ALBERT LIME.

THE A. B. LIME AND CEMENT CO'Y

Are now prepared to furnish their

Best Quality Selected Lime

By the Car Load at all STATIONS on the ALBERT and INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAYS.

This Lime differs from all other Brands in the market—having peculiar cement qualities, which hardens it like stone, and makes it impervious to the action of water. It requires no cement to improve it, and is the CHEAPEST in the market for all purposes.

For Agricultural purposes it can be furnished by the car load in bulk, CHEAP, and is the best as well as the cheapest fertilizer known.

All orders should be addressed

Golden Ball, Shoe Store

—AND—

FURNITURE EMPORIUM.

The Golden Ball Boot and Shoe Store is the oldest established in Miramichi. It is now fifteen years since we commenced business exclusively in the above line, and we can now point with pleasure, to hosts of patrons, who have invariably, purchased from us, during that length of time. The reason is plain. We buy entirely from the best manufacturers, consequently our goods give satisfaction. We might purchase cheap, shoddy goods (that are only meant to sell and not to wear) but by pursuing that policy, it would be impossible to retain our customers. The best goods are the cheapest in the end.

We have full lines of

Infant's, Children's Misses', Youth's, Boy's Women's and Men's Boots Shoes, Slippers. etc.,

at the lowest possible price compatible with good quality.

Also a large assortment of

Trunks, Valises. and Hand Bags, Sole Leather and Shoe Findings.

Seven years ago we opened our FURNITURE EMPORIUM, and have witnessed a steadily increasing business. We keep in stock all varieties of BEDROOM, KITCHEN AND PARLOR FURNITURE, LOUNGES, SOFAS, HALL STANDS, WHATNOTS, WARDROBES, BOUQUET TABLES, SIDEBOARDS, EXTENSION TABLES, SPRING BEDS, IRON BEADSTEADS, STRETCHERS, ETC.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff; and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capiary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing nothing has been found so effectual or desirable.

Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."

Buckingham's Dye,
For the Whiskers.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being in one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color which will neither rub nor wash off.

DR. CHANNING'S Sarsaparilla

FOR THE BLOOD

CURES SYPHILIS, SCROFULA, SALT-RHEUM, ALL SKIN-DISEASES, TUMORS, ENLARGEMENT OF THE LIVER AND SPLEEN, RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS, DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER AND URINARY ORGANS, LEUCORRHŒA, CATARRH, AND ALL DISEASES RESULTING FROM A DEPRAVED AND IMPURE CONDITION OF THE BLOOD.

A HIGHLY CONCENTRATED EXTRACT OF

RED JAMAICA SARSAPARILLA

AND THE

DOUBLE IODIDES.

Space forbids the giving more testimony in this place, in favor of this great medicine. Is not one certificate, however, from an eminent and well-known Physician like Dr Bessey, of Montreal, sufficient to establish its superiority over the numerous mixtures called Blood Purifiers offered by Druggists and others?

T. C. STRATTON, Esq.
Montreal, Feb. 1st, 1877.

I cannot but regard the formula from which Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla is prepared, as one of the best possible combinations to constitute an effectual remedy, for the cure of Blood Impurities. So far as my experience leads me with this remedy, I can testify to its great value in the treatment of all Strumous and Cachectic affections, as Glandular Enlargements, and a wide range of skin affections; as a reliable preparation for general use as a blood purifier, I know of none equal to it, combining as it does, all the imputed virtues of Sarsaparilla, and several other valuable remedies, with the extraordinary alterative properties of the "Double Iodides," and of none that can be more highly recommended as safe, certain and reliable, and I have every confidence that such a remedy for general use, taking the place of the many worthless nostrums of the day, will be a great boon to suffering humanity, and its use will be attended with the most satisfactory results. It should be invaluable to persons beyond the reach of medical advice, and will, no doubt, become popular with Medical men throughout the country.

Respectfully yours,
W. E. BESSEY, M.D
Beaver Hall Square.

NOTE.—Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla is put up in large bottles, with the name blown in the Glass, and retails at $1.00 per bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars. Sold by Druggists generally, and most Country Stores. Be sure, and ask for Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla and take no other. If not readily obtained in your locality, address the General Agent.

CHATHAM, - - - OCTOBER 5, 1882.

Old England's Hearts.

They say that England's losing
Her prestige and her fame,
That her place among the nations
Is only in her name,
Who say so, lie, for well we know
The Red, White and the Blue
Still waves o'er stalwart Englishmen,
Whose hearts beat warm and true.

The thorns are sharp and pointed
That hedge our bonnie Rose:
'Tis the pride of England's garland,
The fairest flower that blows.
And England's sons her honor prize,
And England's daughter's, too,
And if England's faults are many,
Yet her children's hearts beat true.

With love for our great Mother,
For our glorious English Land,
God guard her! Heaven prosper her!
And all she takes in hand.
Let foes predict her downfall,
Their worst let traitors do;
Nor foe, nor traitorous friend we fear,
While England's hearts beat true.

THE ANSWER.

Who says that Britain's noon is o'er,
That British valor's fled,—
Who says that Britain owns no more
Such blood as once she shed?
Let those who bear our country ill
Defame her as they may,
But Britons then are Britons still,
And shall be so for aye.
"Then give a cheer for England,
For honest, valiant England,
So much she loves her legend lore,,
But then she loves her honor more.
Hurrah! hurrah for England,
And the Flag we all adore."

Who says her knee has learned to bow
To every tyrant crew,—
Who says the world may wrong her now,
Nor fear to meet its due?
The bane of war she nobly shuns,
For man, and Him on high,
But rouse her, and the British guns
Will thunder back the lie.
"Then give a cheer for Scotland,
For brave, for bonnie Scotland,—
The land that bred a Bruce of yore,
That glorious Colin Campbell bore,
Hurrah! hurrah for Scotia,
And the Flag we all adore."

The blood we shed like heroes true,
In many a bright campaign,
At Inkerman, at Waterloo,
And 'mid the vales of Spain;
Such blood is yet in British hearts,
As proud, as brave as then,
Let honor call, the Lion starts,
And Britain's up again.
"Then give a cheer for Erin,—
For dear, for dauntless Erin.
In many a gallant scene of yore,
The foremost flag that Britain bore
Was carried by an Irish hand,
An Irish Regiment o'er."

Who sees not in the little band
That pierced the Afric wild,
And one to hundreds, hand in hand,
The dark marauders foiled,
True British hearts like those of old,
That stormed the world amain,
True heroes that can still uphold
The glories of the slain.
"Then give a cheer for Wolseley,
And one for all the valiant corps
That Britain's flag so bravely bore,
Three British Cheers for Wolseley,
And the Flag we all adore."

Why the Rev. Mr. Mulkittle Laughed.

From the Arkansaw Traveler.

"Is this the Rev. Mr. Mulkittle?" said a kind of out-of-reason man entering the library of a well-known Little Rock minister.

"Yes, sir; have a seat."

"I have called to transact a piece of business which to the world may seem ridiculous, but which, viewed from a spiritual eminence, is of importance."

"What is it?"

"I want you to love me."

"Love you?" gasped the good man, regarding the petitioner and inwardly vowing that he had never before met a more repulsive human being.

"Yes, sir, I want you to love me," and he sat down and closed his eyes as though he intended to await the announcement of the decision. "The command is to love one another. I confess that I love you," and opening his eyes he leered at the preacher.

"Well, sir, said the minister, "your demand after all is simple. I suppose that you have been lost for many years, and have just tasted grace, and that you especially want the love of ministers. Yes, I love you."

"Thank you. Now, when we love any one we are willing to help him. Gimme a dollar, sir, gimme a dollar. Out of the love you bear me, gimme the dollar."

The minister arose, took down a box and handed the visitor a dollar. "Good bye. I hope you will always love me," and the lover was gone.

"How did you make it?" asked a rough-looking man, when they reached a street corner not far away.

"Fine. Never met but one preacher that got away with me, and he was an old Baptist that insisted upon ducking me into the river before he could love me. Preachers like something odd. The old style of striking 'm is repealed."

"Let me see the money."

"Here she is; a new dollar. Let's go take something."

"I guess not. The thing is counterfeit." It was a vile imitation, and the two thieves looked at each other in silence. The minister poked his head over the fence and laughed. The dollar had come to him in a contribution box.

Sabbath Observance.

[St. John "Globe."]

In the Wesleyan Conference at Hamilton on Thursday there was a lively discussion on the question of Sabbath observance. The matter came up on a report of the committee on that subject, which deplored the increased laxity of public opinion. It was pointed out that trains and steamboats were now more frequently plying with excursion parties. In parts of the country far from centres of population works of construction were carried on on the Sabbath, and there were other evidences to indicate increasing laxity. The report recommended that the church courts and members should be requested to use diligence in enforcing the law of the land in the matter, that ministers should foster the observance of the Sabbath day, and preach the scriptural view of the Sabbath, and that sound literature should be disseminated as widely as possible. The President said that at the North West hotels were open and the bars were crowded on Sundays; the Post Office was open on Sunday. He had a son in the service, who had no alternative but to work or resign. Some gentlemen said that the work of railway construction must be done with the knowledge of the Government. One gentleman suggested a deputation to the Government. Mr. John Macdonald detailed the result of an interview with the Premier in 1878, when he was a delegate on the subject. They went on and asked for the stopping of trains, the closing of canals, post offices, etc. The Premier pointed out that—all post offices in Ontario were closed already, but in Quebec it was absolutely necessary that they should be open, as a large number of farmers and others could only come into town for their letters on Sunday. Just at that particular moment one of the deputation asked the members of Parliament who did not take out their letters of a Sunday to hold up their hands, and the Premier was the only one of the members present who did so. The Premier distinctly stated that there were a number of things clearly impossible to avoid doing on the Sabbath. For instance, in the case of cattle trains it would be positive cruelty to keep them over without food and water. Then again, it was necessary in the case of perishable goods, and that traffic trains should pass on in order to avoid a block. There did not appear to be any reasonable man present who could question these points. It was also pointed out that 1,000 emigrants would arrive with through tickets, who had no means to stop over. In reference to the closing up of the canals, at the time they were up as a deputation, the people of Welland were applying that the canal might be opened, if it were only for a few hours, as the closing of it on the Sunday was the cause of a lot of low characters congregating there, demoralizing the whole place.

A motion finally prevailed to appoint a standing committee "for the purpose of enforcing the law on the subject." But it is clear that the Conference did not know what to do in the matter. It is doubtful if anything can be done further than to call attention to the subject. In Lower Canada for the last twenty years it has been the custom to provide steamboat excursions on Sunday. The practice grows in Ontario. Practically there is little difference in going on Sunday, or starting the day before so as to be out on Sunday. The tendency of the time is to a lax, instead of a strict, observance of the Sabbath. This may be regrettable, but it is a fact. In our city, Sunday steamboats and Sunday trains are among the most popular, not indeed for pleasure purposes, but for business purposes. Last year the Evangelical Alliance endeavored to create opposition to the steamboats and trains. This year no opposition has been shown, and travel has increased, and there is no protest from anybody. As the needs of civilization alter so must the feeling in regard to the Sabbath. The electric telegraph cannot well observe the entire day, for it may be Sunday at one end of the line and Saturday at the other. The railcar on its track, like the ship on the ocean, cannot stop wherever it may happen to be, because the machines made by man to mark time give a particular hour of the night or day. The newspaper which must do its work on Sunday in order that priest and people may read it on Monday, will hardly find fault with others for doing that which it does itself. Self-interest will undoubtedly prompt most men to observe one duty in seven, and a feeling of love and gratitude to Almighty God will move good men to give up a portion of the day of rest to prayer and praise; but the "way we live now," the civilzation into which we are born, and which after all we can do so little to control, undoubtedly requires that certain work shall proceed incessantly day by day and every day.

Disease in Barn Yard Stock

Cannot possibly obtain where HARVELL'S CONDITION POWDERS are mixed, according to the printed directions, with their feed. All animals and poultry derive benefit from these great specifics, in both weight and prolificness. No stableman, farmer or poultry grower, is safe without them.

For Cholera.—Take a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in hot water, sweetened with sugar. Bathe the stomach and bowels freely with the Pain-Killer at the same time. If the attack be severe, and attended with cramps and diarrhœa, repeat the dose every fifteen minutes, using hot fomentations on the bowels. In extreme cases the dose may be increased to a tablespoonful.

With the utmost confidence, the publishers offer to the public this great work, the first of its class which has ever been attempted in the Dominion: a work which will be the fullest exposition of our country, and a tribute to native art and native genius worthy of Canada and her people.

The Art Department is under the special supervision of Mr. L. R. O'Brien, President of the Royal Canadian Academy of Arts, which fact is a sufficient guarantee of its able and faithful execution—while the artists engaged upon it embrace the highest ornaments to the profession; the Literary Department is under the direction of G. M. Grant, D. D., Principal of Queen's University, Kingston, who is assisted by leading Canadian historical and descriptive writers; the engraving will be executed under the superintendence of Mr. Geo. F. Smith, formerly of England and late of New York, who will have the cooperation of the best engravers to be procured in England or America.

The work will be published in serial form, at sixty cents per part; each part containing from twenty-four to thirty-two pages, of which about one-third will be engravings of the finest character, varying in size from full-page views to smaller plates, liberally interspersed through the text. Printed under the immediate supervision of the publishers, on presses manufactured specially for high class art publications, the illustrations, as well as the letter-press, will be of the finest description, and may well be offered as a beautiful specimen of Canadian art and Canadian workmanship.

The illustrations will be original, the drawings being made at great expense expressly for this work. The actual cash outlay on the first edition is already computed at over $110,000; the paramount object of the publishers being to carry out this most important project in a manner to secure the hearty response of all Canadians to an enterprise which will give to the world the best and only true delineation of our country and of the everyday life of our people.
