London, Oct. 6.-The Solicitor of the Treasury has informed Mr. Gay, solicitor retained for the defence of O'Donnell, that O'Donnell's trial has been fixed for the 15th inst. Mr. Sullivan, counsel for O'Donnell, has been instructed, however, to ask for a postponement of the trial until November, and it is believed that the Crown will comply with the request. Mr. Gay has telegraphed to the solicitor who defended the prisoner at Port Elizabeth to send to England all the witnesses who are likely to prove useful to the defence.
