A Singular Comparison. The St. John Globe seems to sympathize with Arabi Bey's side of the Egyptian question, and to see in the Suez Canal a parallel to the Canada Pacific Railway—viewing the British Government and British and French holders of Egyptian bonds as a combination similar to the Canada Pacific Syndicate. We congratulate the Globe on the ingenuity of its theory, which, however, seems absurd as the views of some of the American newspaper correspondents on the subject.

Passamaquoddy and the St. Croix. F. E. Winslow, Esq., of the Bank of Montreal, Chatham, has in his possession papers of no little historic value which were the property of his grandfather, who, as many of our readers know, held office in the Province and for a time administered the Government under the Crown. One of these papers, written evidently to the St. Croix boundary question, is interesting as an authority on the names of several important points in Passamaquoddy Bay.

Reform Needed. We fear the World will share the fate of its predecessor, the Star, unless its proprietors cease using it so extensively for individual purposes. It reminds one of the ox owned by two men, one of whom concluded in his own mind that the animal should be used for fall plowing, while the other conceived himself that it would make good beef. They could not agree, however, and the beef advocate gave his ultimatum as follows: "Well, you can do what you like with your half, but I'm going to kill mine, anyhow."

Political Notes. William J. Lewis, Esq., M. D., is gazetted a member of the Executive Council of this Province. Theophilus Desbray, Esq., Q. C., has been appointed Justice of the Peace for the County of Gloucester, in the room of Henry W. Baldwin, deceased.

The Longest Fence in the World. (From the Clarendon News.) The longest line of fence in the world will be the wire fence extending from the Indian Territory west across the Texas Panhandle to thirty-five miles into New Mexico. We are informed that eighty-five miles of this fence are already under construction. Its course will be in the line of the Canadian River, and its purpose is to stop the drift of the Northern cattle.

Narrow Escapes from Death. In the British House of Commons on Friday afternoon last, during the debate on the Repression Bill, Gladstone said the Government had taken measures unknown to Parliament to operate against secret societies. An amendment, offered by Trevelyan, Chief Secretary of Ireland, to limit the right of search to day time except in case of secret societies, was strongly opposed by Conservatives and others.

The Salmon Tax. The Inspector of Fisheries, acting under instruction from the Department, no doubt, wrote a short time since to Overseers in Salmon-fishing districts instructing them not to collect the net tax and to refund the tax to those who had already paid it, any. This, it is explained, is what gave rise to the rumor in Gloucester County that the Salmon net tax paid for the last two or three years would be resome of these gentlemen has already suffered shipwreck. When this paper was established we said, "We hope the World will be more respectable as well as more successful than the Star," and we also said there was room for a good Conservative paper in Chatham, but the World is narrowing its constituency of friends very fast by having entirely abandoned the promise it made to the public that it would avoid personalities and unbecoming language.

Northumberland County Teachers' Institute. On Thursday, last, 6th inst., the Northumberland County Teachers' Institute convened in Chatham Grammar and High School building. The President and Vice-President being both absent, Mr. Congyrahame was appointed Chairman. The Secretary being also absent, Mr. Palmer was appointed to act pro tem.

Afternoon Session. On the subject of Notation Miss Creighton said:—Pupils should first be shown that it is necessary to have characters to express large numbers. When this had been impressed on the mind the teacher could, by means of strokes on the black-board, teach the value of the first nine digits. She would then take a number of pencils and, having placed two columns on the board, one headed pens and another pencils, get the pupils to bring a number of pens or pencils and she would place the figure relating to each in its respective column.

Life is full of disappointments. We recently offered to cure a bad case of Rheumatism for a year's subscription in advance, but just as we were on the point of lifting the shakels, a sympathizing friend suggested Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, and the money and the patient vanished instantly.

THE Cottage recently occupied by Mr. A. H. Streets, Chatham, is for rent. It contains eleven rooms, which are thoroughly fitted, and there is also a good fire-proof cellar. For terms and other particulars apply to Mrs. Desmond, Newcastle, or Roger Flanagan, Chatham.

FOR Sale. THE Property known as the Mead property, situated near the Point, contains eleven rooms, and is part of which is cleared and the balance well wooded. A good title deed will be given. For particulars apply to THOMAS FERNANDES, 3 y 6.

Government itself is driven to its wit's end. It took Dr. Lewis into the Council for the sole purpose of keeping him from going into opposition. As there are already two members of Government with a stone's throw of this gentleman's door in the County of Westmorland, this addition gives nothing in the way of strength.

Friday's Meeting. On Friday morning the minutes of last meeting having been read and approved, Mr. Moir briefly introduced the subject of Bad Habits in Reading, referring to the difficulties arising from the child not perfectly understanding the passage he was rendering. He also referred to inaudibility.

After a short discussion by Mr. Moir and Mr. Congyrahame who thought that Numeration should be taught before Notation, Miss Williston took up the subject of "Truthfulness," saying the habit of Truthfulness was invaluable or even omnipotent in the schoolroom and should be inculcated in the earliest childhood of the pupil.
