A match game of cricket was played in Adams' field, Newcastle, on Saturday last, between an eleven from the Newcastle Cricket Club and a scratch cleven from Chatham. Jas. Fairey was captain of the Newcastle team, and R. Fairey captained the Chatham eleven. The Chathamites first wielded the willow, Benson and Turner going in to face the bowling of Fairey and Anslow; but in the first over Benson raised a ball for Fairey, and was caught out by Johnstone (1 for 0). E. Johnson then went in and during the remainder of the over a bye and a wide were scored. A bye being next run rought Turner to face the bob bowling of Second Prize. Anslow whom he drove for one. Johnson sent the next ball soaring skyward and was caught by Fairey. As two wickets had fallen for four the prospect looked gloomy for Chatham; but, Marquis next going in, Turner drove Anslow for two and got another on account of an overthrow. Marquis then cut Fairey for two, which was followed by a leg bye. After Marquis had cut Anslow for two he was bowled by him, and retired, to be followed by Clark (3 for 17). After Turner and many friends here, who look forward with | Clark had done some sharp playing, the former was caught by Sweet (4 for 25). Fairey then filled the vacancy made by Our friend W. J. Logan of the well | Turner. Clark and Fairey soon got to work and the score began to increase rapidly, Sweet's round-arm twisters being severely punished, Fairey driving one for three and another for four. Hicks Mr. Chesnut, late of the Bank of Com. having replaced Anslow succeeded in takmerce, Montreal, has taken charge of the | ing Clark's stumps; not however, before he had done noble work, he and Fairey having put thirty runs together before they were parted, Murray then went in and knocked Fairey's first ball to leg for two. A couple of singles were next made by Murray and then Fairey was bowled by Hicks (6 for 60). Benedict followed and Murray having been caught by Street, was succeeded by McKenzie, Benedict having cut for one was next bowled by Hicks. McKay followed but his wicket soon went down before Fairey's bowling. As the Chathamites had but ten men H. Parker was taken to fill the vacancy, but shortly after he went in McKenzie was bowled by Fairey, the tenth wicket fall-

> After a short delay Newcastle sent in Harley and Buck to face Fairey's and Clark's bowling. The play was at first steady, but in attempting to make a run Harley was run out and W. C. Miller took his place. The batting was still cautious, although Buck made a drive for two and a cut for three. Miller in the meantime making a couple of singles. Buck having been bowled by Fairey gave up his bat to Street, who shortly afterwards retired for the same reason. Sweet followed, and he and Miller did some defensive playing, but after a time the latter was bowled by Clark. Jas. Fairey then took the bat, and the Chatham men deepened out, expecting heavy hitting but, almost immediately, a splendidly delivered ball by Clark took Fairey's stumps. Hicks and Sweet then made stand. Hicks, after a drive for two and to leg for one made a cut for three-Sweet, who had been playing cautiously, then began to let himself out, and made a couple of drives for two, but driving another he was very prettily caught by Benedict. Anslow took his place, but soon "put his foot on it,"-that is he was ruled out by the umpire as leg before wicket. Johnson then went in, but he slipping a ball, was caught by Benson. Turner was then put on to bowl to relieve Clark, J. Davidson taking the bat. Hicks struck Turner to leg for two and slipped him for another couple. Davidson being run out, Grahame handled the willow, but being lame Anslow ran for him. Hicks slipped Turner for a couple and Grahame drove Clark for two. After Fairey returned to bowl, Grahame slipped him for two, but made three runs on account of an overthrow. Shortly afterwards Hicks was caught by Turner at point. This ended the innings, Chatham

In the matter of the voting on the 23rd day of February, 1882, on the petition to the Governor-General for the bringing into force in the City of Saint John of the second part of the Canada Temperance Act, 1878, and the petition of William W. The Prince of Wales, on account of the condition of his health, has been urged by medical advisers to drink the waters of a German bath.
