PRETENDED IGNORANCE.—The World says it ordered some paper from a papermaker who informed it that he declined to ship the order unless for cash or by ex. press C. O. D. On telegraphing for an explanation it received the answer that the letter it had received was intended for another publisher. The World closes with the enquiry-

"Who is it in Chatham, we wonder, who has "run his face" for paper until neatly done. his check is no longer accepted as a sub stitute for cash ?"

This is all none of the public's business, but the World seems to be very dull. It published the fact that it took over the sub-cription list of its predecessor, the Star, and it has been, we presume, col lecting mone on said list. When the late editor the Star ran away from Chatham he left no one to pay the paper bills and it is fair to assume that the paper-maker did not know that the World had so arranged matters as to secure to the Star's business afforded, while it could repudiate its unpaid debts. While the Star's arrea s on paper account, it ought not to go back entirely on so bri liant a who the paper maker referred to.

Long Island-Blonde and many other celebrated There is not a better bred horse in the country than the Abda lah Messenger; he traces back to two of the best bloods in existence, viz: Abdallah and Messenger. While we do not wish to question the qualities of other good horses, we are correct in aaying that the blod of Abdallah Messenger to gether with his fine size, symmetrical formation and great muscular power, stamp him at once as one on the south side of the C. B. JOHN O'RONAGHAN, ner of Abdallah Messenger, Somerset Lot 21, HIGHFIELD, April 9th, 1883. JOHN O'RONAGHAN, ESQ. DEAR SIR .- As I thought you would like to hear how Abdallah Messenger stock is turning out, I might say I parchased one from George Cudmore Esq., which is a credit to Abdallah and his owner. He is rising four years old and can trot a mile inside of three minutes, has never been trained, and it he is properl. handled he will make one of the fastest horses ever raised on P. E. Island. His weight is about ten hundred pounds; color, dark brown. There are several other colts around here sired by Abdaliah Messenger which give every prospect of fast trotting and I consider Abdallah

Messenger stock the best for speed on P. E. Island. GEORGE ESTERY,
