

How Ruth Ainsley Lost and Won

A STORY FOR SCHOOLBOYS AND SCHOOL-GIRLS.

You see, the one that stayed at the head of the spelling class the most days in the term was to have a prize, really the most elegant Bible you ever saw; or at any rate, I never saw one so handsome; but you have lived in the city, and I haven't.

Well, Luena Shaw and I were just even; and that very day was to decide it, because next day was examination. The baby—our baby, I mean—was sick, and I told mother that morning, Luena Shaw's baby was always well, and that was how she got ahead of me in arithmetic; but she said it was because Luena's mother was stronger than she and so didn't need her little girl's help.

That made me sorry I had been cross and stayed till the last minute, carrying him round and round the room, singing to him. I'm glad enough I did, for he didn't live long after that, and I know he was pleased to be carried, because he kept just as quiet as could be; but when the school-bell rung, of course I had to go.

The spelling class came just after the prayer, and I saw Luena's book open under her desk when she bent her head. I didn't like to do that,—seems to me I'd never pretend that way; but, if I didn't study, I felt like crying, I was so anxious. And I guess I didn't pray any more than Luena, till it came to,—"Deliver us from evil."

I thought missing a word would be a dreadful evil, and I know I did pray then.

When the class was called, I stood at the head and Luena next.

All the chance I had to look at my lesson was just a little time till mother came and kissed me good night and took the light away the evening before. I was so sleepy then I could hardly see the words. But I was sure on the first part; and I made up my mind by the number of words we generally had, we were almost through the lesson, when the teacher gave out:

"Tyranny."

I couldn't remember I'd ever seen the word, and I couldn't imagine how it was spelled; but as it went on down the class, everybody missed it. I listened to the best spellers, and felt sure it was ty for the first syllable, and au for the next.

If there had been one boy below Tom Peters (he's always at the foot, and don't seem to mind it) I should have known whether the last syllable was my or only y. As it was, it came to me without my being sure; I was so frightened.

I spelled well enough till it came to the last syllable; then I hesitated a little, long enough I suppose for the teacher to think I'd put in the two n's but I truly didn't put in but one.

Just then somebody knocked at the door, and as he started to answer it, he gave out another word. But Luena called out:

"Aren't there two n's in tyranny?"

"Yes; and Ruth put in two—didn't you Ruth?" he asked.

And then he opened the door, for the rap was repeated, and I had to wait while he showed in a visitor.

The school desks seemed to swim before my eyes. I knew he would be helpful, because he once said I was truthful; and then there was that Bible, with its splendid clasps shining like gold.

Besides, it hadn't been my fault the lesson wasn't learned, and Luena had studied hers in prayer time. I don't know how I thought of so much in so short a time, but I seemed to see in a flash all the reasons why it was fair that I should lose the prize.

But, just as soon as I thought of prayer time, I remembered the place where I had joined in it, and the evil seemed now to be a lie, and not losing the prize. I couldn't make it that any more. It was as if I had said, "Deliver us from lying," and I thought of mother and what she would say, and how the teacher would look if he found me out.

As soon as he turned toward us again, if you'll believe me, he gave out another word as if nothing had happened.

can't tell it just as it was, for I was so surprised; but he spoke of my having been perfect in spelling so many times, and that he would have thought I had spelled the word right, only I said I hadn't.

He ended by saying he wanted me to have a present, and calling me up handed me a Bible exactly like the other.

I didn't make a pretty bow like Luena. I just bent my head for fear he would see tears. I saw them in his eyes when I tried to whisper, "Thank you."

I didn't look nicely, nor carry it off nicely either, and told mother so. But she didn't care. She just hugged me, and we were so happy over it.

On the fly leaf of the Bible was written: RUTH AINSLEY, From her teacher. "They that deal truly are His delight."

Don't Pause to Consider. But when you find your dogs, sheep, poultry, horses, or cattle of any description, or suffering from the want of health, just mix their feed with HARVELL'S CONDITION POWDER, and settle the matter at once! These great specifics are sold everywhere.

Anthony Trollope, the novelist, is dead. Mr. W. Maguire, merchant, at Franklin, writes: I was afflicted with pain in my shoulder, for eight years—almost helpless at times—have tried many remedies, but with no relief, until I used Dr. Thomas's Electric Oil. After a few applications the pain left me entirely, and I have had no pain since.

Flotow, the composer, has become blind. Mothers will find Perry Davis' Pain Killer invaluable in the nursery, and it should always be kept near at hand in case of accident. For pain in the breast, take a little Pain-Killer in sweetened milk and water, bathing the breasts in it clear at the same time. If the milk passages are clogged, from cold or other causes, bathing in the Pain-Killer will give immediate relief.

The Alhambra Theatre, London, has been burned. Whooping Cough is successfully treated by separating the patients beyond hearing distance of each other, and by the employment of Fellows' Hypophosphites. Whooping Cough is a nervous disease so sympathetic a nature that a paroxysm may be produced in one susceptible by simply hearing the cough of another person. The above-named treatment has been found singularly effective.

Louis Blanc died at Cannes on Wednesday last week. Mr. T. C. Wells, Chemist and Druggist, Port Colborne, Ont., writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure sells well, and gives the best of satisfaction for all diseases of the blood. It never fails to root out all diseases from the system, cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, &c., purifies the blood, and will make you look the picture of health and happiness."

Red Cloud, the Indian chief, is about to visit Washington. H. A. McLaughlin, Norland, writes: "I am sold out of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. It sells well and I find in every instance it has proven satisfactory. I have reasons to believe it is the best preparation of the kind in the market." It cures Dyspepsia, Biliousness, and Torpidity of the Liver, Constipation, and all diseases arising from Impure Blood, Female Complaints, &c.

There is a deficit of 31,000,000 in the Austrian budget. Alexis Cyr, of Grant Isle, Aroostook Co., writes: "Having used Northrop & Lyman's valuable Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, and derived great benefit from it, I take the liberty of asking you for quotations, and also whether you would be willing to give me the agency for this place, as I am confident there would be a large sale for it in this vicinity when its merits were made known."

Arabi says he would prefer to live at Damascus or at London. Mr. T. C. Berchard, public school teacher, Norland, writes: "During the fall of 1881 I was much troubled with Biliousness and Dyspepsia, and part of the time was unable to attend to the duties of my profession. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure was recommended to me, and I have much pleasure in stating that I was entirely cured by using one bottle. I have not had an attack of my old complaint since, and have gained fifteen pounds in weight."

An aged citizen of Western New York says Morgan was not killed but went to Australia. Mr. John Magwood, Victoria Road, writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a splendid medicine. My customers say they never used anything so effectual. Good result immediately follow its use. I know its value from personal experience, having been troubled for 9 or 10 years with Dyspepsia, and since using it digestion goes on without that depressed feeling so well known to dyspeptics. I have no hesitation in recommending it in any case of Indigestion, Constipation, Heartburn, or troubles arising from a disordered stomach."

The Allan steamer, Peruvian, which was in collision with another steamer when entering the Mersey and was beached, is again afloat. It Stands the Test of Time: Time tries all things, and few are the customs, habits or adjuncts of life that are not swept away before its remorseless march. Remedy after remedy for corns has been introduced, tested, and found wanting. PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR alone holds undisturbed sway, gathering new strength as years roll on, and holding it with the power that merit alone can give. Take no substitute. PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR never fails to make a complete cure. Sold everywhere. N. C. POLSON & CO., Kingston, Proprietors.

England offered France the permanent presidency of the Egyptian debt commission, but France declined. MANY people are not aware that it is the wrapper of tobacco which gives the color to the plug, and are, therefore, often deceived by a handsome outside appearance. The wrapper is a single film of leaf wrapped round the plug, and is never good smoking tobacco. It is costly only because of its fine color. In the "Myrtle Navy" brand the chief attention is paid to the "filler," that is, the inside of the smoking tobacco. A tobacco can be made to look as well as the "Myrtle Navy" without much trouble or expense, but at the same time be a very inferior article.

The Caffer, who has been at war with the Boers, are being driven into caves, where they are blown up with dynamite. Mr. Henry Harding, of Toronto, writes: My little daughter, seven years of age, has been a terrible sufferer this winter from rheumatism, being for weeks confined to her bed, with limbs drawn up, which could not be straightened, and suffering great pain in every joint of limbs, arms, and shoulders. The best of physicians could not help her, and we were advised to try Dr. Thomas's Electric Oil, which we did, and the benefit was at once apparent; after using two bottles the pain left, her limbs assumed their natural shape, and in two weeks she was as well as ever. It has not returned.
