

Miramichi and the North

Harper's Magazine for March has reached our table from Messrs. T. O'Brien & Co., Bookellers, St. John.

"Veritas"—We must have your name (in confidence) before publishing your communication. It is our rule.

PRIZE DRAWING.—We are requested to state that the $500 prize drawing at Tracadie, is postponed until Thursday, 15th March next.

ITS CERTAINTY.—To cure Dyspepsia and Biliousness is not speculation, but is proved with letters from persons of high respectability coming in. ZEPEDA is an absolute cure. Sold by J. D. B. F. Mackenzie, Chatham, N. B.

A LECTURE.—The lecture by Geo. D. Griffin, Esq., of Hamilton, Ont., on the Wonderful Father of Canada, delivered in St. Andrew's S. S. Hall on Tuesday evening was one of those efforts which have a lasting effect on those who go to hear them—the effect of making them afraid of going to other lectures lest they may be "sold again."

SAD.—The sad news was received yesterday of the sudden death of Walden, Mass., of Mrs. H. A. Case, daughter of Mr. James Murray, of Newcastle, which will be deeply regretted by many friends here and elsewhere. On the arrival of the remains, which are expected this week, the funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. Murray.—Advocate.

THEATRE.—St. John is to have a new theatre, Mr. Lanegan, the able and well known manager, being at the head of the enterprise. He has secured a site between the warehouses of Messrs. Stewart & White and the Masonic Building, with entrance from Charlotte and Germain streets, the main front being towards Charlotte street. The building will be 100x75 feet, and will seat about 1,000 people.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Members of Northumberland Division, S. of T. Chatham, are to hold their annual musical and literary entertainment to-morrow night. The Rink Band is to be among the attractions of the occasion and the whole programme will probably be one of the most attractive ever presented under the auspices of the Division. Visitors from other Lodges are expected to participate in the evening's exercises.

"OBSERVE".—While your letter reflects what we believe is the best public sentiment in reference to the publication in question, we do not think it would be right to publish it—first because you do not comply with our rule in reference to the identity of our correspondents and, next, because your criticisms and reflections would be misconstrued and, perhaps, delay what you and others who, rightly think as you do, desire.

SEEDS.—Good vegetables and beautiful flowers cannot be grown from inferior seeds. If our readers would procure the best, they should purchase only those grown and put up by old established and reliable parties. D.M. Ferry & Co., Windsor, Ont., and Detroit, Mich., whose advertisement appears in our columns, have been in the seed business for 27 years, and we believe are as well and as favorably known as any house in their business in the Dominion or the United States. Their trade extends to every hamlet in the country, and they pride themselves in sending out only the very best of all varieties of Seeds. We would advise all purchasers to procure their catalogue before buying.

"A BUSINESSMAN" sends us the following.—Seeing so many reports from different sections of the country of what is doing in the lumber woods this winter, I suppose that what is doing on Tracadie may not be uninteresting to your readers.—J. A. McDonald is conducting an operation for one of our best concerns. He has seven camps, twenty pairs of horses and 135 men. If the season keeps favorable I expect he will get 6,000,000 feet and 1,000 tons pine timber. Andrew McLean has in eight pairs of horses and 50 men and will get 2,000,000 feet. Wm. Ferguson has in two parties with four horses, four oxen and 20 men, and with some other small parties will get 1,000,000 feet. C. Turner has in four horses and 18 men and will get about 500,000. Snow is about three feet deep now.

Carnival.—The programme of the fancy dress masquerade to be held at the Chatham Skating Rink to night is a very attractive one, embracing some novel and interesting features, such as the races, fireworks, the voting by ballot for prize characters, etc. The Rink Band will furnish music, as usual, the dressing rooms will be comfortably warmed and an efficient committee on hand to see that everything necessary is done for the comfort and entertainment of patrons. We understand that the Carnival will not close until about half past ten.

A Card from Mr. Underhill.—Blackville 15th Feb. 1883.

To the Miramichi Advance:—A report being in circulation that my brother, A. Underhill, was deeply indebted in a pecuniary sense to his employer, James Robinson, Esq., and that the latter had lost considerable money by his sudden disappearance, in justice to my brother and his friends I beg to say that such statements are entirely untrue. Mr. Robinson's account books have been carefully examined by W. A. Park, Esq., who will substantiate the truth of my statement, and the fact is that Mr. Robinson has not lost one cent by my brother and instead of being indebted to Mr. Robinson it appears that after entering every charge there is a small balance to the credit of my brother's account. I regret that such reports have been circulated and I now take the earliest opportunity of giving them a public unqualified denial.

Your obedient servant,
B. N. T. UNDERHILL.

The Auditor Replies to Mr. Johnston.—Newcastle 17th Feb. 1883.

DEAR SIR.—In this week's ADVANCE I notice a communication from Tabusintac, signed John Johnston, in which he states that he made application to me last year about the incorrectness of his account and that I was dumb. Mr. Johnston did no such thing and I tell him that when he states he did so, he tells what is a deliberate falsehood. I never addressed Mr. Johnston in my life, and would like him to tell me the time and place when he spoke to me about his account. No man ever applied to me about his accounts but always received all the information it was possible for me to give, and if Mr. Johnston feels himself aggrieved by the action of the committee or by my report, if he applies to me I will be only too happy to set him straight and, at the same time, convince him that his accounts are just as liable to be wrong as those of anyone else. I will answer no more communications in the public press, &c.

E. P. WILSON, Auditor.

Highland Society Cup.—Our readers had their first contest for the handsome silver challenge cup offered by the "Highland Society of New Brunswick at Miramichi" for annual competition. The match was six rinks a side from the two local clubs—Chatham and Newcastle—the aggregate of the scores being Chatham 112, Newcastle 82, a majority of thirty points for the senior club. Three Rinks from each club played on the opposing club's rink—virgin ice being provided at Chatham, while that at Newcastle had been played upon considerably by the home club. There was close work at Newcastle, where the younger club came out six points ahead on the day's play, while at Chatham the senior club's rinks won by thirty-six points. The scores by rinks were as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Club Name and Score. Includes Chatham and Newcastle scores for various rinks.

Chatham. Newcastle. Arthur Johnston, J. McAllister, Alex. Brown, J. R. Lawlor, Geo. W. Davidson, R. McKenz, skip—13. R. McKenz, skip—10.

A. J. Legg, H. Parker, Geo. Tait, R. B. Ritchie, Thos. Dick, skip—16. G. L. Brittain, skip—16. M. Hocken, H. B. Boulton, A. H. Johnson, W. B. Nicholson, D. Chasman, H. R. Aronby, D. G. Smith, skip—20. R. C. Anslow, skip—21.

J. Y. Merrett, W. C. Anslow, A. Brown, W. C. Anslow, Wm. Johnston, C. S. Bagnay, W. Wilson, skip—23. W. B. Buck, skip—7.

A. Harris, J. T. Collier, John McDonald, W. P. Harriman, G. I. Wilson, T. J. Fair, H. E. Deason, skip—22. R. Lee Street, skip—9.

H. P. Marvis, T. J. McNeil, J. M. Johnson, W. A. Cameron, J. Johnston, skip—17. W. A. Park, skip—11.

The Advocate intimates that the result at Newcastle was a surprise to the Chatham skippers, which is hardly fair to the Newcastle men, who were not, by any means, underrated by their Chatham opponents. Considering the skill of the Newcastle players and their knowledge of the "tricks" of the old ice which they played—of course, their opponents did not know—the result could not be a matter of surprise. The Newcastle curlers are far too modest—that is, if the Advocate speaks their real sentiments.

A very handsome silver Rink Medal has been presented for competition to the Chatham Curling Club. The name of the donor is not known to the members, the Secretary stating that he was not yet at liberty to make the disclosure. A committee has been appointed to make rules of play for the new prize.

In the final heat for the Hutchison medal at Chatham, yesterday, Skip Brittain's Rink was successful by a splendid score. Brittain "takes the cake" this year for this trophy.

The Archbishop's Visit.—In our last we gave quite a full report of the details of Tuesday, 13th inst., in connection with the reception of Archbishop O'Brien, on the occasion of his first visit to Chatham, as Metropolitan of the R. C. ecclesiastical Province of Halifax. The good Bishop and people of Chatham omitted nothing which could be done at the season to give His Grace a cordial and loyal welcome; and the Archbishop, on his part, captivated all who had the honor to make his acquaintance.

We supplement last week's report by describing what took place on the second day of his visit.

Wednesday, 14th, being in Ember Week, there was no table festivity—no invited guests, but only the ordinary family dinner usual on fasting days, served at 1 o'clock p. m. in the refectory of the Bishop's residence.

The Archbishop had celebrated his mass at 8 o'clock in the chapel of the Hotel-Dieu, and afterwards assisted in the pro cathedra, on his throne, at the solemn Mass of thanksgiving chanted by the Bishop and Clergy of Chatham, on the occasion of the anniversary of the fire which had destroyed their buildings in 1878, the first anniversary passed in the "residence" portion of the re-built edifice.

At 2.30 p. m. the reception took place at the Hotel-Dieu. His Grace and Secretary, accompanied by the Bishop and clergy of Chatham, and by Dr. J. S. Benson, visiting physician of the Hotel-Dieu, were received at the entrance to the hospital by the Rev. Mother Sirois and her community of Sisters, and conducted through the various departments of that institution, until at length they entered the large apartment adjoining the music-room, fitted up and decorated for the occasion, as the reception hall.

On entering this hall the pupil-musicians played a grand march of welcome, and the distinguished visitors took the seats prepared for them in front of the scholars, who were ranged on both sides of the hall in rows, the younger pupils in front, the larger girls behind them, to the number of upwards of one hundred. The bright, sparkling eyes and intelligent faces of this band of pupils, of various ages and grades, and the tasteful festooning of the apartment formed a beautiful tableau vivant and the legend in large letters, on an arch of evergreen, "Benedictus qui Venit in nomine Domini."—"Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord"—expressed the motive of the veneration with which the Archbishop, as the Minister of Christ our Lord, was received by them.

When all were seated and the music had ceased, one of the little pupils advanced to the centre and read, in a clear, correct voice, but with a slight precipitation, the following address:—

To His Grace the Most Reverend Cardinal O'Brien, D. D., Archbishop of Halifax, We welcome you to our country, and we welcome you to our city. We welcome you to our school, and we welcome you to our home. We welcome you to our church, and we welcome you to our God. We welcome you to our land, and we welcome you to our King. We welcome you to our people, and we welcome you to our God. We welcome you to our country, and we welcome you to our God.

pital, which receives no aid from Government. 2400 sick patients have been visited for a longer or shorter period of their illness, and in the most extensive cases, the regular visiting physicians being doctors John and Joseph Benson.

Some of those patients have paid the charges for board and nursing, while others have been paid the moderate fees asked from those who can pay. Thus the work of the good Samaritan has been lovingly and faithfully done in the Hotel Dieu of Chatham.

All the work of female education has been assiduously prosecuted, the daily average attendance of pupils being 100; the total number of scholars who have passed through the classes since the Sisters assumed charge of our Academy in 1871 being about 1000 day scholars and 60 boarding pupils. Such, in brief, is the history of our Institute.

We know Your Grace approves of the study of Hebrew in schools and while we read with interest the deeds of past generations, we must not overlook the heroic lives and deeds of God's faithful servants in our own time—deeds done not through vain glory, but through humble obedience to the Gospel of Christ, and in the name of His faithful Minister and come officially in this name that we tell to you, as children to a father, the nature of the work done in this house, in order to say blessing upon it and those engaged in doing it.

This day on which we have been so greatly honored by the visit of the Archbishop of our Ecclesiastical Province, will be a red-lettered day in the annals of our Institute, and for us, the pupils now present, a day of happiest recollection. We humbly pray the dear, lovely child Jesus to bless Your Grace and we commend you and all your flock to the care of His Immaculate Mother, in whose praises you have written your sweet little book "Mater Admirabilis."

St. Michael's Academy directed by the sons of the Hotel Dieu, St. Joseph, Chatham, N. B., Feby 14th, 1883.

This was followed by several other interesting and appropriate pieces—dialogues and music—until the programme was completed, when the Archbishop arose and addressed the pupils in a most fitting and original style, thanking and congratulating them, and their good teachers, and also congratulating the people of Chatham on their having such an important institution in their midst, as the Hotel Dieu of St. Joseph.

His Grace passed around the rows of pupils enquiring the name and saying a kind word to each and then, after giving them a holiday, and imparting to all his pontifical benediction, he took leave of the Rev. Mother and Sisters and withdrew.

At 8 o'clock in the evening a grand Te Deum, with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, at which both the Archbishop and the Bishop of Chatham assisted, was chanted by the clergy in the Pro Cathedral. After this, while waiting for the hour of the train, a very agreeable time was passed in social chat, music and singing in the Bishop's parlour until finally the venerated Archbishop and his excellent secretary, accompanied by the Bishop and clergy, drove out to the Railway Station to take the train for St. John.

But one Opinion prevails throughout the world, and so strongly in favor of Dr. Van Buren's Pain-Killer, that no article ever attained so wide spread popularity.

King Theobald's baby is rocked to sleep in a mango-wood cradle, cases inside and out with plates of gold, set with rubies, emeralds, sapphires and diamonds, worth nearly a million dollars, but it takes just as much paragonic to put it to sleep as if it were rocked in a section of a four barrel.

REBBERY.—Not only the most exquisite thing for the teeth and breath extant, but "TEABERRY" is a beautiful toilet ornament and finish to the toilet. 5 cent samples. Sold by J. D. B. F. Mackenzie, Chatham, N. B.

Otto S. Weeks, late Attorney-General of Nova Scotia, has been before the Halifax Police Court charged with assaulting his maid servant and shooting his wife. A postponement of the hearing was secured, Mrs. Weeks having made affidavit that the shooting was accidental, and then the maid could not be found. Weeks is a pretty hard character—for an ex-Attorney-General.

John Hays, Credit P. O., says: "His shoulder was so lame for nine months, he could not raise his hand to his head, but by the use of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil the pain and lameness disappeared, and although three months have elapsed, he has not had an attack of it since."

The following is copied from an old Nashville paper:—"Mr. W. S. Williams, of Illinois, announces that his wife, Ann Eliza, having his hand and board without cause, he will not be responsible for any debts she may contract."

"Ann Eliza, Ann Eliza, since I loved, but now despise her, and as I no longer prize her, I will go and advertise her, for although I love her, I won't pay for what she buys her."

Never forget that at your Druggist's you can always obtain Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure. It is the only known remedy that speedily relieves all Kidney Diseases, and if persisted in will effect a permanent cure. Sold by J. D. B. F. Mackenzie, Chatham, N. B.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Judge Jamieson's court to-day was not an encouraging place for young people contemplating matrimony to visit. There were forty-one divorce cases on trial. It was the largest day's work in putting asunder those whom God had joined together that was ever held before any Judge in Cook County. Eight cases were continued, and in thirty-three the divorce actually refused. So much marital misery was never before concentrated in so small a room, yet there was but one woman who shed a tear, and she was much the prettiest and most interesting of the crowd.

Mr. Parquet Boileau, Ottawa, says: "I was radically cured of piles, from which I had been suffering for over two months, by the use of Thomas' Electric Oil. I used it both internally and externally, taking it in small doses before meals and on retiring to bed. In one week I was cured, and have had no trouble since. I believe it saved my life."

traveller always met with a warm and hospitable welcome to his board and fire-side. His funeral took place on Sunday afternoon last from the residence of Mr. Francis J. Gatain and was very largely attended. The Rev. Mr. Street officiated. The pall-bearers were John Sivevright, Esq., John Jas. Vibert, Agent of Messrs. Cass, Robin & Co. at Caraque, P. J. Burns, A. S. Sutherland, Jacob White and John J. Harrington. He leaves a young widow and family of young children to mourn their irreparable loss. He was only 36 years of age.

The Floods.—The scenes that were recently witnessed in the flooded valleys of the Rhine and the Danube are now repeated along the Ohio River. Homeless people are in danger of starvation, relief committees are trying hard to supply the wants of the sufferers, and the work of the devastating flood is seen through the whole length of the fair river valley from Pittsburg to Cairo. Yesterday's rain increased the danger and the suffering. The loss through the destruction of property and the interruption of business is great. When it is considered how vast the population of the great river, valleys it is how enormous the wealth that is collected in them, it appears astonishing that little or nothing is done to preserve them from devastating floods. This winter we have seen three of the greatest rivers in the world spreading death and destruction among the farms, villages, and opulent cities strung along their banks, to say nothing of the floods in the smaller tributary streams, which like the greater rivers, attract population to their prolific and picturesque valleys. There are many other great rivers equally liable to sudden and destructive floods, and some in which such floods are now unknown may suffer from them in the future if the wanton destruction of forests about their headwaters is allowed to go on.

General Notes and News.—The Middle States have had as terrible a baptism as that undergone by them last year. One freshet on the Cayahoga River in Ohio has been rendered dreadful as this Phlegethon by the bursting of an oil tank and the spreading of a lake of fire over that of water.

Referring to the claims of New Brunswick upon the Dominion Government the St. John Freeman says,—"Sir S. L. Tilley knows as much about the Eastern Extension claim of this Province, and the claim for the support of short time prisoners as Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Landry and Mr. McLeod know, and if he pressed those claims earnestly there would not be the slightest necessity for sending delegates so often to Ottawa to renew or press those claims. If the delegates would only tell honestly how much assistance he ever gives them, the public, or those of them who still have faith in the gallant knight, would be not a little surprised."

Halifax, Feb. 18.—One of those serious accidents with which the lives of coal miners are always threatened, happened in an old slope three miles from Macan, Cumberland Co., yesterday, and resulted in the death of three of the workmen. It appears that eight men were descending the slope to begin their day's labor when a rush of "black damp" suddenly prostrated them all. They had got in about eight hundred feet from the opening when those in the rear observed their companions ahead falling as though shot. Knowing too well the cause, those still standing, turned to flee to the open air, but the next moment they too fell from the overpowering effects of the poisonous gases. All but one became insensible, Alexander Dore, and he, still conscious but fast losing his senses, managed to crawl to the opening and warn those about.

MR. T. G. MARQUIS IN CANTATA.—A Toronto exchange says,—"Mr. F. C. Heath, organist of the First Congregational Church, and musical director of Queen's College Glee Club, has composed an Easter Cantata which he proposes to have produced in Convocation Hall some evening in Easter week. The words of the chorales and solos were written by Mr. T. G. Marquis, poet laureate of the University, and are considered by those who have seen them to be well worthy of the author of "Nausicaa." No definite idea can be formed with regard to the merit of the music until after its production, but those who have had the pleasure of hearing portions of the airs, consider them very beautiful, particularly some of the solos and chorales. The choruses will be rendered effectively by the help of several city ladies, some of whom will take solos. The male soloists will be Messrs. T. Cumberland and J. Sherlock.

MARRIED.—By Rev. D. Chapman, at the residence of the bride's father, on Tuesday, 20th inst., Alfred H. Patten, of Chatham, to Ellen J. Haviland, of Lower Newcastle.

DIED.—At Chatham, on the 17th inst., ofroup, George Stafford, infant son of Samuel and Jane Craig, aged 6 months and 15 days.

GENEVA AWARD.—Special and personal attention given to the preparation and trial of cases in the Court of Appeals in Washington, D. C. An extended experience in the former Court, and unusual facilities for managing these cases, enables us to render special service to claimants. Time for collecting cases expires Jan. 1st, 1883. The Court has jurisdiction of claims for vessels and cargoes destroyed by any Confederate Cruisers or blockading vessels during the War Premium paid from April 1861, to November 1865. Full particulars given on application to the undersigned.
