THE ROYAL ARCANUM meets this evening. A full attendance is requested. BAZAAR :- The R. Catholics of Campbellton propose holding a Bazaar during July 1882. The date of Bazaar will be specified in due time.

APPOINTMENT:-B. Lester Peters, Esq., Common Clerk, of St. John, has had $1000 a year and the Police Magistracy of that city added to his salary and duties by the Local Government.

PERSONAL :- Mr. J. Fred. McMillan, who has, for several years, held a prominent position in the counting room of J B. Snowball, Esq., has accepted the position of Teller in Messrs. Maclellan & Co's Banking House, St. John. He left Chatham last Friday night to assume the number of friends here, while they regret | gentlemen's and Valentine the ladies parting with him, wish him every success.

Does IT Know ?- The World is spoiling for a fight with the ADVANCE and makes the foliowing admission:-

The eighth commandment reads:-"Thou shalt not steal"! Perhaps the World will explain the connection between that commandment and its charges against the ADVANCE.

THE SCOTT ACT. - The Telegraph publishes the following,-Rev. Stephen T. Teed, of Chatham, says:-

Chatham, Feb. 4.—The Scott Act is a grand success here; our local paper, published this p. m., says: "The provisions of the Act are strictly carried out, and one never, or very seldom, sees an intoxicated individual, and the police magistrate's office is a sinecure. I worked hard, in conjunction with others, to secure its adoption in this county, and feel amply rewarded. The principle is unmistakeably good.

The above is unmistakeably wide of the mark and calculated to mislead people abroad while it will amuse those at home.

Curling.

The Cup presented to the Chatham Curling Club by Isaac Harris, Esq., was competed for last week. The competing Rinks were made up as follows:-the regular sub-skips of the Club having charge,-

R. Flanagan, J. L. Stewart, H. P. Marquis, A. J. Loggie, George Brittain, D.Chesman, skip. J. Johnston, A. Harris, skip. J. Johnson, J. Y. Mersereau. J. McDonald, A. Ullock. R. Murray, A.H.Johnson, skip. A. Johnstone, skip. J. Bassitt, A. Burr,

C. Benedict. Alex. Brown, D. G. Smith. Geo. I. Wilson, P.H.C.Benson, skip. W.Johnston, skip. Geo. Loggie. W. Gillespie, D. M. Loggie, Geo. Tait, W. S. Morris, W. Wilson,

And. Brown, skip. T. Desbrisay, skip. The most noticeable feature of the play was the narrow victories of the successful rinks in the first competition Skip Harris who is a very young and promising player, had one of the best men of the Club in the ring against him and would really have won, but for a "fluke" by his opponent. The latter who was finally successful, acknowledges the corn and it is expoct. ed that Harris will yet have his revenge.

In the first set of games the rinks opposed and results were as follows:-Chesman's 17 vs. Harris...... 16 A. H. Johnson's 14 vs. A. Johnston's. 13 Benson's 9 vs. W. Johnston's 14 And'w Brown's, 19 vs. T. Desbrisay's, 10 On Friday afternoon skip Wm. John ston was vanquished by skip Andrew Brown, with a score of 17 to 8; the next morning skip A. H. Johnson was bowled out by skip Chesman with 16 to 9, and in the final heat on Saturday skip Chesman's
