure."

Then he smiled with characteristic selfcomplacency. When the audience, in obedience to the cry of "Silence !" uttered by the baliff, had restrained its laughter. Guiteau resumed, saying :-

"I wrote her two letters, and she wrote me one. You suppressed the rest. I suppose you lied to me. I'll tell you so publicly. I intend to follow that girl after I am liberated."

The remarks of Guiteau elicited renewed laughter, but were very annoying to Mr. Scoville. The effect of Guiteau's repeated remarks was to create a scene as remarkable for novelty as it was for the prosecut ing attorney's injudicious attempt to break its force, and the crushing answer that the defendant's counsel so modestly made. It was while Mr. Scoville was reading certain letters concerning Gui-

Guiteau would smile and give unmistak teau's past life and habits, with a view of subsequently having them proven and in-Guiteau first interruption of Mr. Scoville troduced as evidence to show the previous was when the latter said some might think condition of the defendant's mind, that the prisoner was feigning insanity. District Attorney Corkhill said :-"I never feign. I act myself out, sand

"Mr. Scoville's effort to get into an r insane." remarked Guiteau, with altercation with the prisoner is reprehensible, and I do not mean to stand it any longer. It is time for him to play this part when he makes his apeech." This caused some sensation in the room, Guiteau. The man is a disappointed office seeker who imagined that he had immense claims on the party, and that he should be appointed to some important office.' In the same despatch Secretary Hunt reported to have said :-- "The Vice President sent a most heartfelt despatch. It in itself, if that were necessary, contradicts the idle rumors that any Cabinet officer believes, or even entertains the thought for a moment, that there was a conspiracy. It was a crazy man's act .-That is our belief. insane.

The proceedings to-day were not unlike those of yesterday, being, on the whole, characterized by repeated comic features vagaries of humanity and the eccentricities of every nationality usually have their exposition.

must be developed. He places great stress da." Judge Cox, who did not seem to on the editorials from the newspapers of recognize the application of Mr. Davidge's last spring, denouncing Garfield for the strictures, remarked that Mr. Scoville's use of patronage as inimical to the Restatement was a little argumentative. At publican party, and says that he certainly least one person did indorse Mr. Davidge's never would have shot the President but emarks, and this was Guiteau, who comfor them, and they should bear their just plimented him upon his liberality. Guiportion of the responsibility, as should teau's satisfaction with Mr. Davidge's also the doctors who actually killed him, course again caused the spectators to as, except for their treatment he would be smile, but few, if any, being envious of alive to-day. He was not afraid of death the compliment which the attorney had he was certain of his destiny, as the Lord elicited from the prisoner. Guiteau, eviinspired him to act as he did.

dently elated by this testimonial of the Several witnesses testified as to the audience, declared that all he wanted was peculiarities of the Guiteau family, trying "for this thing to go out straight." to show that the prisoner was not respon Judge Cox thereupon told Guiteau that sible for his actions, but no vital evidence unless he remained quiet he would have was presented. As on the previous days, to resort to some means to insure his Guiteau frequently interrupted the wit orderly conduct. Guiteau replied, "Then nesses, but was silenced by the threat of I'll keep quiet," and Mr. Scoville con-Judge Cox to have him gagged.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26th. Nothing very new to-day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28th. Marshal Henry says the Guiteau trial will cost the Government not far short of $150,000.

The Tribune's Washington corresponparty was to remove President Garfield. dent says : The assassin's counsel and He was continually fed with suggestions family state the tone of the letters refrom newspapers. There were continual ceived by them has changed greatly withsuggestions that but for President Garfield in the past two weeks. They detect more everything would be harmonious in the pity for the prisoner base 1 on the hypo republican party. These newspaper slips thesis that he was and is not sane and fed his morbid feelings, and the result was more of sympathy with them in their that thinking about the matter with effort to save him from the gallows .nothing to divert his mind, with his in Judge Cox said last night he would do all tense unbalanced religious convictions, he in his power to preserve order in Court was completely carried away. The eviand keep Guiteau quiet, but the judge in dence would show that the matter was a criminal court had no warrant in law for always preying on his mind, and it became restraining a prisoner on trial for his life his fixed and firm idea that his duty to from making any demonstrations he chose his country and his God required him to to make except they amounted to actual remove the President. He was impelled violence to those around him. The assasby an irresistible impulse to do that thing sin will be placed on the stand on Tues -he, a gentle, kind hearted, affectionate day. He wants to tell his own story in man, a man who wouldn't harm a single his own way. He will say a great dea person in the universe from a bad motive. about his inspiration and about his politi-Proceeding, Mr. Scoville stated to the cal quarrels. Mr, Scoville will probably jury that there must be blame somewhere claim, after Guiteau's story has been told, for the great crime. If this man were in that the Government should prove the sane, if he were not responsible for his act. assassin sane. If this point is overruled. he could not be found to blame, and the or if he does not raise it, he will proceed question then recurred. "Where was the with expert witnesses to prove his brother blame ?" From the necessities of the case in-law's insanity. The family of the accertain elements-the political situation. cused expect a verdict of acquittal on the the discords in the republican party-must ground of insanity. If, however, the asbe brought in. He was not going to direct sassin be convicted of murder in the first attention to any individual, or any branch degree, Mr. Scoville will ask and thinks or faction of the party, and lay the blame he will obtain a new trial. The Govern there, but he was going to say that this ment counsel expect a verdict of guilty as continual strife for office, this element of indicted. Yesterday experts in insanity politics that had entered in during the went to the gaol and spent two hours with last few years, had been made the question the prisoner, drawing from him the story of the day. This crime owed its origin to of his life, which he gave very fully .that element of political contest, and the Last evening the experts held a meeting, blame for it must be located on modern and questioned Mr. Scoville, John W. politics. If the jury found by their ver-Guiteau, and Dr. Rice, who several years dict that this man was insane, the same ago pronounced Guiteau insane. After verdict would say that the blame rested this the experts remained in private con on the politicians of the present day. It sultation until a late hour. It is under could not be otherwise. stood the proceedings were entirely in In ending his address, Mr. Scoville formal, and there exists wide difference of said :- "It has to be determined here opinion among them in regard to the re whether your fellow man, with all his sponsibility of the assassin for his acts. misfortunes, and all his shortcomings, is to end his life on the gallows. This question will be submitted to you by the evidence Get out Doors. with the confidence that you will do what The close confinement of all factory is right according to your conscience and work, gives the operatives pallid faces, what will meet the approval of your fellow poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kikneys and countrymen and your God." When he concluded the audience began urinary troubles, and all the physicians to applaud, but this was at once checked and medicine in the world cannot help by the officers of the Court. There is them, unless they get out of doors or use doubt but what Mr Scoville made an im-Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy pression upon the jury, as he did upon all especially for such cases, having abunothers who listened to his statement. He dance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks was accorded profound attention, and in them. They cost but a trifle .- Chris. lawyers who heard him say the scope. tian Recorder. nature and presentation of the statement

Ready-Made Clothing.

Choice Brands of LIQUORS, always kept

Customers will find our Stock complete, comprisng many articles, it is impossible here to enumerate and all sold at moderate prices.

Fellow's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites

Puttiner's, Scott's, Robinson's, Northrop & Lyman's

EMULSIONS OF

COD LIVER OIL.

ALLAN'S LUNG BALSAM, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. WISTAR'S BALSAM, BEEF IRON AND WINE, HOH BITTERS.

The above received this week direct rom the manufacturers, and we guarantee them genuine and fresh.

RESTAURANT

OYSTERS by the Pint, Quart, or Gallon. OYSTERS served at short notice in all the -ALSO

HOT COFFEE, BREAD, TARTS, PIES AND CAKES ON HAND, AT T. H. FOUNTAIN.

AT Next to Ullock's Livery Stable.

WHISKEY WHISKEY.

Just received per Steamer Austrian from Clasgow, via Halifax:-100 Cases Finest Blended Glenlivet Whiskey. JOHN W. NICHOLSON. St John would announce to his former customers and the public, that he may be found at his old stand, opposite the Masonic Hall, where he is prepared to Collar Making.

JOHN HAVILAND, HARNESS AND COLLAR MAKER.

nanufacture Harness of every description

Having a practical experience of this branch of the Trade for THIRTY-THREE YEARS, he is prepared to turn out COLLARS which cannot be excelled in the Domini that had pleased the humor of the old habitues of the police court, where the fifty newspaper clippings and other documents in Guiteau's possession at the time of his arrest, be produced, as he wished to introduce them in evidence. Guiteau

Mr. Scoville asked that the forty created quite a stir when he abruptly

If Mr. Scoville proves the facts as detailed in his line of defence there can no question as to Guiteau being adjudged WASHINGTON, Nov. 23rd.

tinued his statement to the jury. In concluding his address, Mr. Scoville stated that in the matter of his application for office, the prisoner had shown a total want of reasoning power. About this time the thought came to him that the only way to restore peace in the republican

LEATHER, AND SHOEMAKERS FINDINGS, BOOTS & SHOES MADE TO ORDER. ON WATER ST. CHATHAM.

(North side, west the Commercial Building,) where he hopes to receive a fair share of the public patronage hitherto given to him. Parties having open accounts with the subscriber are requested to call and arrange the same immedi-Ar Agent for Wilson's Wool Carding Mill, Derby-DUNCAN DAVIDSON. Chatham, Aug. 24th, 1881.

I have now opened the well known establishment formerly occupied by the late James Gray, and with the kind patronage of former friends, am prepared to execute all work in

TIN. SHEET-IRON. GAS-FITTING. Granite Ware, Japaned Stamped and Plain. TINWARE always on hand, which I will sell low for cash. PLOUGHS.

Also, a nice assortment of Parlor and Cooking Stoves, fitted with PATENT OVENS the inner shells which draw out for cleaning purposes.

Those wishing to buy cheap would do well t us a call.

ChathamJuly 22.

superior assortment of ROSEWOOD, WALNUT AND OTHER COFFINS. which he will sell at reasonable rates.

Chatham, Nov. 1, 1880. TURBINE teau was then engaged in collecting bad for the Advocate. That publicationdebts, but did not have sense enough to of which our people generally have conduct a ten dollar lawsuit, the prisoner. never before heard-is known in newswithout rising from his seat, replied with ling in person, his eyes sparkling and his paper circles as one which publishes warmth.

warmth :-what it is paid for, and we presume an "I brought a good many suits and advertisement calling for tenders for never had a reputation for being a fool. the galvanizing of an Egyptian gave them all they wanted on the other mummy, or a puff of an assurance side." organization for the resurrection of a

When his attorney proceeded to relate defunct politician would be equally how Guiteau had acted in a suit, which, welcome to its columns and find admiswhile illustrating his vanity, also showed sion on the same cash basis. Well, this him to be cranky, the prisoner exclaimed, paper, through the columns of the Advo-Go on, Mr. Scoville. That's an interestcate is made to tell the people of Northing story in detail." This, like nearly umberland that they feel very strongly every utterance of Guiteau, elicited genfor Hon. Peter Mitchell again, and that eral laughter, but the prisoner neither there never was such an energetic person partook of the merriment nor enjoyed the sport which had reference to his stupidity at the head of a department. It says that or the mention of his silly habits and ab through him and him alone, "The St. Lawrence from the gulf inwards, was surd acts. In all of this Guiteau exhibitlit up like the Broadway of a city. ed the fact of his inordinate egotism The result is that collisions are rarenoticeably destitute of anything rational 'ly known, and the travelling public in method or moral in sentiment. "feel an amount of protection that ILLINOIS ATTORNEY FACTORY.

Mr. Davidge, of counsel for the government, inquired of Mr. Scoville how the license to practise law in Illinois was issued. Mr. Scoville gave him the desired information in regard to the Illinois at.

torney factory, where counsellors, it seems.

are made on short notice and for good fellowship, instead of for quality of mind and legal attainments. While explaining the details of the lawyer factory, Mr. Scoville modestly informed Mr. Davidge that in the West less attention was paid to form than to facts. Shortly after this statement, Guiteau said aloud that while engaged in the collecting business in Chicago he had "first class references and no bad habits." But the prisoner was highly incensed, and yet his demeanor and words

provoked general laughter, when he denied ney and formerly the Commonwealth's

attorney at Chicago, had ever paid him

at Mr. Charles Read, a prominent attor-

an idle speech in a trivial criminal

Mr. Scoville did this to show that "makes it a pleasure instead of-as once-a terror, to find themselves on our noble river. Just think of it-the St. Lawrence, can see each other all over it and not collide with each other-and all through

It also says, however, he is too independent to expect his old ministerial position, so we must wait, no doubt,

until the fortunes of the Left Centre are in the ascendant. By that time there will be some more vacant shipyards, which is so thronged by "the travelling public" is so lighted up that vessels

Shop in rear of Custom House.

Mr. M. Well, perhaps that accounts A. C. M'LEAN. for those enormous bills recently paid flectors, etc. Then, we are told, he would have prevented the London disaster, had he been Minister of Marine.

WM. M'LEAN,

UNDERTAKER

old buildings, etc., lying around loose waiting for a purchaser, those buildings on Middle Island will have rotted in idleness and will need restoration and, perhaps, a few schooners will be in the

and it was evident that Mr. Corkhill's supplemented Mr. Scoville's statement. direct charge that Mr. Scoville was trying He said :-

to "put up a job" on the prosecution, by "These articles show the political situmaking himself a dishonorable party to ation I hung on such ideas. It was Guiteau's freaks was not well received. this that finally impelled me on to the Mr. Scoville, who is a gray haired man, President.' well advanced in years, could not but feel This provoked laughter, and instantly the acute sting, and realize how nearly im-Mr. Davidge, of counsel for the government, possible it was for him to resent the un. said to the court :-kind charge. Pale in feature and tremb "It appears that this whole thing much ado about nothing." voice deep and earnest in tone, Mr. Sco-Guiteau quickly replied, "Give me the ville, looking the District Attorney papers and there'll be no ado."

straight in the face, said :-As the prisoner said this he frowned "If this is not competent evidence of and his eyes flashed as if he were in dead the prisoner's mental condition, why have earnest, causing general laughter. Thereyou, sir, in the name of the government, upon a detective and two police-men leanhad experts here and in the jail day after ed toward Guiteau, and one admonished day? As to the insinuation, Mr. Corkhill him to behave himself: This incensed will get his answer at the proper time." Guiteau, whom Mr. Scoville tried to pacify The applause that greeted this declaraand keep silent. This had an opposite tion was so impetuous, so spontaneous and effect upon Guiteau, who shook his head, so unexpected, that the District Attorney and pounding the table with his hand he and counsel for the government looked remarked to Mr. Scoville:-

amazed, for they seemed to interpret it as "You attend to your own business. the first triumph won by the defence. Don't you correct me. I am smart as you The District Attorney could hardly believe his own ears as he stood there in At this the audience again laughed. anything but a pleasing mood. His asso-Mr. Scoville said he wanted these papers ciate counsel could conceal neither their so as to enable him to finish his statement. vexation nor surprise. Mr. Davidge Mr. Corkhill remarked :- If that will frowned: Mr. Smith looked a little starthelp you to get through I'll furnish them. led, but his genial nature could not sup-Mr. Corkhill next objected to the de press a faint smile. Judge Porter, of New fendant's counsel having blank supcenas York, grew more thoughtful in look for witnesses, and termed it an extraordi-Every eye was directed to the government nary method by which he could summon counsel. Judge Cox, unmoved, awaited persons at a great expense to the governfurther remarks, while the baliff ordered ment. He complained that the defence silence and Guiteau shouted to Mr. Scohad been allowed to summon seventy-five ville who stood before the jury :- "You witnesses and neither he nor the jury had have lied." There was a pause and then any means of knowing who they were or Guiteau with scowling countenance and whether they were penitentiary convicts. flashing eyes pointed to Mr. Scoville say. Thereupon Guiteau flew into a passion and ing :- "I have no confidence in a man exclaimed :-- " Don't know any such." who lies. There can be no success with Mr. Scoville said he would give the lying and you have lied enough." Mr. prosecution the names of every witness Scoville paid no attention to Guiteau's refor the defence then and there, and this marks, but turning to Mr. Corkhill said :satisfied Mr. Davidge. After Mr. Sco. "Notwithstanding my relationship to ville stated that he wanted to take the the prisoner, I never would have come into deposition of Colonel Daniels, member of the case except to lay the facts and real the Republican National Committee, who truth before the jury." This announce. had known the prisoner, Guiteau elicited ment was greeted by renewed applause. more laughter by explaining the use of the many persons rising to their feet and term "nigger" in his remarks yesterday. betraying undisguised sympathy for the He was confident that many colored peo counsel as he stood there unable to check ple had now become better than a great his emotion, but at the same time remain-years ago Guiteau had exhibited idiosynmany white men. At this statement crasies, but Guiteau excitedly exclaimed :ing dignified and erect, as if conscious of several jurors smiled and the colored mem-"What you say about my peculiarities his own vindication from the imputations ber could not conceal his delight. are true, and I want that understood. A of dishonorable conduct. The letters of Guiteau, which Mr.

A Word of Wisdom ! Mr. Davidge next tried to have the Scoville began to read, contained many a good many persons will swear that I am Notice. A diction and impartial deductions. The market for neat transactions in sale, There is only one sure and certain way insane. But it is false that I ever prac- Court rule out the evidence of these letters morceau of idosyncratic humor and the testimony for the defence then began. and insurance on mixed Government tised law with Read. But I do not wish which were written by Guiteau years ago, audience found it impossible to refrain The District Attorney obtained an order of keeping your live stock-whether fowls ONE new Leffell Turbine Water Wheel-52 inch, with 8 feet of EXTRA SHAFTING, 5 inch and private account. Then, there will to spoil your theory." or animals-in a perfectly healthy and All persons having any legal claim against the and were read to show that he had grad- from laughter, but the prisoner did not excluding from the court room all the Estate of the late Milus Carroll, of Bartibogue, are diameter, CROWN WHEEL PINION, PILLAR be a chance for energy and talent paying condition, and that is by mixing At the afternoon session, as soon as Mr. ually given way in mind and feeling nnder relish anything that reflected on his witnesses for the defence, an exception, required to render the same duly attested to the BLOCK, and STEP. undersigned within 3 months of date, and all HARVELL'S CONDITION POWDERS with which at present must confine itself to Scoville began to speak of the fact that excessive religious teachings and zeal. capacity, though he enjoyed everything however, being made in the case of Mrs. persons indebted to the said estate are required J. B. SNOWBALL. their feed. Try these great specifics and simple commission and brokerage busi- Guiteau did not have brains enough to While there was no more applause, there that indicated intellectual ability or re- Scoville, to pay the same immediately. Chatham Nov. 1st. ANDREW CARROLL, Administrator. satisfy yourself. Miramichi, Nov. 5, 1881.

----is remarkable for good sense, impassionate

Vhe most difficult horse satisfactorily fitted

CARRIAGE TRIMMING

executed in a tasteful and workman-like manner.

For Sale, 50,000 Pine Shingles, -AT-R. FLANAGAN'S. Chatham Sept. 28th, 1881.

Commercial House. Now opening a very large assortment of

NEW SPRING

Staple & Fancy Dry Goods,

MILLINERY, HATS, CAPS, CLOTHING. TRUNKS, VALISES, CARPET, BAGS. CURTAIN MATERIAL. TABLE LINEN DOYLIES, NAPKINS. TOWELS, HAMBURG, TRIMMINGS, LACES, EDGINGS & FRINGES. HALL & ROOM PAPER, OILCLOTH. SMALL WARES. & NICK, NACKS. Agency for Buttricks, New York, Fashions W. B. HOWARD. Chatham, April 28th '81.

Grocery Department.

JUST RECEIVED :- 10

125 Bbls. Choice Superior Extra Flour 10 Bbls. Spy Bay Fat Fall Herring 1 Box Borax Toilet Soap, 1 lb. and 1 lb. Bars 1 " Oatmeal " Castile 1 " Crown Soap, 16 Bars; 1 Bbl. Bean Meal : " Pea Meal fanufactured by Peter Hanlenbeek & Co., N. Y. mul delicious Soup, it is claimed can be made in minutes. A trial asked. W. S. LOGGIE. N. B.-Apples and Cabbage, fresh every Friday

